MAY BE END OF PARSCOUTA PROCEEDING

The ejectment suit brought by the trustees of the Greek Catholic church of Whiting against their pastor, Rev. John Parscouta, which is now pending before Theodore Liabie, justice of the peace at Griffith, took a new angle this morning when Vasilis Soraka, one of the trustees at Whiting received a telegram from Bishop S. S. Ortinski of Philadelphia, informing him that a new priest for the congregation was on his way, to replace the present pastor, Rev. John Parscouta.

While in Whiting recently Bishop Ortinski expressed his determination to LeGrand T. Meyer, attorney for the trustees, of replacing Father Parscouta, but that he would not do so until he went back to Philadelphia, the seat of his see, from where all his official papers must be issued from and where the seal is located.

The official message will be borne to Father Parscouta by the new priest.

NEW LODGE TO START

Supreme Organized H. S. Whited, and Deputy Organizer G. H. Shoop of the Order of Owls, is in the city today organizing a brotherhood here. Already the "nest" as they call it, has seven members and the work of interesting new members is going on unceasingly.

Messrs. Whited and Shoop will remain in the city for several days and it is expected that very soon a meeting will be called at which the officers of the new lodge will be elected and the work of organization will take place.

AT TOWLE'S SUNDAY, APRIL 19.

"SAPHO."

A big revival of "Sapho" will take place at the Towle opera house, Sunday, April 19, with Helene Carrai as the bright, particular star. It is consistent, therefore, to recall the excitement following Olga Netherole's presentation of the piece at Wallack's theater a few years ago. Her play was written by Clyde Fitch from the novel by Alphonse Daudet, and was given its first performance at Wallack's in New York, Feb. 16, 1906. There followed a tremendous agitation on the part of the press and reformists. Finally, as the debate grew hotter and hotter, the theater was closed by the police March 5, Miss Netherole engaged A. H. Hummel to defend the play from every possible angle, including the now famous trip of Sapho up the winding stairs, decided it did not offend public decency.

NEW CASES FILED.

FEDERAL COURT ON MONDAY.

plaintiff, and Moses, Rosenthal and Kennedy of Chicago, appearing as attorneys for the defendant. This is a personal injury case, the plaintiff suing for $20,000 damages, the company being incorporated under the laws of Illinois.

The third case is that of the United States of America for the Champion Iron company, a corporation, vs. the Title Guarantee and Surety company of Scranton, Pa., a suit for $3,500 on the bond furnished by the surety company, for Winchester and Cutler, the contractors who built the federal building in Hammond. The amount in question is a balance which the Champion Iron company claims to be due it for the iron furnished the contractors.

Moses, Rosenthal and Kennedy of Chicago, appear as attorneys for the plaintiffs in the case, and W. J. Whinery of this city, as attorney for the defendant. The defendant has called for a jury trial in this case.

The fourth and last case is that of C. A. Nell of Illinois vs. George W. Sims of Indiana, Archibald Cattell of Chicago, appearing as attorney for the plaintiff, and Hammond, Stuart and Sims of Lafayette, as attorneys for the defendant. Nell is asking Sims for an accounting in various transactions throughout their ten years of partnership in the wood business.

It is expected that a large number of Lake county attorneys will be present at the opening of court next Monday. A number of attorneys have signified their intention of making application for admission in the United States circuit court, which applications will be considered by the judge and if granted this also admits them to practice in the United States district court as well.

In the minds of local attorneys a question has arisen as to the proper time of convening the court, the act establishing the court, setting the third Tuesday of April. Judge Anderson, however, in a communication to Deputy U. S. District Clerk Charles Surges, has set next Tuesday for the opening day. Mr. Surges has sent out his information to attorneys and petitioners accordingly.

GOOD SUNDAY IS PROMISED FOR THE HATS

A fair Easter Sunday is promised for Hammond by the government weather forecaster, who avers the temperature will be moderate, with the wind from the west.

Heavy rains were general through the south and parts of the west yesterday, Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas and Illinois receiving the heaviest precipitation, but no cold weather was recorded anywhere.

In Hammond the day was fine. The minimum temperature was 27 degrees in the morning, the bulb rising to 52 degrees by 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The mean temperature was 44 and the normal 46 degrees.

Showers may come today, according to the forecast, but a shifting wind may bring sunshine and warmth instead.

HOW IS YOUR STOMACH?

Easy Way to Strengthen It and Get Well.

A good digestive system, one that acts so that you do not know that you have a stomach, is God's birthright to every man to every woman.

If digestion is weak, if food turns into gas, if you suffer after eating, if you are sleepless, nervous and out of sorts—then the stomach is diseased and prompt action should be taken.

W. A. Ennis, a well-known builder in Syracuse, tells an easy way to strengthen the stomach and get well when he writes: "Mi-o-na Stomach Tablets have done more for me in one week than the doctors the two years I was under their care. Thanks to Mi-o-na, I can work once more, the first time in over a year."

It is an easy thing to strengthen the stomach and cure indigestion by using Mi-o-na. Get a 50-cent box from Summers' pharmacy with a guarantee to refund the money unless the remedy does all that is claimed for it.

Is it tan oxfords, ladies and gentlemen, that you want? If so call at Jacob Scholer & Son's shoe store, 93 State street.—adv4t.

ABOUT ADVERTISING—No. 5.

THE DOLLAR THAT CAN'T BE SPENT.

(By HERBERT KAUFMAN.)

Every dollar spent in advertising is not only a seed dollar which grows a profit for the merchant, but is actually retained by him even after he has paid it to the publisher.

Advertising creates a good will worth the cost of publicity. It actually costs nothing. While it uses funds it does not use them up. It helps the founder of a business to grow rich and at the same time keep his business from not dying when he does.

It eliminates the personal equation. It perpetuates confidence in the store and makes it possible for a merchant to withdraw from business without having the profits of the business withdrawn from him. It changes a name to an institution—an institution which will survive after the death of its builder.

It is really an insurance policy which costs nothing—pays a premium each year instead of calling for one and renders it possible to change the entire personnel of a business without disturbing its prosperity.

Advertising renders the business stronger than the man—dependent of his presence. It perpetuates systems of merchandising, the track of which is left for others to follow.

A business which is not advertised must rely upon the personality of its proprietor, and personality in business is a decreasing factor.

The public does not want to know the man who owns the store—it isn't interested in him but in his goods. When an unadvertised business is sold it is only worth as much as its stock of goods and fixtures.

There is no good will to be paid for—it does not exist—it has not been created. The name over the door means nothing except to the limited stream of people from the immediate neighborhood, any of whom could tell you more about some store ten miles away which has regularly delivered its shop news to their homes.

It is as shortsighted for a man to build a business with dies with his death or ceases with his inaction as it is
