WHAT ABOUT CONVICT LABOR?

About Bryan's great friendship for labor, Mr. Workingman. If you cannot gather grapes from thistles or figs from thorns how can you hope for any helpful political policies from political party WHICH UPHOLDS CONVICT LABOR IN ONE OF ITS STRONGEST STATES? This the democratic party does in the south. Why didn't Bryan and Marshall, when they came to Lake county, say something about convict labor? DO YOU BELIEVE IN CONVICT LABOR, MR. WORKINGMAN?

IS THE QUESTION OUT OF POLITICS?

SO, OF THE BREWERY ORGANS and Thomas R. Marshall are trying to have you believe, Mr. Voter, that the liquor question is out of politics since the county option law is passed. If a republican paper said it was out of politics the brewery organs would stamp it as a lie.

On Sept. 30, 1908, the Rushville Daily Democrat, one of the brewery organs, said:

"It is possible to SO CHANGE the political complexion of the next legislature that the law can be repealed and a township option measure substituted, consistent with the democratic platform. Should the people reject the action of the legislature on Nov. 3, elect a democratic governor, and democratic members of the legislature, who shall gain say their RIGHT TO RULE at all times?"

You who believe that the insolent brewery combine should rule Indiana, note well—the people will have no right to rule. It will be the democratic governor and democratic legislature.

WHAT TAFT STANDS FOR.

Editor, Times—

You have a great deal to say in your paper about what Bryan stands for, tell us what Taft stands for.—Inquirer.

To tell what Taft stand for is to compare him with what Bryan doesn't stand for. Mr. Inquirer.

Taft stands for republicanism and progress, as against Bryanism and his policies which are anything to win. They republicanism of Taft is a pledge of peace. The democracy of Bryan is a threat of strife.

Taft stands for a protective tariff and high wages, while Bryan stands for free trade and low wages. Under republican administration, American labor has received the highest wages ever paid anywhere in the world. Under democratic administration American labor had to compete not only with the free trade labor of Europe, but with the slave labor of the United States. Taft stands for an honest dollar, based upon the gold standard, while Bryan has always stood for a dishonest dollar, debased by the free and unlimited coinage of silver at 16 to 1. Taft represents those who uphold the national credit in 1896 and 1900 when Bryan and his followers desperately sought to destroy it.

Taft stands for the principle that labor and capital have common interests and should be harmonized. Bryan contends that they are national enemies and should be perpetually at war. Taft teaches the gospel of hope to American industry. Bryan is the prophet of evil to the wage-earner.

Taft stands for the idea that American expansion is an expression of national strength. Bryan denounces it as a sign of national weakness. Republicanism would have the stars and stripes known and respected in every part of the world. Bryanism would offer an apology for the flag wherever it is seen beyond the continental limits of the United States.

Taft stands for the integrity of laws as interpreted by the courts. Bryan would nullify objectionable statutes by the declaration of party conventions. Republicanism insists upon resolutely maintaining the independence of each of the three co-ordinate branches of government. Bryan would destroy their even balance by imposing arbitrary restrictions upon the powers of the judiciary.

Those are some of the things that Taft stands for!

WE WANT NO FREE TRADE.

BRYAN'S ONLY DELUSION which he has clung to through thick and thin—free trade—is not getting the attention it deserves. It is the only child by former political marriages that the democratic candidate acknowledges this year, and even it is such a disreputable little brat that the "Peerless One" would like to disown it in certain parts of the country. But here Bryan's records cling to him and here the democratic platform haunts him. The Nebraskan has gone further than many of his associates in declaring for free trade.

He advocated and voted for the Wilson bill only because it was a "step in the right direction." He would let down the tariff bars so as to allow unlimited imports, Mr. Manufacturer; close every factory in the country, Mr. Workingman; and make every farm unprofitable, Mr. Farmer. His record is on file, his statements are on record, and he must be measured by his words and deeds. He helped frame the only law approaching free trade, which has been in force since the republican party came into power. He would sign a worse one if he had his way.

We want no free trade president to bring this country into poverty. We want no free trade tariff. Taft and a republican house in the Sixty-first congress means continued protection and renewed prosperity and progress.

THE PUBLIC WELFARE.

(From Governor Hughes' Speech at South Bend, Ind.)

"IF BRYAN HAS BEEN ELECTED in 1896 the disasters that would have followed would have prevented him from ever being a candidate again.

"We are devoted to a line of progress, straightforward, honorable administration above every selfish advantage, against every attempt to exploit the people for private interest. We are devoted to the public welfare in establishing the stability of honest enterprise. We serve the republican party because we believe that through it these things can be accomplished. In the heat and turmoil of political campaign it is important that we should preserve a true and a proper sense of proportion."

FRIENDS OF JOHN W. KERN, candidate for vice president on the democratic ticket, among all political parties, will regret to hear of the critical illness of his little boy. Many a heart will go out to the loving father whose family life is a type of all that is pure and holy, and they will wish that the Almighty will watch over the little one, and give him back to his parents in their distress.

ONLY $100.00 more is needed. By the time that is subscribed the jig will be about up.

THIS IS MY 70TH BIRTHDAY.

F. Hopkinson Smith, Francis Hopkinson Smith, noted as an author, artist and engineer, was born in Baltimore, October 23, 1838. He was educated as a mechanical engineer and for some years was employed in the government service. Among his engineering works was the building of the Race Rock lighthouse off New London, Conn., and the construction of the foundation for the Barthold Statue of Liberty in New York harbor. After several years spent in engineering work he turned his attention to art and did much creditable work in water colors, charcoal work and illustrations. In recent years he has lived abroad and devoted himself to literature. Among his notable novels are "Tides of Damagat" and "The Romance of an Old-Fashioned Gentleman." He has been awarded several medals has been decorated by the Turkish sultan and has received honorary degrees from Yale and other leading universities in America.

Says He Is Breeder of Trusts.

The tour of Mr. Bryan yesterday, from Hammond on the north to Louisville on the south, was a series of ovals with Mr. Bryan, keen in his analysis of republicanism, as a breeder of trusts and special interests.—Laporte Argus-Bulletin.

Of course, it was the comma's fault. You simply can't question Bro. Darling's democracy.

Actions speak louder than words. They have to, in order to be heard above the howling.

Speaking of Cruelty to Animals.

O. O. Fellows had a good time the other day. A hog got into his garden and rooted clean through a whole row of potato plants, while Mr. Fellows just stood there and laughed. Somebody came by and asked him why he didn't quit laughing and go drive the hog out of the potato patch. "Well," he said, "you see, it's just this way: There isn't a potato in that whole patch, and I know it." Then he laughed some more to think how he had fooled his neighbor's hog.—Mesa County (Colo.) For President WILLIAM H. TAFT

"He is as strong as he is gentle. His reputation is simply spotless. In all the agitation of a heated campaign for the greatest office in the world, no one has ventured to intimate a doubt of the absolute honesty of this man who has been before the country for a quarter of a century. Nor can any one successfully dispute the simple proposition that in the whole history of the United States no one was ever named for the presidency who was so fitted by nature, by training and by experience for the duties, dignities and responsibilities of that unique office—CHARLES HOPKINS, in 'The Independent.'"

For V-President JAMES S. SHERMAN

"We certify to all the great electorate that when their votes in November shall have chosen James S. Sherman to be vice president of the United States, the senate will be sure of a presiding officer in character and competency worthy of the best traditions of that great deliberative body, and that which God forbid—the and contingency were to come which should for a fourth time call a vice president from New York to the executive office, the interests of the whole country would be safe in good hands, and the great office of the presidency would suffer no decadence from the high standard of dignity and honor and competency of which we are so justly proud."—ELIHU ROOT, at Sherman Notification Ceremonies.

UP AND DOWN IN INDIANA

TEACHER A TERROR.

A warrant was sworn out against Miss Helen Maxam of Evansville, a school teacher, charging that she shook a 10 year old boy pupil so hard that a ligament in his neck was strained and that he was kept home several days as a result.

FOR WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

"If your husband and brothers and sweethearts send me to congress and I have the opportunity to say whether women shall vote, I shall say 'Yes,' said Henry Baranoff, democratic nominee for congress from the thirteenth district, in an address at Warsaw.

BOOZE IN ELECTIONS.

Stories that whiskey figured prominently in the primary election in Noblesville on Jan. 18 have been followed with a call for the grand jury by Judge Christian, who also has ordered Prosecutor C. M. Gentry to investigate.

FIRES STILL DESTRUCTIVE.

Two disastrous fires that caused a loss of at least $100,000 and for a time threatened the destruction of a great part of the city occurred in Vincennes within the last twelve hours.

CHARGED WITH FRAUD.

Fraud and false pretense were laid to Don M. Roberts, a Terre Haute contractor, in a petition of receivership for the United States Construction company, of which Roberts is the president, filed today in the circuit court by Conrad Helme, a grocer at 328 Wabash avenue.

IN POLITICS

The democrats were made glad today by the receipt of news from Indianapolis that Mr. Bryan will speak at Gary and Indiana Harbor next Saturday week, October 31. From Indiana Harbor he will go in to Chicago for a big night meeting.

Politicians in Lake county are wondering whether or not Mr. Hearst's independence party will have any speaking dates in Lake county during the campaign. It is understood that there is no little disappointment among the independence ticket supporters over the failure of the party to make good in this district.

Word comes from Crown Point that the town will almost be emptied on Saturday, so many people are coming up to the Taft meetings at Hammond and Gary tomorrow night.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Lieutenant Governor Hugh T. Miller of Indiana was a caller at the White House today and was closeted with the president for a half hour, telling him in detail of the Indiana political situation. The president was greatly interested and asked many questions of the man fresh from the field. Mr. Miller, it is said, told the president a different tale from the Walter Wellman view of the situation. In fact, he admitted that he gave the president a view from a republican standpoint, which was that Taft would carry the state beyond all doubt and that the state and legislative ticket had a hard fight on hands, but that he believed all would pull through. He said the republican situation had steadily improved in Indiana since the first week in October. Mr. Miller will be here for a day or two looking after private business.

Columbia City—Republicans of Whitley county, the home of T. R. Marshall, had arranged for a demonstration on the Monday night preceding the election, with Governor Hanly as the attraction. It was, however, decided that as it was the proper night for Marshall's home-coming address to his neighbors, the republicans would not put any obstruction in the way of the democratic demonstration.

Vincennes—John E. Lamb and J. W. Wellman made political speeches last night at the courthouse. Mr. Lamb spoke of Bryan as the greatest gentleman living; of Marshall, as "there is no better man," and of W. A. Cullip, candidate for congress from the second district, as a brainy, aggressive and fighting man. Mr. Wellman's speech was cut short because the audience rushed out to respond to a fire alarm.

The condition of John W. Kern Jr., 18 year old son of the democratic vice presidential candidate, showed no improvement last night. His father, who was called home from his speaking campaign in New York and Ohio, scarcely left the bedside during the day.

Those in charge of the Business Men's Taft and Sherman parade, to be held in New York Saturday, October 24, announced yesterday that more than 75,000 men would be in line. Indications, it was said, are that it will be the largest political demonstration of the kind in New York since the famous "sound money parade" in 1896.

In beginning his address at Elmira, N. Y., last night, James S. Sherman sympathetically referred to the fact that John W. Kern, his opponent, had been obliged to abandon the campaign owing to the serious illness of a member of his family, saying he hoped he would be able to resume the stump. The audience heartily cheered the sentiment.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—United States Senator Beveridge of Indiana was the star speaker at a political meeting in Orchestra hall in this city last night. The hall was packed to the doors and many persons were turned away.

The speech was under the auspices of the Taft and Sherman Business Men's club, and the audience was as enthusiastic as it was large. The speaker confined himself to industrial topics almost entirely. Perhaps the most prolonged outburst came when the senator described Bryan's financial theories "as the output of either an ignorant man or a demagogue."

Shelbyville, Ind., Oct. 22.—Cecil Marshall, aged 10 years, a son of Jack Marshall of Blue Ridge, continued yelling for Taft at a political meeting at Blue Ridge, when Robert McKay, 8 years old, son of Joseph N. McKay, former trustee of Liberty township, took offense. The boys then got into a fight and McKay cut Marshall on the left arm with a penknife. The cutting was not regarded as serious. No arrests were made.

SHEREVEPORT FOR THE CHAMPS.

President Murphy Will Visit Louisiana City Before Deciding; Several Exhibition Games Booked.

The chances are very favorable that the world's champion Cubs will thaw out their winter stiffness in the balmy sunshine of Shreveport, La., next spring. President Murphy announced yesterday that Shreveport was preferred by the club over numerous other places under consideration, but said that he would not make a decision until he made a visit to the Louisiana city. Manager Frank Chance likes the idea of going to Shreveport and if President Murphy reports favorably on the place will give his consent.

NELSON OFF FOR EAST; MAY SIGN WITH PACKEY.

Battler Goes to Boston for Week's Engagement at Theater.

Battling Nelson, lightweight champion, left last night for Boston to fill a theater engagement next week. The Battler may sign to fight Packey McFarland while in the east. Nelson already is weakening in his determination to stick to the stage for several months and it would not occasion great surprise if he took Packey on for a six-round whirl. It is more likely, however, if the match is made that the Dane will insist that McFarland meet him in a long fight on the coast.

GRIFFITH PRACTICALLY CERTAIN TO BOSS REDS.

Ganzel Lost His Chance by Letting Hobbitzel Make Good at First.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 22.—Clark Griffith, the former manager of the New York Highlanders, is practicing certain of the 1909 management of the Cincinnati Reds, according to one of the stockholders of the Cincinnati Baseball club. This stockholder made the statement privately after Garry Herrmann had announced this morning that big John Ganzel was out of the running. Griffith cooked his own goose when he played Hobbitzel at first base. Hobbitzel made good and Ganzel is no longer indispensable to the team. Herrmann does not deny that he has selected Griffith as next season's manager. All he would say is that it is too early to make a definite statement on the subject.

E. W. WICKEY IS REPORTED ILL.

Candidate For Representative Knocked Out By Speaking Tour.

East Chicago, Ind., Oct. 22.—(Special)—The excessive strain under which E. W. Wickey has been placed in his campaign for the office of representative of Lake county, has resulted in his being confined to his home with a severe case of the "grippe." Inquiry at his home this morning elicited the information that he had spent a very restless night, but that his physicians believed he would be able to attend the big Taft and Watson rally at Gary tomorrow evening.

As chairman of the republican county central committee's publicity committee, Mr. Wickey has labored extremely hard for the past five weeks, traveling over the county and delivering addresses in every small town and city in the district. Should he recover by Saturday evening, it is doubtful if he will be able to wind up his speaking tour of the county next week, as his voice is in a very weakened condition.

EMPIRE BUFFET CHANGES HANDS THERE.

Pennsylvania Men Go Into Business at Indiana Harbor.

Indiana Harbor, Ind., Oct. 22.—(Special)—The Empire buffet, at the corner of Guthrie street and Michigan avenue, yesterday changed hands, going into the ownership of Messrs. Charles Kidd and J. S. Wilson, two gentlemen who hail from Pennsylvania. Mrs. Kaufman, the former proprietor will leave in a few days for Denver, Colo., where her husband is now located, having left Indiana Harbor several months ago on account of his health.

Messrs. Kidd and Wilson will doubtless make desirable residents of the Harbor and they are wished all the success that their efforts can bring. They contemplate the entire renovation of the buffet and hotel accommodations and at present are looking for a new housekeeper, the former employ leaving with the exit of the Kaufman regime.

ball outlook yesterday when the maroon linemen failed to live up to expectations in a grueling scrimmage with the freshmen. The director juggled the forwards in various positions, but pronouncing every combination too weak to hold against Minnesota.

While a mixed team of regulars and "subs" defeated the freshmen, 13 to 0, in the scrimmage, the defensive showing was mediocre at best, according to Stagg. The regulars gave no better account of themselves in the long defensive drill which preceded the mix-up, and Stagg was moved to call the forwards a "paper line" again.

AUGUST AND WILLIAMS LOST TO NORTHWESTERN.

Full Back and Guard Will Not Be Able to Play Against Beloit.

Gloom seized the rosters of the Northwestern university football team yesterday when it became known that two of the heaviest and strongest men on the team would not be in the game with Beloit tomorrow. August, the 183 fullback, will be kept out on account of injuries, and Williams, the 180-pound guard, will not be able to play on account of faculty rules.

Williams is a student of the law department, and in this school is a rule that no student with less than eighteen hours of credits shall be eligible to play on an athletic team. It was not until yesterday morning that Professor Wilson of the athletic committee received a communication from Dean Wigmore of the law school that under the rules of that department Williams could not play.

TY COBB INJURED AT FAIR.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 22.—Tyrus Cobb sustained painful injuries today as the result of a wet plank and tumbled during a visit to the "Midway" at the state fair in progress here. Cobb slipped when trying to avoid a mudhole. A physician who attended the tiger said that bad sprains had been received to both the right arm and left hand. Cobb appeared in a ball game later and received applause to offset his injury. It was the first time that Georgians knew Cobb was ambidextrous.

McFARLAND MEETS MURPHY.

New York, Oct. 22.—Following his victory over Leach Cross, Packie McFarland has been matched to meet Tommy Murphy at the opening of the Polo A. C. in Harlem. The bout will take place inside of three weeks. Packie shows no ill effects from the fight of Wednesday night.

EAST CHICAGO LADY IS DEAD AT HER HOME.

Mrs. Clara W. Sandline's Death Comes As a Shock to Friends.

East Chicago, Ind., Oct. 22.—(Special)—The many friends of Mrs. Clara W. Sandline of Maroon avenue, will regret to learn of her death on Wednesday morning, after an illness of over eight months. While death was momentarily expected for some time, it came as a shock to those who believed that the woman would last until spring, but who governs and controls the destinies of the deceased otherwise, East Chicago lost one of her sterling citizens. The funeral will be held Sunday morning, following services at the local Swedish church. Interment is to be made at Oak Hill cemetery, Hammond, under the direction of Mortician J. H. Freeman Pike, of this city.

FARM HOUSE IS DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Dwelling of John Zyp Burned Near Griffith Yesterday Evening.

Griffith, Ind., Oct. 22.—(Special)—The dwelling belonging to John Zyp, living two miles north of here was completely destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon, between three and four o'clock. Flames were first discovered bursting from the roof and it is thought that the building could have been saved had the water in the well not become exhausted.

When hopes of saving the building was given up everybody present turned their attention to saving the contents of the burning structure. By heroic efforts nearly everything was safely removed.

The origin of the fire is unknown though it is supposed to have started from a defective flue.

The building will not be an entire loss for it was partly covered by insurance.
