

HERE AND THERE IN THE CALUMET REGION

Day's Grist in South Chicago

"THE END OF THE TRAIL" AT THE CALUMET THEATRE

Last night "The End of the Trail," a play written by William Josey, the well known actor, who formerly played the leading part in the Calumet Stock company, opened a three days' engagement at the Calumet theatre. Mr. Josey seems to be a globe trotter of great experience and a versatile man, born in the very heart of the sunny Southland, he graduated from Mercer university.

EIGHTH WARD REPUBLICAN CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING.

Headquarters are opened at 326 Ninety-second Street in South Chicago.

Last night was the first meeting of the Eighth Ward Republican club, at their headquarters at 326 Ninety-second street. The meeting last night was for the purpose of making arrangements for registration day and they transacted other important business.

Warren E. Colburn, candidate for county commissioner, and other well known South Chicago politicians were at the meeting. Hereafter the headquarters will be open afternoon and the Good Shepherd several days ago, furnish literature and information concerning the national state and county campaigns.

Recaptured Today.

Nellie Griffin and Kate Fisher, two girls who escaped from the house of 30 Aqueduct street a pure uxoricide were recaptured early today by Police-man Wall in South Chicago. The police received information that the two girls were at the home of an aunt of the Fisher girl—Mrs. J. Smith, 8345 Bond avenue. Wall was sent to the house at 2 a. m. in order to surprise them.

Why Don't They?

Why don't other tailors give the people the immense values in fine made to order Tailoring that is given by the Independent Woolen Mills? 9109 Commercial Avenue. We weave our own cloth and tailor our own garments in sanitary Union Workshops, thus saving all middlemen's profits and our customers get the advantage because we give them choice of over 1000 patterns of all wool materials at $15. We show the big line of goods in full price and you can get anything you want either in black or blue.

HEARD BY RUDE.

The executive committee of the Eighth ward republicans held a meeting last night at their headquarters at 326 Ninety-second street to make arrangements for re-registration day.

Some South Chicago men are sitting or others, while they are standing up, for themselves.

Yesterday was the day in South Chicago where the contract called for steam heat.

Those who are making so much ado in South Chicago about the smoke nuisance have undoubtedly forgot and overlooked the campaign cigar.

Pay-as-you-enter cars are scheduled to be put into service on the South Chicago lines within the next few days. They are to take the place of those open faced stem winders.

No offense is meant by calling your attention that tomorrow is registration day.

You wasn't very much surprised yesterday when you learned that a policeman was bitten by a dog with the thermometer down to 45.

An inspection of the twenty-foot deep concrete pilings for the foundation of the new South Chicago high school will readily convince you that it would not stand at least several thousand years.

The days of that good old-fashioned maple syrup and buckwheat pancakes has arrived in South Chicago.

The report that Captain Halpin is to leave the South Chicago station, even if it was but a rumor, caused some of the anxious ones to get unusually busy.

According to Dr. Ostrowski's evidence yesterday in the police court he was chased by the coterie of women with rifles, whips, sticks, bottles and brickbats. It was enough to make any ordinary man run.

And still no effort has been made to stop the gigantic land grab of the Illinois Central at Kensington.

Most of the South Chicago merchants are waiting until after election, when a change in conditions is promised, until they do their heavy fall purchasing.

Cook county is getting so tangled up in elections that they soon will be unable to elect any kind of a state's attorney.

Girl Found In House.

William H. Kurtz, 30 years old, 13713 Leyden avenue, and Helen Filipponicz, 16 years old, daughter of Bruno Filipponicz, 10749 Curtis avenue, were arrested in an old rooming house at State and Polk streets.

The girl disappeared from her home about three weeks ago, and the Kensington and Chicago police have been searching for her.

Kurtz will be given a hearing at the Harrison street municipal court on two very serious charges. It is alleged that Kurtz enticed the girl from her home, pretending to make her his wife, which later proved to be a myth. His trial will come up today.

Report Is Denied.

According to reports at the South Chicago police station today, the rumor that Captain Halpin is to be transferred to the Twenty-second street station, is said not to be true. From one who says he knows, there will be no change in the command of the South Chicago station for some time to come.

Building Catches Afire.

A two-story frame building, belonging to Seffer and Lasser, located at 8453 Superior avenue, caught fire through a defective chimney last night. The damage was nominal, and nobody was injured. The fire broke out in the garret of the building.

EAST CHICAGO AND INDIANA HARBOR

EAST CHICAGO.

Attend a Reception.

One hundred members of Rev. J. H. Palmer's congregation of the local M. E. church last night attended a reception in his honor given by the Ladies' Social union of that church. The reception was held in the church parlors and consisted of a program of exceptional talent, a general good time and the serving of refreshments by the ladies of the church. The program is appended:

Plano duet
Lillian Williams and Lella Wickley
Introduction of Pastor
Rev. J. H. Palmer
Remarks
Rev. H. P. Ivey of Indiana Harbor
Vocal Solo
Mrs. McCrum
Plano Solo
Miss Pearl Foraker

Rev. Palmer has made a wealth of friends in this city, all won by his pleasant mien and ability as a speaker.

There is little doubt that the conference at Attica acted wisely in sending him to East Chicago and under his legislation the re is every reason to believe that the church will grow into a power for good in the community.

Enjoyable Dance.

Fifty couples attended the dance given by Stirling's orchestra in the L. O. O. F. hall last evening. The night was just cool enough to be conducive to pleasure and the hall amply large enough to accommodate the dancers.

From the moment that the tumultuous strains of the first popular two-step filled the hall until the last note of the orchestra's melody was heard, the very faces of the dancers expressed happiness and it was with regret that they noticed the closing hour of 1 o'clock. The instruction hour, under the direction of Professor Well, of Woodlawn, Ill., has been so well attended that Messrs. Stirling-Havill-McKelvey are contemplating holding a dance every week instead of twice a month, as heretofore. Keep up the good work, boys, East Chicago appreciates the introduction of such clean pleasure as yours.

Messrs. Lash-Hascall, Tom Henry and Edward Bell will return tomorrow from Lafayette and will remain until Monday. They will witness the Chicago-Purdue football game at Marshall field before returning to their studies at the university, however, and expect to have a gay week instead of a dull one.

D. D. Dixon has returned from a business trip to Indianapolis, where he has been installing and demonstrating the principles of various incinerating plant machinery.

Miss Helen Davis is spending a few days in Cincinnati before leaving for Galesburg, O., where she will visit her grandmother until Thanksgiving, expecting to return to East Chicago about Dec. 1.

Nick Degame of Olcott avenue was the guest of friends in Chicago last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Garber of Olcott avenue were called to Brazil, Ind., last evening by the serious illness of Mr. Garber's mother.

Mrs. M. C. Brown, of Omaha, is spending a few days at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. J. Van Gelsen of Forsyth avenue.

INDIANA HARBOR.

Mrs. C. Pope and Miss McKinney of Chicago were guests at the home of Mrs. Fred Hascall, on Todd avenue, last evening.

Mayor DeBrie and family will move into the Crill property on Magoun avenue the early part of next week. A tenant for the old DeBrie home has not yet been secured.

Attorney Joseph A. Meade was the guest of Miss Ella Klose at her home in Whiting last evening.

T. R. Ladd is spending a few days at his home in Argos, Ind., expecting to return about Monday of next week.

Charles Mitchell and Charles Horney were Crown Point visitors yesterday afternoon and evening.

Services will be held in the M. E. church Sunday morning and evening under the direction of the pastor, Rev. J. H. Palmer. The theme of the morning service will be "The Unseen Communion in Life," and in the evening the pastor will preach on "The Captive Student." Epworth League in the church parlors at 6:30 o'clock.

The Congregational Men's club will hold their first meeting on Tuesday evening and will outline their program for the coming winter season.

Dr. Sarah Noble, Mrs. Colonel J. J. Funkhouser and Miss Hattie Funkhouser were guests at the G. A. R. reunion in Hammond yesterday afternoon and evening.

Miss Cora Chatman will spend Sunday with friends in Englewood attending the Sunday evening performance of "The Devil" at a Chicago theater.

E. V. Walton, of the council board, will leave Monday for Indianapolis, where he will attend the sessions of the grand lodge, K. of P. Walton has filled all the chairs in the Harbor lodge and was recently chosen by them as their most fitting representative at the grand convocation.

Rev. F. H. Brown will occupy the pulpit at the Congregational church both Sunday morning and evening. The morning session will be devoted to the holy communion and the "Lord's supper." The theme for the evening service will be "Indifferentism," and will be one of the sermons in the pastor's course of "Isis" lectures. Lounge people's meeting, as usual, at 6:30 o'clock.

Spike Hanley and Jim Hall were guests at the Harbor roller skating rink last evening.

William McAffery is spending a few days in Latonia, O., as the guest of a very dear friend.

Robert Stirling, William Rice and Jack Dorey were Harbor visitors last evening, attending Lansfield's skating rink.

Miss Etta Dixon was a Hammond visitor yesterday afternoon.

Miss Evelyn Cadman was the guest of friends in Hammond yesterday.

Mrs. D. C. Brown, of Omaha, is spending a few days at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. J. Van Gelsen of Forsyth avenue.

Indiana Harbor-East Chicago Electric Light company has decided to install an office in this city and has secured deskroom in the office of the Pioneer Lime and Coal company, on Michigan avenue. General Manager Kirl last evening declared that Edward Jenkins would have charge of the Harbor office. Mr. Jenkins has been with the company for a number of years and has made many friends for his company. He will be capable of handling the position and will personally supervise all repairing and installation in this city.

Mr. Jenkins will also have charge of the water service in the Harbor, thus making his position doubly responsible. It is evidently the desire of the company to treat the citizens of Indiana Harbor properly and through the medium of THE TIMES. Mr. Jenkins wishes to inform citizens of Indiana Harbor that a call over telephone 17 will result in his prompt service.

Fred Gastel was a Chicago visitor yesterday, transacting business with the Harbor Building company.

Miss Ray Goldstein of Watling street was a Hammond visitor yesterday afternoon and evening.

Dr. George Orf transacted business in Hammond yesterday.

Clifton Sheels of Valparaiso is spending several days at the Lundberg home on Parish avenue.

Manager Lansfield has engaged "Diamond Bill," an expert lasso-wrangler from the Buffalo Bill troupe, to give outdoor exhibitions every afternoon and evening. "Diamond" is good at his work and is amusing large crowds nightly.

Edward Vennetense of Englewood spent yesterday at the home of Miss Reka Houtschilt on Hemlock street.

Mrs. S. Goldberg of Michigan avenue.

HOURS: 8 to 8 P. M. SUNDAYS, 9 A. M. TO 4 P. M.

nue spent yesterday in Chicago, transacting business with several large wholesale houses.

Attorney Owen Crumppacker of Hammond was a Harbor visitor yesterday afternoon.

Henry Fasal, of Hobart, the home of A. J. Smith, who would like to be county auditor on the democratic ticket, was a Harbor business visitor yesterday. Mr. Fasal says that "things are quiet" and that A. J. Smith's name will never get any farther than the ticket.

P. D. Block, vice president of the Inland Steel company, spent several hours at the local plant yesterday.

Joseph Crumpton, known as the "politest man on the C. L. S. & S. B. line," yesterday enjoyed a cordial visit with Joseph O'Hara, general manager of the Washington, Baltimore and Annapolis Interurban railway, with which Mr. Crumpton was formerly connected. Although brief, the meeting was replete in the exchange of reminiscences and the "politest man" wore an unusually broad smile all day.

For want of space, Miss Lucile Braaswell wishes to announce she will have an formal opening of her millinery parlors, but is now ready for business. Style and touch are evident in all her small and large hats. Choice models at reasonable prices. My plumes and fancy feathers cannot be equaled in price and quality. We cheerfully remodel hats, clean and dye feathers. Don't forget the Little Hat Shop, upstairs 3332 Michigan avenue, Indiana Harbor, Ind.

Mortician Tael yesterday directed the funeral of Stephen Sanya of Robertdale, who was killed while at work at the Inland mill on Wednesday afternoon. The interment was made in Holy Cross cemetery, West Hammond, following services at the Greek Catholic church in Whiting.

Miss Emma Lundberg has resumed her labors in the Gastel real estate office, after a brief vacation in Valparaiso.

Harry Lemon was a Pullman and Kensington visitor yesterday morning, viewing the right of way of the C. L. S. & S. B. line in those cities.

Rev. A. O. Landell and family have returned from a three days' visit in Laporte, and will spend several days at the Lundquist home in this city.

The Royal League will hold their usual bi-monthly meeting in the lodge rooms this evening, Archon Van Horne presiding. A large attendance is requested as business of importance is to be considered.

I. Meyer of the Michigan avenue clothing store will transact business in Chicago tomorrow.

Mrs. C. B. McCrum entertained visitors from Chicago at her home on Michigan avenue yesterday afternoon.

T. Burchell of the C. L. S. & S. B. line, has been released from his position as conductor, resigning to take up a similar position with a Chicago street railway.

Howard Gregg, of Whiting, has resigned his office position with the Inland Steel company, accepting a position with a Fort Wayne firm.

Millinery of quiet elegance is our motto. Those who prefer highest quality millinery of modern style will find such hats at the Little Hat Shop, upstairs 3332 Michigan avenue, Indiana Harbor.

BANKER HAS RESIGNED

(Special to THE TIMES.)

Indiana Harbor, Ind., Oct. 2.—Indiana Harbor is about to lose one of her active citizens in the removal of F. H. Erickson of the Indiana Harbor State bank to Englewood, Ill., where he will engage in the engineering business with his brother, Edward L. Erickson. Mr. Erickson tendered his resignation as cashier of the bank on Wednesday afternoon and a special meeting of the board of directors was immediately called for its consideration.

The resignation took effect yesterday morning and Mr. Erickson expects to move his family to the Illinois city about Oct. 15. He has been employed by the bank for the past three years, during which time his clean, gentlemanly personality has won him a legion of friends. Mrs. Erickson has been a prominent figure in Harbor social affairs and will be greatly missed during the coming winter season.
