

HERE AND THERE IN THE CALUMET REGION

Day's Grist in South Chicago

Returns From Roseland.

Miss Francis Ranney, 7033 Stewart avenue and Misses Anna Quinn, 430 Thirty-third street, returned yesterday from Roseland, S. D., where they were the first women to register and fill the requirements necessary to their drawing of lots in the government land allotment on the reservation. The young women are employed as stenographers. In the event they are successful in the land drawing they will probably take up their residence in South Dakota.

Issues Proclamation.

Mayor Busse issued two proclamations yesterday, announcing that today and Oct. 12 would be observed as civic holidays. Today is the anniversary of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus. All city departments, except the police, fire and health departments, will be closed on both days.

May Be Short in Accounts.

Hutchinson D. L. Durham, 6406 Jefferson avenue, who disappeared from his home Sept. 1, is short in his accounts as claim agent of the old Calumet Electric Railway company, according to officials of the company. Durham, who is a widower, 54 years old, was reported missing by his friends shortly after his engagement to a young woman living on the south side had been announced. He had been in the railway company's employ for many years.

Building Permits.

The following building permits were issued by the building department yesterday:

1122 Emerald ave., 2-story brick
Rats-T. Higgins.....$5,000

10235 Walden Parkway, 2-story frame residence—G. Murray... 3,000

1728 West One Hundredth st., 2-story frame residence—G. Murray..... 3,000

SO. CHICAGO HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Miss Ida Larson, of the junior class, fainted on the stairs near Principal Parker's office yesterday afternoon at the close of school, but was quickly attended to by Miss Marsh and Miss Sykes. She was quickly revived and walked home unassisted.

The juniors have at last selected class pins. They are of a very pretty design and were unanimously voted for.

Yesterday, on account of the weather, the football team met in Miss Wells' room instead of practicing out on the field and discussed the rules of the game.

Miss Glen Poage of the senior class

CHICAGO REAL ESTATE

For Trade or Exchange
8-room Frame House, Furnace Heat
Lot 50 x 100 feet
For Central Business or Residence Property
Suitable for Doctor in GARY, INDIANA.

WM. C. MCCLAIN,
6961 Stony Island Avenue

MONEY LOANED

on good security such as Furniture,
Pianos and other personal property
QUIETLY and QUICKLY.

CHICAGO DISCOUNT CO
9138-40 Commercial Ave. South Chicago
Room 206 Tel. So. Chicago 104
Open Monday, Thursday and Saturday evenings until 9 P. M.

JOHN J. O'MALLEY'S
Handball Court and Buffet
106-6 Torrence Ave
Championship Games every Sunday
Admission Free
Best Players in the City Contest at this Court

DR. CARROLL
Oldest Established
SPECIALIST
In Chicago treating DISEASES OF MEN
Consultation Free Medicine $1.00
South Chicago office, 256 92d St. Cor. Houston

HENRY GROSS
Painting and Decorating
PAINT, GLASS, WALL PAPER
PAINTER'S SUPPLIES
9033 Commercial Ave.
Tel. So. Chicago 312

A. E. F. HASENCLEVER, M. D.
SPECIALIST
Treats Skillfully, Nervous, Chronic and all Diseases of Women and Children.

Consultation Free. Phone West 469.
Suite 45, Hours 10-4. 182 State St., Chicago
Telephones—Office, 748; Residence 243.
South Chicago.
FRANK FOSTER
ATTORNEY AT LAW
Room 15, Commercial Block.
8206 Commercial avenue, - Chicago, Ill.
Residence 9220 Exchange avenue.

HEARD BY RUBE.

Umbrellas and rain coats, which have so long lain on the shelf, were brought into general use yesterday with the rain that lasted throughout the morning.

Do not bother about bidding the open season of pueri, for pure quia a pueri, again.

If the weather permits, Sunday will be the greatest day in the history of South Chicago.

The famous Ostrowski case will again come up for trial tomorrow at the South Chicago police court.

Several hundred Cub fans celebrated last night in South Chicago over the Cub's victory over the New York Giants. It certainly was a happy bunch.

As to the deep waterway project, we wonder if the Calumet river will get the least sign of recognition.

It is said many merchants in South Chicago are giving orders to traveling men to be filled if Taft is elected.

Local candidates in South Chicago may be running for the office in South Chicago, but it looks more like a leisure walk.

Where will you go Sunday afternoon, Will you stay at home and attend the Columbia Memorial exercises, or will you visit the West Side ball grounds?

It is said that the janitor now has complete possession of the South Chicago flat.

Did you know at the Deep Waterway banquet it was this way, Mr. Taft, Mr. Bryan; Mr. Bryan, Mr. Taft.

In the din and noise of the flapping of the baseball pennant the Illinois Central smoke nuisance was completely forgotten.

There is to be no more prize fighting in Wisconsin. Maybe they could pull off the Papke-Kelly fight in West Hammond.

The railroads about South Chicago, it seems, are collecting more than their ordinary toll from the list of casualties the past ten days.

could not attend school yesterday on account of a slight cold.

Miss Lacey, the drawing teacher, left for her home at noon and dismissed her classes for the rest of the day.

The phagocytology class postponed their outing for another day, on account of the showers yesterday.

HERE AND THERE.

Lieutenant Morris Moore of the East Side station, returned yesterday from a ten days' vacation in the woods of Wisconsin.

Edward Lenz, living on Commercial avenue, was arrested yesterday by Officer William Dillon for carrying concealed weapons. He was fined $5 and costs in Judge Lantry's court.

CHELTENHAM AND WINDSOR PARK.

The Cheltenham Junior Football team will play an Englewood team Sunday.

Merlin Englebrecht, one of Cheltenham's most popular young men, will leave for St. Charles, Ill.

Miss Mamie Moe, of Seventy-sixth street, was visiting at Gary yesterday.

The young men of Windsor Park have moved into the new building near the lake. The following young men compose the club: Joseph Van Reith, Ansher Stanton, Fred Shoemaker, Richard Clark, James Simpson, Neil McDermott, Robert Sayre and Henry Nyonsik.

The ladies of Windsor Park are showing their athletic spirit by forming a gymnasium class.

Moore's drug store, 75 Saginaw avenue, was the scene of great commotion when the result of the Cubs-Giants game came in.

Mr. John McCullough, 75 Saginaw avenue, has returned from Michigan, where he has been staying all summer.

AN ITALIAN IS KILLED

Fredrick Donertelvi, an Italian, 50 years old, was struck and instantly killed yesterday afternoon by train No. 20 on the L. S. & M. S., at Seventy-ninth street. The foreigner, who lived at 717 Greenwood avenue, did not see the approaching train as he stepped on the track.

The remains were taken to Murphy's morgue, 10001 East Seventy-fifth street, where the inquest was held today.

FIRE DOES A DAMAGE

Fire broke out about 7:30 o'clock last night, causing damage of $200 to the two-story frame building at 9442 Commercial avenue, South Chicago.

The fire broke out through unknown cause in the attic of the building, which was being used as a store-room by five Hungarian families who lived on the second floor.

The building belongs to the Shayne-Hoffman Brewing company, the lower floor being used as a saloon, and occupied by John Swigert.

The Continent of Lemuria. There was also supposed to be a prehistoric continent that occupied the greater portion of what is now the Indian ocean. Madagascar is said to be a remnant of it. Sceler, an Englishman, has called this continent Lemuria, after monkey-like animals said to have inhabited it.

THE DISTRICT SCHOOL

Whiting Home Talent Will Present Farce Tomorrow Night.

(Special to THE TIMES).

Whiting, Ind., Oct. 2.—A new version of the screaming farce, "The District School," will be given by the Men's club of the Congregational church tomorrow evening and another presentation will be given on Monday evening.

School begins this evening at 8 o'clock. The play is being given under the direction of Professor Byron W. Rice.

The cast of characters is appended: Prof. Ezekiel Cornstassel, Byron Rice; Deacon Tidd, member of the school committee, W. W. Holliday.

Mrs. Amanda Jerusha Quackenbush, Mrs. George L. Gray; Ben Butler, school duncie, Alex. M. Hamilton; Buster Brown, John Kamradt; Tooty Frooty, Mrs. Charles Dyer.

John Jacob Astor, high toned scholar, Mrs. A. N. Beaubien; Pervia Jones, Mrs. A. B. Canfield; Cornelius Vanderbilt, very conceited, George L. Gray.

Lydia Pinkham, a saucy girl, Ivy Goldsmith; Daniel Webster, Edward Gray; Jesse James, a rough farmer boy, John C. Hall.

Lisa Ann Snodgrass, Mrs. Hamilton; Peter Barum, dull scholar, L. F. Coddington; Samantha Small, a fat girl, Mrs. John amradt; Brigham Young, lady boy, H. S. Davidson.

Meltable Housewages, Mrs. Adams; Daffy Down Dilly, Miss Ida Know; Peggy Pettibone, Mrs. Wm. Porter; Patience Puddfoot, a poor mem-ory, Mrs. A. N. Beaubien.

Jim Blaine, a careless scholar, H. E. Beaubien; School Organist, Miss Wellsby. The production is promised to be the most amusing play ever given in Whiting.

THE CREAM OF THE Morning News

Former Judges Elbridge Haney and John Barton Payne are rebuked by Judge Dupuy for variance with their training in the judiciary.

Practice of using false names in divorce suits to conceal the identity of the litigants is severely condemned by leading members of the Chicago bench and bar.

General E. C. Young tells state militiamen that there is danger of riots in every Illinois town and urges them to be prepared.

Relief work among hungry school children will begin today, city officials and charity leaders having agreed upon plan.

Chicago day will be celebrated today by the formal opening of the new $5,000,000 county building.

Governor Hughes says Bryan's new proposal is twin to 16 to 1.

Eruption of G. O. P. volcano is planned for Hughes rally tomorrow night, by reviving old-time methods in a torchlight parade.

Henry Watterson predicts war between capital and labor unless republicans are forced out of power.

In address to Northwestern university students Bryan repeats attacks on Roosevelt and G. O. P. platform.

Captain Bartlett of Peary steamer Erik says aurora borealis caused vessel to hit iceberg and describes Peary's start in fog for pole.

Treachery of nations blamed by diplomat for Balkan crisis; powers act to bring about new international understanding.

Dowager Queen Margherita of Italy witnesses Wright aeroplane test and afterwards congratulates inventor.

Daniel Ward of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad, after European trip, declares the public abroad gives railroads much better treatment than is accorded to transportation companies in the United States.

Grain and provision list shows a better tone; shorts and new investors compete for the wheat offerings; good cash demand for corn; cattle strong; hogs unchanged; sheep lower.

Foreign political situation depresses stocks in Wall street.

It is announced that Vice President Fairbanks will devote the last days of the campaign to speech-making in Indiana. Tonight he speaks at Franklin.

Early next week he will go east and speak in West Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, New Jersey, New York and other states. On October 28 he will return to Indiana and put in the remaining time of the campaign in this state. His itinerary has not yet been arranged.

ARE YOU STORING A LOT OF UNUSED THINGS ABOUT YOUR HOUSE OR OFFICE—THINGS THAT A "FOR SALE" AD IN THE TIMES WOULD CONVERT INTO MONEY?

South Bay Hotel
MRS. F. A. NAGLE, Proprietor
Rates: $2.00 and $2.50 per day
$10.00 and $12.50 per week
INDIANA HARBOR, IND.

CARL ANIERSON
GENERAL CONTRACTOR
Building and Sidewalks
A SPECIALTY
Telephone L. H. 622. Res. 621.

EAST CHICAGO AND INDIANA HARBOR

EAST CHICAGO. Returns To Her Home.

Mrs. Eva Fritzinger returned to her home on One Hundred and Forty-eighth street last evening, and is reported as being in a very critical condition. She suffered two hemorrhages during the evening and physicians declare that her condition is really serious. Reports issued from Elkhart regarding her insanity appear to have been greatly enlarged by the correspondents of the Elkhart papers, and the Eckert family declare that they will vigorously prosecute the offending newspapers.

Mr. and Mrs. John Haugh will return to this city the early part of next week, after a honeymoon of several weeks, spent in Buffalo, Niagara Falls, New York city and Toronto, Canada. They will make their home at the DeBrie residence on Magoun avenue for the present.

Last evening was amateur night at Barry's nickelodeum on Chicago avenue. Several cash prizes were awarded to local comedians and the evening proved one of endless merriment to those present.

Knut Lundewill of Emlin place last evening reported to the police that his little 7-year-old son had failed to return home after school yesterday.

The little fellow, whose name is Ralph, has been in the habit of playing in the Harrison school yard until 6 o'clock in the evenings, but up to 9 o'clock had failed to return. His playmates that they did not see him after school, and it is supposed that he has accepted a ride with some local teamster.

PROPERTY LOANS at Roe's Law Office.

Chester Eckert of One Hundred and Forty-eighth street left this morning for a business trip in Elkhart and vicinity.

Miss Ellen Feltner of Terre Haute is spending a few days at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Albert A. Biley of Forsyth avenue.

T. R. Ladd and David Campbell were Hammond theater visitors last evening, witnessing "The Lost Trail."

Mrs. A. R. J. Hill of Grassell yesterday entertained about a score of ladies of the K. of C. of Hammond. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant time enjoyed by all present.

Councilman Edward Walton is attending the sessions of the grand lodge, K. of P., at Indianapolis this week, as delegate from the local lodge.

Miss Ina Chesler of Rensselaer is spending a few days at the Bundson home on Magoun avenue.

Pat Gorman and Thomas McKenna were McVicker theater visitors last evening, witnessing the performance of "Lew Dockstader's Minstrels."

The ring to be offered by the Busy Bee club to the most popular lady in East Chicago is on exhibition in Jeweler Nassau's window, on Olcott avenue. The ring will be awarded on Oct. 11.

Edward Reil visited his parents on Forsyth avenue over Sunday.

L. F. Ladd was a Chicago visitor last evening, visiting his wife, who was operated upon Tuesday at the Presbyterian hospital. He reports her condition as vastly improved and prophecies a rapid recovery.

A masked birthday surprise party was a feature of the evening at the home of Miss Mabel Wickey, in this city, Wednesday evening. Miss Wickey celebrated her birthday and had issued invitations for a party. Her friends, however, decided that surprise would assist in the festivities, and therefore scheduled the affair for Wednesday night. Eight friends of the charming young ladies were present and indulged in games and festivities until a late hour, prizes being awarded to Miss Agnes Reed and to Miss Florence Lewis. Refreshments were served by the self-invited guests and a delightful time was reported by all who had the pleasure of assisting in the entertainment of the evening.

The barn erected by Manager Kirk erty on Chicago avenue is now complete and occupied by the company's horses. The barn contains four spacious stalls, as well as lofts for the storing of hay and grain.

Miss Mabel Wickey will spend tomorrow and Saturday with relatives in Des Plaines, Ill., returning Saturday evening.

Attorney E. Roe, of the firm of Roe & Meade, transacted business in South Chicago courts yesterday morning.

The "Jolly Ten" were delightfully entertained at the home of Miss Mae Edmunds, of Baring avenue, Wednesday evening. Games were featured during the evening, and light refreshments served by Miss Edmunds, who proved herself an excellent hostess.

George W. Lewis left yesterday for a week's visit in Indianapolis.

Herman Leacher entertained twelve friends at a duck supper in his rooms at "Bachelor's Rest" on Wednesday evening. The ducks were the result of the hunting labors of Harry Gaugh and Jack Evans, two local sharpshooters, and were found in the neighborhood of Miller's Station.

Attorney Joseph A. Meade will visit in Chicago this afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Veaco were theater visitors last evening.

East Chicago Elks will be given a treat at their memorial services, held on the first Sunday in December, according to declarations made this morning by members A. Ottenheimer and C. L. Kirk. These two gentlemen were selected as a committee to secure a speaker for the annual memorial looking over her properties in this city.

Attorney J. A. Patterson transacted business in Chicago courts yesterday afternoon.

Fred Gastel, Jr., is contemplating a trip to Elgin, Ill., over Sunday.

A. G. Lundquist of the Harbor post-office was a Chicago business visitor yesterday afternoon.

Albert Mack, the republican candidate for re-election to the county treasurer'ship, was a Harbor visitor yesterday, accompanied by Bert Escher, the candidate for assessor.

See M. J. Madden, expert piano tuner and agent for Knabe and Crown pianos. Second hand pianos taken in exchange, 3332 Michigan avenue, Indiana Harbor, Ind.—1-w.

Mrs. Ray Walker of Whiting was a visitor at the Van Horne home on Fir street yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McCrum of Michigan avenue are spending several days at the home of relatives in Chicago.

Mrs. W. J. Funkey of the State Bank building is visiting friends in Chicago for a few days.

Attorney Walter J. Riley was a Chicago visitor yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. W. A. Cain of the South Bay hotel has returned from a week's visit with relatives in Detroit, Mich.

Car No. 61 of the C. L. S. & S. B. line smashed its fender yesterday morning when it crashed into the other local car at Harbor junction. The passengers were thrown from their seats by the shock and for a while it looked as though it would be impossible to extricate the two cars.

Rev. Charles A. Smith of the Hammond Episcopal church visited friends in Indiana Harbor yesterday afternoon.

Grant Junior Swartz, of Whiting, is expected to attend the Harbor skating rink this evening, accompanied by Herman Trowe.

F. J. Teal was a Chicago and Hammond business visitor yesterday.

The meeting of the Calumet Deep Waterway association, called by President T. M. C. Hembrow, will take place at the South Bay hotel this evening. An informal dinner being scheduled for 6 o'clock. It is expected that at least 100 guests and members will be present and assist in the discussions of the evening.

Gateman J. Golder, of the Inland Steel company enjoyed a half holiday yesterday afternoon, and spent his time in remodeling his new home on One Hundred and Thirty-fifth street.

Fred Gastel, Jr., spent last evening in Hammond, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gastel, Sr.

For want of space, Miss Lucile Braswell wishes to announce she will have as formal opening of her millinery parlors, but is now ready for business. Style and touch are evident in all her small and large hats. Choice models at reasonable prices. My plumes and fancy feathers cannot be equaled in price and quality. We cheerfully remodel hats, clean and dye feathers. Don't forget the Little Hat Shop, upstairs 3332 Michigan avenue, Indiana Harbor, Ind.

CALUMET SOUTH CHICAGO

Thursday, Friday and Saturday
October 8, 9, 10

B. E. FORRESTER, Presents

THE LITTLE ORGAN GRINDER

By HAL REID

DRAMATIC SONG SHOW

Four Days starting
Sunday Matinee Oct. 11th
Matinee Wednesday

THE NEWEST KIND OF A THEATRICAL OFFERING

THE COWBOY GIRL

THE KILROY & BRITTON BIG WINNER

DIFFERENT FROM THE OTHERS

PRETTY, PETITE, PERFECT SHOW GIRLS

Evenings and Sunday Matinees, 15-25-35-50c
Wednesday and Saturday Matinees, 10-15-20-25c
Sunday Nights, 25-35-50-75c

DOWN GO MEAT PRICES-----
AT THE RUSSELL PACKING CO'S MARKET

9130 Commercial Avenue

South Chicago

WE HAVE A LARGER STOCK OF MEATS TO SELECT FROM THAN ALL OTHER MEAT MARKETS IN SOUTH CHICAGO COMBINED

RIB ROAST, per lb.....8½c
POT ROAST, per lb.....6c-8c
CHUCK BEEF, per lb.....5c-7c
STEWING BEEF, per lb.....4c
HAMBURG STEAK, per lb.....4c

HIND QR. LAMB, per lb...10c
FORE QR. LAMB, per lb...7c
SIRLOIN STEAK, per lb...11c
FLANK STEAK, per lb...9c
SHORT PORTERHOUSE, lb 10c

Tons of Fresh, Salt and Smoked Meats will be sold retail at wholesale prices. We guarantee every pound to give satisfaction. Just as good as the other butchers, who charge twice as much as we do.

TRY THIS MARKET.

FALL OPENING

...of...

Millinery, Shirtwaists and Skirts

Friday and Saturday

October the Ninth and Tenth

MISS FREEL

277 92nd Street

South Chicago

25 cents

THE BEST PLACE TO EAT IN SOUTH CHICAGO
Ever try those Dinners at BERTINI & GIOMETTI'S?
Chicken Dinners a specialty. Meals cannot be duplicated for 75 cents. 9238 COMMERCIAL AVE.

25 cents

LEAVE IT TO US

How about that Fall or Winter Suit or Overcoat that needs cleaning?
We call for and deliver goods to all parts of the Calumet District.
Special Attention given to Children's Garments.

J. M. DELANEY & CO.
Fancy Cleaners and Dyers

TWO STORES 9047 Commercial Ave.
9273 So. Chicago Ave.
Telephone: South Chicago 2423