

A DAY IN GARY LAND

HOBART GETS ON ROLLERS.

Young Folk Want to Come to Gary Semi-Weekly to Enjoy Pleasure of a Rink.

A private party of sixty people from Hobart have notified H. A. Vosler, of the Gary Casino, that they would be in Gary on Friday night of this week and have engaged the skating rink for that night after the regular hours. The party will be composed of Hobart's young people who will come over for an evening of pleasure and a general good time. It is their intention to engage the rink every two weeks.

GARY SCHOOL BOARD TO HOLD SPECIAL SESSION.

Meetings of State Association of School Boards and State Body of Superintendents Will Interfere With Municipal Meeting.

The Gary board of education will probably call a special meeting of the body before the regular meeting which was to take place on November 5th, as there is much business of importance to take place. On November 4th, 5th and 6th the state association of school boards and the state association of school superintendents will take place at Indianapolis so the regular meeting of the local will take place some time next week, the date of which has not as yet been set.

OWNER OF SOUTH BUILDING IS ANGRY.

Says He Would Pay Money to Get Garston Out of Building.

W. S. Feuer, owner of the Smith building, went to Hammond today where he will appear before Judge Reiter and attempt to have E. G. Smith ousted from the place. Mr. Feuer has found that the appeal bond of Mr. Smith is N. G. and he will demand a writ forcing him from the building today. Mr. Feuer said yesterday: "Smith owes me to date $1,500 rent, but I would gladly give him that and a hundred dollars on the side to get him out of the building."

SMALL FIRE CREATES AN ALARM YESTERDAY.

A small fire started on a telephone pole in the rear of the First National Bank building on Broadway yesterday afternoon and caused an alarm to be sent into the police station. Another call sent in a short time later was to the effect that the fire engine was not needed as the blaze had been extinguished.

Building Permits Issued.

Building permits were issued in Gary today to Attorney H. J. Curtis for the erection of a two-story dwelling on Jackson street and to John Petrek for the erection of a one-story dwelling on Massachusetts street.

CALUMET DENTAL SOCIETY WANTS TO JOIN LARGER BODY.

Will Hold a Meeting Soon at Which Plans Will Be Discussed.

The Calumet Dental society will hold their next regular meeting at Gary some time next month as a meeting of importance will take place. On the date, which will be set later the local society will take steps to join the Lake County Dental association and affiliate with them in their work.

GARY BRIEFS.

Work started yesterday on the paving of Broadway between the tracks, as Mr. Raft stated to a Times' reporter Tuesday would be done. The concrete mixer is now nearly put up and will be ready for operation today or tomorrow. The brick is expected to arrive Saturday.

Judge John Alken went to Crown Point last night for the purpose of addressing a democratic meeting at that place. Judge Alken is now one of the most fiery democrats in the county, having come here from Fort Wayne, where he was judge of the superior court. He was prominent in politics in that city and has been one of the leaders in democracy since he has come to Gary.

Al Mohr, the big South Chicago boiler manufacturer, was in Gary yesterday afternoon visiting Sam Sax of the Sax & Savage Co.

Gary hotel serves Noontime lunch, served from 11:30 a. m. till 2:00 p. m., 40 cents.

Judge Westgreen of Miller was in town yesterday on business. The judge says that on Saturday night the whole town of Miller will be depopulated when Taft comes to Gary. There is probably the largest percentage of republicans in this thriving town of any other in the county. The democrats of Miller have never been strong enough to even put up a ticket in their town.

Work will start today for the construction of a shed at Thirteenth street and Washington avenue for the housing of the chemical engine. This is the engine which will be used for the south end and will be kept in that district instead of at the police station, so that it will be handier to get at it. Officer Gus Newman will have charge of the work.

During the last week of the campaign it will be necessary for the republican managers to issue search warrants to find an unneutralized foreigner.

Attorneys J. F. Sawyer and L. L. Bomberger were in Gary today on business.

Gary hotel serves club breakfasts, 30 cents to $1. Served 6:00 a. m. till 9:30 a. m.

C. O. Holmes, the historian of the Pioneers' association of Gary, is now sending out blanks to be filled by the old settlers of Gary giving data concerning the early days of the city. This will be compiled by Mr. Holmes and printed just as soon as the work can be accomplished.

Attorney Franklin T. Fetterer of this city was in Hammond and Crown Point today on business.

Henry Lundt of Hammond was in Gary today on business.

Mrs. Dr. E. E. Giesel returned today from an extensive visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Brown of Crown Point.

The college men of the steel mills are planning to give an Halloween party at the Victoria on Saturday evening, Oct. 31.

"Old Hayseed" will appear at the Gary theater on Saturday night of this week.

Why cook when you can get a Sunday dinner at the Gary hotel at 75 cents, served from 12 to 2:30 p. m.

H. A. Vosler and H. J. Curtis made a business trip to Chicago yesterday.

Miss Lula Long was shopping in Chicago yesterday.

Dr. J. W. Gillis was in Indiana Harbor on professional business yesterday.

High School Notes.

A nice test was given for English III and IV yesterday morning. Most of the scholars thought it easy, but some thought it might have been easier.

Several cases of "fighting" have been reported to the principal. After promising the offenders the "rod" the next time it happened he let them off.

The latin class had a test yesterday. It covered the first twenty-five lessons in the book.

Yesterday during the time the German class was reciting a hat suddenly took legs and walked out the window. I wonder what caused it. Maybe Mr. Charles Hyman will tell us.

The boys who play on the football team received the emblems for their sweaters. They are made of a large gray cross with a gold "G."

John Makerley, first year, was absent from school yesterday, he said, he had "business in Chicago" to attend to.

Miss Lucille Smith was absent from school Wednesday.

TOLESTON.

Charles McCoy of Hammond transacted business in town yesterday.

Willie Woldt is on the sick list, suffering from typhoid fever.

Miss Lena and Bertha Henke returned home yesterday from a few days' visit in Chicago.

Mrs. A. John and daughter were Hammond shoppers yesterday.

Mrs. L. Ebert and Mabel Ebert visited friends in Hammond yesterday.

Mrs. J. S. Stocume of Griffith was the guest of friends here yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Howorth have moved to Anderson, Ind.

Miss Martha Shaff gave the regular week's music and drawing lessons here today.

Mrs. W. Kriewitz visited friends in Hobart yesterday.

Rat Fond of Tobacco.

Edward Thompson, a watchman at Perth Amboy, N. J., says a rat comes to him every day and gets a chew of tobacco.

HEARD BY RUBE.

There are fewer cases of typhoid in Gary at the present time, said a local physician today, than there has been for the past twelve months.

The parade at Gary next Saturday night promises to outshine everything ever before attempted. In other words it will be a "bumdinger."

Now that the Chicago, Lake Shore and South Bend Interurban railway were given another extension of time to build their Tolleston line it's up to them to get busy. Maybe the Tolleston town dads won't be so lenient next time.

President McCrea of the Pennsylvania railroad visited the steel plant in Gary yesterday and seemed very much pleased with the outlook in general.

If there is anything in the way of weather you want please ask for it. As to the ventilation in an average picture show it is as good as could be expected for 5 cents.

Mr. Marshall has come and gone. Some people may have changed their minds after hearing him speak, but the chances are that they changed them the other way.

Chief Martin's hotel is growing in popularity each evening with the advent of the chilly weather.

Don't be misled by the fact that Indian summer will last forever. Remember that the time for straw hats and empty coal bins has long since passed.

Rooms in Gary are at a premium at the present time, which goes to show everybody is coming in and nobody is going out.

Two hundred thousand population by 1911 is not considered such an enormous growth by the majority of Gary's business men.

"Tag, you're it" will be heard on all sides next Saturday.

Some of the "neh stories" that are being told at the present time in politics are worse than those that were told by the members of the fishing party who went to Kuntz lake last Saturday.

Gary Servians are ready to leave at a moment's notice to fight for King Peter should the occasion demand it in the Balkans.

In New York it is said that a baby is born every five minutes and in lots of cases without the approval of the janitor.

Gary must be a place of some importance when Taft decided to talk here instead of Chicago.

GARY LODGE NEWS.

The Gary Masonic club is planning an extensive program of entertainments and social functions for the coming winter season.

A meeting of the board of directors of the club will be held at the Gary hall next Saturday afternoon, for the purpose of discussing and arranging a series of social entertainments and dances for its members. The club now has over 100 members and at the last meeting received six applications for membership.

As soon as the still mills at Gary are in actual operation it is the intention to organize Gary's first Masonic lodge. Of course, at the present time, there are scores of Masons in Gary, but it was thought advisable to organize the lodge at that time for the reason the whole body could be taken in at that time. It is expected that Gary will have one of the largest lodges in the county a short time after the organization.

Woodmen.

A special meeting of the Woodmen will take place on Saturday, October 31, at the L. O. O. F. hall, for the purpose of conferring the degrees upon six new candidates.

The Hammond degree team has been invited to confer the initiatory work and it is expected there will be a large turnout from the camps of all the surrounding towns, as they have all been invited to attend the meeting. As no regular meeting night has been selected in which the lodge holds its meetings, a regular date will be selected on that night.

Knights of Pythias.

The Knights of Pythias held their regular meeting last night in the L. O. O. F. hall and conferred special initiatory work in the first and second degrees. The candidates for the evening were William E. Carter and David Piller. The evening was marked by a large attendance.

Odd Fellows.

Steel City Lodge L. O. O. F., No. 553, will meet on Friday night and will confer the initiatory degree upon several candidates.

The meeting of the Gary encampment took place last Tuesday night. It was the second meeting of the encampment, as it has only been organized in Gary about a month. The following are the officers that have been installed:

J. W. Niekirk, chief patriarch.
Frank Webster, senior warden.
R. H. Hildebrandt, high priest.
J. W. S. McGregor, recording secretary.

Sidney Williams, financial scribe.
Andrew Nelson, treasurer.

The Independent Order of Foresters will hold their regular meeting in the L. O. O. F. hall on Monday evening, October 27.

The Royal League will hold their meeting at the same place on the following Monday.

The local nest of Owls will meet for their regular meeting next Thursday night at the L. O. O. F. hall.
