

FROM NEIGHBORING TOWN AND CITY

CROWN POINT NEWS

Third Day Trip of Tourists.

The third day's trip of the 1,000-mile reliability run of the week the Chicago Motor club, is the promoter, is taking place today, and most of the machines had checked at the Baker garage before 7 o'clock this morning, going from here to Valparaiso, the next checking station. The third day's run into Chicago by way of Hammond, seven machines started in the contest.

The democrats held their weekly meeting at their headquarters last night and listened to short talks by John Gavitt of Hammond and Johannes Hopelke of Crown Point. Mr. Hopelke spoke on the liquor traffic and some of the abuses the saloonkeeper was subjected to. A good attendance is reported.

Central Music hall was packed to the guards last evening, with an audience to witness the moving pictures of the Passion Play. A faithful portrayal of the events in the life of the Savior was realistically shown on the curtain. The performance will be repeated this evening.

The Center township republican club will have the honor of listening to William H. Kilver of Gary, candidate for representative at their regular meeting on Friday night, headquarters over Schiedel's drug store. Mr. Kilver is an honest, forcible speaker and will handle the leading questions of the day in the same manner. A good attendance is requested and the democrats are especially invited.

An itinerant band of Gypsies with the ever present "monkey" held the boards on Crown Point streets yesterday afternoon. They were headed for the southland.

The football game between the Chicago Heights high school team and the Crown Point high school, which will occur at the old fair grounds on Saturday afternoon, is arousing great interest among the football enthusiasts on account of the rivalry which was displayed between the teams in last year's games. Each team is confident of winning this game, and the spectators will no doubt see an exciting contest.

The Evangelistic meetings at the Presbyterian church, conducted by the Rev. Chester Birch, continue to draw good audiences and great interest is being taken in the work. The meetings will continue into next week.

Mrs. John H. Lehman and Miss Anna Hoffman have issued invitations for a card party on the afternoon of Friday, Oct. 9.

Mrs. Henry Groman of Milwaukee, Wis., is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Dinwiddie.

Mrs. John Black is making a two or three day visit with her daughter, Mrs. James Shepard of Aurora, Ill.

Clerk Shortridge attended the superior court at Hammond yesterday.

A trip to the tropics (7). A ride on the Erie milk train.

Miss Belle Peterson and Mrs. Harry D. Swartz were Chicago visitors yesterday.

Billy Meeker, who recently purchased the Williams bus business, will take charge next week.

At last two other noted speakers will be in Crown Point to help out at the Watson day celebration. The affair has already been noised through out northern and central Indiana and many prominent republicans will be present.

The fall construction is progressing rapidly and the work on the court house is being finished. Crown Point's two public buildings will soon be completed and will add much to its present appearance.

Rev. Both of the Lutheran church transacted business in Hammond yesterday.

Joseph T. Atkins attended the meeting of the Twelfth cavalry at Hammond yesterday.

Miss Beulah Cressen of Hammond is visiting Crown Point friends for a few days.

Many of the friends of the young couple attended the wedding of Miss Maggie Schaefer to Mr. Wachter of St. Johns yesterday.

Frank Gavitt of Whiting transacted legal business in Crown Point yesterday.

Charles Meeker transacted business in Hammond yesterday.

The court house lawn is being leveled and put into shape this week, and will be all ready for Crown Point people to lounge on next spring.

Mrs. George Fisher was a Chicago visitor yesterday.

Among the Crown Point politicians that attended the republican meeting in Hammond yesterday were: Messrs. Johnson, Mack, Jones, Bailey and Biber.

Attorney Bruce transacted legal business in Hammond yesterday.

ROBERTSDALE.

Miss Ruth Loomis, Josephine and Frida Le Rolf of Hammond were the guests of Miss Josephine Jewett of Indiana boulevard, Monday.

Mrs. Fred Leverenz of Harrison avenue, visited relatives in east Side, Monday.

Mrs. James Landon is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Fred Collins of Blue Island, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Clarke and family of South Chicago spent the forepart of the week the guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dougherty of Indiana boulevard.

Rev. Rilling of Naperville, the presiding elder of this district will deliver a sermon at the Evangelical church Friday evening. All are welcome. After the services a business meeting will be held at which the trustees and other officials of the church are requested to be present.

Misses Emma Smith and Ethel Jewett spent the day visiting friends in Indiana Harbor.

Messrs. William Eggers and Julius Linneman attended the south side ball game Tuesday.

Miss Gladys Turley of Lincoln avenue is suffering from an attack of tonsillitis.

Mrs. Ed Holmes of Harrison avenue was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. E. Jackson in Chicago yesterday.

Mrs. Henry Fick of Harrison avenue, was a Hammond visitor, Tuesday.

Miss Sofia Sell of Harrison avenue, is spending a week in Chicago the guest of Mrs. Boer.

Miss Kate Bader of Harrison avenue entertained friends from East Chicago last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Atchison and children of Roberts avenue enjoyed a day's outing in Lincoln Park, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Davenport of Cleveland avenue are entertaining out of town relatives.

Mrs. D. B. Hunt and daughter, Avis of Hammond were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jewett, yesterday.

Charles Smith of Reese avenue attended the south side ball game in Chicago, Monday.

Miss Marie Selinger of East Side spent the day visiting her sister, Mrs. Henry Eggers of Roberts avenue.

Mrs. E. Rathbun of Roberts avenue, saw "The End of the Trail" at Towle opera house, Tuesday evening.

A bright baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson in Harrison avenue, Tuesday morning. Mother and son doing nicely.

Ed Freese of Roberts avenue, took the first degree in the I. O. O. F. lodge in Whiting, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Charles Allen and sister, Miss Katherine Schmitt of Harrison avenue, spent Tuesday visiting in Chicago.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Place of Indiana boulevard, a little baby girl, Wednesday morning. Mother and daughter getting along nicely.

ST. JOHN.

Schaefer-Wachter Wedding.

A beautiful wedding was celebrated Wednesday morning in the St. John's Catholic church when Miss Margaretter, both from St. John. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. M. Buchert at 10 o'clock amid a very large number of relatives and friends. Miss Carrie Schaefer, sister of the bride was maid of honor and Miss Amelia Wachter was bridesmaid. The groom was attended by John Wachter and Edward Schaefer. The bride was charmingly dressed in a gown of white silk and carried a bouquet of roses and ferns. Following the ceremony the guests gathered at the home of the bride. A dance and reception were held at the hall on Spring Hill grove, where the guests enjoyed themselves to a late hour. The young couple received the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends throughout the country, where they are well known and were the recipients of many valuable and beautiful presents.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jourdain, from Chicago, are the guests of relatives here.

Joseph Bohling and family from Hammond attended the Schaefer-Wachter wedding today.

Ed. Hart, from Schererville, transacted business here Wednesday.

T. Samuelson, from Chicago, was here on business today.

Nicholas Ludwig, from Cedar Lake, was a visitor here Wednesday.

Dad Harrington, the overseer of the woodchoppers camp, was here today, shaking hands with his many friends. He expects to close some more timber deals in the near future around here.

The parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. John Schaefer, celebrated at the same day their silver wedding anniversary.

TOLESTON.

Miss Ruth Clarke of Hammond was the guest of friends here yesterday.

Miss Minnie Gunther of Hammond returned home after visiting here for a few days.

Mrs. Arthur Fisher is entertaining her mother and sister of Lowell for a few days.

Mrs. Chester Stewart and son of Elston, Ill., was the guest of relatives here yesterday.

A party of young folks from this city spent the evening at the skating rink in Gary last night. Among those who went were Misses Carrie Seeburger, Beattie Matson, Matilda Deidel, Ona Shaver and Louise James. Miss Deidel acted as chaperon.

Mrs. H. W. Decker is on the sick list.

Mrs. A. Hoelpke and daughter, Helena, were Hammond visitors yesterday.

T. H. Nichols of Chicago transacted business here yesterday.

Miss Martha Schaefer of Hammond gave the regular music and drawing lessons at the Beveridge school today.

Mr. Harry Hood and family, who have been living in South Bend for a few weeks, have returned to Toleston, where they will now make their home.

HESSVILLE.

Miss Dora Natki of Macatawa, Mich., is visiting Hessville relatives.

Mrs. Joseph Arden of East Chicago spent yesterday here.

Mrs. Barganz and family will move to East Chicago soon.

Mrs. Plush and children of Chicago are visiting at the home of Charles Williams.

Miss Joseph Hess is very low.

Miss Ruth Carter of Hammond visited the Hessville school Tuesday.

Miss Elma Mielenz is recovering.

GARY NEWS

Watchman on Guard.

Last night the danger of incendiary fires in the vicinity of the old Faulkenau Construction company camps was greatly mitigated last night by the presence of two watchmen who will watch the buildings for the next few days. One of the watchmen were hired by Attorney Clarence Bretsch, who owns several buildings in the vicinity, and another watchman was put on by H. C. Smith, who also owns buildings in the vicinity. The watchmen were armed to the teeth and were instructed to shoot any one found attempting to set fire to the houses.

Gary hotel serves club breakfasts, 30 cents to $1. Served 6:00 a. m. till 9:30 a. m.

Attorney Clarence Bretsch, William H. Kilver and Edward Wickley left yesterday afternoon from Gary for Ross station, where they were booked to hold a political meeting. They received word so late in the afternoon that it was necessary to travel across country to get to the village. An enthusiastic meeting was held.

Gary hotel serves dinner from 5:30 till 8 p. m., 50 cents.

J. F. Thaw of Cleveland was in the city yesterday on business.

William Bloodget, the well-known correspondent of the Indianapolis News, was in Gary Tuesday night and left yesterday morning. Mr. Bloodget stayed at the Gary hotel and was much surprised when he was awakened at 4 o'clock in the morning by the sound of pistol shots. The correspondent said that the noise listened like a story, and was abnormally surprised when he found that a large barn was burning in the vicinity and he had a chance to see how they fought fires in Gary.

Gary hotel serves Noonday lunch, served from 11:30 a. m. till 2:00 p. m., 40 cents.

The funeral of Paul Kennell, the 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Kennell, was buried yesterday afternoon in Toleston. Undertaker Jones was in charge.

Attorney George Manlove was in Hammond yesterday.

Why cook when you can get a Sunday dinner at the Gary hotel at 75 cents, served from 12:00 till 2:30 p. m.

Miss Marie McKenna, Miss Lotta and Belle Donovan of East Chicago were in Gary last night at the Gary skating rink.

Loan Office—Money loaned on anything valuable. L. Gottlieb, 29 Eleventh avenue.

Mr. E. F. Johnson of Hammond, the insurance man, was in Gary yesterday on business.

School Items.

Another change in the program took place today for the benefit of the scholars that come in on the trains.

The principal and music teacher made a trip to Chicago to look after a piano that is to be in the high school rooms.

In some of the towns of Lake county the pupils do not get their report cards until the Wednesday after the examination week, but in the "city of Gary" the scholars may have their reports the following Monday morning. "This shows what Gary high school is."

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.

Whereby Otto C. Borman sells his half interest in the Tolleston Auto company to Mr. Wm. L. Cole of Dillonvale, Ohio.

Mr. Coles hereafter will receive the business under the same name, Tolleston Auto company, and assumes the responsibility of all bills payable or receivable.

OTTO C. BORMAN.

WM. L. COLES.

Tolleston, Ind.

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.

Whereby O. C. Borman sells his half interest in the Borman Watson Drug company of Tolleston, Ind., to Dr. J. C. Watson, and said Dr. J. C. Watson assumes responsibility of all bills payable or receivable to said firm.

BORMAN-WATSON DRUG CO.

NOTICE.

If you are looking for a clean neighborhood to build a home in S. Carlsson's addition, located on Borman boulevard in Tolleston, close to all car lines, churches and schools free street improvements. Call or address, Alf Carlsson, room 214, Gary building, Gary, Ind.

MERRILLVILLE.

A party was given on Monday evening at the residence of Mrs. Indings in honor of Mrs. M. J. Hyde of Wisconsin.

A few of the ladies of Merrillville met with the Magazine club at the residence of Mrs. George Hayward at Hobart.

Mrs. Sam White is visiting in Gary today, the guest of Mrs. Grace Niskach.

Mrs. Claud Pierce is on the sick list this week.

Missionary tea at the residence of Mrs. Idings Friday afternoon. Every one invited.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions, and financially able to carry out any obligations made by him.

WALDING, KINNAN & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price, 75c per bottle. Sold by all druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Some of those present were William Winterhoff, W. C. Vandenberg, C. Int. Hout, J. Schmeuser, B. T. Bishop, J. C. Ton, A. Hottenger, George Phillips, William Busch, Frank Homer, John Voss, Jacob Heinz, Fred Vlerk and William Tesch. After passing a few resolutions they adjourned to meet Oct. 10, when they will perfect a permanent organization and elect permanent officers.

HEGEWISCH-BURNHAM

A. P. Allen is very seriously ill at this writing.

Mrs. Geraldine Scott of Whiting is making an extended visit with the family of James Aker.

Mrs. John Brannan, Jr., was called to Columbus, Ga., this week on account of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Howard Dutcher.

W. G. Harrington is taking a trip out among the western states this month.

Ed. Vanajdel is in South Dakota on business this week.

MONON.

Mrs. George Bestey and Mrs. Harry Kassans of East Side attended the meeting of the Eastern Stars here Monday night.

Mrs. Gustave Kortheus was taken to the Washington Park hospital Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Edith Fisk, stenographer in the auditing department at the Western Steel Car and Foundry company, has returned to her work after a three months' vacation.

Miss Lena Reed entertained several of her friends Tuesday night at an old-fashioned "Taffy Pull."

The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church will hold their meeting at the church Thursday afternoon at 2:30. It is desired that all members be present, as plans are being made for the winter's work.

CLARK STATION.

Mrs. F. Behn was a Chicago shopper yesterday.

The Clarke Station White Sox will play the Edgewater baseball juniors here Sunday at 2:30 in the afternoon.

Mr. J. James of Chicago is now a citizen of this place.

Mr. H. B. Lunn, a white Sox fan, saw the Sox lose the pennant to Detroit Thursday.

VALPARAISO.

Turner Not Guilty.

The jury in the celebrated Turner case, which has been on trial in the Porter superior court for about a week yesterday morning brought in a verdict of not guilty after having been out about fifteen hours. During most of the night the jury stood from 5 to 7 for conviction, but finally agreed upon a verdict of not guilty after Judge Tuthill had instructed the members not to consider the embezzlement charge.

The case is one that has attracted great interest all over the county for the defendant, Mr. Frank A. Turner is one of Valparaiso's most prominent real estate dealers. He is an officer in the Presbyterian church and his family is prominent in society circles. Mrs. Turner being a daughter of the late Sam Skinner, one of the wealthiest men in the county.

Mr. Turner was accused of obtaining money under false pretenses and of accepting two fees in a large real estate deal and it is with great pleasure to his many friends that he has been found innocent of the charges against him.

Marion Bailey of Liston, democratic candidate for auditor of state, and John L. Schuchert of North Manchester, the same party's candidate for state treasurer, are in the Vale today.

Eugene Chasid, candidate for president on the prohibition ticket, spoke to an enthusiastic audience of about 1,900 citizens and students in the University auditorium Tuesday afternoon.

GRIFFITH.

The republicans here expect to have a rousing time Friday evening. A public meeting is to be held in Russell's hall at which good speakers will address the people on the issues of the day.

The 9-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Cash Allen was buried yesterday. It had not been well for some time. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved parents.

Mrs. William Goverly who has been quite sick, is somewhat improved at the present.

J. Grimmer made a trip to Lowell yesterday.

E. F. Schofield is working as flagman in H. C. Dutton's place for a few days.

A musical recital at the home of Mrs. Boesen was given last night by some of the pupils of Miss Huntington. A pleasing program was rendered and enjoyed by the parents and a large number of interested friends present. The correct position at the piano, careful finger technique and artistic shading are the results of studious and methodical preparation on the part of both pupils and teacher. The following pupils recited: Rose Grimmer, Pauline Russell, Margaret Boesen, Frieda Penning and Master Paul Russell.

LANSING.

Mrs. John Schroeder and son were Chicago visitors yesterday.

Mr. Troutman was in Chicago yesterday.

Some of the business men of Lansing held a meeting in the village hall Monday night, and organized a business men's club. Temporary officers were elected, consisting of J. C. Tow president, and B. T. Bishop, secretary.

WHITING NEWS

Fortnightly Club Meets.

The Fortnightly club held their regular bi-weekly meeting at the home of Mrs. Henry Beaubien of Laporte avenue.

The forepart of the evening was spent in considering the revision of constitutional amendments and by-laws, after this was discussed to good advantage a spelling bee was conducted by the president of the club, Miss Lila Schoeneman.

This proved to be very amusing and the last one to be spelled down was Mrs. G. H. Fidelity.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Jesse Brinker of Ohio avenue.

Enjoy Oyster Supper.

The school teachers of the public and high schools formed a party Tuesday evening and went down to Lake Michigan at the foot of Sheridan avenue, where an oyster supper was served.

The gathering proved to be an agreeable one and a very pleasant evening was spent.

Mrs. J. McGoff and daughter, Anna May of East Chicago, spent yesterday visiting Whiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ingraham of John street, were in Chicago Tuesday.

A. L. Thomas and family have moved from 305 John street, to East One Hundred and Nineteenth street.

Mrs. Lena Reed entertained several of her friends Tuesday night at an old-fashioned "Taffy Pull."

The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church will hold their meeting at the church Thursday afternoon at 2:30. It is desired that all members be present, as plans are being made for the winter's work.

The auxiliary of the O. E. S. met yesterday afternoon at the home in Mrs. James Twitt one Oliver street.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Place of Indiana boulevard, are the proud parents of a daughter which was born yesterday morning. Mr. Place is a member of the popular firm of Hayden & Place of the Whiting Supply company. "Connie" Metter, the butcher for the firm, is the authority for the statement that his employer is wearing a smile that won't come off. Mrs. Place, before her marriage was Miss Sophia Schrage, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schrage. The little lady came into the world smiling to think that her grandfather was the richest man in Whiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Carmody yesterday moved into their beautiful new home in Indiana boulevard.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed and family moved from Gary yesterday to the Pedersen flat in Sheridan avenue and One Hundred and Nineteenth street.

Miss Clara Murdoch, a graduate nurse from the Chicago Baptist hospital in Chicago, is here spending several days as the guest of her uncle and family, Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Swartz of Sheridan avenue.

Miss Murdoch is recovering from the effects of a recent operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. William Griffith of Ohio avenue left yesterday for Indianapolis as a delegate from the Whiting order of Pythian Sisters, to the Grand convention, which is in session there.

Mrs. Geo. W. Jones has also an eligible delegate from the local order, but was unable to attend.

Mrs. Geo. W. Jones of One Hundred and Nineteenth street will leave Monday for a trip to Pt. Richmond, Cal.

Mrs. Jones will accompany Mrs. Jordan home. Mrs. Jordan came here for a visit from California several weeks ago and taking sick is unable to return home unaccompanied.

Mrs. William Bollinger of Ohio avenue, has returned to the St. Anthony's hospital in Chicago to undergo another operation to her throat for tuberculosis of the glands.

Miss Gertrude E. O'Neil of Sheridan avenue went to Hyde park yesterday to remain for a few days as the guest of her sister, Mrs. William Stenhouse.

Miss Lillian Callahan of Pennsylvania avenue, was in Chicago yesterday.

Whiting High School Notes.

Joseph Peceny and James McCormick went to East Chicago Thursday evening to arrange for the game of football between the East Chicago and Whiting high school boys, which will be played Saturday afternoon.

The East Chicago boys are certain that they will defeat Whiting, but they will have to go some, even though the locals have had scarcely any practice this year.

The freshmen and sophomores of the local high school have organized a basketball team and have elected Oscar Ahlgren as manager, and Floyd Eaton as captain. The team will now begin securing challenges.

The Whiting high school girls and boys expect to put in some good work this year, as they have much better facilities for playing.

Goebel's Opera House has been secured for playing and the athletes are now busy preparing their quarters for the coming games.

The board of education have also come to the rescue and will have the place cleaned out every week.

The lineup this year consists of several different members, but with practice will no doubt become as good as those of last year's team.

The first literary program to be given by the Whiting high school will be held in the Auditorium tomorrow afternoon at 2:35 p. m.