Miss Genevieve Hastings is able to be out again after a severe illness that has confined her to her home in West State street for several days.

RETURNS FROM MICHIGAN:

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lutz have returned home from a pleasant visit of a few days spent at different points in Michigan.

PLEASANT SURPRISE PARTY.

A very pleasant surprise party was given last evening in honor of William Zalvite at his home in Walter street. The party was in honor of his 11th birthday anniversary and he received many gifts in remembrance of the day. The evening was passed with games and music, after which a luncheon was served. Among the guests were the Misses Minnie Meyer, Clara Haberman, Martha Haberman, Alvin Haberman, Erna and Hulda Scheuvin, Gretchen Berg, Elsa and Meta Fubelkom, Messrs. Otto Meyer, Ernest Waltrink, Gustave Fubelkom, Fred and Clark Zalvite.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL.

F. C. Ryan returned to his home in Condit street yesterday after being at the Mary hospital in Chicago for several days, where he had to undergo an operation to have a piece of glass removed from his hand.

MISSIONARY MEETING.

The Missionary society of the First M. E. church is meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Rosenberg. All the members are invited to attend, as an interesting program has been arranged for the afternoon.

HAVE PLEASANT MEETING.

Mrs. Walter entertained the members of the Fleur-de-lis club very pleasantly yesterday afternoon at her home in Russell street. The members of the club were all present and spent an enjoyable afternoon playing cards. Several games of Pedro were played and the prizes were awarded Mrs. Glasgow and Mrs. Kralowitz. At the close of the games the games the hostess served dainty refreshments. Another meeting of the club will be held next Thursday.

MILLINER WORKS HARD.

Miss L. G. Waite, the new Chicago milliner, who may be found in her parlors over the Lion store in the Rimbach building, has not been long in Hammond, but she is steadily drawing the select trade. She says that for a long time she has been working long hours and often until late at night in order to satisfy the demands made upon her.

NEXT MEETING IN SOUTH BEND.

Hammond ladies who returned from the meeting of the state Federation of Women's Clubs brought back word that the Indiana State Federation of Clubs will hold its next meeting in South Bend, the last week in October, 1909. Mrs. Drummond, of that city, brought to the State Federation the only invitation it received this year, and it came in the name of the Progress and the Impromptu clubs of that city. Arrangements were made to hold the sessions in the Athletic club house, and for accommodations at the best hotels. The Federation unanimously accepted the invitation.

Mrs. Charles W. Fairbanks dropped in on the convention late yesterday afternoon, and, as soon as the address that was being given by the president, Mrs. Kinsey, and invited to speak. The subject under discussion was that of "Food Sanitation." Mrs. Fairbanks said that she approved of the pure food movement and that she thought it criminal that food should ever be adulterated when the earth has so bountifully provided it. She told of a case when a man refused to sell a piece of his land to a railroad, because it was sugar clay and so closely resembled sugar that it was mixed with the real article to make it weigh heavier. She said she liked to see women striving and doing for their country, their state, their town and themselves, and that she wished to do something that will leave its mark on time. Mrs. Fairbanks congratulated the federation on its achievements.

A QUIET WEDDING.

Word was received in Hammond today of a marriage license granted Miss Lena Bach and William Becker, both of this city, at St. Joseph, Mich., this week. The young couple were probably married the same day. Mr. and Mrs. Becker are known in Hammond, where they have lived for several years and when their friends learned of the announcement will extend them congratulations and best wishes.

MRS. MILLER ENTERTAINS.

Mrs. Miller entertained the members of the Acme Social club very pleasantly yesterday afternoon. It was the regular meeting of the club and all the members were present. A very enjoyable time was spent with cards, several games of Pedro being played. The prizes for the afternoon were awarded Mrs. J. Nolan and Mrs. B. Kanter. At the close of the games the guests were served with a dainty luncheon. Mrs. John Nolan will entertain the club ladies at their next meeting in two weeks at her home in East Sibley street.

A SECURE MARRIAGE.

The announcement of a wedding that will come as a great surprise to many people in the county was learned today and is that of Miss Frieda Dieckhoff of this city and Robert Jones of East Chicago. The announcement came as a surprise to even the nearest relatives of the young couple, but they are receiving the congratulations and best wishes of many friends today.

THE MARRIAGE TOOK PLACE.

The marriage took place Wednesday of this week and was very quiet. The Rev. P. Well of this city accompanied the young couple to Auburn Park, Ill., where the ceremony took place at the home of the Rev. A. Wenzel. The ring service of the church was said by Rev. Well. Following the service the young couple came to the home of the bride's parents in Truman avenue.

The bride is one of Hammond's prominent young ladies, taking an active part in church and social circles. She will be missed in these circles after moving to East Chicago, where she will make her home in the future. Mr. Jones is employed in the Diamond store in East Chicago.

HALLOWEEN PARTY.

The pupils of room 8 of the Central building are planning a progressive Halloween party to be given tonight at the different homes of the pupils. A very enjoyable time is expected with Halloween games and refreshments appropriate for the occasion will be served.

ATTENDS THEATRE.

Miss Erma Sholtz and Mr. Hauke saw Fritz Scheff in "The Prima Donna" at the Studebaker in Chicago last evening.

SEWING CIRCLE MEETS.

The members of Sewing Circle No. 1 of St. Margaret's hospital met at the home of Mrs. John Rohman in East State street yesterday afternoon for the regular weekly meeting. There was a very good attendance and the members report it one of the most enjoyable parties of the year. Pedro was played from seven tables set in the parlors and the prizes were awarded Mrs. J. K. Knott and Mrs. Horst. At the close of the games dainty refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held in two weeks, when Mrs. W. D. Weis entertains at her home in Ogden street.

HOLD BUSINESS MEETING.

The regular meeting of the Deborah Aid society of the First Christian church was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Parker in Calumet avenue. Business of importance was transacted during the early afternoon, after which the hostess served refreshments. Mrs. Fred Fenstermacher will entertain the ladies next Thursday at her home, 731 Wilcox street.

MASQUERADE SOCIAL.

It is expected that there will be a very good attendance at the masquerade social to be given Saturday evening, Oct. 31, at the home of Mrs. C. Richardson. The social is given under the auspices of the Deborah Aid society of the First Christian church. The proceeds will be used for the benefit of the church. A program characteristic of Halloween will be given.

CHURCH RECEPTION.

A very pleasant reception was held last evening in the parlors of the First Christian church. The members of the Deborah and Martha Aid societies entertained for the other members of the church, and congregation of whom there was a good attendance. Short addresses were given by different selections were given by the church orchestra, after which the evening was spent in an informal social way and refreshments were served.

SOCIAL DAY CELEBRATED.

Mrs. Mary Burge entertained the members of the Martha Aid society of the First Christian church yesterday afternoon at her home in South Hohman street. It was the regular social day of the club, which is held once each month, and a very pleasant meeting is reported. Business of importance in connection with the New England supper to be given Saturday, Nov. 7, was disposed of, after which a short

FIRST ANNUAL BALL.

One of the leading society functions of the early fall season was a dancing party at which the Owls entertained last evening in the Masonic temple. It was their first annual ball and they are receiving the congratulations of their friends today on the success of their entertainment. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Talbot and a young lady from South Bend were present at the party, and Mr. and Mrs. Talbot lead in the grand march, which opened the program of dances at 9:30. There were ninety-two couples in the march. Mr. Talbot is president of the organization, and the Hammond members were pleased to have him at their opening dance. He delivered a short address before leaving which was complimentary to the local Owls. The hall had been beautifully decorated for the occasion with potted plants and flowers and large stuffed owls were also used in the ornamentation. They were seen peeping from behind the foliage and in the windows, and gave a very appropriate appearance to the hall.
