

OFFICIALS VISIT THE STEEL MILLS

President McCrea of Penn.
Ry. Co. and High Officials
Inspect Gary's Pride.

COME ON A SPECIAL TRAIN

Gary Mill Expects an Order for Steel Rails From Pennsylvania Railroad.

President James McCrea of the Pennsylvania, together with President E. J. Buffington of the steel company, G. Thorpe, vice president; J. J. Reynolds, chief engineer of the Chicago, Lake Shore and Eastern, and W. P. Gleason inspected the Gary mills yesterday, according to the plans which were announced last week. The party arrived in Gary in President McCrea's special train at 1 o'clock, and immediately went into the mills.

The visit in the plant was short but satisfactory. The party intended to see the city itself, but as their time was limited the Pennsylvania officials were compelled to rush back to Chicago. The object of the trip may have been in connection with the building of a new depot in Gary, as they are supposed to have come to Chicago for the purpose of looking over the terminus in that city. It may also be possible that the local mill will be given an order for rails which the Pennsylvania lines have announced will be given out soon for the ensuing year.

Personal of Party.

The directors who accompanied President McCrea were: N. P. Shortridge, C. A. Griscom, George Wood, Thomas De Witt Cuyler, Lincoln Godfrey, Charles F. Ingerson and Percival Roberts of Philadelphia. The list of accompanying officials included Vice President John P. Green, Charles E. Pugh, Samuel Rea, J. J. Turner, E. B. Taylor, D. T. McCabe and J. B. Thayer. The special train was provided with a telephone which established communication between every car and between each car and the locomotive. The special was made up almost entirely of officers' private cars. On the way here some fast running was indulged in just to show the officers and the directors that sixteen hours is a possibility for a passenger train between Chicago and New York when the New York tunnels and terminals of the Pennsylvania are completed.

LIBRARY STARTS SOON

Gary Library Will Be in Charge of a Talented Librarian.

Gary's first public library will open Monday in the room which has been provided for that purpose in the Kahan block at Seventh avenue and Washington street. The library will be in charge of Mr. L. T. Bailey, who has been working in Gary for the past month arranging for the opening of the headquarters. The news of the opening will be received in Gary with great enthusiasm, as it will mean the beginning of what the library board expects to make eventually the finest in Indiana.

Mr. Bailey had intended to open the headquarters nearly two weeks ago, but says that the delay was caused by the failure of the furniture companies to deliver the order. They have already been delayed over two weeks after delivery was promised. The tables have now arrived, however, and the electric light fixtures will be put in this week.

There is nothing that can happen now to delay the opening of the library later than the first of next week, except the non-arrival of the chairs. These they have been promised definitely not later than the middle of the week.

The magazines with which the library will be stocked at the present time have already arrived, ready for use. The list of books, which will be ordered for this year, has been made out and the order will be sent in, it is expected within the next week. For the present, however, only the magazines will be used and they will be at the disposal of the public.

THIEVES BUSY AGAIN

Enter Gary Store and Get Away With Thirty
Pairs of Boots.

Thieves were again busy the other night in the vicinity of the Kirk yards yesterday afternoon Charles F. Morris in charge of the Auto Gas Engine works near that place, notified that about 30 pairs of rubber boots had been stolen from a shack.

The boots which belonged to and were worn by the employees were placed in the house about two weeks ago. The lock on the door had been pried open and the thieves made away with the boots at their leisure. It is thought that the burglary was committed some time during Tuesday night.

Chief of Police Martin sent down several officers to investigate and every effort will be made to try and locate the stolen property.

GETS $50 TO KEEP STILL

Wedding Will Continue
While Injured Girl
Will Sit By.

East Chicago, Ind., Oct. 21.—(Special) Tony Horovek of Indiana Harbor, will wed his fiance in Hammond on Friday, fulfilling all plans as though the marital bond had not been threatened by Teressa Vjalizi, as stated in last evening's issue of THE TIMES. The story of the threatened disruption of the nuptials is interesting, and contains the charges by Teressa that Tony is the father of the child of which she is about to become a mother. By the bringing of this charge, she expected to compel Tony to wed her and not the Whiting, but in this calculation she was disappointed.

Tony, instead, proved himself a trifle too slippery for her, showed her where her actions in the past have been anything but proper, and finally committed one of the worst crimes against society—he bought his freedom. Teressa received the meagre sum of $50, on the sole condition that she would "keep still." The agreement was received after a consultation of the attorneys of the interested parties and its validity deeply investigated by Judge W. A. Reiland. The woman seemed perfectly satisfied to let the matter drop upon payment of the money. To the still wondering court officials, the entire transaction looked like a splendid example of high finance and highway robbery upon the pocket-book of the amorous Horovek.

TO ATTEND DEDICATION

Gary People Remembered
By Friends in South Bend.

Many invitations have been received in Gary during the past two days of the dedication of the new Young Men's Christian Association building in South Bend, which will take place on Monday and Tuesday of next week, Oct. 26 and 27.

Quite a number have already signified their intention of attending the dedication of the new building and arrangements are already on foot to get together a large party to go down in a body as special rates can be secured over the South Bend interurban. If a large enough party can be secured it is likely that a special car will be run over the interurban which will return the same night.

Monday night will be known as interurban night, and a large number of people from the surrounding towns are expected to be present. A special program of speeches and music will be given and refreshments will be served.

The new Y. M. C. A. building, which has lately been completed at South Bend, is one of the finest structures in that city and has been constructed solely through the efforts of the association at that place.

C. Oliver Holmes of this city, who is a member of the Y. M. C. A., has been asked to lend his efforts towards securing a party to attend the dedication next Monday night.

TWELVE YEAR OLD BOY'S CONFESSION

East Chicago Authorities
Astonished at His Range of Misdemeanors.

HE IS ARRESTED IN SCHOOL

Boy Implicates Another in His Escapes — Parents Are of Good Standing.

[Special to THE TIMES]

East Chicago, Ind., Oct. 21.—One of the most remarkable confessions ever obtained by the local police department was taken yesterday in the office of Chief of Police Higgins, with Joe Herrott of Railroad avenue, as the guilty party. The confession is but a single chapter in the strange tale of a life of crime lived by the little twelve-year-old lad for the past four or five years. Herrott lives with his parents on Railroad avenue, and everyone in the locality speaks very highly of the Herrott family. It is agreed by all, however, that the lad now under arrest is the "black sheep" and that his actions have long been a disgrace to the family. On Monday evening, Joe stole a bicycle from in front of the Clinton hardware store on Olcott avenue. The machine was traced to his possession, and an officer sent to the Wallace school at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon to arrest the lad.

Protests His Innocence.

When taken to the police station, he declared that he was innocent, but finally broke down and recited the events in his career of crime. During the past four years he has stolen various sums of money ranging from five cents to $4.25, four pigeons, five bicycles, knives, wheels and several other unimportant details. The bicycles have been returned in some cases, he said, while in others he has traded the machines for small articles of intrinsic value. The Herrott lad has also imbibed another foreign boy living near his home on Railroad avenue, an accomplice, and the police believe that they have found the persons who have caused considerable trouble during the past two years by the theft of bicycles from the main streets of the city. An effort will be made to trace all the stolen property to its present location and effect its restoration to the original owners.

ROGERS IS ARRAIGNED

Chief Higgins Says He'll
Prosecute to Full Extent of the Law.

East Chicago, Ind., Oct. 21.—(Special) Tony Horovek of Indiana Harbor, will wed his fiance in Hammond on Friday, fulfilling all plans as though the marital bond had not been threatened by Teressa Vjalizi, as stated in last evening's issue of THE TIMES. The story of the threatened disruption of the nuptials is interesting, and contains the charges by Teressa that Tony is the father of the child of which she is about to become a mother. By the bringing of this charge, she expected to compel Tony to wed her and not the Whiting, but in this calculation she was disappointed.

Tony, instead, proved himself a trifle too slippery for her, showed her where her actions in the past have been anything but proper, and finally committed one of the worst crimes against society—he bought his freedom.

Teressa received the meagre sum of $50, on the sole condition that she would "keep still." The agreement was received after a consultation of the attorneys of the interested parties and its validity deeply investigated by Judge W. A. Reiland. The woman seemed perfectly satisfied to let the matter drop upon payment of the money. To the still wondering court officials, the entire transaction looked like a splendid example of high finance and highway robbery upon the pocket-book of the amorous Horovek.

Chief Higgins declared that he will punish the former city official to the extent of the law. "The attack was most brutal," says the chief, "and I want the public to know that I will not allow anyone to commit an assault upon one of the city officers while under my jurisdiction, and remain unpunished. If it is necessary we will put John Rogers behind the bars and show the people of East Chicago that we are not afraid of him."

There was considerable talk about town last night of again bringing the offender from the city. Nine years ago Rogers was implicated in a shooting scrape, in which a man was almost fatally injured. At that time he was tried before Judge McMahon at Hammond, who told him to "get out of the state and keep out." Rogers, after obeying the decision for three years, returned to purchase property, and was given an opportunity to become a man. For six years he did not indulge in intoxicating liquors, and it was during this time that he served as chief of the police department.

SHOOTS UP A MACHINE

(Special to THE TIMES)

East Chicago, Ind., Oct. 21.—Bang! Bang! Bang! All followed by a scurrying of feet and the rapid appearance of a police officer at the N. Morrell saloon on Forsyth avenue yesterday afternoon, caused the arrest of Tony Dabos of Whiting, a foreigner. Dabos was badly intoxicated and had attempted to have a little innocent fun by shooting an expensive gum machine full of holes.

According to the story told to the police by Mr. Morrell, the Whiting man appeared at the bar about 4:30 o'clock. He asked for two nickels at the same time handing the bartender a time. The two nickels were placed in the gum machine, but it was empty and failed to pay the desired package of "chewing gum." This enraged the Whiting foreigner, and his hand instinctively went to his hip pocket. The gun was not slow in coming out, and while everyone ducked their heads into the most convenient place of safety Dabos continued filling the machine full of holes, breaking the expensive plate glass mirror in the disk of the apparatus and creating havoc generally.

He was booked at the police station on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon, and will be tried before Mayor DeBrie this afternoon.

Must Appear in Divorce Court Here; Husband Refuses Suit in Dakota.

The divorce suit of Attorney William L. Reed, well-known in Lake County, against his wife, Edith, in which Commodore George R. Peare is named, will be thrashed out in the Cook county circuit court, where it was filed on Monday. Mr. Reed yesterday before departing for a brief rest, said he had declined to consider the proposition of his wife for a South Dakota divorce. That means that his wife and Mr. Peare will have to make the best defense possible to the charges he brings against them.

PHYSICIANS OF GARY WILL STUDY TYPHOID

Next Regular Meeting Will Be Held on Election
Day, Nov. 3.

TUBERCULOSIS ON PROGRAM

City's Sewer System Has Reduced the Fatalities Greatly—Many Cases Last Year.

At the next meeting of the Gary Medical association, which will take place at the Gary hotel, on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Nov. 3, the members have arranged to take up the study of typhoid fever.

It is a well known fact that the ravages of typhoid fever have caused many deaths in the Calumet region in the past two years and physicians have organized in order to study the conditions and get in closer touch with the causes. Whether it is from the drinking water, impure milk or other causes cannot fully be determined, but an effort will be made by the physicians in the northern part of the county to devise means to stamp out if possible the dreaded disease.

There have been during the past two months fewer cases of typhoid fever in Gary than in any period since the foundation of the city. This is thought to be due in a large measure to Gary's sewer system and the prompt work on the part of the physicians in reporting the cases and preventing its spread.

It is this time of the year that typhoid makes its appearance, said a local physician this morning. Last year at this time there were many cases of typhoid in Gary. Every thing will be done to prevent its spread.

The following is the program that will be given at the next meeting of the local medical association:

Diagnosis—Dr. F. W. Smith.
Medical treatment—Dr. C. A. DeLong.
Surgical treatment—Dr. H. M. Hosmer.

Prophylaxis or preventative—Dr. T. B. Templin.

Following the meeting on Nov. 3, the association will take up the subject of "Tuberculosis" and will invite a number of experts from the State Medical association to be present at the meeting. W. A. Evans, Chicago's noted health expert, will also be invited to the meeting.

TAFT FAVORITE IN ALL BETTING

Wagers in Larger Cities
Made With Republican Candidate at Odds.

HUGHES HELD AT SHORT END

Ruling Quotations on National Contest Two to One; Some Are Higher.

Betting on the elections in all the large cities of the country places Taft as the favorite at odds of from 2 to 1 to 6 to 1.

The gambling this year will be lighter than on the previous presidential contests. The wagers are infrequent, according to reports from all over the country, and no bets of large amounts are reported in any place. The largest offer yet reported is from San Francisco, where one man has offered $20,000 at 10 to 4 that Taft will be the winner.

Almost as much interest is taken by the gamblers in the New York gubernatorial contest as in the national fight. In these bets the favorite is Lieutenant Governor Chandler. The quotations at Buffalo are 6 to 1 that Hughes will be beaten and the same San Francisco man who offers $20,000 on Taft has put up $5,000 that Hughes will go for Taft in Baltimore.

Detroit democratic believers are given a chance at the choicest odds of anywhere yet reported. There the quotations on Taft are 6 to 1. Philadelphia is giving the smallest margins. The bets there are even or 5 to 4. The remainder of the cities report quotations of 2 and sometimes 3 to 1.

New York, usually the center of this sort of pre-election activity, apparently is taking little interest in the presidential outcome, but many bets are being made on the state fight. What few bets have been made are at small odds on Taft.

Mrs. Demaska, who is so badly in need of her spouse, is at present detained at Ellis Island, New York, by the government officials at that place. She is accompanied by her five children, all very young, and the entire aggregation arrived from the Polish provinces about a week ago. The woman is said to be suffering with an eye-disease, but declared that her children were born in the United States and that her husband is a naturalized citizen. If this is the case, admission to the country cannot be denied her, and it is for her, and it is for this reason that the steamship company desire the whereabouts of her husband trace by their local agent.

LOOK FOR JOHN DEMSKA

His Wife Detained at Ellis
Island—Five Children
With Her.

East Chicago, Ind., Oct. 21.—(Special)

Edward A. Gross, East Chicago's steamship agent, has been assigned a very unusual task by the German Lloyd line. He has been delegated to locate a man named John Demaska, who, according to the declarations of Mrs. Demaska, is a resident of this city and a worker in one of the mills. In the hope that Demaska may be able to read the English language, Mr. Gross has caused the publication of the story in THE TIMES.

Mrs. Demaska, who is so badly in need of her spouse, is at present detained at Ellis Island, New York, by the government officials at that place. She is accompanied by her five children, all very young, and the entire aggregation arrived from the Polish provinces about a week ago.

The woman is said to be suffering with an eye-disease, but declared that her children were born in the United States and that her husband is a naturalized citizen. If this is the case, admission to the country cannot be denied her, and it is for her, and it is for this reason that the steamship company desire the whereabouts of her husband trace by their local agent.
