

FROM NEIGHBORING TOWN AND CITY

NEWS OF THE COUNTY SEAT

GEORGE LEINEN IS DEAD IN TEXAS.

Fever Takes Away Former Crown Laid in South.

Crown Point, Ind., Oct. 20.—(Special.)—Word has been received here by the relatives and friends of Mrs. Mary Leinen, formerly of this place, but now of Nazareth, Casper county, Texas, announcing the death of her eldest son, George Leinen, last Tuesday, from a disease known as Texas fever in that section of the country. The Leinens quite recently sold their farm and real estate holdings here and moved to Texas, but had luck seems to have followed them to the Lone Star state, this being the second death to occur in the family since leaving here, a daughter dying some months ago. The young man was about 28 years of age and was well and favorably known here. The remains were taken to the Nazareth cemetery, the body being the thirteenth to be interred in that burial place.

MANY ARE WEDDED AT CROWN POINT.

Crown Point, Ind., Oct. 20.—(Special.)—The following marriage licenses were issued here today:

Charles A. Swanson, Zelia Morency, Chicago. Pere E. Crotty, Corinne Ingraham, Chicago. Charles H. Fox, Ida Felts, Chicago. August Bakala, Mary Novak, Hammond. Roy Arthur Jull, Anna Wagner, Chicago. Andrew Kurl, Laura Smith, Chicago. John W. Harris, Marguerite Schumacher, Chicago. Floyd Walla, Toledo. Bertha Hecht, Hammond. Fred Scheffer, Anna Trich, Chicago. Schuyler Post, Minnie Knoll, Chicago. William A. Hughes, Columbus, Agnes Owen, Chicago. Frederick G. Crowell, Lillian E. Morrison, Chicago. Eugene F. Savage, Chicago. Matilda M. Freitag, St. Paul. E. B. Kuhn, Chicago. Mary McKeown, Hammond. Daniel Antrum, Frances R. Cavinder, Leroy, John Albert Curtis, Lena Valentine, Chicago. George F. Shattuck, Elgin; Della Brown, Sycamore. Homer J. Postelwalte, Beulah Cresson, Hammond. John C. Manning, Millie Moyer, Chicago. Frank A. Wallack, Augusta Buhr, Crown Point.

SHIPPERS HOLD MEETING AT TOWN HALL.

Will Form an Organization For Their Own Benefit and Welfare.

Crown Point, Ind., Oct. 20.—(Special.)—About sixty Lake county milk shippers assembled at the town hall yesterday to form an organization for their mutual benefit and welfare, and to protect themselves from some of the various actions that are to be brought against them. The chief topic under discussion was the recent action taken by the milk inspectors of Chicago, demanding an inspector of all dairies that ship milk to Chicago, specifically to find the prevalence of tuberculosis among the cows. There was a varied opinion as to the time and way of disposal of said inspected cattle and the farmers will protest against the methods that are said to be to be instituted among their herds. Dr. Wells of Hammond was present and explained the matter more fully to those interested. A meeting will be called in the course of a few weeks, when the matter will be taken up for further consideration, and an organization perfected that will be of benefit to the milk shippers and their interests.

CROWN POINT PEOPLE WED IN WAUKEGAN.

Henry Billings and Ada Graham Are Wedded Yesterday.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 20.—(Special.)—Henry Billings, aged 69, and Ada Graham, 58, both of Crown Point, secured a marriage license at Waukegan yesterday and were married at once. They evidently took a lesson from the elopers who come to Crown Point.

A Fine Story Started.

Some one with evil intent has started the story that the recent Watson barbecue and celebration was paid for out of the pockets of Lake county taxpayers. Such a misstatement is reprehensible in the extreme, as the money came solely from republican candidates and their supporters for the big affair and not a cent was paid in by any one that the republicans would not be proud to publish if the matter was necessary.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Frank A. Walacke, a former Crown Point resident, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walacke, and Miss Augusta Buhr of Crown Point, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Buhr of Andover, S. D. The young couple will be married at St. Mary's Catholic church on the morning of Thursday, October 22.

Mrs. Archibald Farley has issued invitations for a ladies' party at 5:30 on the afternoon of Wednesday, October 21.

The Woman's Study club will hold its regular weekly meeting this afternoon, at which time Miss Belle Peterson will read a paper on "Cardinal Richelieu," and Mrs. Eva Allman will have the lesson on "Household Sanitation."

Miss Belle Peterson has issued invitations to a large number of her girl friends for a luncheon and bride's shower, in honor of Miss Rae Rockwell, on Saturday afternoon.

The Hazard club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harold H. Wheeler on Court street. After ten games of pedro it was found that the prizes belonged to Mrs. Edward Kroat.

and Mrs. E. R. Cole. The club adjourned to meet again in two weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Farley will entertain a number of their friends at dinner on Friday evening of this week.

Clerk E. L. Shortridge will go to Indianapolis on Wednesday of this week to secure the state ballots to be used in the coming election.

The marriage license business has been rushing for the past week and in one day eleven were issued. Quite a percentage of the applicants of late have been Lake county people, and yesterday licenses were granted to three of these couples. They were Albert E. Towle and Mary McKeown of Hammond. Daniel Antrum and Frances R. Cavinder of Leroy. Homer J. Postelwalte and Beulah Cresson of Hammond.

John Porter of Wheatfield, but formerly of this place, was shaking hands with Crown Point friends yesterday.

The Center Township Republican club will be addressed by Judge Virgil Reiter at its headquarters, over Scheldt's drug store, on Friday night.

Jake Kusnau of Hammond transacted business here yesterday.

The Crown Point high school will play the Valparaiso team on their home grounds on Court street, next Saturday afternoon.

Center township has a perfect republican organization at present as could be desired, and will certainly set an example for the other townships to follow in voting a straight ticket. All the candidates are plenty good enough for them.

HESSVILLE.

Miss Clara Hess of Englewood was in Hessville Saturday, but was unable to remain to the funeral of her uncle, Joseph Hess, on account of the serious illness of Mrs. W. B. Laporte.

William Dedelow and family spent Sunday in Chicago at a reunion of the Dedelow family.

Mr. and Mrs. Corbett, Miss France and Mr. Corbett of Englewood spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. Wiggenton. Miss Lillian Wiggenton accompanied them home to make her home with her aunt, Mrs. Corbett.

George Chick and son, Willie, of Georgetown, Ky., formerly of Hessville, who have been visiting friends here for a few days, returned last evening. Mr. Chick and family will move back to Hessville in the spring.

Many people from out of town attended the funeral of Joseph Hess here today.

Joseph Hess, son of the founder of Hessville, was born in Hessville in 1873. He was a son of the late Joseph Hess, who died in 1895, and Elizabeth Hess. Mr. Hess was for many years superintendent of the Erie Sand pit. He has been a sufferer with consumption for many months, death coming at 7 o'clock Saturday morning, Oct. 17, 1908. During his sickness his sister, Miss Lydia Hess, proved a faithful nurse. The funeral was held today at the residence of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Hess, and was conducted by Rev. Theodore Claus of St. Paul's Lutheran church in Hammond. The pall-bearers were Messrs. E. B. Kuhn, T. F. Gorman, Phil Otto, Ed. Allen, James Vane and George Bergner. The interment was in the family lot in the Hessville cemetery. Mr. Hess is survived by his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Hess, two sisters, Mrs. Bunde of Hammond, and Miss Lydia Hess, of Hessville, seven brothers, Frank Julius, William of Hammond, George Albert, Edward and John of Hessville.
