You Can Be Free from Pain

FOR EARLY SPRING WEAR

Newest Blouses Are Dainty and Appeal to All Women.

Delicate Pastel Shades Run Rival to Bizarre; Many Designs to Choose From.

Refreshingly dainty are the newest blouses for early spring wear to accompany the street suit. Delicate pastel shades run rival to bizarre Persian chiffon, and among materials one may allow her fancy to wander from the sheer georgette and chiffon to the more substantial, though none the less lovely, crepe meteor. The soft silk and accordion-plaited skirts of this season form the better half of a smart costume when allied with a pretty blouse.

A blouse of simple charm was recently seen fashioned of Persian chif-fon in myriad colors—soft blues blending with sea green and then shot through with brilliant yellow. This clever blouse wisely chose a kimono model with short sleeves, and then, as a charming afterthought, added a handkerchief cuff reaching nearly to the wrist.

The neck was outlined with a narrow piping of satin and tiny ribbons tied the sleeves. But the bottom was perhaps the most interesting feature, for it was finished with a casing and had a ribbon drawn through, and ended in a fetching bow at the waist.
Of course this lovely blouse is worn over a skirt and goes equally as well with a suit or separately with a silk skirt to form an attractive afternoon frock.

An overblouse to be smart must be simple and have good lines, that is tractive goldenrod shade promises to be a leading model for spring. This Late Styles Are "Egyptian"

Hats Are to Adopt New Form Named After the Sphinx of the Desert.

The latest Paris touch, "Egyptian."
A single word but of what significance.
Hats are to adopt a new form named after the sphinx of the desert, which translated technically means a toque effect with earflaps. A new blue of exceeding richness is about to appear based on the blue of the little statuettes found in the sarcophagi in the pyramids. It will be appropriately known as Egyptian blue.

Amulets will be worn, not of the orthodox variety, but rather little medallions for the front of hats and gowns, in order to modernize the charms worn on their foreheads by the Egyptian women.

The lotus and the scarab will be brought out from the dust of the tomb to adorn the headwear of the women of 1920. Egyptian forms and designs having been accepted, the prevailing colors will be the rich reds, blues and blacks that are found on the papyrus manuscripts.

Handbags will depart from their traditional lines for a season and will emulate Egyptian ideas in painted silks, beaded designs and galleth frames adorned with separate motifs.

A Chemise Blouse.

A new blouse is kimono-sleeved and cut as loosely as a chemise. The side seams are slashed up from hip to waist line and each corner of the lower edge is extended in a little tab. These

CREATION FOR YOUNG WOMAN

A gown of pearl gray silk poplin; the material is just the thing for an outfit of this type. Scalloped fringe and three-tiered skirt are unusual.
The picturesque bodice, the admirable touch of old lace, and a floral cluster add to its loveliness and quaintness.

sleeve, as all fashionable blouses do this season, but cleverly trims itself with jade green wool embroidery.
It stitches the bottom and sleeve ends and then traces a few sprigs of flowers across the front. Around the waist there is a girdle made of the green wool braided together and tasseled at the ends.

Fetching Tea Frock.

Tea frocks of embroidery batiste and flounces of flit set off net and apron tunics of batiste are worn at southern resorts. A frock of white challis having a large emerald green polka dot design and emerald green satin ribbon was run through white silk fagoting in three tiers of the skirt. It finished the short sleeves and surplice lines of the waist. A wide sash girdle of green ended in one large loop. Two long raveled ends fell from the left hip.

Veil Worn as Mask.

The chapeau of the season is unquestionably the black tricorne, close fitting when worn with the morning tailleur, large and flat and picturesque for afternoon. Sometimes it is bordered with narrow gold and silver fringe, and always veiled in Chantilly or tulle, embroidered with large designs in contrasting color. With closefitting toques the veil is often worn as a mask, concealing chin and mouth, but revealing the eyes.

Sweaters for Spring.

New sweaters for spring are interesting coatlike models. They are of silk, and have pockets, belts and cellars. Sleeves are long, and many are flared at the waist.

JERSEY SILK FOR BLOUSES

Slip-Over Garment, With Peplum, Still Smartest Vogue; Fabric Is Desirable.

Jersey cloth in silk, in one of the weaves that go by various names, is used increasingly for blouses. In spite of everything that has been predicted, the slip-over blouse, with a peplum, is still the smartest vogue. To be sure, some of the very smart new blouses reach only to the waistline, but the peplum is the rule. And it is in these blouses that jersey in silk weaves is especially desirable. For it has body enough and at the same time suppleness enough to hang well around the hips. It is often elaborately embroidered, sometimes heavily braided in soutache, sometimes worked in machine stitchery with colored wool in a way that adds distinction to many of the new blouses.

Another Royal Suggestion PIES and PASTRIES From the NEW ROYAL COOK BOOK

CHEER UP! There is no further reason for worrying about table variety. The new Royal Cook Book gives new suggestions for every meal every day.
The book is so full of surprises there will never be another dull meal in the home. Here are a few suggestions from the new Royal Cook Book.

Plain Pastry

This recipe is for one large pie with top and bottom crust:

2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
1/2 cup shortening
cold water

Sift together flour, salt and baking powder; add shortening and rub in very lightly with tips of fingers (the less it is handled the better the paste will be). Add cold water very slowly, enough to hold dough together (do not work or knead dough). Divide in halves; roll out one part thin on floured board and use for bottom crust. After pie is filled roll out other part for top.

Rich Pastry

2 cups pastry flour
1/2 teaspoon Royal Baking Powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup shortening
cold water

Sift flour, baking powder and salt; add one-half shortening and rub in lightly with fingers; add water slowly until of right consistency to roll out. Divide in halves; roll out one half thin; put on in small pieces half remaining shortening; fold upper and lower edges in to center; fold sides in to center, fold sides to center again; roll out thin and put on pie plate. Repeat with other half for top crust.

Apple Pie

1/2 teaspoon Royal Baking Powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup shortening
4 apples, or 1 quart sliced apples 2 tablespoons sugar 1 teaspoon milk

Sift flour, baking powder and salt; add shortening and rub in very lightly; add just enough cold water to hold dough together. Roll half out on floured board, line bottom of pie plate; fill in apples, which have been washed, pared and cut into thin slices; sprinkle with sugar; flavor with cinnamon or nutmeg; wet edges of crust with cold water; roll out remainder of pastry; cover pie, pressing edges tightly together and bake in moderate oven 30 minutes.

Nerves All Unstrung

"But Doan's Made Life Again Worth Living," Says Mrs. Harris

"I was in excellent health until my kidneys weakened," says Mrs. N. A.
Harris, 1009 Indiana St., Neodesha, Kansas. "The kidney secretions burned like fire and passed so often I couldn't get a moment's rest. My back ached and for days at a time I was confined to bed, fairly tortured with the sharp pains. I couldn't sleep without fairly screaming with misery."

I lost strength and weight and was so weak I became a nervous wreck. Headaches and dizziness added to my distress. My sight blurred; limbs, hands and face were swollen and puffy sacs came under my eyes. I lost hope of being well again.

Finally a neighbor brought me a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, and later I got several boxes. My troubles began to lessen and soon I could sleep all night and wake up refreshed and happy and life was again worth living. I am now a strong, healthy woman and owe my health and happiness to Doan's.

HEADACHE Often Caused by Acid-Stomach

Yes, indeed, more often than you think.
Because ACID-STOMACH, starting with indigestion, heartburn, belching, food-repeating, bloating and gas, if not checked, will eventually affect every vital organ of the body.
Severe, blinding, splitting headaches are, therefore, of frequent occurrence as a result of this upset condition.

Take EATONIC. It quickly banishes acid-stomach with its sour bloating, pain and gas.
It aids digestion—helps the stomach get full strength from every mouthful of food you eat. Millions of people are miserable, weak, sick and ailing because of ACID-STOMACH. Poisons, created by undigested food charged with acid, are absorbed into the blood and distributed throughout the entire system. This often causes rheumatism, biliousness, cirrhosis of the liver, heart trouble, ulcers and even cancer of the stomach. It robs its victims of their health, undermines the strength of the most vigorous.

If you want to get back your physical and mental strength—be full of vim and vigor—enjoy life and be happy, you must get rid of your acid-stomach.

In EATONIC you will find the very help you need and it's guaranteed. So get a big 30c box from your druggist today. If it fails to please you, return it and he will refund your money.
