LARGE CHURCH WEDDING.

A large church wedding was celebrated this morning at 7 o'clock in All Saints' Catholic church when Miss Beulah Dolson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dolson, and Fred Fleck were married. The ceremony was read by the Rev. Edward E. Barrett, pastor of the church, in the presence of the relatives and friends of the young couple. The ring ceremony was used. As the bride entered the church a beautiful wedding hymn was sung by the choir, and during the ceremony a pretty program of wedding music was given. The bride had as her only attendant, Miss Theresa Fleck of Chicago, a sister to the groom. The groom was attended by his brother, George Fleck.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white cloth, richly trimmed with lace and insertion. She wore a long tulle veil caught up at the hair with a wreath of lilacs-of-the-valley. She carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses and lilacs-of-the-valley. Her maid-of-honor, Miss Fleck, was also prettily gowned in white and carried pink roses.

Following the ceremony the members of the bridal party and the relatives went to the home of the bride's parents in Schol street, where a reception was given in honor of the young couple. The house decorations were very prettily carried out in the bride's colors and autumn leaves. An elaborate wedding breakfast was served the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Fleck received many beautiful gifts. They will make their home in Hammond, where Mr. Fleck is employed, and where they have many friends who extend their congratulations and best wishes.

Mrs. Caraban will entertain the members of the Martha society of the First Christian church Thursday afternoon at her home in Calumet avenue. A full attendance of members is desired as business of importance in connection with the fall festival will be transacted.

AT TOWLE'S SATURDAY.

To be so near death as to have the rope around his neck and to escape amid a fusillade of shots by the villains, is among the many narrow escapes the hero has in "The Outlaw's Christmas," which will be at the Towle Opera House Saturday matinee and night, Oct. 24. During the action of the play the audience is carried through the Grand canyon of Colorado and lonely mountain trails and the beautiful shores of the Rio Grande river are shown. The jealousy of a woman who was thrown over by her former lover furnishes much of the action. The jump of his horse across the Rio Grande river after the bridge is broken down with the hero, his wife and their child on his back, is a thriller. In the end the adventures and her assistants confess their crime and there is a happy family reunion.

SUNDAY AT TOWLE'S.

Four acts without a dull moment, and a dramatic story full of human interest have made "Sold Into Slavery," by S. A. Judson, the big melo-dramatic success of the year. The eight scenes of the play are laid in New York city and the stage settings are exceptionally massive and elaborate. The play has received the highest praise everywhere, and comes to the Towle Opera House Sunday matinee and night, Oct. 25.

NEAR DEATH'S DOOR.

"I was near to death's door. The doctor said he had done all he could; that my stomach was old and worn out. I was so weak I could not walk. I took Mi-o-na tablets, and have been eating hearty ever since, and I am able to work like a tiger. I wish I could go and thank you myself. I send you my picture, and you can use my word and my picture, and I thank you again."—Mrs. Nelson Lucifer, 112 Fisk street, Athol, Mass.

Mi-o-na cures dyspepsia. If any readers of THE TIMES are suffering from stomach trouble of any kind, Summers' pharmacy will sell you a box of Mi-o-na for 50 cents with an absolute guarantee of relief, or money back. In many cases one box will effect a permanent cure. In chronic conditions more is necessary. But one thing is certain: one box of Mi-o-na will make you feel so much better and brighter, so much more energetic, that you will not give it up till cured.

RAILROAD MEN FOR TAFT.

Two Delegations Call on Roosevelt and Promise Support.

Two delegations of railway men called at the White House yesterday and told the president that they believed in him and were for Taft. One delegation consisted of members of the Railway Signal Men's association, in session there; the other of about forty members of the Railroad Firemen's association, who are on their way home from their annual convention. Mr. Roosevelt said to a caller that he was unable to understand why the democrats should claim that all the railroad men of the country will support Bryan.

THEY SLIDE FOR LIFE.

Fire Drill at Central School Building Elicits Some Excitement.

"A Slide for Life, or How It Was Done," is an essay that may be forthcoming any day now from either John or Willie, who attend the Central school.

The pupils of the school this morning practiced the fire drill through the new apparatus, and it was indeed a sight worth while to see the youngsters come shooting out of the huge mouth of the standpipe. It is great sport for them and as an attraction at White City it would surely be popular. It is all the more so, for the pupils when they can get the slide for nothing. It is indeed an exciting minute from the time that the alarm rings in the hall to the time when they land on the ground. They never know whether teacher is just fooling 'em or not, and herein lies the benefit of the drill. But despite the imagined danger there is always enough fun in store to outbalance the danger, real or imagined, for they never know if there is a fire or not until they have gone through the fire escape.

HIGH SCHOOL TIDINGS.

Rensselaer next. The local team will line up against the visitors next Saturday at Harrison park. They have a strong eleven, as they beat Crown Point 12 to 11. Hammond looks for a hard contest but expects to be victorious. This will be the first home game of the season with another high school.

Scrimmage practice took place last evening and was satisfactory to Coach Allee. New players are being tried and will be used in the future games. The rest the team received by having no game Saturday was a great benefit.

Most all of the articles stolen some time ago have been recovered. Some are yet missing but no doubt they will be recovered later.

The senior debating society has arranged a debate. This debate will only be given for the seniors and not the entire high school. The debate is as follows: Resolved, That intercollegiate football promotes the best interest of colleges. Affirmative, Floyd Murray, Thomas Blair; negative, Hazel Larue, Alice Hess.

On account of the absence of Principal McElroy, Superintendent McDonald had charge of opening exercises. His topic was "Ideals." He spoke on the ideal set for the high school and said it was the duty of each student in attendance in attaining it. His talk was very interesting.

POLICE COURT NEWS.

Officer Finds Pocketbook.
Officer Trinen found a pocketbook yesterday and turned it into the police station. Later in the day the purse was turned over to its owner, Albert Mroz. It contained $218 in cash. Through the honesty of Officer Trinen, the foreigner at the Standard district will not lose a cent of money.

Police Resent Mayor's Attack.

The entire police department is today discussing Mayor Lawrence Becker's attack on the metropolitan police department. They deny his statement that they refuse to co-operate with the city attorney in the prosecution of city cases and say that they go out of their way to do the things that are required in this department of police activity.

LABOR PAPER FOR TAFT.

The Steam Shovel and Dredge, the official organ of the Steam Shovel and Dredgers' union, in the October number republishes Samuel Gompers' program to swing the labor vote to Bryan and lauds Taft's labor record. The editorial says: "We have the utmost confidence in the success of his election to the presidency, of the confidence of the fair and just policies toward organized labor that prevailed while he was secretary of war."
