GOOD TEA

Good tea when properly made, is like old wine. It tempers the spirits, harmonizes the mind, dispels lassitude and relieves fatigue. It awakens thought and clears the perceptive faculties. It is the best possible drink for all classes and for all ages. It is the drink for the young school girl as well as for the aged literary man. But the tea must be right. However, it is very difficult to get good tea at the present time for the reason that it is adulterated in nine cases out of ten. But J. E. Brennan, 148 Hohman St., Hammond, is offering a selected Japan tea of his own importation that he guarantees to be the best tea in town for the price, which is 50 cents per pound. and their husbands at a Halloween party this evening at the Hammond residence in Mason street. A number of appropriate games have been arranged and the house has been elaborately decorated for the party with Halloween decorations.

HAVE PLEASANT PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Reed entertained the members of the Colonial club and their husbands at a pleasant Halloween party last evening at their home in East State street. The home had been decorated very elaborately for the party with autumn foliage and Jack o'lanterns characteristic of the Halloween season. During the evening various games were enjoyed, after which the guests were invited into the diningroom and served with a four-course luncheon. Among the guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames J. W. Houser, W. H. Speltman, Julius Dunning, M. M. Bruce, W. P. Brunt, Clark Leaming, A. L. Spohn, J. J. Turner, J. W. Feed and Addie Abbott.

Ray Catlow of Gary visited friends in Hammond last evening for the dancing party.

Miss Elizabeth Evers of Edgewater was entertained by Miss Mary Krost at her home in Doty street for the dancing party last evening.

ENJOYABLE DANCING PARTY.

One of the most pleasing social functions of the season was a dancing party given last evening in the Masonic temple by the members of St. Agnes' Guild and the Young Men's club of St. Paul's Episcopal church. The party was the first ever given by the young people of the church and it proved a social success in every detail. The party was characteristic of the Halloween season and very appropriate decorations were used. The pillars were artistically arranged with corn stalks and the lights shaded with yellow tissue paper to give the appearance of pumpkins. Large Jack o'lanterns were placed in the windows amid great masses of autumn foliage. The windows were beautifully banked with tinted leaves. Informal dancing lasted from 8:30 to 10 o'clock when the guests formed for the grand march. The march was led by Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Johnston in the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Francis C. Ryan and at this time the programs were given out by the Misses Preet and Fetta. Thirteen dances and three extras composed the program. A beautiful program of music was played for the dancing. Refreshments were served during the intermissions. The party was largely attended by young people, many guests coming from Chicago and East Chicago.

PUPILS COSTUME PARTY.

One of the pleasantest of the early Halloween parties was given by the pupils of the eighth grade last evening at the home of the different members. The young people met at the home of Edgar Crumppacker in Webb street, where a short time was spent before going to the home of Mayer Lipman in Williams street. They were also entertained by Lela Boyle and Lucian Hirsch at their homes and then they came to the home of Miss Beulah Dracker in State Line street. The home had been very prettily decorated with autumn leaves and corn stalks and the rooms were dimly lighted with Jack o'lanterns. The guests came in costume and spent the evening informally Halloween games, after which they were served with refreshments. About seventy-five members were guests at the party and all report a most enjoyable time.

HAS TELEGRAM PARTY.

Mrs. C. G. Kingwill entertained about fifty or sixty Hammond ladies at one of the most delightful afternoon parties of the season yesterday at her home in Williams street. Mrs. Kingwill issued invitations in the form of telegrams a few weeks ago, and many of the guests responded. Mrs. Kingwill was assisted in receiving by her daughter, Miss Grace Kingwill. The home was very beautifully decorated with autumn foliage and yellow chrysanthemums. The color scheme was very prettily carried out in yellow. During the afternoon a very enjoyable program was rendered including several splendid readings by Mr. F. C. Barkley of Chicago. Mrs. Frank Hostler sang some beautiful solo's which were enjoyed by all the guests, after which Mrs. Becker gave a beautiful instrumental solo.

Miss Inez Eaton presided at the punch bowl during the party, and Mrs. Alfred Sherby, Misses Grace Kingwell, Frances Hutton and Mae Hartley assisted in serving the guests with a dainty course luncheon.

HAS PLEASANT PARTY.

Mrs. Charles Toms gave a pleasant party for a number of her friends last evening at her home in Hoffman street. The party was in the nature of a Halloween party, and the decorations were prettily carried out in red and yellow. Autumn foliage was used in profusion and Jack o'lanterns added to the attractiveness of the rooms. Following an evening very pleasantly spent with games a delicious course luncheon was served in true Halloween fashion.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

A crowd of young people were entertained by Miss Jessie McLeod at her home, 410 Cedar street, last evening. The occasion being in honor of her birthday. Dancing, music and games were enjoyed during the evening, and at 11:30 a supper was served. The guests were: Lizzetta Wolf, Edith Rextrover, Zudith Rosene, Dollie Gelb, Beatrice Jacobson, Lizzie Helfner, Beatrice Eckenboey, Mrs. Kroak, Margaret, Mary and Jessie McLeod, Dick Farrell, Fred Adelapberger, Adelbert Thomas, Leo Carroll, Ralph Eckenboey, Morris Eckenboey, Rex Newell, Archie and Robert McLeod.
