FOR MR. BRYAN TO ANSWER.

Mr. Bryan will business be better or poorer if you are elected? Does your free silver and government ownership record warrant your support by the business interests of the country? Why are they prejudiced against you? Why do men of all parties say that you will retard an industrial revival? Why did prosperity follow the adoption of the policies you strenuously opposed? Did you not in your letter of acceptance commit yourself irrevocably to all the various policies you advocated during the past twelve years?

Were you wrong or right in 1896?

Were you wrong or right in 1900?

WHAT MARSHALL SAID ABOUT THE REPUBLICANS.

WE HAVE A WORD TO SAY TO the republicans who feel inclined to vote for Thomas R. Marshall for governor of Indiana. We do not believe that a man who is so rabidly partisan as Marshall deserves a single republican vote. This is outside of the fact that Marshall is the tool of the brewery trust and doesn't deserve the vote of either thinking democrat or republican.

At one time Mr. Marshall was chairman of the Twelfth congressional district for his party.

In January, 1900, at the district convention held in Auburn, Dekalb county, Mr. Marshall made a speech on retiring from the office which was printed in the democratic papers of that district. Following is an extract from it, as it appeared in the democratic paper of his own home town, the Columbia City Post, Jan. 17, 1900:

"Four years ago you called me to act as district chairman. I then resolved to know none among you save the democratic party and its candidates. I put aside all my own opinions, believing it to be my duty, as I loved the party and loved its candidates, to stand for unity. I did my duty in the fear of God and in sight of men. I would bend to no faction. I would not say: Lo, here is democracy, or there is democracy, but believed that true democracy consisted in standing by the party and voting for its candidates. That was my platform, and here today I bring back to you the badge of servitude you laid upon me as pure and unbranded as you gave it to me. I know not what views you may hold today.

"I do know that the worst of democracy is better than the best republicanism."

"Any man who can get on the edge of the democratic party and is willing to support the ticket is entitled to bear with us a portion of the heat and burden of the day. We are the party of the people, the party of the constitution. So long as the men are ranked higher than the things of the world—higher than the trusts—so long will the democratic party be the party of the people. It is essential, therefore, that harmony and unity prevail among us. We were never nearer success than we are today, but we were never farther from success than we shall be if we allow dissensions to creep in among us. If we bury the hatchet we shall win the greatest battle ever fought for human rights. And I ask you to remember that there is no democrat so high or none so lowly, but that he may call upon me when the time comes to devote my time and efforts to the success of the party. I pledge myself now, as ever, to stand by the platform and the candidates of the party, whatever the platform or whoever the candidates may be."

WELLMAN MAKES ANOTHER GAS BAG ASCENSION.

THE CHICAGO RECORD-HERALD correspondent, Walter Wellman, the north pole or "hot air" correspondent, has succeeded admirably in making himself the laughing stock of politicians in Indiana by declaring that Bryan has Indiana today by 40,000 majority. Those who know Wellman have long since learned to discredit his predictions and assertions and the only amazing thing about it all is that a newspaper like the Record-Herald will publish the dreams that Wellman has.

It wasn't so very long ago that Wellman exposed himself to ridicule by declaring Roosevelt would accept a third term and based it on some "reliable" information he had dreamed. In four columns of misinformation, Wellman gave his paper his reasons yesterday why Indiana was "surely" going democratic. A few of them are sufficient to discredit the whole story. Wellman says: "Nothing appears to be working for Taft." "Republicans are lukewarm and discouraged." "The Indianapolis News is in exact touch with the people." "Watson is of course beaten for governor." "The next legislature it is 5 to 1 will be democratic." "The watchword is the man who votes for Taft is going back on the union." "The unions have all endorsed the program of the American Federation of Labor, the Gompers' program, to beat Taft." "The tendency among business men and shopkeepers is to vote for Bryan." "The republican organization is incomplete and ineffective." But it would take too much space to enumerate Wellman's misstatements. They are as ridiculous as they are untrue, as will be shown on Nov. 3. It is unnecessary to state that Wellman lies deliberately when he says that the unions have all endorsed Gompers' program. It is unnecessary to state that Gompers had two well-advertised meetings in Lake county, a labor stronghold, last week and the exact attendance was less than 300 and many of them republicans. In fact it is unnecessary to take any notice of a hundred other Wellman "gas bag" statements for democrats, far better posted men on the trend than Wellman concede that Bryan has no show to wipe out the 93,000 republican majority Roosevelt got.

JAMES E. WATSON THE POPULAR CANDIDATE.

AT THE GREATEST POLITICAL GATHERING ever held in this corner of the state, James E. Watson, candidate for governor on the republican ticket, spoke to 10,000 people at Crown Point last Saturday and was greeted at East Chicago by 3,000 more in the evening. The idiotic declarations that apathy exists in Lake county, that the republican party organization is inefficient speak for themselves. Mr. Watson was greeted with tremendous enthusiasm. No candidate on any ticket, for any party ever equalled it. Crowds of course don't count votes, but the Hammond, Crown Point and East Chicago demonstrations that have been given Mr. Watson are indicative of both interest and enthusiasm in the principles of policies that he advocates and that the republican party stands for. No candidate for governor who ever visited Lake county has been received with the acclaim that has been accorded Watson. He will get a big majority in this county. He deserves it. He stands for clean principles. Decent people can vote for him with safety. Lake county will give her vote on Nov. 3 for James E. Watson and county option. If other counties do half as well as old Lake, Indiana will be freed from the rule of the insolent brewery trust and of Taggartism.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

WOMAN—GOD BLESS HER.

Another man has tried to picture the American woman as he thinks she is.

It is Professor Robert Herrick of the University of Chicago in a novel, "Together."

If you have not read the book, don't. It is not worth while.

The author doubtless succeeds in drawing the outline of a certain type of woman.

The sort of sensualized female whose auto is at the curb of the swell cafes on the Great White Way at 1 o'clock a. m.

The sort whose menu calls for cocktails and cigarettes.

Whose petty, trivial, if not vicious, life of leisure has devitalized her womanhood.

But who are these? A few blighted blossoms in the blooming garden of American women or a better comparison—a bunch of weeds in the garden.

The author puts these words into the mouth of this kind of women on entering matrimony:

"Come, bring me money and I will kiss you; make a name before the world and I will noise it abroad; build me a house more splendid than the others; set me above my sisters and I will reflect honor on you among men by the clothes I wear and the excellent shape of my figure."

BUT—the picture is a libel!

Suppose we try a different picture. Suppose we put into the mouth of the real American woman her thoughts on entering matrimony.

It would be something like this:

"Come, bring me your love and protection and I will kiss and aid you; make for yourself a strong character in which I shall delight both day and night; build me a home—it may be humble—where I may be your queen; I do not ask for rich garments, nor will I seek to parade my charms before men; I will bear your children who shall fill our house with laughter, and we twain shall go together, each loving the other more than self, through all our lives."

Look on that picture and then on this.

Which is the truer painting of the American woman as she really is?

Professor Herrick knows very well the type he paints. If he knows no other he is to be pitied.

Or, when blossoms are so plentiful, why should any one take the trouble to gather a bouquet of garden weeds?

THIS DATE IN HISTORY.

1741—David Garrick, the celebrated actor, made his first appearance in London.

1774—Brig. "Peggy Stewart" and its cargo of tea destroyed by the patriots at Annapolis, Md.

1781—Cornwallis surrendered to the French and American army at Yorktown.

1905—President Roosevelt visited North Carolina.

THIS IS MY 49TH BIRTHDAY.

St. John Hanbury-Williams.

Colonel Sir John Hanbury-Williams, who has been the military secretary to the governor-general of Canada since 1904, was born in Monmouthshire, October 19, 1859, and was educated at Wellington college. From the beginning of his military career in 1875 his progress has been very rapid. During the 80s he served in Egypt, in India and in Burma, and was honored with a medal for his gallant conduct at the battle of Tel-el-Kebir. In 1897 he went to South Africa as military secretary to Lord Milner and during the Boer war was again mentioned in dispatches. Following his South African experiences he was secretary to the secretary of war from 1900 to 1903, and the following year he became military secretary to Lord Grey. He was knighted last summer during the visit of the prince of Wales to the Quebec tercentenary celebration.

RANDOM THINGS AND FLINGS

And remember, that the man who comes up to bet a big wad of money on the result, doesn't know any better than you how it is going to come out.

Every man who goes to the devil saves others who are traveling the same road.

Surely a Nature Fake.

Mr. Gilbert, who lives on Shack Hill, has a horse that eats meat. Mr. Gilbert frequently goes into a meat shop and securing a piece of steak offers it to the horse. The animal always accepts the handout with apparent thanks, and chews the raw meat with much relish.—Millinocket (Me.) Journal.

For President

WILLIAM H. TAFT

"He is as strong as he is gentle. His reputation is simply spotless. In all the agitation of a heated campaign for the greatest office in the world, no one has ventured to intimate a doubt of the absolute honesty of this man who has been before the country for a quarter of a century. Nor can any one successfully dispute the simple proposition that in the whole history of the United States no one was ever named for the presidency who was so fitted by nature, by training and by experience for the duties, dignities and responsibilities of that unique office."—CHARLES HOPKINS, in "The Independent."

For V-President

JAMES S. SHERMAN

"We certify to all the great electorate that when their votes in November shall have chosen James S. Sherman to be vice president of the United States, the senate will be sure of a presiding officer in character and competency worthy of the best traditions of that great deliberative body, and that—which God forbid—the and contingency were to come which should for a fourth time call a vice president from New York to the executive office, the interests of the whole country would be safe in good hands, and the great office of the presidency would suffer no degradation from the high standard of dignity and honor and competency of which we are so justly proud."—ELIHU ROOT, at Sherman Notification Ceremonies.

UP AND DOWN IN INDIANA

FARMERS FIGHT FIRES.

Fire swept over five miles of country between the Pennsylvania railroad tracks and the Grand Trunk Western railroad, near Laporte, destroying hundreds of tons of hay, burning up buildings and making it necessary for several hundred farmers to spend all of the night saving their homes.

GOMPERS AT TERRE HAUTE.

Over one hour late, the Gompers special, bearing the president of the American Federation of Labor and state labor leaders, arrived in Terre Haute at 9:15 o'clock Saturday night. Mr. Gompers spoke to a crowd of workmen here tonight.

BOYS HOLD ELECTION.

The boys of Crawfordsville between the ages of 14 and 18 years, will hold a mock election October 31. The election will be under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and every boy will be allowed to vote. Ballots will be cast for the presidential and state nominees.

WATSON ADDRESSES DRUMMERS.

It was announced at a meeting of the Indianapolis Republican Traveling Men's club at the Claypool last night that James E. Watson, candidate for governor, and Jesse Overstreet, candidate for congress, will make an address at Caleb Mills hall next Saturday night under the auspices of the travelers' club.

OBSERVE THE MOTTO "KNOW THYSELF." THEY ARE SUCH POOR COMPANY.

And may be the railroads would find their business more profitable if they would do some newspaper advertising—at regular cash rates.

The social circle has to be squared before one can get into it.

And a lot of people have been waiting all this time for that series of thrilling words from John W. Gates: "I'll bet a million on Taft."

Friends

Like umbrellas; When the storm comes on You don't have to stop to see Whether the hand Is pretty Plain.

We believe that if anybody can find a thing place to break through in the south it will be Mr. Taft.

We have noticed that you can seldom say of a girl, "She is pretty," that some girl present doesn't add, "Yes, and she knows it."

And want it be dandy to read the president's annual Thanksgiving message and know what a lot we have to be thankful for?

THE MAN WHO JUST LOAFERS AROUND, NEVER STANDS IN ANY DANGER OF BEING RUN DOWN BY PROSPERITY.

The way it seems to a lot of hard-working, honest people in these parts, is that Mr. Gompers thinks he is the only friend in the country that organized labor ever had.

We would admire some piano covers a great deal more if they were hermetically sealed.

A Timely Mention.

If you want to be right at every jump in the road, read the Bible, subscribe for this rag, and vote the republican ticket straight through from steam to sledge.—Brawlings (Wyo.) Republican.

IN POLITICS

Won't Make a Monkey

of Himself For Bryan. Congressman Eugene W. Leake of New Jersey, democratic representative from the ninth district, who booted Bryan's nomination, has offered his services in the republican campaign and will make addresses in behalf of Mr. Taft.

"I declined the nomination for congress," said Mr. Leake, because I could not make a monkey of myself in following Mr. Bryan's policies. It is simply a boss system of politics. We had no recent instance of this until the advent of Bryan. He rules the party, determines the issues, and has changed the democratic party from a historic organization with a belief in certain principles to a one-man machine."

Mr. Leake adds that in bolting the

BREWERS ARE BUSY.

Large posters, depicting the alleged conditions in cities where local option has been tried, and which are credited to the brewery association of the state, have appeared in Newcastles on the bill boards in conspicuous places.

JAP GIRL MEETS FRIEND.

When Kiku Ishihara of Tokio came to Rushville to visit friends she did not expect to see the playmate of her childhood, Miss Jean Bishop, a graduate of De Pauw university and a music teacher here. Miss Bishop's parents are missionaries in Japan, and she was born there.

DISASTROUS FIRE STARTS.

A fire, which for a time threatened wholesale loss to the industrial section of Indianapolis, in the vicinity of Illinois and South streets, was discovered last night shortly before 11 o'clock in the warehouse of the Indianapolis Paper Stock company, 411 South Illinois street, where it raged fiercely for an hour.

FOREIGNERS STAY HERE.

Reports made by agents of six steam ship lines state very few foreigners are leaving for their former European homes. The outward travel has been unusually light this year so far as South Bend is concerned. On the other hand, scores of Poles and Hungarians are arriving here.

democratic national ticket he has followed Mr. Bryan's own advice that no man is bound to follow his party when it is contrary to his patriotism. He said that he believed the vote for Taft in New Jersey would be very large and Mr. Bryan's pitifully small.

Frank Shine, who came from downstate on the C. & I. railroad yesterday, said that a young man went through the train and took a poll of the vote among the passengers. He said that Taft was elected by quite a majority, but that many democrats who had refused a vote for Parker will vote for Bryan this year. As to Deane and Stevenson, the latter was elected by a good majority.

A number of people spent an hour or more this morning trying to find out when and where Mr. Bryan was to speak. They finally discovered that they had been given a bum steer and went home, wishing that they had spent all of that extra time in taking a good democratic snooze.

County Chairman F. Richard Schaaf affixed his signature to the summary of the final poll of Lake county and sent it to the state headquarters. As to the figures, Schaaf only smiles and says wait until election.

The democrats will have an inning tonight and tomorrow morning, but they have not made much preparation for the Bryan meeting because it has been trust upon them so hastily.

County Chairman Schaaf's splendid organization was loudly praised on Saturday when the results of the Watson meeting at Crown Point and East Chicago became known. Mr. Schaaf was roundly congratulated and believes that Lake county will roll up a splendid republican majority two weeks from tomorrow.

The Indianapolis News speaks about the "large" crowds that Gompers drew on his trip through Indiana. Gompers drew 300 people at his meetings in Hammond and Gar. The Indianapolis News has a poor conception of a large crowd.

The story circulated in Hammond yesterday that Bryan was to be in Hammond this morning, gave the Lake county democratic central committee some concern, and they were greatly chagrined to learn that the news had been erroneously given out. Mr. Bryan will go through Hammond on Tuesday morning.

Dates for speeches by Governor Hanbury were announced yesterday by Will H. Hays, chief of the speakers' bureau of the republican state committee, as follows:

October 17—Berne, afternoon; Fort Wayne, night.

October 19—Jeffersonville, night.

October 20—Corydon, afternoon.

October 21—Spiceford, afternoon.

October 22—Spencer, afternoon.

October 24—Greenfield, afternoon.

Other dates will be arranged to occupy all the time of Governor Hanbury between now and the election. The governor had arranged several addresses in Pennsylvania, but he notified Mr. Hays that he had canceled the Pennsylvania dates in order to devote all his time to the campaign in Indiana.

Vice President Fairbanks will spend the last five days of the campaign in a speaking tour of Indiana. He will make two speeches a day on October 28, 29, 30 and 31 and November 2. He will not travel by special train because only two speeches will be made each day.

Plans are being made to hold big

Priest Who Escaped Assailant's Shot.

THE REV. FATHER J. K. FIELDING

An attempt to assassinate the Rev. J. K. Fielding of Corpus Christi Roman Catholic church, one of the most widely known priests in America, was made in the church vestibule in Chicago at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon by an unidentified man. The stranger fired two shots at Father Fielding after a struggle and then made his escape through throngs of terrified children. The preservation of Father Fielding is attributed to his athletic prowess and to his ready wit in feigning to have been struck by the first shot and falling prostrate on the vestibule floor. As his assailant fled Father Fielding arose, ran upstairs to the rooms of the clergy, asked a fellow priest to notify the police, and himself took up the pursuit of the would-be murderer, following him for several blocks.

all-day rallies in all the towns in which he is to speak, and his address will be the feature of the day. There has been a great demand from all parts of the state for speeches by the vice president. The state committee could not send him to half of the places that have asked for him, but it is the intention to arrange his trip so that he will get into all parts of the state during the five days. The vice president has been on the stump for several weeks and is now in the east.

THE CREAM OF THE Morning News

Taft plurality of more than 87,000 in Wisconsin is indicated by the "straw vote" of the state, few changes being made from the usual alignment on national contests.

W. H. Taft spends day as guest of President Roosevelt and declares that he likes the White House board and expects to move in March 4.

Frank H. Jones, banker and veteran democrat, calls Bryan peril to prosperity and tells why he will vote for Taft.

Roger C. Sullivan is made a state issue by G. O. P. partisans, in showing how Bryan's attack on democratic leader is now a direct thrust at Stevenson.

Senator W. A. Clark and Roger C. Sullivan each give an additional $1,000 in race to keep places near top of democratic campaign fund donors' list.

Life-long democrats and republicans pledge their votes to William Street in the campaign against Kern and Wayman for state's attorney.

Performance of "The Servant in the House" at Ann Arbor before the faculty and students is a remarkable event and a strange innovation.

Hundreds made homeless by Michigan forest fires need shelter and food and Governor Warner has issued an appeal for help. Relief work is already under way. Fire situation is improved.

Drawing of names for the Rosebud Indian lands will begin at Dallas, S. D., this morning and all preparations are completed to make the affair free from hint of favoritism.

Industries are on a good basis, have gained much during the last ten months and the outlook is promising, according to reports of manufacturers.

Question of the existence of Front street in Kensington brings forth the accusation that the Illinois Central has grabbed the thoroughfare.

Quick move by France averts war between Turkey and Bulgaria and results in both nations agreeing to stop mobilization of troops.

Sperry's squadron is badly buffeted by gale on way to Yokohama, and Kearsarge, which parts from her consort owing to stress of weather, reaches port in need of repairs.

Continued large interior marketings of wheat have very nearly restored supplies to the normal and have made a load for speculators. Meanwhile export demands have fallen off.

Politics supplants the Balkan war scare as the controlling influence in the Wall street stock market.

Dr. Putnam on Health

Every sick man is a rascal. This includes school teachers. You have done wrong or you would not be sick. A good disposition means good health. Control your moods and you will digest badly cooked foods. Indigestion is the mother of 99 per cent of all sicknesses.

The man who does not eat four times too much can sit in a draft and not catch cold.

Wool is no good next to your skin. Why? Because it keeps your skin moist. A dry skin is a healthy skin. A wet skin is unhealthy. Wear Poroknit underwear, fifty cents the garment and Whiting doctors will not build brick houses with your money. How do I know? I tried both ways. And I had a cold half of the time when I wore all wool at four dollars the garment.

Have your window wide open every night the year around. If it rains or snows tack a piece of cloth over the opening.

Good health is the best thing in the world. Keep what you have and get more. Good health is the one thing on earth that you can't get too much of. Chew what you have in your mouth until it becomes a liquid. Drink water ten minutes before your meal. Then drink no liquid during the meal or for three hours afterward.

Think good thoughts. Start early each morning with a jolly good morning to every one you meet. Create your own climate. Make sunshine for others even on a rainy day. Think Whiting, Indiana, is one of the best towns in the world and you can make it so. "You are what you think and what you think you are." Mark Twain says, "Heaven has the climate but Hell has the company." In Whiting we have both.

WISDOM.

"A spendthrift," observes Uncle Elias, "should always marry an extravagant woman. Inside of six months they'll arrive each other to habits of economy."
