WATSON AIDED BY BEVERIDGE

Republican Candidate For Governor Now Strongly Supported By Senior Senator and Reciprocal Arrangement Is Made.

IS BAD NEWS FOR THE DEMOCRATS

Robb Them of Campaign Argument That Governor Hanly Is To Be Sent to the Senate Two Years Hence When Beveridge Comes Up
Up for Re-Election.

Indianapolis, October 12.—From the inner circles of the republican party has come the rumor that James E.
Watson and Senator Albert J. Beveridge have developed a truce whereby the latter will work with might and main to elect the republican nominee for governor while Watson will see to it, after he is governor, that the present senator has no opposition when he comes up for reelection two years hence.

WILL HELP REPUBLICANS.
The truce, generally believed to have been established, is regarded as one of the most important developments of the campaign. Politicians agree that it will aid the republican party wonderfully. Some say that the advance tip in regard to the truce had much to do with the sudden fluctuation of the betting by which the McMillan money, which had been on the boards from days, was cleaned up and supplanted by Watson money.

NO BREAK BETWEEN THEM.
There had been no break between Watson and Beveridge but the two were not working together in confidence.
Beveridge was disposed to think that some member of the Watson crowd would be the event of republican success this fall seek his position at Washington and have the support of the Watson administration. Many of the Beveridge men thought that Governor Hanly had been picked for the senate.

PREDICTION WAS WRONG.
It will be recalled that Beveridge's candidate for the gubernatorial nomination was Charles W. Miller of Goshen, nominee now in the thirteenth district for congress. The senator did everything he could for the Goshen man and the ill feeling between the Watson and Miller forces was great.
After Watson was nominated the Beveridge crowd openly predicted that the democrats would carry the state and their manner indicated that they did not care if such a result was reached.

AGGRESSIVE FOR STATE TICKET.
But just recently the Beveridge men, and they are numerous here in Marion county, have become aggressively active for the state ticket. Beveridge himself has come out strongly for Watson.

In his Terry Haute speech he paid high tribute to the sixth district congressman and urged his election with such apparent sincerity and force as to convince all his hearers that he was earnestly advocating unbroken support of the ticket. Still greater significance attached to this when a few days later at Tipton, Watson devoted most of his speech to an eulogy of Beveridge in which he declared that the senior senator must be returned two years from now to his high position.

MARSHALL PUTS FOOT IN IT.
Saturday was Marshall, day in Indianapolis and the democratic candidate made four speeches, addressing it is estimated, 12,000 people. While the candidate was well received and created considerable enthusiasm he again "put his foot in it" by attacking Charles V. McAdams, former member of the railroad commission, who resigned recently to engage in the practice of law. Marshall asked if it were not true that McAdams since his resignation had been appointed attorney for the commission at a salary of $4,000 a year. McAdams happened to be in the court house crowd and the impulse was, according to his own statement, to answer the question then and there but he restrained himself from the interruption. Immediately following the speech, however, he went to his office and dictated a scorching answer to the question in which he denied with all the vigor of his command that he had been made attorney for the commission. He explained that he had handled several legal cases for the commission just as other lawyers in other cities had done and as the permitted.

GARY TO RING WITH POLITICS

Many National Characters, Including Taft, Beveridge, Hearst, Marshall, Higen and Gompers Yet To Appear There in Future.

ACTION WILL START THIS WEEK

Marshall's Visit Will Be the Biggest Meeting That the Democrats Are to Have There and the Beveridge Meeting Is Expected To Be Largest for the Republicans.

This week will see the actual starting of the campaign work in Gary and following in rapid succession, Gary will have many national characters as speakers to whip the city into line.
It seems as if the Steel City was the most favored of any of the region, and this is due principally to the realization of the leaders that Gary will be a big factor in swinging the county.

CONSPICUOUS THE FIRST.
Beginning on the 15th, Samuel Gompers, who is president of the American Federation of Labor, will come to the city on his special train, arriving in Gary at 11 o'clock. He will speak from a platform erected near the station to laboring men of the city. It is reported that nearly all of the unions are seeking to have a half holiday so that they can be present when their leader is in the city. Some of them have been granted this request so that Gompers will be assured of a large crowd when he comes to Gary. It was thought for a while that it would be next to impossible to get a crowd together Friday, but the problem was solved in the union men asking for a half holiday.

MARSHALL NEXT WEEK.
After Gompers, Thomas E. Marshall, democratic candidate for governor, will come to Gary a week from tomorrow where he will address the citizens in the evening. This meeting will wind up the latter's work in this county, during the present campaign. The democrats will make this their biggest event of the year in Gary. They have already started to make preparations, and they expect to have a large delegation of visitors from all sections of the county. This will practically finish the work of the democrats in Gary along that line, unless they secure Bryan, which seems possible at the present time.

HEARST ON MONDAY.
In the meantime on Monday the celebrated pair, Hearst and Higen will be in Gary where they will be the guests of the two local leaders of the party, Judge H. A. Townsley, candidate of the supreme court of Indiana, on the independence league ticket, and E. G. Ballard, the candidate for congress on this ticket. Higen and Hearst are always good drawing cards and this meeting will undoubtedly be one of the biggest of the year.

The republicans will have their innings when Senator Beveridge arrives on the evening of the 24th. This is considered the biggest day of the republican party, providing, of course, that they do not receive a visit from Taft, which does not appear altogether improbable at the present time.

COSTLY AUTO IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Machine Owned By Arthur McCappin Burned Early Yesterday Morning.

A costly automobile owned by Arthur McCappin, 83 Ninety-Second street, was burned in front of Bill Thompson's place near the G. H. Hammond company's ice houses on Sheffield avenue Saturday night as a result of a hot box.

The car was being driven by Mc-Cappin himself and contained Lieutenant Walter Jenkins of the South Chicago police station. The two men were on their way back from Hammond, where they had been visiting and were in a hurry to get home.

Gasoline in Tank Ignited.
It was about 12:30 a. m. when they arrived near Thompson's place and discovered that their machine was on fire.
Almost instantly the gasoline in the tank became ignited and after that it was no use to attempt to save the machine.

THEY DENY THAT STRIKE IS SETTLED

Business Agent of Machinists Takes Issue With Fitzhugh-Luther.

SEND LETTER TO THE TIMES

No Official Report Has Been Received, Says Mr. A. H.
Greener Today.

Business Agent A. H. Greener and W. W. Weitzel, the captain of the pickets at the Fitzhugh-Luther Locomotive works, have written a letter to THE TIMES in which they deny the report which was sent out from that plant to the effect that the labor difficulties on the Iowa Central have been settled.

They also deny that the trouble at the local plant is at an end. They say that the receipt of several engines and boilers from the Denver & Rio Grande has widened the breach between the employer and the employee and that the trouble is not at an end.

Fitzhugh-Luther People Contradict.
A telephonic interview with one of the officials of the Fitzhugh-Luther company this morning was to the effect that the strike on both the Iowa Central and the Denver & Rio Grande had been settled and that the strike at the local plant had petered out.

The following is the letter which was received by THE TIMES from the striking machinists.

Hammond, Oct. 12, 1908.
Editor, THE TIMES:—
Dear Sir: Will you please correct the error you made in your Friday night's issue of your paper when you stated that the machinists' and boiler-makers' strike at the Fitzhugh-Luther company was settled because of the fact that the trouble on the Iowa Central had been settled.

No settlement can be made of the Iowa Central trouble unless the Fitzhugh-Luther trouble is also adjusted, and this latter is not a fact. The strike is still on. No official report has been received of any agreement with the Iowa Central.

Further than this, all shop employees have been on strike on the Denver & Rio Grande for seven months. Five boxes and parts of boiler shells have been received by the Fitzhugh-Luther company Saturday last, for the purpose of repairs and this serves to widen the existing breach.

We shall take advantage of every legitimate point and peaceful method we can, to induce this company to desist from attempting to break strikes.

Hoping this will receive creditable notice in your columns, we are respectfully,

A. H. GREENER, Business Agt.
W. W. WEITZEL, Capt. of Pickets.

SUING COUNTY FOR LIQUOR LICENSE MONEY.
Morris Goldman is suing Lake county for $100 which Goldman claims he paid into the treasurer's office for a license which the county commissioners refused to grant him.

TWO IN AN AUTO ACCIDENT

Sheffield Avenue the Scene of a Bad Spill Last Night in Which E. C. Ames of the Chicago Automobile Company Was Injured.

WHO WAS THE LADY WITH HIM?

She Said She Was Not Mr.
Ames' Wife and the Latter's Breath Reeked With the Odor of Bubble Water Say Those Who Know.

An elderly man, an affinity (maybe), a champagne breath, a bird and a bottle for two, an automobile accident and the decision of one, E. C.
Ames, and his young lady friend to ride all the way back to Chicago in a closed carriage are the incidents which go to make up one of the most sensational automobile accidents which have taken place in Hammond in a long time.

The accident occurred on Sheffield avenue, at the turn in the road near Douglas park. It appears that Mr. E.
C. Ames, that was the name he gave, was driving along the road in the direction of Hammond when he came to the turn in the street which is near the south end of the park.

For some reason or another Mr.
Ames did not see the turn and he lost control of the machine. It started off into the ditch and it was impossible for Mr. Ames to steer out or stop the machine.

Strikes Two Poles.
The car first struck one telegraph pole and tore off a front wheel, smashed in the hood of the machine and then whirled around and the rear end of it struck another pole, and the occupants of the machine were sent sailing out of the car.

Mr. Ames fell in a heap and was knocked unconscious. He had several cuts in his head and he was a sorry looking sight when he was picked up by the crew on street car No. 342, which happened to be going by at the time.

For some reason of another the young lady, who was with Mr. Ames, was only slightly bruised and was otherwise uninjured. She came to Hammond with Mr. Ames.

When the two arrived in this city they were met by an officer who had been apprised of the accident. "What is your name," said the officer to the injured man. "I am E. C. Ames, of the Chicago Automobile company," was the reply.

"Are you Mrs. Ames?" said the officer.

SPECIAL AGENT MAKES WHOLESALE ARRESTS

Boys Break Into C. I. & S.
Freight Car and Steal Grapes and Flour.

PARENTS TO BE PROSECUTED

P. J. Burke Makes Important Capture Which May Break Up Wholesale Thefts.

Chief Special Agent of the C. I. & S. and L. H. B. railroad, P. J. Burke made a wholesale arrest of boys in the Standard Steel car district Saturday afternoon for stealing fruit and provisions from freight cars. But he is not going to let the matter stop at that; he has sworn out warrants against the parents of the boys for receiving stolen property and he believes that he will hit at the root of the evil in this manner.

Some of the boys are old offenders, but as all of them, but Andy Stoffe, were under 16 years of age, he was the only one who was held in jail. The others will be taken care of by the truant officer, and especially Joe Stand-erski, Gus Likus, Louis Sakel and John Sakel, who are all old offenders. The other boys are: George Laporan, Joe Lash, alias Joe Hegewisch; Frank Pa-volick, John Dunlavy and John Washburn. All of the boys who have been arrested have confessed their guilt, and they will be taken care of in the juvenile court by Truant Officer Muzzall.

One Boy Held.
Andy Stoffe, who is 17 years old, will be held for petit larceny and will be tried in Judge McMahon's city court.
The amount of crime among the boys in Hammond is alarming, according to Officer Burke, and he believes that the parents of some of the boys wink at their crime, if they do not connive, in it.

Special Agent Burke discovered the fact that the car had been broken into Saturday afternoon, and within an hour and a half after the robbery was discovered he had arrested all of the boys, whose names have been given above, and had secured a confession from each of them.

Believing that the boys were encouraged in carrying on their depredations by their parents, Agent Burke swore out warrants for the arrest of the parents of the boys on the charge of receiving stolen property.

If he can secure convictions in these cases he believes that it will have a salutary effect on the parents of the boys, and will make them hesitate before they will tolerate a repetition of the thefts.

The articles stolen from the car include twelve crates of grapes and ten sacks of flour.
Andy Stoffe, one of the young men who were responsible for the theft of fruit and flour from a car on the C. I. & S. railroad and who was captured by Special Agent Burke, pleaded guilty and was sentenced from one to eight years in the reformatory at Jeffersonville.

The young man said that he wanted it over with, and so instead of giving him a preliminary hearing he was taken directly to Judge Virgil S. Reiter's court and was immediately sentenced there.

Witness Dedication of Drake Monumental Fountain.

DISCOVERER HONORED IN SONG AND SPEECH

Business and Fraternal Organizations Unite—Monster Parade Is One of the Features of the Day—Many Able Addresses Are Delivered By Speakers.

The unveiling of the Drake Columbus memorial fountain and its re-dedication at Calumet theater square yesterday was unquestionably one of the largest demonstrations ever witnessed in South Chicago. Threatening weather in the early morning hours promised to mar the festivities, but toward noon the sky was perfectly cloudless with a typical autumn breeze coming from the north, and by 2 o'clock, the hour of the most impressive scenes, the temperature of the atmosphere was perfect. Many Hammond Gary and East Chicago Knights of Columbus attended the ceremonies.

While the dedication was under the direct auspices of the Knights of Columbus citizens of South Chicago and throughout the Calumet district participated. People from all walks of life were either in the parade, or crowded the pavement and streets to watch the magnificent pageant.

Parade Forms at Fountain.

The parade, which formed at the fountain, flanking at South Chicago and Exchange avenues, started at exactly at 2:20 p. m. and proceeded east on Ninety-second street to Commercial avenue, thence to Ninetieth street and east on Ninetieth street to Buffalo avenue, then south on Buffalo avenue to Ninety-second street, thence east on Ninety-second street and Ewing avenue to Ninety-fifth street, returning to Calumet theater square at 3:20, where addresses were delivered by the distinguished guests, among whom were Congressman James R. Mann, Allen-man Bellows and George G. Clarke, former state's attorney of South Bend, Ind., who delivered the principal address of the occasion.

ROBBED OF VALUABLE DIAMONDS

$2,000 Worth of Jewels Formerly of Hammond,
Lost In Simplex Vault
Owned By the Chaves, Robbery in Montreal.

RECEPTACLE IS DYNAMITED

News Received in Hammond By Mrs.
Merryweather, Who Is the Mother of Mrs. Chave—Other Misfortunes Which Have Befallen the Family Lately.

M. E. Merryweather, the mother of Mrs. Archie Chave, whose husband is employed by the Simplex Railway Appliance company at Montreal, Canada, received word from her daughter recently in which she said that thieves had broken into the vault of the Simplex company in that city and had stolen $2,000 worth of diamonds which the Chaves had put there for safekeeping.
Vault Is Blown Open.

It is understood that the diamonds were put there temporarily and it just happened that the robbery occurred while they were there. The vault was blown open and a quantity of valuable papers, including some contracts and other instruments were taken, but the thieves failed to get any of the Simplex cash.

It is understood that the Chave losses include a beautiful sunburst, several diamond rings, a stickpin and diamond stud belonging to Mr. Chave and several other less valuable articles of jewelry.

Only recently Mr. Chave lost a valuable horse through its untimely death, and they have had several other misfortunes which have given them a run of bad luck.

Mrs. Chave was formerly Miss Rose Merryweather, and is very well known in this city. Several years ago she moved to Montreal, where Mr. Chave has an important position with the Simplex Railway Appliance company.
They have returned on several occasions to visit friends here.
