

HERE AND THERE IN THE CALUMET REGION

Day's Grist in South Chicago

Move Into New Quarters.

The police at Kensington will move into their new quarters on Thursday of this week. It is rumored that there will be a shake-up among the officers and that the station may have a new supervising officer, but the report cannot be credited.

Ejected From Boarding House.

George Radcliffe, Stony Island avenue, Parkside, was ejected from his boarding house last night because he snored and said things in his sleep. John Rallo, the landlord, was the man who created considerable diversion for the neighbors by throwing the star boarder and his effects into the street. Radcliffe slept on a cot in the kitchen and soon after retiring he began to play a symphony on his nasal organ. He ran the scale so loud—at times reaching high C—that he aroused all the sleepers in the house and they entered a protest. Rallo made up his mind that the best way to stop the snoring was to throw the boarder into the street, so an attempt was made to eject Radcliffe.

In the process tables and chairs were overturned and hurled across the room. Finally they both clinched and Rallo exhibited red marks on his throat, where he said the ejected boarder clutched him. Things quieted down before midnight, when Radcliffe sought another boarding place.

Dies In County Hospital.

John Petrovich died this morning in the county hospital from an abscess on the brain, which developed after he had been assaulted in the saloon of I. S. A. Rebac. Rebac was placed under $10,000 bond yesterday and his wife was placed under $5,000. They are both in jail, having been unable to furnish the bond. The trouble in the Rebac saloon occurred on September 30, when Petrovich refused to pay for his drinks. Witnesses say that he was struck over the head by the saloonkeeper while his wife held him.

Delays Traffic.

A delivery wagon to which was attached a horse, belonging to B. Grossman, 8452 Buffalo avenue, broke down at Seventy-fifth street and Stony Island avenue last evening about 4:30 and delayed traffic for nearly an hour. The place of the accident is the intersection of the Seventy-fifth and HEARD BY RUBE.

If you didn't register yesterday you have no business taking anybody else's time talking politics. A man who will talk politics by the hour and on election day run away from the polls has a yellow streak running all the way through him.

Even if the moving of the Chicago, Lake Shore and Eastern shops will take several hundred men away from South Chicago. Still we will manage to pull through all right.

A tour of inspection by the health official in South Chicago might reveal the fact that there may be more cases of diphtheria within our limits.

The business men's complimentary smoker tonight at Lincoln hall will not doubt be attended by a large crowd.

And speaking about other things there was some joyous hearts among the baseball fans in South Chicago last night when the score read 3 to 0.

Thus far there has been no feasible method of electrifying the campaign cigar.

Several of the democratic leaders in South Chicago were downtown yesterday arranging to get speakers for the opening of the campaign, the date of which will be announced later.

The only reason why we can see that you didn't register is because you were probably handed a campaign cigar.

A South Chicago woman in court the other day said a man had no right to keep anything from his wife. As a matter of fact he can't very well however hard he tries.

If they had gotten the baseball scores by innings at the place of registration yesterday the count might have been larger.

Of course a little subscription might be raised in South Chicago and given to the street car company so that they would be able to put a little heat in their cars.

Chicago's health officials have just awakened to the fact that the Chicago water supply is polluted by the waters of the Calumet river at South Chicago. Wonder if they would even give the Calumet credit for that.

The "TIMES" bulletin board was surrounded by an eager crowd yesterday when the results of the cub-tiger game came in.

Building Permits.

The following building permits were issued by the building department yesterday:

7232 Union avenue, two-story brick flats, J. Heun$4,500
7241 Emerald avenue, two-story brick flats, A. Zimmerman 4,500

11171 Parnell avenue, two-story concrete residence, G. Zeikel 2,000
5833 Wallace street, one-story brick basement, J. Kane 1,100

Death Record.

Gertrude Harding, 72, 10200 Wallace avenue, Emma Krohn, 4, 7632 South Chicago avenue, Don C. Merrick, 1, 6440 Ellis avenue, John Spill, 25, 8040 Parnell avenue.

HERE AND THERE.

Judge Wells presided at the South Chicago municipal court yesterday morning.

Mr. P. M. Kelly, superintendent of the Illinois Steel company's foundries, is in the east inspecting the various foundries.

Joseph Brown, of the real estate firm of Young & Brown, of Commercial avenue, made a business trip to Chicago yesterday.

Many of South Chicago's young people are expecting to attend the dance at Calumet Theater hall tonight.

Mrs. John Boyer of Ninety-ninth street and Avenue J, who has been very ill at the Baptist hospital in Chicago, is reported to be much improved.

The bazaar given by St. Bride's church at Jones' hall, Windsor Park, will commence next Monday evening and the proceeds will go towards the new church fund.

Sheriff's Sale.

The date of sale of the steamer "Tourist" has been changed to Oct. 14, 1908, 11th street and Calumet river, 3 p. m. sharp. Inquire of William Christy, bailiff municipal court, or Frank Foster, room 15, 3206 Commercial avenue, South Chicago.

FOR SALE—Cheap, force and section well pump with point. Hass & Hill, 1006 Commercial avenue, Chicago, Ill.

Residence 9220 Exchange avenue.

KEEPER OF BLIND PIG FINED BY JUDGE WELLS.

James Zajack of the East Side, was fined $25 and costs yesterday in Judge Wells' court for selling liquor without a license. It is said that Zajack was conducting a blind pig near Lake Calumet.

HORSE DOCTOR MISSING

Sells Gary Man's Team While on Way to Greener Fields.

Dr. Hennigen, of Gary, is missing and a fine team of mules, belonging to Stanley Gaston, of Gary was sold in Michigan City to a man who will now have to turn them over to the Gary police.

Dr. Hennigen made his headquarters at Gary and made excursions from that city to various places in the country where he raked in shuckles, selling fake horse medicines to the credible farmers about the country.

He is known to have gone as far as Michigan City where he disposed of most of his stock on hand and then decided to sell his team and buggy, the property of Stanley Gaston of Gary.

He did so and when Mr. Gaston discovered that his outfit did not return at the proper time he had the police in the surrounding cities make inquiries as to where Hennigen was last seen.

The police in Michigan City located the team and they are holding it pending its identification by Gaston. In the meantime the sick Dr. Hennigen managed to get out of the city and has gone to parts unknown.

THEY START AID SOCIETY

Prominent Jewish Ladies at East Chicago Organize Yesterday.

(Special to THE TIMES.)

Indiana Harbor, Ind., Oct. 14.—The first step was taken towards the building of a Jewish synagogue in Indiana Harbor yesterday when the Jewish ladies of the city organized the first Jewish Ladies' Aid society. The organization is comprised of the faithful and most prominent Jewish families of the city and will do splendid work in the raising of funds with which to complete their church plans.

The ladies are already preparing for their first grand ball, to be given in Cohen's hall in about six weeks, and advertising matter will be distributed within the next two or three weeks.

The trustees of the association are Mesdames Cohen, Markovitch and Wolpert, and the following officers have been chosen for the ensuing year: President—Mrs. M. H. Braman. Vice President—Mrs. A. Zimmerman. Secretary—Mrs. Brenner. Treasurer—Mrs. Barney Cohen.

DYER.

Mat Brick of near St. John, was here Monday looking after business matters.

Theodore Kammer was at St. John Tuesday evening to attend the meeting of the D. R. K. C. V. society.

A large number from here attended the funeral of the late F. P. Kellman at St. John Tuesday.

Bernard Schulte, sr., of Schererville, transacted business here Monday.

F. F. Scheidt was a St. John visitor Monday.

According to reports, damaging fires have broken out in the woods south of here. Tuesday evening the farmers living in that neighborhood were busy fighting the flames. Whether the fires were extinguished we are unable to tell.

George Gard of Schererville, was here yesterday to look after some business matters.

LANSING.

Mrs. M. Andrews and son, Sydney, of West Pullman were visitors in town this week.

Mrs. Book was in Chicago Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lange were in Dolton this week.

W. C. Vandenberg was a Chicago visitor Monday.

EAST CHICAGO AND INDIANA HARBOR

EAST CHICAGO.

Wanted a Change of Venue.

The high school team will play Gary courts, but the limit has been reached by Andrew Paulinson, a Swede residing in the south end of the city. Paulinson was arrested Monday on a charge of assault and battery and haled before Judge William A. Reiland. Not being perfectly familiar with the laws of Indiana he demanded a change of venue to Minneapolis. He thought that the justice would be given him in that hot-bed of Swedish residents, and was apparently very much put out because the local judge failed to see the advisability of such a course. He was given a three days' continuance, however, in which to secure legal assistance, and his case will be called for trial on Thursday morning.

Several East Chicagoans attended the 5-cent theater at Hines' roller skating rink in Whiting last evening, as the guest of the management.

High School Happenings.

The high school team will play Gary high school's team on Saturday at Sawmill park. A large crowd is desired to witness the defeat (?) of the Gary bunch.

The boys' basketball practice has been discontinued for an indefinite time on account of the football season.

The "freshies" are quite proud of their football stars, several of whom have been elected on the regular H. S. team.

Nuff sed!

The DeBrie agency schedule loans amounting to $10,000 during the past week. The money was all loaned to residents of East Chicago and is to be used in the construction of four new homes, the names of the owners of which are excluded for obvious reason.

J. D. Williams of Chicago avenue is high school office men these cool days. His warm lunches certainly touch the spot and a big decrease in the attendance at local boarding houses is noticeable.

H. C. Van Deusen of the Standard Nurseries company, Valparaiso, was an East Chicago business visitor yesterday.

Bruno Schreiber, candidate on the democratic ticket for county treasurer, was looking after those dilapidated fences again yesterday afternoon.

P. Grebner of the Diamond market was a New Carlisle visitor over Sunday, returning yesterday morning.

Miss Nellie McKay and brother, Blanford, of Beacon street, attended a dancing party at Long's hall last evening.

Last night was the regular meeting of the East Chicago Odd Fellows lodge. The ritualistic work was exemplified by the degree team.

Miss Nellie McKay of Beacon street and Miss Carrie Busch have declared their intention of studying at the Bush Temple Conservatory of Music during the coming winter, taking a course in operatic work.

George H. Lewis of the Calumet Hardware company was a Chicago business visitor yesterday.

Miss Florence Lewis of Magoun avenue was a Chicago visitor yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Francis Waite of Hammond was the guest of Mrs. G. E. Hinds of this city yesterday afternoon.

Several members of the East Chicago high school will render vocal selections at the concert to be given Oct. 16, near future by the Bible class of the M. E. Sunday school.

Timothy Ball, Lake county's historian, was an East Chicago visitor yesterday afternoon. Mr. Ball, although 93 years of age, is still in the best of health, walks upright and is able to read without the use of spectacles. He is, in fact, an excellent example of the longevity of his simple mode of residence.

The Bingo club has splendidly entertained last evening at the home of Mrs. Edmunds, on Baring avenue. About twenty ladies were present and indulged in playing the club game, crokinole, until a late hour.

The funeral of Mrs. Josie Trainak, of Baring avenue, was held this morning, solemn high mass being recited at St. Stanislaus' church by Rev. Father Bolka, assisted by Fathers Stachewski, of Indiana Harbor, and Czernowski, of the Whiting church. Interment was made in Holy cross cemetery, West Hammond, under the direction of Andrew Kmies.

Mrs. Anna Cowley and infant son of Grand Crossing are spending a few days at the home of Mrs. Cowley's mother, Mrs. Ida Williams of Magoun avenue.

Melvin Haswell is still confined to his home with an injury to his hip, received while playing in the football game against the Oxford A. C. of Chicago last Sunday. He will be able to resume his work within a few days, however, and Mel's smile will perhaps brighten the look of gloom that settled on the countenance of his team when it was prophesied that he would be out of the game for several weeks.

Del Funkhouser, the genial constable of Judge William A. Reiland's court, is suffering with a severe attack of stomach trouble.

Michael Kinney of Olcott avenue left last night for an extended business trip to his former home in Gerard, O.

Attorney Pat Keenan was an Indiana Harbor visitor last evening.

Messrs. I. Specter, W. L. Cherry, Charles Nelson and P. Keenan enjoyed a hunting trip in the vicinity of Miller's Station Monday afternoon and yesterday. They returned about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, bringing with them a goodly array of mudhens, ducks and snipe.

Miss Hattie Sacharasz will resume her labors in the local postoffice the latter part of next week, and is reported as rapidly convalescing from her recent illness.

Mrs. John Howard was a Towle Opera House visitor last evening, witnessing "The Lost Trail."

I. Specter of Olcott avenue yesterday received his annual consignment of Cunard steamship line tickets and literature.

Mrs. Andrew Wickey, of One Hundred and Forty-fifth street and Olcott avenue, yesterday afternoon entertained several friends in honor of Mrs. Robert Spear, who will shortly leave for her new home in Indianapolis. About twenty ladies were present and an excellent time is said to have occupied the afternoon of the ladies. Mrs. Wickey proved a delightful hostess and presided with unusual ability at the afternoon tea.

Attorney Willis E. Roe has been retained by the defense in the divorce proceedings of Maurice Castleman, the Gary real estate dealer, against his wife. Mrs. Castleman is now in Rockford, Ill., and intends to fight the case, although it has not yet been stated whether a denial or a cross-complaint will be filed.

Mrs. J. D. Williams of Magoun avenue visited "The Lost Trail" at Towle's Opera House last evening.

PROPERTY LOANS at Roe's Law Office.

INDIANA HARBOR.

Constable Charles Muller was a Crown Point business visitor this morning.

Attorney Willis E. Roe transacted business in Chicago today.

The Stirling orchestra will hold another of their dancing parties at I. O. O. F. hall on Forsyth avenue tomorrow evening. Professor Long of Woodlawn has been engaged to give instructions from 8 to 9 o'clock, after which the usual reception will be held until midnight.

Constable James Lowden and Andrew Fuxy were South Bend visitors yesterday afternoon.

When you want that piano of yours tuned or exchanged for a new one write M. J. Madden, 3332 Michigan avenue, Indiana Harbor.

Members of the Royal League and visitors of the league have been notified that a smoker and banquet has been arranged to take place next Friday evening in the lodge rooms in Cline's hall, this city. The function will be held in celebration of the league's twenty-fifth anniversary. The order is one of the finest fraternal and benefit associations in the country and its growth during the past year has been especially marked. M. Sternberg will serve the Friday evening banquet and a good time is assured to all who care to participate in the joys of the evening.

Fred Selubeck of east side has taken a position in the Walker & Barrett market on Michigan avenue, and has moved his family into the flat above the store.

Dr. and Mrs. George Orf saw "The Stubborn Cinderella," at the Princess theater Tuesday evening.

Mrs. J. A. McGranahan and Miss Lulu Brooks have decided to open millinery parlors in the Frank building on Pennsylvania avenue, near Michigan, and will commence operations the latter part of this week. Both ladies are experienced milliners and have gained quite a reputation by their uniqueness of design. Miss Brooks recently arrived in East Chicago from her home in Waukegan, Wis., and is especially well adapted to the millinery work, while Mrs. McGranahan is a prominent figure in Harbor social affairs.

The Misses Emma and Kate Buchholz and Mr. Edward Eckert of Henderson, Ky., are spending a few days in this city as the guest of Dr. George Orf and wife.

Millinery of quiet elegance is our motto. Those who prefer highest quality millinery of modest style will find such here at the Little Hat shop, upstairs, 3332 Michigan avenue, Indiana Harbor.
