J. Burquest of Magoun avenue, was the speaker, and has just returned from an extended tour of that region. His descriptions, augmented by the elaborate portrayals of the views by the stereopticon, were simply amazing to the audience, which was exceptionally good. As well as interesting, the discourse was geographically instructive, and a vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Burquest for the trouble he has taken in performing his duty as a member of the progressive organization.

BICYCLE THIEF BUSY IN EAST CHICAGO

W. A. McIntosh Finds Out That Loss of Wheel Was No Joke.

East Chicago, Ind., Oct. 21.—The bicycle thief got busy in East Chicago again last evening. W. A. McIntosh, a millman residing on Olcott avenue, is the victim and has reported to the police the loss of a brand new "Mitchell" wheel. The description includes a blue enameled frame, coaster brakes and reversible handle-bars.

According to the story told Sergeant Bowen, Mr. McIntosh left the wheel standing in front of the Clinton hardware store on Olcott avenue, while he entered the store to make a few purchases. When he came out, the machine was missing and no trace of its thief could be found. Thinking that the wheel had been taken to his home by some practical joker, Mr. McIntosh waited until 7:30 o'clock before reporting the robbery to the police, thus giving the thief at least an hour's start.

REMAINS OF PATRICK BRADY BURIED AT OAK HILL

Postmortem Examination Was Necessary to Diagnose Cause of Man Who Died Rather Suddenly.

East Chicago, Ind., Oct. 21.—(Special)—The remains of Patrick Brady were laid to rest in Oak Hill cemetery, Hammond, yesterday afternoon, after a postmortem by Dr. A. G. Schlieker. Mr. Brady died in the Hammond hospital last Friday evening but the proper diagnosis of the cause of his demise caused a great deal of discussion in local police circles. The report of Dr. Schlieker has not yet been filed, but will no doubt show the effects of the over-indulgence in alcoholic stimulants.

FILE DIVORCE CASE FOR THEIR CLIENT

Leonard Scherner, Watchman at Gibson, Asks For Absolute Divorce.

East Chicago, Ind., Oct. 21.—(Special)—Attorneys Roe and Meade of this city, this morning filed divorce proceedings in the circuit court, for Leonard Scherner and Pauline Scherner nee principals. He has since refused to return to his home and evidence will be introduced at the trial, according to the attorneys, relative to her past reputation. Scherner prays an absolute divorce and the care of the children.

WHEEL BARROW IN THE GAME

Indiana Harbor Will Be Furnished With a Barrel of Fun After Election.

[Special to THE TIMES]

Indiana Harbor, Ind., Oct. 21.—Residents of Indiana Harbor are assured of an evening's fun immediately following the posting of the results of the election on November third. The participants in the two-party comedy that its bound to convulse those who will watch the antics of the strange pair, are John Kamradt, commonly known as "Buster," and Louis Houtschilt, a local contractor. The promised production will be the result of an election bet that is going to cause lots of merriment for several hundred spectators and drops of sweat for the unfortunate loser.

Need Steel Wheelbarrows.

Both participants weigh in the neighborhood of three hundred pounds. Nevertheless, Kamradt has offered to wheel Houtschilt from the Harbor hotel corner on Michigan avenue to the corner of Grapevine street, should Taft be elected. Louis, on the other hand, is a staunch republican, and declares that if Taft is not elected, he will steer the wheelbarrow in which "Buster" is to be wheeled over the same course. A $10 bill will also lend financial enthusiasm to the sport of the evening, and it is predicted that Michigan avenue will be literally packed on the evening of November 4th, when the comedy is scheduled to take place. Kamradt declares that a steel barrow will have to be used, as the excessive weight of either participant puts the ordinary wooden cart in the "unfair list."

This is the first freak election bet to be recorded this year, and it now remains for the "champion peanut roller" to get busy and ordain a few freak stunts for the same auspicious occasion as that upon which Messrs. Kamradt and Houtschilt will perform.

FAMILY IS THREATENED

Ravages of Typhoid Cause One Death and Endanger Other Lives.

One of the most pathetic cases ever known in this city exists on South Magoun avenue, at the home of Frank Trzinski, the foreign baker whose wife was buried in Hammond last week, following her death from the ravages of typhoid fever.

Trzinski has left a large family of young children, none of them are old enough to assist in the care of the family, and neighbors, in kindly spirits, have assisted in the clothing and general care of the youngsters.

Yesterday, however, the 3-year-old daughter, Pearl, was taken to St. Margaret's hospital in Hammond, suffering with the same disease with which the mother died. She is in a critical condition and in her semi-delirium calls constantly for her mother. Her pitiful cries have attracted other inmates of the hospital and their sympathies have gone out to the little sufferer.

Joseph, the 17-months-old son, has also developed symptoms of the disease, and is being taken care of by Mrs. W. F. Hale of Magoun avenue, a neighbor of the bereaved family. The spread of the disease through the Trzinski family has been a shock to the entire community and Mr. Trzinski is sincerely sympathized with in his bereavement and ever-increasing cares.

CROUP QUICKLY CURED.

Don't Let the Child Choke to Death While Waiting for the Doctor.

Hymel, the miraculous, antiseptic, dry air treatment, will cure croup in either the first or second stages. Easily inhaled, even when the breathing is irregular, it reaches more promptly than any other remedy the terrible inflamed membrane of the windpipe. Its soothing balsams act immediately, the inflammation is allayed, and the swelling reduced.

"Not long ago our little boy, Walter, awoke in the night with a bad attack of croup. We allowed him to inhale Hymel; he began to breathe easier, and in half an hour was fast asleep. I am glad to speak a good word for a remedy that will rob croup of its terrors."—Rev. Geo. Sisson, pastor of M. E. church, South Londonderry, Vt.

Hymel (pronounced High-o-me) is guaranteed by Summers' pharmacy to cure catarrh, coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis and croup, or money back. A complete outfit, including a neat hard rubber pocket inhaler, costs only $1.00. An extra bottle of Hymel, if afterwards needed, costs but 50 cents.

HESSVILLE.

Mr. Ginther, a pioneer of Hessville, is very ill. His son was called to his bedside from Hammond yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kohler have gone Georgetown, Ky., Mrs. Kohler's former home.

Mrs. Watts is on the sick list.

County Chairman F. Richard Schaaf and three other leading republicans held a meeting in Gorman's hall yesterday morning.

RUNAWAY BOY REPENTS GET RIPARIAN RIGHTS WOULD HAVE 2 MASTERS

George Ondos Jr. Sends His Father $25—Says He Is Going East.

Indiana Harbor, Ind., Oct. 21.—(Special)—George Ondos, Jr. has repented. As told last evening, Ondos left Indiana Harbor on Sunday for parts unknown, taking with him the proceeds of a check of $41 belonging to his father, a prominent Pennsylvania avenue saloonkeeper. It was thought that the lad, who is but 18 years of age, had gone to New York city, as he had often expressed a desire to visit the east.

It has now been learned, however, that Chicago was his destination, and that he is now in the Windy City, suffering the pangs of his conscience.

Early yesterday morning, Ondos, sr. received a letter from his run-away son. Enclosed in the letter was a postal money order for $25. In explanation, George had written that "he was sorry for what he had done, and would send the other $18 as soon as he was going to leave for the east within a few days and expected to secure work in one of the larger eastern cities."

Mr. Ondos has not yet decided what course he will pursue regarding his son's action. It is likely, however, that an officer will be sent to Chicago to bring back the wayward young man and proceedings instituted to place him where he will be given rigid watching for the next three years. The local police department declare that the case of the first on of its kind to be brought to their attention, and all last night comments upon the action of the youth were frequent about police headquarters.

PEAT DEPOSIT CATCHES FIRE. ALL NIGHT JOB

Department Has Hard Work to Quench Smoldering Flames in East Chicago.

East Chicago, Ind., Oct. 21.—(Special)—The fire department was called into action yesterday by the burning of the peat deposit on One Hundred and Forty-seventh street, between Magoun and Baring avenues. Nearly all night, a hose was kept playing on the smoldering cinders and turf, which apparently is burning to a depth of three feet below the surface. This is exceedingly dangerous, as the property in that vicinity is more or less of the same deposit and houses in that locality subjected to the dangers of the smoldering fire. The burning patches were extinguished, however, after a great deal of trouble, and the situation pronounced safe by those in charge of the quenching expedition.

Final Action to Indiana Harbor's Water Front Nearly Complete.

(Special to THE TIMES). Indiana Harbor, Ind., Oct. 21.—The city council will hold an adjourned session in the council chambers on Friday evening, discussing at that time the all-important riparian rights question. In a letter received from Attorney William Duff Haynie, of the C. L. S. & E. Railway company, Mr. Haynie declared that before the company could give to the city the riparian rights of the property in front of the Harbor city park a petition for the vacation of the so-called "Block B" would have to be filed with the circuit court. This petition is now in preparation, he says, and will be brought up before Friday evening. At that time, if no legal contest arises, the city will be presented with a deed to the riparian property, one of the most valuable acquisitions of any lake front city.

POLL TAKEN AT MARSHALL MEETING

Ten Republicans and Eleven Democrats on Interurban Car.

Indiana Harbor, Oct. 21.—(Special)—A fair estimate of the representation at the Indiana Harbor Marshall meeting was secured on Monday evening when a poll was taken of the special car furnished by Attorney F. J. Lewis Meyer, of the C. L. & S. B. line to carry East Chicagoans to the rally in this city. Mr. Meyer himself witnessed the taking of the poll and passengers on the car will verify its authenticity. There were 21 passengers on the car, exclusive of officials. Each person was given a ballot and requested to secretly denote his political affiliations. When the poll was counted, there were found to be 11 democratic ballots and 10 republicans. The odd democratic ballot was cast by a lady traveling on the car with her husband, and who demanded the right of suffrage.

If East Chicago's delegation, traveling two miles to attend the meeting, was one-half republican, it is conjectured that the Indiana Harbor aggregation was fully three-fourths republican, drawn there by an inquisitive sense. And it is said that figures will not lie.

Mohammedan Wisdom.

Among the Mohammedans the maintenance of children devolves so exclusively on the father that the mother is entitled to claim wages for nursing them. The importance of her services to the state in rearing healthy citizens is thus recognized in the most practical manner.

Joe Maintains Foreign Allegiance But Wants to Vote for Taft.

The queerest tale that has yet come to the ears of the naturalization committee of the Young Men's Republican club is that of a foreigner living in the district near One Hundred and Forty-ninth and Melville avenue. Joe, for by that name he is known, wanted to vote the republican ticket this year, but did not want to become a real citizen. He refused to forswear all allegiance to prince, potentate, ruler, etc., as prescribed by law. He merely wanted to vote, without the weighty strings being tied securely about his conscience. When pressed for an explanation, Joe replied that he "had a girl in the old country and if he became a citizen of the United States she would have nothing to do with him." He was finally impressed with the fact that "there are better fish in the sea, etc.," and promised to think the matter over carefully before election day.

HAVE NARROW ESCAPE

Two East Chicago Lads Figure in Wreck in Illinois.

Word has been received here of the narrow escape of two East Chicago lads from possibly fatal injuries in a wreck on the C. & E. L. railway. The two men are Henry Bailey and Michael Toohy, who left Sunday for a visit of six weeks with friends in Hot Springs, Ark. Taking the C. & E. L. from Chicago they were wrecked at a small town named Willow Grove, Ill., by the breaking of an axle under one of the passenger coaches. The brakeman and one of the conductors was severely injured and all the passengers, including the East Chicago boys, badly shaken. The train was going at the rate of twenty-five miles an hour at the time of the accident, and the fact that the loss of life was not tremendous is considered by railroad men as almost a miracle.

"Thank God" for Faults! Thank God we do not live with saints! We live with people full of faults, and it is excellent, for the faults of others serve us either by imposing a salutary constraint or by the lesson that they give.—Paris Flguro.
