ATTEND BRILLIANT FUNCTION.

A number of Hammond ladies, members of the order of Eastern Star, left on the 2:35 Nickel Plate for Valparaiso, where they were entertained last evening for the banquet given the grand officers of the chapter. The affair was one of the most brilliant in the history of the Valparaiso chapter, and the Hammond ladies report most delightful entertainment. They were met at the station with automobiles and taken to the Masonic temple, where the time was spent in an informal way until 6 o'clock. During this hour the members met the grand officers and members of visiting chapters from various cities in the state. About 6:30 the guests were invited to form in line the grand officers in the lead and marched to the hotel, where an elegant four-course supper was served in the dining hall. The room had been artistically decorated for the occasion with yellow and white chrysanthemums and fall foliage. About 300 guests were present at the banquet and returned to the temple, where the meeting was called at 8:30. The entire work for the evening was done by the past matron and patron, Mr. and Mrs. Stinchfield. One of the pleasing features of the meeting was the initiation of their two daughters into the chapter. At the conclusion of the initiation the guests were invited into the banquet room and served with dainty refreshments. This room was elaborately decorated with the colors of the order, and the chapter room where the main session was held was beautiful with fall decorations of flowers and ferns.

The Hammond ladies remained in Valparaiso until this morning and were the guests of Mrs. Pauline Summers, a sister of Mrs. E. E. Beck of Williams street, this city. Mrs. Summers is grand matron of the order of Eastern Star.

A WOMAN OF THE WEST.

While it is possible to make an audience feel the atmosphere of a play without the aid of scenery, a play which has the necessary scenery and does not tax the imagination in this regard, is more pleasing and furnishes a better evening's entertainment because of adequate and correct staging. "A Woman of the West," the American comedy drama, written by Father Vaughan and produced by Annie Mack Berlin, furnishes many opportunities for startling scenic effects. Every such opportunity has been availed of in the present production. The company carries a carload of scenery built especially for this play. At Towle Opera House, Thursday, Oct. 29th.

THE NEW MUSICAL COMEDY.

"Panhandle Pete," a new musical comedy adaptation from George McManus' New York World cartoons, will come to the Towle Opera House Saturday matinee and night, Oct. 31st. This production is headed by Walter Wilson, the well-known comedian, and supported by Charles Wilkins, Phil A. Gastrock, Nellie Nice, Jack McCowan and George Hervey, and other members of the company, who do their share toward the general action of the play, which does not lack in variety. It has a real plot, having been entirely re-written with musical numbers and comedy charmingly interwoven and characters drawn true to life, together with rural scenes and stage settings for a background, and its abundance of fun has much to do with the play's success.

FASHIONABLE MILLINERY.

Miss Reilly saw from day to day one of the best appointed stocks of millinery in this section. You will find here the best and most popular models, both foreign and domestic, and, although her patronage is large, her stock seems to get larger from day to day. If you are inclined to be particular and hard to please, just call and see this stock. Second floor, Hammond building is the location.—2t.

There was not as good an attendance as had been expected, due to the inclement weather and the illness of several of the members, but an interesting study of the Raphael was enjoyed. The members present enjoyed a general discussion of the work and the meeting proved a very informal one.

The Ginger Jar

Judging from the make-up of the Gary parade last Saturday not only those who pronounce it Taft will vote for him but also those who call him Taft, Teft and Teyft.

In order that the defeated candidates may not all take to the same woods, it has been suggested that the timber lands in the county be divided up as follows: The defeated candidate for sheriff will please himself to the Black Oak woods; the candidate for representative will confine himself to the woods in the south part of the county reserving forty acres for the coroner aspirant; the defeated judge, auditor and recorder candidates will please divide the 160 acres near Kreutzberg among themselves, while the commissioner will please retreat to the copse east of Aetna.

Not meaning to violate the ethics of chivalry, but rather in research for a definition of the prevailing coiffure of the fair sex we find that by using a United States provincialism and clothing it with a definition from Webster, an excellent result is attained. According to this definition it is one of the allied genera of the genus wad. There, that ought not interfere without table service.

Any further reports from the Home-wood folk about ptomaine poisoning coming after today must be considered to be "roorbacks" until November 4th, when they will again be considered to be legitimate.

In the meantime the democrats' condescend nothing. There is no hurry gentlemen, no hurry at all.

That will be about all for you Mr. Meckison.

Never mind Judge Prest, it will all come back when Judge Taft is elected.

In the heat of the campaign let us not forget that it will be Hammond's honor to entertain the school mams of the county for a few days this week.

Notwithstanding reports to the contrary St. John township is still preponderantly democratic.

It is perfectly legitimate that the paragraph of today should call attention to the event next Tuesday. Not wanting to be an exception to the rules, etc.

Yes, this is democratic weather alright, but will it hold?

HIGH SCHOOL TIDINGS.

Many of the second team will go to Crown Point. This trip will be a reward for coming out and practicing the varsity.

A chalk talk was part of the practice work last night. Several new plays were invented. On account of the rain the signals were gone through with in the building.

The people composing the chorus, which is to sing for the teachers' meeting, met last night at the school house. Crown Point next. The game deciding the county championship and also the ownership of THE TIMES' cup will be played off at the county seat next Saturday. It will be one of the hardest fought gridiron battles ever played by Hammond and Crown Point.

From reports received the county seat boys are a strong aggregation and will be able to put up a stiff game. Nevertheless Hammond will be there "with the goods" and uphold the purple and white.

The monthly "exams" are coming thick and fast, and will continue during the week. The teachers seem to like them about as well as the students.

Several announcements were made for opening exercises. The principal one was one concerning the exemption grades. If one is absent now on account of sickness and has a perfect attendance the next month, the number of days absent will not keep him from being exempt.

The committee appointed to arrange a play for the comedy company held a meeting last evening with Manager McElroy. As yet no play has been decided on, but as soon as possible the committee will choose one.

days' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler, of Indiana avenue.

Mrs. Henry Lundt and Mrs. Frances C. Ryan spent yesterday with relatives in East Chicago.

Miss Anna Kruse was the guest of friends in Chicago over Sunday.

Mrs. F. Ebert of Sibley street is spending a few days with relatives and friends in Michigan City.

Mrs. Charles Norton of Hyde Park is spending the day with friends in Hammond.

Misses Lottie and Belle Donovan of East Chicago are expected to visit in Hammond this evening.

The Expert.

If we ever come across the heaven-sent being whom the "expert" seems to some minds to incarnate, we shall fall down and worship among the first. But officials, as we know them, are much like other people, and on the whole do their work very much better when liable to criticism and subject to supervision and dismissal.—London Nation.

Try the Experiment.

A Boston writer says that Goethe wrote the initials of his name, and, folding it over, was surprised to get a butterfly. It makes a very pretty occupation for an idle 15 minutes to see what you will get, and some of the designs are pretty enough to be used as embroidery patterns.
