Why Don't They?

Why don't other tailors give the people the immense values in fine made to order Tailoring that is given by the Independent Woolen Mills? 9109 Commercial Avenue. We weave our own cloth and tailor our own garments in sanitary Union Workshops, thus saving all middlemen's profits and our customers get the advantage because we give them choice of over 1000 patterns of all wool materials at $15. We show the big line of goods in full piece and you can get anything you want either in black or blue.

HEARD BY RUBE.

Gary, Ind., the other day arose and voted out about 30 saloons, just to show that it was not feeling thirsty. And now it begins to look as though the man who wanted a drink in Indiana will have to take a run to Hammond—or they might come on to South Chicago.

Proximate polling places in the city of Chicago will be open today until 3 p. m. Unless you register you can't vote at the regular general election, Tuesday, November 3, nor at the city direct primary for the aldermanic elections next spring.

Women may register and vote for University of Illinois trustees.

Even though the weather man called the bluff of the straw hat an individual was seen on Commercial avenue today with one adorning his head.

Parkside citizens want the weeds cut down in Stony Island avenue. Be patient! Jack Frost was seen lounging around in the vicinity last night.

The South Chicago police court seems to have been Ostrowskized the past two days.

The Cheltenham Improvement association meets tonight in Odd Fellow's hall and it behooves those who are anxious for a 10 cent fare to the city to attend.

The football season will open up in South Chicago on Sunday with games between many newly organized teams.

Five thousand habitually hungry school children in Chicago is just 5,000 too many.

The meeting of the Chicago city council is scheduled to take place next Monday as the weary ones have all by this time returned from their vacations.

You might as well get your nickel ready now in time for those pay-as-you-enter cars.

A glance through last night's 12-page Times will readily convince you how it is regarded among business men as an advertising medium.

You can buy Christmas presents just as cheap now as you can the week before the 25th. But how about the money?

Forget we have a baseball town. Forget the flat is shy of steam. Forget the shocking lake front smoke. Forget, but for a moment, "her" But don't forget to register.

were initiated into the mysteries of the Master Mason's degree.

Those who rode the goat were: Harry Shippy, son of Police Chief Shippy; John J. Hanberg Jr., and Harry Hildreth of the East Side. Masons throughout the Calumet district were present. A banquet followed the ceremonies and in all about 300 Masons were present.

James L. Case, the South Chicago aeronaut, will leave Monday with his paraphernalia for Wichita, Kan., where he will make four ascensions within as many days during the county fair.

Engine company No. 46 was called out about 4:30 yesterday afternoon to put out a fire which had started in the one and one-half story frame dwelling at 744 Bond avenue, owned by Henry Davis. The fire started in the roof of the building and was caused by sparks from the chimney. The damage was small.

Called Out to Fire.

Resume Classes.

The Russell Square gymnasium will resume the regular indoor evening classes Monday night, Oct. 5.

Calisthenics, apparatus work, games and gymnastic dancing will constitute the basis for the class work.

Registrations are now being received by the instructors.

THAT "CROUCHO CLUB."

"The cat has been let out of the bag," E. M. Frank of the Independent Woolen Mills company, 9109 Commercial avenue, withdrew his name from the club under peculiar circumstances. While he has with the many other deplored the depressed times and has been measuring and calculating the bank balances of his patrons, who came from the day laborer to the manufacturer, he finds that it is an easier proposition to measure an individual for a suit of clothes than to bother his poor brain with such nonsensical matters. The Times has materially aided him and he has recommended it to others of his former fellow members.

J. Day of the Day furniture company, 9219 Commercial avenue, has the proof of his withdrawal from the club and it is now only a question of time when he will publicly make it known.

But poor old "Groucho"—A. G. Rider of the Standard clothing company, 9446 Commercial avenue—there seems to be no hope for him, but even though he declares that he will fight it alone at least until after election day.

Frank Bell's activity in the organization caused a hurried trip to South Chicago the other day of his employer, Chas. F. Dickenson of the piano house, 335 Sixty-third street.

CLARK STATION.

Fred Behn is now on the sick list. Fred Borman of Clark was a Hammond business visitor.

Two pleasant callers visited our village this afternoon: Richard Cain and Dennis Valway of Dockers Hollow, Braddock, Pa., where they have a contract unloading schooners on the Great Lakes. We wish them luck.

Gus Wagner of Clark was a Chicago business visitor.

REPUBLICANS HAVE TWO MORE BILLED.

The republicans have two meetings billed for next Monday. One will be held at Aetna in what is known as Aetna hall. The speakers at this meeting will be Wm. H. Klinger and Clarence Bretsch. Another important meeting will be held in Tollestson, where W. J. McAleer, Attorney Hardy and Judge Virgil S. Reiter will speak. It is expected that both of these meetings will be well attended.

THREE HUNDRED ARE COMING HERE

(Special to THE TIMES).

East Chicago, Ind., Oct. 3.—East Chicago and Indiana Harbor will have a combine representation at the big Watson-Garfield rally at Hammond tonight or over 300. At a meeting of the local Young Men's Republican club held in their headquarters on Olcott avenue last evening it was decided to meet at the corner of Forsyth and Chicago avenues, in this city, at about 6:30 o'clock this evening. Two special cars have been secured by the county central committee, and will convey the enthusiasts to the corner of Hoffman and Hohmann streets, where Barney Young's band is to await their arrival. With banners waving and a spirit of good fellowship pervading their enthusiasm the East Chicago visitors will march down Hohmann street to the superior court house, where the mammoth parade is to be formed.

John Kroupa's Polish Republican club will be in attendance as will several Hungarian republican organizations of this city and Indiana Harbor. Banners bearing appropriate inscriptions have been painted by members of the young men's organization and will add materially to the success of the rally.

The local youths are deeply grateful to Chairman Schaaf for his co-operation in giving East Chicago and Indianapolis representation of their locality. They intend to hear Watson, and ana Harbor the means of promoting a after hearing the man who has already startled the entire state by his brilliancy, will be ready to stamp their ballots in the good old-fashioned way, placing the "X" under the "eagle" and refraining from the dangers of a split ticket.

Miss Emily Martin of the Harbor bakery, was a Gary business visitor yesterday afternoon.

EAST CHICAGO AND INDIANA HARBOR

EAST CHICAGO. Pleasant Surprise Party.

The home of Miss Hulda Lager on Todd avenue, was the scene of a delightful surprise party last evening when about thirty friends of this estimable young lady gathered in her parlor, self-invited, and partook of the joys of her companionship for several hours. The function was in honor of a recent birthday and Miss Lager was made the recipient of a beautiful gold signet ring. Games were played and several musical selections rendered by the Misses Nellie McKay and Carrie Busch of Hammond, after which refreshments were served.

The Congregational Missionary society held an interesting session at the home of C. C. Smith on North Magoun avenue, last evening and outlined plans for the coming winter season. They report fine progress during the past year and expect to double their efforts during the coming three months.

T. L. Stewart of LaGrange, Ill., yesterday assumed his duties as manager of the local telephone exchange. Mr. Stewart has been connected with the Chicago Telephone company, in both line work and at the general offices, for nearly four years, during which time he has secured a comprehensive understanding of the workings of a "real telephone exchange." He promises to improve the local service and his efforts will no doubt meet with the most approval of the citizens of East Chicago and the Harbor.
