

The Lake County Times

INCLUDING THE SOUTH CHICAGO TIMES EDITION, THE GARY EVENING TIMES EDITION, AND THE COUNTRY EDITION, EVENING NEWS-PAPERS PUBLISHED BY THE LAKE COUNTY PRINTING AND PUBLISHING COMPANY.

"Entered as second class matter June 28, 1906, at the postoffice at Hammond, Indiana, under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879."

MAIN OFFICE—HAMMOND, IND.
SOUTH CHICAGO OFFICE—6040 COMMERCIAL AVE.
GARY OFFICE—IN GARY HOTEL, BROADWAY.

TELEPHONES—
EAST CHICAGO, 111. INDIANA HARBOR, 111.
HAMMOND, 111—112. WHITING, 111.
GARY, 157. SOUTH CHICAGO, 288.

YEARLY ..... $3.00
HALF YEARLY ..... $1.50
SINGLE COPIES ..... ONE CENT

LARGER PAID UP CIRCULATION THAN ANY OTHER NEWS-PAPER IN THE CALUMET REGION.

CIRCULATION YESTERDAY 10,178

CIRCULATION BOOKS OPEN TO THE PUBLIC FOR INSPECTION AT ALL TIMES.

TO SUBSCRIBERS—Readers of THE TIMES are requested to favor the management by reporting any irregularities in delivering. Communicate with the Circulation Department.

COMMUNICATIONS.
THE TIMES will print all communications on subjects of general interest to the people, when such communications are signed by the writer, but will reject all communications not signed, no matter what their merits. This precaution is taken to avoid misrepresentation.

THE TIMES is published in the best interest of the people, and its utterances always intended to promote the general welfare of the public at large.

Subscribers for THE LAKE COUNTY TIMES will pay carrier boys only on presentation of THE LAKE COUNTY TIMES' regular subscription bills, which are made out at the office monthly, and our rate is 25 cents per month or $3.00 per year.

HEMENWAY AND CRUMPACKER FOR LABOR.

FOUR PAGES OF THE JULY Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen's Magazine, published by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Fire and Enginemen, are devoted to the congratulation of the brotherhood over the passage of the ash pan bill which was introduced by Senator Hemenway of Indiana and was supported by Representatives Watson and Crumpacker.

The magazine states: "It is doubtful that a bill in the interest of labor has been more expeditiously enacted in the United States congress or more strenuously opposed by employing interests than has the ash pan bill, which on May 30 became a law, being signed by the president on that date.

"Representatives of the railroads contended against the utility and practicability of an automatic self-dumping ash pan, claiming that no ash pans have yet been devised which could be dumped or cleaned without the necessary men going under the locomotives.

"The B. of L. E. convention being in session the days that the fate of the ash pan bill hung in the balance at Washington, Grand Master Hannah requested that body to exert its influence in behalf of its enactment, and in compliance with said request each delegate to the convention sent a message to his congressman and both senators, while the bill was in the house and one to each senator after the bill reached the senate, making a total of about three thousand messages and representing an aggregate expenditure on the part of that organization in support of the measure of about $1,500."

Other articles in the Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen's Magazine told of the great pressure that was brought to bear by the railroads to prevent the passage of the ash pan bill, but Hemenway, Watson and Crumpacker stuck to their guns and voted for the bill.

The railway men of Lake county doubtless appreciate the loyalty of the three men who stood by them and voted for the passage of this bill. It is plain that only base ingratitude would, in the face of what their own magazine has to say, permit them to vote against these men.

It behooves the railroad men of Lake county to stand by their friends. If Ed Simon is elected to the legislature he will vote to send a man yet unknown, who may or may not be friendly to labor, to the United States senate. A vote for E. W. Wickey means the retention of Senator Hemenway, labor's proven friend.

The same is true in the case of Congressman Crumpacker. He deserves the support of all laboring men on his record as a friend of labor. Ever James E. Watson, who has been the object of an unwarranted attack by certain democratic labor leaders, voted for the ash pan bill and fought for it as only James E. Watson can. SURELY LABOR WILL NOT FORGET THESE THINGS ON ELECTION DAY.

WHEN THE MOBILE EMIGRANT RETURNS.

ONE OF THE INTERESTING movements which many people consider more barometric in social and economic conditions than bank clearings, Wall street or the crops, is the turn in the immigration tide. For months it was on the ebb. Vast importance was attached to it and it was not to be considered lightly. The great out-pouring of the foreign element began last fall. It was a forerunner of the financial flurry. Possessing more wisdom than we give them credit for, the hard-headed, self-reliant foreigner went home to weather the storm. He knew, it seems, what was coming and got out from under. True, a few remained here in Hammond and were pinched for the necessities of life, but the average uncouth Slav hid him back to Europe, refusing to clamor for food. Now the tide has turned. More by instinct than anything else, the stalwart emigrant is coming back. He knows there is to be work for him this winter. He is coming back to do the hard work and the dirty work, and the cheap work in mill and mine which the American won't do. The incoming foreigner is a true forerunner of better times.

HOW ABOUT YOUR COAL SUPPLY?

THIS IS NOT, DEAR READER, a boost for the coal dealer. Far from it. There is only one thing we dread more than the coal man in the winter, and that is the ice man in summer, but—

The railroads are again warning the people of a threatened coal shortage during the coming winter. Up to this date much less than half as much coal has been moved as had been shipped at this time last season. The reason is that consumers will not buy early and dealers will not store.

This is folly. It isn't safe to tempt fate. Every man who uses coal should order it now. Every influence should point to the consumers the wisdom of their delay. Don't forget the winter of 1906. Coal can't always be secured to be fed in from hand to mouth just as it is needed.

THE SPECTACLE OF William Randolph Hearst on the stump in New York, chiefly for the purpose of defeating his former running mate, Lewis Chandler, and to that extent assisting in the election of his dearest foe, Governor Hughes, is another conspicuous illustration of the singular and bewildering operations of the political whirligig.

WHEN ANYONE WARMS UP to you these days and starts to talk of the national game, you have to scratch your poll before you can figure out whether he means baseball or politics.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

Copyright, 1908, by Edwin A. Nye.

THE CRY OF THE MOB.

"Justice!" So shouted the mob at Springfield, Ill. Angered because a prisoner charged with a heinous crime—and now likely to prove his innocence—had been split away by the authorities.

"Justice!" Vexing the heavens with raucous cry, the mob surged through "the bad lands," torch in hand, giving to the flames the homes of decent citizens with the property of the vile, making hideous the slums of Springfield with its hoarse, insistent demand for blood.

"Justice!" Voicing its grim demand, it rioted in brutal wounding and killing of men, women and children.

"Justice!" Night and day, day and night, went up the awful growl of the multitude, appealing for a moment its thirst for blood by dragging an inoffensive man of eighty years from his peaceful home, beating this white haired octogenarian as if he were a mad dog of the streets and then gloating over his hanging body.

Thus the Springfield mob, aflame with hatred of a race, drunk with vengeance, riotous, insane.

But—Let us look behind this hateful face of anarchy, foul with passion, lost to human instinct, murderous, and find some adequate cause for this outbreak of a maddened people.

Surely there must be some final cause—the slow, growing sentiment, settled into public conviction—else the terrible spectacle is meaningless.

There was a cause. For years the miscarriage of justice in the courts had been countenanced by sworn officials—for the sake of votes. For years the release of known criminals on technical or political terms had been winked at by those who were set for law enforcement.

Public sentiment had piled up behind the dam until the barriers gave way and the flood put to scorn the puny arms that tried to stop it!

"Justice!" The eternal years of God are hers. Somehow, somewhere, some time, her verdict must be put on record—if by no other means, then by the mob.

THIS DATE IN HISTORY.

October 1.

1768—British troops landed at Boston from Halifax.

1799—Rufus Choate, statesman, born in Ipswich, Mass. Died in Halifax, N. S., July 13, 1859.

1806—Treaty of St. Idefonso by which Spain ceded Louisiana to France.

1837—The Winnebago Indians sold all their lands west of the Mississippi river for $1,500,000.

1847—Right Rev. Michael Power, first Roman Catholic bishop of Toronto, died.

1883—Domestic letter postage in the United States reduced from three cents to two.

1884—Prime Meridian conference opened in Washington, D. C.

1890—McKinley tariff act went into effect.

1899—Mgr. Diomedes Falconio, papal delegate to Canada, arrived at Quebec.

1901—Duke and duchess of Cornwall, welcomed in Victoria, B. C.

THIS IS MY 60TH BIRTHDAY.

Michael H. De Young.

Michael H. De Young, proprietor of the San Francisco Chronicle and a republican leader of national prominence, was born Oct. 1, 1848, in St. Louis, Mo. His mother was the daughter of a French nobleman. When a boy five years old, he was taken to California and was educated in the schools there. Before he was twenty years old, in association with an elder brother, he established a weekly theatrical paper in San Francisco. This venture subsequently developed into the daily newspaper with which the name of Mr. De Young has ever since been associated. Almost as soon as he reached the voting age Mr. De Young became actively interested in politics. In the course of time he became recognized as one of the republican leaders in California, and was twice a member of the republican national committee, and for one term its vice chairman. He has been prominently identified with every movement looking to the development of his city and state and was the director-general of the California midwinter exposition held in San Francisco in 1903 and 1904. He was president of the United States commission at the Paris exposition in 1900 and received the decoration of the Legion of Honor.

RANDOM THINGS AND FLINGS

This big washing of dirty linen knocks out all hope of having a nice, clean little campaign.

Buy a man's good will and you will find that each time you have an occasion to use it, that the price has gone up.

Great days for Hanly. Nothing but getting into trouble and then getting out of it.

BECAUSE THERE IS PLENTY OF BUSINESS IN A BIG TOWN IT DOES NOT FOLLOW THAT A MAN FROM A LITTLE TOWN CANNOT GET IT.

It was a mean trick of Mr. Bryan to say that he would make all his

For President

WILLIAM H. TAFT

"He is as strong as he is gentle. His reputation is simply spotless. In all the agitation of a heated campaign for the greatest office in the world, no one has ventured to intimate a doubt of the absolute honesty of this man who has been before the country for a quarter of a century. Nor can any one successfully dispute the simple proposition that in the whole history of the United States no one was ever named for the presidency who was so fitted by nature, by training and by experience for the duties, dignities and responsibilities of that unique office."—CHARLES HOPKINS, in "The Independent."

For V-President

JAMES S. SHERMAN

"We certify to all the great electorate that when their votes in November shall have chosen James S. Sherman to be vice president of the United States, the senate will be sure of a presiding officer in character and competency worthy of the best traditions of that great deliberative body, and that—which God forbid—the sad contingency were to come which should for a fourth time call a vice president from New York to the executive office, the interests of the whole country would be safe in good hands, and the great office of the presidency would suffer no decadence from the high standard of dignity and honor and competency of which we are so justly proud."—ELIHU ROOT, at Sherman Notification Ceremonies.

UP AND DOWN IN INDIANA

JAIL BREAKER CAUGHT.

Isaac Jacobs, alleged horse thief and forger, who escaped from the Browns-town jail with several other prisoners a few weeks ago, was arrested at Martinsville this afternoon by Marshal Edward Shireman.

RUNAWAY WIFE "BROKE."

Otto Turner of Anderson, whose wife, it is alleged, eloped with John Redmond, his partner in the junk business, learned today the couple were at Columbus, Ind. The information came in a note from his wife saying she was "broke." Turner places the blame on his partner.

DRUMMED OFF TICKET.

Burton Green of Peru, the democratic representative from Miami county, now serving in the special session of the legislature, has been asked to resign from the county ticket because he voted with the republicans on the county local option bill. The liberal democrats here say if he remains on the ticket the republicans will carry everything at the fall election.

APPOINT NEW POLICE CHIEF.

The result of several special sessions of the board of police commissioners held in Anderson last week will be the appointment of new superintendent of police. The move is said to be the fulfillment of a political promise made four years ago, when Patrolman Lige Finnell was promised the superintendency to succeed Mark Robbins, deposed at the time.

SENATOR BEVERIDGE SPEAKS.

Senator Albert J. Beveridge at Terre Haute, in the second address of his cross-country tour, spoke on "Labor and Capital" here tonight in answer to the speech by W. J. Bryan, democratic presidential nominee, in Chicago several weeks ago.

SNOW FALLS IN INDIANA.

Snow fell for fifteen minutes early today in the south part of Kosciusko county, between Silver Lake and Claypool. The storm was local and Warsaw saw only a few flakes. The mercury dropped to thirty-four degrees.

FACES TRIAL FOR MURDER.

After being a prisoner in the county jail at Bloomington since last Thanksgiving, charged with the crime of killing his two nearest neighbors, Joel McCoy and son Frank, at a neighborhood woodchopping, Edward Ford will again face trial a week from next Monday.

WHITECAPERS INDICTED.

After two weeks of rigid investigation at Rushville, in which more than 100 persons were examined, the grand jury returned eight indictments against Posey township citizens charging them with riotous conspiracy. The affair for which the arrests were made was the whitecapping of John Tribbey.

RANCHMEN BUY PHEASANTS.

It is reported that several ranch owners near Moravia will take steps to stock their respective ranches with Mongolian pheasants. Their idea is to procure a sufficient number of pheasants for breeding purposes.

TO TEST NEW LAW.

If the plans of the Madison County Civic league at Anderson carry, the new county local option law will receive its first test in this county. According to the officers the preparation of the petition for an election will be commenced as soon as the act becomes a law. The petition will not be presented to the board of county commissioners until after the election in November.

WILL ASK FOR CONVENTION.

The South Bend delegation to the state convention of the Indiana Federation of Labor left today for Vincennes with the intention of securing the 1909 convention for this city. The delegation is headed by George W. Goetz, president of the Typographical union. If the convention comes to South Bend the chamber of commerce will aid the labor organizations in entertaining the visitors.

BONDS SELL AT PREMIUM.

City Controller Fred Martin today sold a $2,000 issue of South Bend general purpose bonds to Rudolf Kleibott & Co. of Cincinnati, O., who paid a premium of $660. E. M. Campbell & Co. of Indianapolis offered a premium of $150. J. J. Miller & Adams company, also of Indianapolis, bid $2,587.50. Meyer & Kiser, another Indianapolis firm, offered $250 premium.

CONDITION OF BASEBALL.

HUBBY MAY BE LATE FOR SUPPER AND PERHAPS STILL LATER TONIGHT.

IN POLITICS

If the republicans are granted nice weather on Saturday, they expect to bring out a monster crowd on the evening of the Watson meeting.

Chicago, Sept. 30. Josephus Daniels, chairman of the democratic press committee, today made public a letter written by Attorney General Bonaparte at the instance of the democratic national committee, asking the attorney general how many of the 257 so-called trusts of the country have been proceeded against in the courts by the federal government, and how many more cases he expects to file.

Emerson, Neb., Sept. 30.—William H. Taft was scheduled to make ten stops in Nebraska today and Governor Sheldon and United States Senator Brown, who joined the party at Sioux City, assured him that he would have no difficulty in carrying Mr. Bryan's home state.

"Nebraska will give Taft from 15,000 to 20,000 majority," said Governor Sheldon, "in spite of the fact that a good many democrats who voted for Roosevelt will probably vote for Bryan this fall. Mr. Bryan's friends are working the local pride argument for all it's worth, and it is possible that they may win in some votes in that way, but there is no possible excuse for either putting the state in the doubtful column or claiming it for the democratic nominee."

Washington, Sept. 30.—President Roosevelt will not reply to the latest letter of William J. Bryan, given out by him last night at Rock Island, Ill. Secretary Loeb stated today that the president felt that inasmuch as Mr. Bryan's letter was simply an attack on him personally there was no reason why he should answer it.

Tom Grant, candidate for sheriff on the republican ticket, says he is well satisfied with the results of his campaigning. He finds a friendly feeling for his candidacy all over the county.

John W. Dyer, cashier of the Commercial bank, is too much troubled with hay fever to take any delight in his old game, politics, but as far as he sees things, it looks right, which means that it looks Watsonish.

John E. Fitzgerald of the Hammond distillery, believes that Thomas E. McShall will be elected governor of Indiana. "I have been up and down the state," said he, "and I find them all talking Marshall."

The personal "Bullwhacking" system of the way, with the unset-

tle mind, with the unset-

tle mind, with the unset-

tle mind, with the unset-

tle mind, with the unset-

tle mind, with the unset-

tle mind, with the unset-

tle mind, with the unset-

tle mind, with the unset-

tle mind, with the unset-

tle mind, with the unset-

tle mind, with the unset-

tle mind, with the unset-

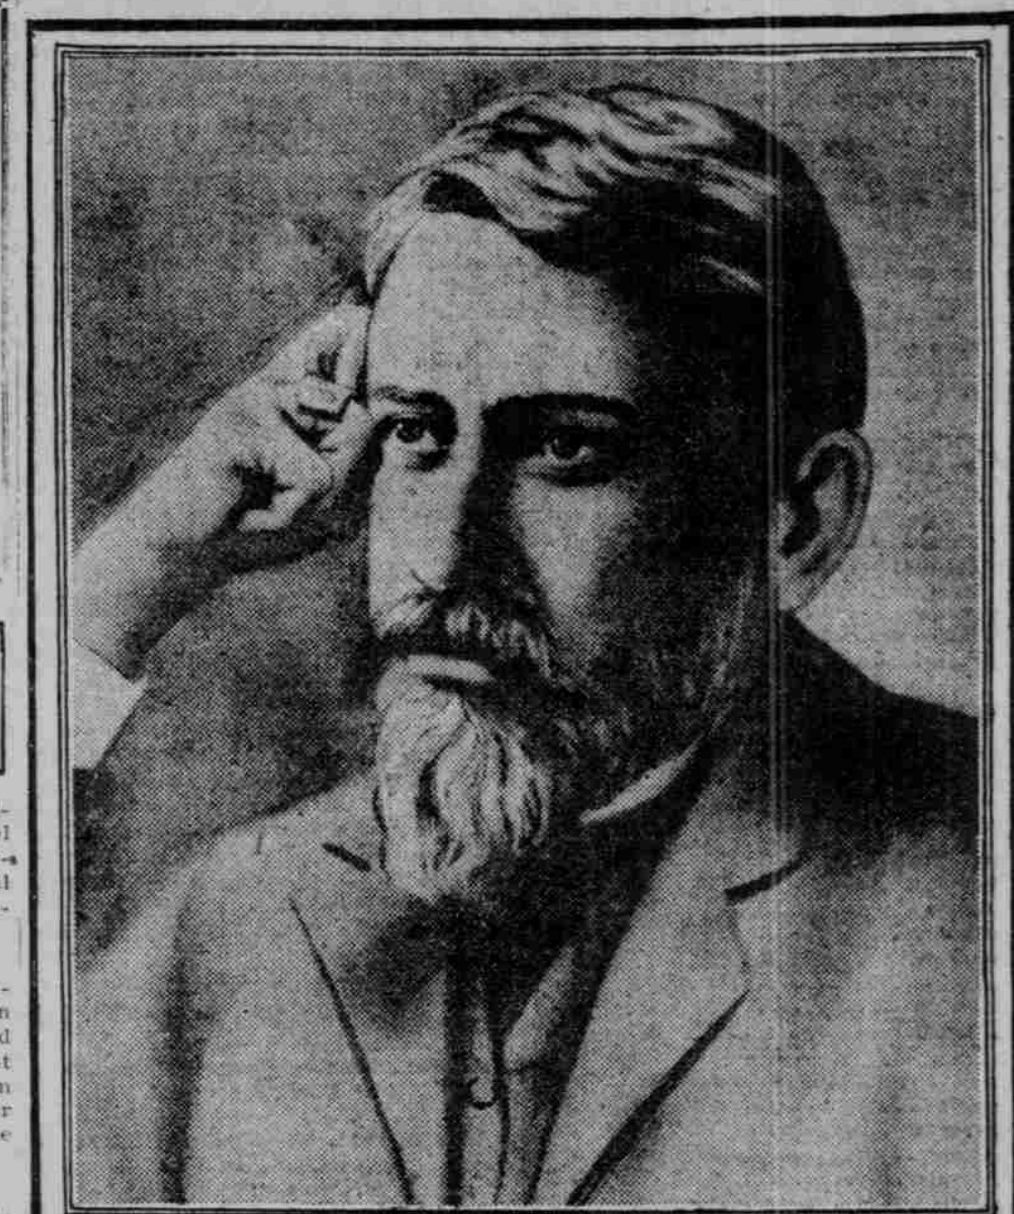

tle mind, with the unset-

tle mind, with the unset-

tle mind, with the unset-

tle mind, with the unset-

Gives an Order for Fifty Flying Machines

LAZARE WEILLER

Lazare Weiller, the French economist and aeroplane promoter, is the first man to order aeroplanes in big lots. He has asked the Wright brothers to make fifty of their machines, the lot to cost $200,000. M. Weiller seven years ago toured the United States as a commissioner of the French government to study industrial methods and particularly the workings of large combination of capital.

adopted by the democrats is giving the republicans some concern in this county. They don't like the gum-shoe work that the Bryan men are doing.

Wesley L. Jones, who will succeed Levi Ankeny in the United States senate, has been a representative of New York, is a nephew of Andrew D. White, ex-ambassador to Russia and Germany. Mr. White is 43 years old and a native of Buffalo. Since 1895 he has been a member of the legislature.

There is every indication that James H. Vahey will be the democratic choice to oppose Eben S. Draper, the republican candidate for governor of Massachusetts. The proposal to abolish the death penalty in Massachusetts promises to be one of the chief issues of the campaign.

A. Heaton Robertson, who has been named by the democrats for governor of Connecticut, is a native of New Haven and has always made his home in that city. He served several terms in the general assembly and for eight years was a judge of the probate court. Four years ago he was the unsuccessful nominee of the democrats for governor.

For the first time in her history Nevada is about to choose a United States senator by direct vote. The legislative candidates of both parties have pledged themselves to stand by the popular vote for senator, and Francis G. Newlands and Patrick L. Flannigan, respectively democratic and republican candidates for senator, have agreed to abide by the popular vote.

Don't forget the meeting of the Center Township Republican club Friday night. Show your interest by attending.

Three topics of conversation in Crown Point—politics, politics and politics. "Shall the people rule?" Also the insult.

Let's hear from a few more Otto Borman.

Republicans—a month and a few days more of a long pull, a strong pull and a pull altogether.

Crown Point democrat—"Say, have you ever thought how well Taft rhymes with 'graft'?"

Crown Point republican—"Yes, just about as well as Hascall rhymes with 'rascal'."

Also, there'll be a few more things killed here besides oxen on the 17th of October. "Watson day," you know. Democratic hopes and votes.

Little Willie—Say, pa, why did you call my pups 'democratic pups' three weeks ago, and now you call them republican pups?"

Pa—"Well, you see, my son, they have been open now, and they didn't three weeks ago."

The committees are working with a big "C" and "W."

All for the 17th.

Meet Watson at Hammond on Oct. 3. Get acquainted with Watson at Crown Point Oct. 17.

Also the best "bunch" of republican county candidates that ever ran for office.

Deservink your support, every one. Politics are rather warm just now, but don't let the fact sidetrack you from ordering your supply of winter coal.

And Otto Borman isn't the only democrat that is going to pack his "duds" on the trunk of the G. O. P. elephant, either.

Yes, sweet Helene, they are arranging a nice little time for Alfonso and you on the 17th, and don't you forget it. Dancing pumps? Yes, that's it.

THE CREAM OF THE Morning News

Rock River conference of the Methodist church opens; Dr. W. H. Crawford denounces drink traffic in England.

Promoter of Kensington ory in honor of Police Lieutenant Mooney placed on trial. Jury selected and evidence will be given today.

Emanuel Mandel, whose will is filed for probate, leaves an estate of $2,000,000, of which $50,000 goes to charity.

Walter Wellman says W. R. Hearst's desire for revenge may defeat W. J. Bryan, in that Hearst and "His'n" control 25,000 votes in New York.

Political roundup of chiefs of both parties scheduled for today at the state fair at Springfield draws crowds and the republicans claim much encouragement in the outlook.

Carter H. Harrison returns to Chicago and announces his intention to make speaking tour for Bryan and the state ticket.

Two masked men commit a daring series of robberies at Slater, Iowa, and one is captured and confesses, saying the other got away with nearly all the loot.

George H. Maxwell of Chicago is warmly applauded by the irrigation congress at Albuquerque, N. M., when he answers attack by Colorado attorney on the government forest service.

Ethel Barrymore in an interview at St. Louis says American elite society is composed of useless, brainless, selfish and purposeless beings.

That America is in the lead in the world war on tuberculosis is admitted by foreign delegates to the international congress, and New York's work is given special praise.

So sure is promoter of Wilbur Wright's ultimate success that he has ordered construction of fifty aeroplanes, according to Wright model, thus performing in advance contract which gives Ohioan $100,000 for French rights.

Owing to long drought September proves unprofitable month for fire insurance companies, losses being $10,000,000 above average.

Wheat moves in a narrow range and gain for day is shown despite light exports and big receipts; corn has a lively session; oats higher; cattle lower, hogs unchanged and sheep higher.

Wall street is extremely dull, the only feature of interest being the slightly firmer feeling in call money.

Voice of the People

FROM THE RAILROAD BOYS.

Editor, TIMES: A bunch of us railroad boys over on the I. H. got together last night and decided that the only reason some men vote the democratic ticket is that their great-grandfather was a democrat, and some will vote the ticket this year because their wives think Bryan is a better looking man than Taft.

When Taft gets elected prosperity will come. For he is a laboring man's friend and their defender. If Bryan is elected things will be on the bum. In place of earning dollars you would get cents. Taft is a man, honest in his dealings. Bryan and his mule are a picture of hard luck. A man would not get enough wages to pay for his chuck. Working on the section 50 cents a day. That would be a laboring man's pay. If W. J. Bryan had his way.

A FORESIGHT SUBSCRIBER.

Man's Hard Lot.

Man born of woman is of few days and full of pathogenic germs.—Louisville Courier-Journal.