THE HAMMOND DAIRY CO.
Cor. Oakley Ave. and Clinton St.

At the close of the games the hostess served her guests with a dainty course luncheon. Mrs. Koch will entertain at the next party on Thursday afternoon.

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENT.
The wedding of Miss Mary McKeown and Albert Towle will take place next Wednesday evening, Oct. 21, at 8 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Amos Towle, 38 West State street. The ceremony which will be read by the Rev. Sharp of the First Baptist church will be witnessed by only the relatives of the young people.

MRS. WEIS ENTERTAINS.
Mrs. Jacob Weis entertained the members of the Sewing Circle No. 1 of St. Margaret's hospital yesterday afternoon at her home in Douglas street. The meeting was one of the very pleasant ones of the year, and about twenty-five ladies were present. The afternoon was passed very pleasantly with cards, several games of bridge being played. Mrs. W. D. Weis and Mrs. George Eder were successful in winning the first and second honors and the consolation prize was awarded Mrs. Knosser. At the close of the afternoon the guests were served with refreshments. The next meeting of the society will be in two weeks, when Mrs. John Rohman entertains at her home in State street.

ACME CLUB MEETS.
The members of the Acme Social club spent a very pleasant afternoon yesterday at the home of Mrs. B. Kenney in East State street. The ladies enjoyed an afternoon at cards and the hostess gave two pretty prizes to Mrs. Noland and Mrs. Miller. At 5 o'clock a dainty course luncheon was served. The ladies will meet again in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Miller.

COLUMBIA CLUB PARTY.
Mrs. Henry Bicknell entertained the members of the Columbia club very delightfully yesterday afternoon at her home in Rimbach avenue. Many of the members were present and Mrs. Whitmore of St. Louis was the club's only guest for the afternoon. Progressive euchre was played from small tables and the prizes were won by Mrs. Peter Crumpacker and Mrs. Frances Kingsley. The hostess served her guests with a delicious luncheon at the close of the party. The club will meet again in two weeks, and Mrs. Charles Kasson will be hostess at her home in Bellview place.

MISS HORNAK ENTERTAINS.
Miss Mary Hornak entertained the members of the Young Ladies' Sewing club last evening at her home in State Line street. The evening was passed informally with embroidery work and music, after which the hostess served her guests with a course luncheon. About ten members of the club were present and report an enjoyable party. They will meet again next Thursday, although the place of meeting has not been decided.

ENTERTAINS AT SMALL PARTY.
Miss Mary Ruschli entertained a few friends very informally last evening at her home in West State street. The young people passed the evening pleasantly with games and music, after which refreshments were served.

VISIT IN INDIANAPOLIS.
Mr. and Mrs. L. Carey have gone to Indianapolis for a few days' visit with relatives and friends.

PLEASANT PARTY.
The Young Ladies' club of Hammond will entertain at one of their popular parties this evening in West hall, at which about seventy-five or eighty guests are expected. The young ladies of the club will entertain guests from out of town, and anticipate a very pleasant party. Games and music will be features of entertainment for the evening and dainty refreshments will be served.

ARRANGE FOR FALL FESTIVAL.
The Martha society of the First Christian church met at the home of Mrs. Will Lash in Plummer avenue yesterday for quite a good attendance of members, and at the close of the meeting refreshments were served. During the business hour it was decided to hold the next meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Carahan, 166 Calumet avenue, and a full attendance of members is desired. The ladies also completed arrangements for a fall festival, which they will give Nov. 7 in the K. of P. hall. A New England dinner will be served and a large assortment of hand-made articles will be on sale. The sale is being given for the benefit of the church.

CLUB MEETS FOR PARTY.
Mrs. E. J. Seeley entertained the members of the Fern Leaf Linen club Wednesday afternoon at her home in East Sibley street. The afternoon was spent in an informal social way and dainty refreshments were served.

THE NEW MILLINER.
Miss L. G. Waite, who came here from Chicago a short time ago, is enjoying a lively business. Her up-to-date ideas are much appreciated. Her hats show individuality and art, and this is what appeals to the better class of trade. Her parlors are over the Lion store in the Rimbach block.

GUARANTEED LIQUOR CURE.
Drunkness is a progressive disease; the moderate drinker is not satisfied with two or three drinks a day, the craving for more and more becomes irresistible as the disease advances; the result is Chronic Alcoholism.

The treatment used successfully by thousands right in their own homes is Orin. It is sold under a positive guarantee to effect a cure or your money refunded.
Orin No. 1 is the secret remedy; Orin No. 2 is for those willing to take the treatment. Either form costs $1. Write the Orin Co., Washington, D. C., for booklet, mailed in plain sealed envelope. Sold by leading druggists in this city by the Lion Store and Pharmacy.
