

EAST CHICAGO AND INDIANA HARBOR

EAST CHICAGO.

Carl Quinn of Olcott avenue was the lucky ticket holder at MacCormick's theater on Sunday evening, winning the handsome jardiniere and stand offered the holder of the winning number. Quinn is highly pleased with his award.

Michael Sura of the Fife furniture store on Chicago avenue was a Kenosha visitor over Sunday.

The Ladies' Social union of the M. E. church will be entertained at the home of Mrs. James Clements on Olcott avenue tomorrow afternoon.

The M. E. Bible class is scheduled to meet at the parsonage on One Hundred street this evening. A large attendance is desired as business matters of importance are to be considered.

The Experience Social reported in Saturday evening's TIMES, as given at the home of Mrs. A. H. W. Johnson, was so reported through an error. Mrs. E. T. Davis of Magoun avenue was the hostess and filled the duties of her office with splendid ability.

Miss Emily Johnson of Hobart is reported as recovering rapidly from her recent attack of appendicitis.

PROPERTY LOANS at Roe's Law Office.

John Stirling of Magoun avenue was a Hobart visitor Sunday afternoon and evening.

R. H. Alexander of the Reiland hotel was a Burnham visitor yesterday afternoon.

A fruit store will be opened in the Goldberg building on Olcott avenue about Nov. 5. The deal was completed yesterday through the Specter agency.

The Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal church will give a Hallowe'en party at the church on Thursday evening. Every one is invited to attend and those who attend the functions of this body know that entertainment is one of their brilliant powers.

Benjamin Leoni of Chicago was an East Chicago and Harbor visitor yesterday.

Attorney J. D. Kennedy transacted business in the superior court at Hammond yesterday.

Mrs. John Wylie of Whiting was an East Chicago visitor yesterday afternoon.

Roy Freeman of this city was a visitor at the Indiana Harbor rink last evening, accompanied by a member of the Harbor Telephone exchange.

Attorney McClosky transacted business in Judge Townsley's court in Gary yesterday.

E. W. Wickey, East Chicago's candidate for representative, is able to be around the house after his recent attack of the grippe. He will be able to resume his political labors within a few days.

Mrs. T. H. Skinner of Forsyth avenue was called to Valparaiso yesterday morning by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Caroline Wilson, of that city.

There will be a meeting of the members of the volunteer fire department in the city hall this evening.

Mrs. Max Nassau of Olcott avenue entertained about twenty friends and relatives at her home on Sunday evening in honor of Miss Hanna Pitzele and her fiance, Mr. Max Stern, of South Chicago. The tables were decorated with smilax and red hearts, small candy hearts being placed in heart-shaped cartons at each plate. The dinner was served in Mrs. Nassau's splendid style, and was followed by an evening of general conversation. Miss Pitzele and Mr. Stern will be married in the very near future and will make their home

ANOTHER IS STARTED UP

Indiana Harbor Now Has a New Department Store.

(Special to THE TIMES.)

Indiana Harbor, Ind., Oct. 27.—The Lake County Department Store company is the latest addition to the Harbor's already large mercantile list. The youth is still in a growing condition. Attorney P. A. Parks yesterday filed papers for its necessary incorporation according to the laws of the state of Indiana, and within a few weeks, the store will be opened at 3507 Cedar street.

The local store will be operated by a stock company, the majority of the stock being owned by several local foreigners. Nick Meyer, a constable in Judge Belland's court, has been selected to manage the enterprise, while Miss Mary Andrews has been offered a position as cashier. The officers of the company are L. W. Parlo, president; vice president, George Wuckovich; secretary, Nick Popovich, and treasurer, Paul Popovich.

FRED CUMMINGS HURT

Indiana Harbor Boy Badly Mangled in Railroad Accident.

(Special to THE TIMES.)

Indiana Harbor, Ind., Oct. 27.—What may have proved a very serious accident resulted near Danville, on the C. I. & S. railway, Sunday, when Fred Cummings, an Indiana Harbor young man, fell from a train and badly lacerated his lower limbs. Cummings is a conductor, and according to his story, attempted to dismount from the car while it was passing a highway crossing. His foot caught in the cattle guard, thrashing him with severe force to the ground.

The train was immediately stopped and he was given surgical attention by a Danville practitioner. He then expressed a desire to return to work, but was not allowed to do so. He was brought to the Haywood residence, on Aids street, yesterday afternoon, where he was given further attention by Dr. F. H. Sauer.

ONLY FOR 15 MINUTES

W. J. Bryan Stop in Lake County to Endure Quarter of an Hour.

(Special to THE TIMES.)

Indiana Harbor, Ind., Oct. 27.—Democratic Chairman P. A. Parks was yesterday given final information that William Jennings Bryan, the democratic leader, would appear, rain or shine, on next Saturday evening. Although Mr. Bryan's stay in Indiana Harbor will be but for fifteen minutes, it is safe to say that he will be greeted by a good-sized audience. He will arrive over the Lake Shore road at 7:15 o'clock and will speak from the rear platform of his car for at least fifteen minutes.

The brief duration of the Peerless Leader's visit, according to Chairman Parks, does not warrant the securing of a band with which to enliven the demonstration, although a quantity of red fire will be purchased. Hon. Ed Simon, the democratic candidate for representative, will accompany Mr. Bryan from Gary to this city.

NEAR DEATH'S DOOR.

"I was near death's door. The doctor said he had done all he could, that my stomach was old and worn out. I was so weak I could not walk. I took Mi-o-na tablets, and have been eating hearty ever since, and I am able to work like tiger. I wish I could go and thank you myself. I send you my picture, and you can use my word and my picture, and I thank you again."—Mrs. Nelson Lucifer, 112 Fisk street, Athol, Mass.

The basketball girls are contemplating giving a dance on Saturday evening, providing they can secure a suitable hall. The proceeds will be devoted to the purchase of additional apparatus.

The newspaper man, the brunt of the disgruntled attacks of the public in general, the burden bearer of the famed wrongs and grievances of the entire community, has again been made the victim of a mean trick. W.

BAD FIRE TAKES PLACE

East Chicago Has a Sensational Blaze This Morning.

(Special to THE TIMES.)

East Chicago, Ind., Oct. 27.—Fire destroyed the home of John Rodgers, the Chicago avenue saloonkeeper, at an early hour this morning, the entire upper section of the building being destroyed before the arrival of the local fire department. The origin of the fire is unknown, although the work of mice is suspected. A box of matches known to have been in the attic is supposed to have been the cause. The police are investigating, however, and have learned that the building is fully covered by insurance.

TO HAVE NIGHT SCHOOL

Indiana Harbor Foreigners Will Be Taken Care of Soon.

(Special to THE TIMES.)

Indiana Harbor, Ind., Oct. 27.—That Indiana Harbor will have a night school for the benefit of her foreign workmen is now assured. At a recent meeting of the board of education, it was decided to put the matter to the residents of this city, with the explanation that if twenty or more persons desiring to attend such a school would register at the Central and George drug stores, the sessions would be arranged immediately. The result has been beyond the greatest expectation of the board.

Forty-one foreigners have registered at the Central drug store, where B. C. Lusac has charge, while an equally large number appear on the roster at George's place of business. Among the names appear those of prominent mill hands and politicians, while even the Rev. Simeon Mihaitan has seen fit to express his desire to better his knowledge of the English language.

The session, when arranged, will no doubt be held in the Lincoln building.

FUNNY THINGS ABOUT SCHOOL.

A school teacher was endeavoring to convey the idea of pity to the members of his class. "Now, supposing," he said, "a man working on the river bank suddenly fell in. He could not swim, and would be in danger of drowning. Picture the scene, boys and girls. The man's sudden fall, the cry for help. His wife knowing his peril and hearing his screams, rushes immediately to the bank." Why does she rush to the bank?"

After a pause a small voice piped

"Please, sir, to draw his insurance money."—Home Herald.

A little Swedish boy went to school and the teacher ask him his name. "Tunny Olson," he replied. "How old are you?" asked the teacher. "Ay not know how old Ay bane." "Well, when were you born?" continued the teacher. "Ay not born at all; Ay got stepmutter."—Western Christian Advocate.

"How do you like your teacher dear?" Little Mary was asked after her first day at school. "I like her real well," said Mary, "but I don't think she knows much, for she just keeps asking questions all the time."—Delineator.

The doctor—Now that you are going to school, Johnny, perhaps you can tell me what happens when an irresistible force strikes an immovable object.

"People send for you, doctor."—Life.

Principal—Johnnie, I'm surprised that your French is so weak. Now think—chapeau—what is that? What does your father throw up when he's merry?

Johnnie—His job, sir.—Harper's Weekly.

BLACK OAK.

Friday was visiting day for the school teacher. Miss Klein spent the day visiting the Hammond schools.

The election of the REPUBLICAN Legislative Candidates from Lake County is one of the vital necessities of the present campaign. Every citizen is interested in the election of a United States Senator and every Republican and each voter is interested in the election of a REPUBLICAN UNITED STATES SENATOR.

The Republican party is committed to a revision of the tariff along protective lines that will insure a continuation of the policy of American markets for the products of our own factories and farms and the highest wages to our workmen and the best prices for American farm produce.

PROTECTION and PROSPERITY is the vital issue of this campaign.

The citizens of Lake County are directly interested in many questions that will come before the next session of the Indiana Legislature, the Legislative, Congressional and Judicial reapportionment of the State, the improvement of our Waterways and many other questions of equal importance.

The safe, sane and practical way is to vote the Republican ticket straight and insure the election of the
