JUDGE REITER SPEAKS

AT HEADQUARTERS.

Republicans Speak in Complimentary of Hammond Man's Address.

A good sized crowd gathered at the republican headquarters last evening to hear Judge Virgil S. Reiter address the voters on the questions of the day, from a republican standpoint. To say that they were discussed and explained in a satisfactory manner is a useless waste of words to those who know the judge. Frank Meeker also addressed the audience and representing the Center Township Republican club, thanked every one who was instrumental in making the great success of the Watson day rally and barbecue, held here last Saturday. Plans were also discussed to get a crowd out next Monday morning to hear Senator Beveridge speak at the Panhandle depot, at 8:30. Everyone should turn out and hear this noted orator, who is justly considered one of the best and most learned at the present time. Although early in the morning it will be well worth your while to hear one of the most gifted of Indiana's sons. Monday morning, Panhandle depot, at 8:30 o'clock.

Two members of the Carsten club were present, Carsten and Surprise, and gave an exhibition shoot for the local marksmen. The following are some of the scores made: Horst, 20; Foss, 19; Wirtz, 16; Hoffman, 15; Swartz, 13; Wirtz, 12. William Obright, the garage man, met with an accident to his Elmore automobile yesterday by colliding with the steam roller on Main street. Quite a little damage was caused through the encounter, and Billy has now learned, like some other unfortunate people in the past, that a steam roller is a tough proposition to run up against.

Last Horse Sale Day.

Crown Point Republican—"Say, have you heard of the latest 'swap' in the market today?"

Second C. P. R.—"No; what is it?"

First C. P. R.—"Well, the democratic party of Indiana brought their old dog here today and traded him for the brewer's festive hock beer goat. Traded even, too."

CROUP QUICKLY CURED.

Don't Let the Child Choke to Death While Waiting for the Doctor.

Hyomel, the miraculous, antiseptic, dry air treatment, will cure croup in either the first or second stages. Easily inhaled, even when the breathing is irregular, it reaches more promptly than any other remedy the terribly inflamed membrane of the windpipe. Its soothing balsams act immediately, the inflammation is allayed, and the swelling reduced.

"Not long ago our little boy, Walter, awoke in the night with a bad attack of croup. We allowed him to inhale Hyomel; he was breathing easier, and in half an hour was fast asleep. I am glad to speak a good word for a remedy that will rob croup of its terrors."—Rev. Geo. Sisson, pastor of M. E. church, South Londonderry, Vt.

Hyomel (pronounced High-o-mel) is guaranteed by Summers' pharmacy to cure croup, whooping cough, asthma, bronchitis and croup, or money back. A complete outfit, including a neat hard rubber pocket inhaler, costs only $1.00. An extra bottle of Hyomel, if afterwards needed, costs but 50 cents.

are gratified at the outlook in the coming contest on November 3, and from all reports they are confident of victory, many predicting that Roosevelt's majority will be eclipsed by the vote that will be polled for Taft on that day. Bryan, at the head of the national ticket, and Marshall of the state, are steadily losing ground and favor, and the attempted delivery of the laboring man's and saloonkeeper's vote has been struck a death blow. To quote the immortal Lincoln, for Mr. Marshall's benefit: "You can fool some of the people all of the time and you can fool all of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all of the time."

Many of the farmers that expected a decided fall in the yield of corn this year are gratified to find that conditions are better than they at first supposed, and that the yield will be about the average of the last five years.

The rains of last evening will prove of great benefit to pasture and will allay the further danger of prairie fires.

A good crowd will go to Gary tonight to take in the big doings there and help add a few hundred more to Taft's majority on Tuesday week. Railroad connections have kept many from going, and it is to be hoped another campaign rolls around that Crown Point and her sister city, Gary, will be able to join hands by the inter-urban route.
