NEWS OF THE COUNTY SEAT

THINGS THAT WILL HELP THE REPUBLICANClose of Campaign Finds Some of Them
Pretty Sure.

A few more personal (?) letters from W. J. Bryan, which bear the marks of deception on the very face of them, a few more glaring brewery trust poster flaunted brazenly in the face of the intelligent voter, a little more activity of some of the saloonkeepers in knifing the republican party, and last but not least, the vicious and abusive slander that has been heaped upon nearly every candidate, and some of Lake county professional men by the Hammond democratic sheet will go far in swelling the republican majorities next Tuesday. Deception and fraud practiced by the adherents of the national democratic ticket, misstatements and underhanded methods of the brewery combine in their efforts to hand the people's vote to their favorite, Tom Marshall, and the lies and abuse heaped upon respectable men by certain sheets will not be tolerated by color of the democrats who think anything of their votes, and it is predicted that the ballots of next Tuesday will reprimand in an uncertain way then three agencies that have been an insult to the intelligent voter.

Weather Was Unfavorable.

On account of unfavorable weather only five members of the Crown Point Gun club competed for the trophy at the west side grounds yesterday afternoon. A high northwest wind blowing during the shoot kept the score down below the 20 mark out of a possible 25.

Harry Szwartz won the medal with a score of 18. The others score were as follows: Foss 18, Thomas 15, Barr 16 and Youche 10.

Aseneth Fallis, Chicago; Ward Hayes, Cozad; Jennie Wooden, Rockefeller.

Line Is Completed.

The big engine for the Electric Light plant is expected to arrive today, and will soon be placed on the big concrete foundation. The line to Lowell is about completed and it is thought that in less than a month the Crown Point company will be supplying the town of Lowell and Cedar Lake with electric current and power. The next piece of business has necessitated the expenditure of thousands of dollars, but the promoters are confident that it will be a paying business.

Ballots Are All Ready.

The state, county, and township ballots have all been prepared and gotten ready for the use of the voters next Tuesday and the question will soon be up to the people, who are by the way, the only ones who have any say in the matter of electing their officers. Preparing the ballots is a big task, requiring the labors of quite a force of men.

Tonight is the evening when the imp walk, and tomorrow if you find your property on land that you are not paying taxes on, just take the affair as a matter of course, and grin even though you do feel like kicking the guilty parties into the middle of next week. Halloween comes but once a year whether you want it or not, and your gate takes its annual excursion despite the same facts. This is also the night when the various candidates get their's.

The democrats may go to great efforts to instruct the voter how to mark and cast his ballot, but we think that when the voter gets into the voting booth he will there exercise the only prerogative given the American man, and vote for what he thinks will be of the best interest for the community himself and his family, and all the arguments to the contrary will be of little avail.

Great interest is being taken in the football game between Hammond and Crown Point high schools this afternoon. The Crown Point team is not over-confident of winning and realize they have a hard proposition in Ham-
