

EAST CHICAGO AND INDIANA HARBOR

EAST CHICAGO.

Chief Adjuster Williams of the Scottish Union Fire Insurance company was an East Chicago visitor yesterday afternoon. While here he adjusted the claim of John Rodgers of Baring avenue, paying the full insurance on the Rodgers' home, recently destroyed by fire. The insurance was carried in the Scottish Union through the DeBrie agency.

The Men's club of the Congregational church held their bi-monthly meeting last evening at the home of E. N. Canine. Topics of political importance were discussed by the members, one of the features of the evening being an address on the "Interesting Episodes in Presidential Elections" by J. G. Allen. Music and refreshments completed the evening's program.

E. W. Wickey is on the sick list today, being confined to his home by a recurrence of the severe attack of the grippe from which he has but recently recovered.

Clifford Saager, the 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Saager of Northcote avenue, died at his home Sunday morning after a brief illness. Funeral arrangements are being made through Undertaker J. H. Freeman of the Interment at Oak Hill cemetery tomorrow morning.

PROPERTY LOANS AT ROE'S LAW OFFICE.

M. Rottenberg of Chicago avenue was a Chicago visitor yesterday.

Fred Stewart returned this morning to Mount Carroll and Savannah, Ill., where he is carrying through several large building contracts.

David Campbell of Todd avenue is suffering severe bruises as the result of falling from a table on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Rottenberg were the guests of friends in Hammond today.

Edward Henderson, who has been visiting at the home of T. H. Skinner of Forsyth avenue for several days, returned yesterday to his home in Terre Haute.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sharp of Olcott avenue were Chicago visitors yesterday afternoon.

The home of F. J. Ault, on Walsh avenue, was the scene of a delightful Halloween party on Saturday evening, about fifteen guests being entertained by the estimable hostess. Games in conformity with the season's spirit were played and appropriate refreshments served in Mrs. Ault's splendid style, the guests feeling that they had been treated royally for the altogether too short evening.

High School Notes.

We are told Ben made quite a hit attired as a lady on Halloween. How about it, Ben?

Miss Marie Ryder has returned to school after a few weeks' absence.

Miss Krause is reported ill.

The H. S. Walking club, composed of H. Clark, C. Dreessen, J. Dreessen, B. B. Paterson and R. Paterson took their first hike on Friday afternoon. The boys sang several selections, one of which, "My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean," frightened a team of horses. Be careful, boys!

Mr. Clark conducted the opening exercises this morning. He spoke on the presidential campaigns and the manner of electing a president.

Miss N.—"Can you tell me who Robin Hood was?"

H. (very earnestly).—"Yes'm. Robin Hood was the father of Red Riding Hood." (And this from a senior.)

A new month has begun.

No commercial classes were held Monday, due to the absence of Miss Krause.

Report cards will be given out Wednesday. Oh, my, such suspense.

The boys' basketball team practiced Monday evening.

Mrs. H. H. Clark was a high school visitor Monday.

INDIANA HARBOR.

Fre Gastel, Jr. spent yesterday in Crown Point, leaving today for a several days' visit in Aurora, Ill.

E. G. Madden of Elm street is seriously ill with an attack of the grippe.

Miss Ray Goldstein of Watling street was an East Chicago visitor yesterday afternoon.

L. Stirling, the manufacturer of the "Booster" cigar, returned to the Harbor yesterday and will commence his cigar factory work in the Clime Opera House building. Mr. Stirling has many friends in the Harbor and locality who are delighted to welcome him to their midst once more and wish him all the success of the next four years of republican rule.

J. F. Spellacy, master mechanic of the Inland mill, yesterday moved into the McGranahan flats on Commonwealth avenue.

J. B. Hanna, former president of the C. L. S. & S. B. line, was an Indiana Harbor visitor yesterday afternoon, spending a few hours with Harry Lemmon. Mr. Hanna made an inspection trip over the South Bend line and was highly pleased with the progress of the work, and predicted a great future for his company as soon as the Chicago terminal is established.

Miss Bessie Smith and Mrs. Corydine of Chicago were visitors at the home of Miss May Galvin of Pennsylvania avenue Sunday evening.

Miss Laura Lundquist of Ivy street is slightly ill with a touch of tonsillitis.

William Hastings of Hammond was an Indiana Harbor visitor Sunday evening.

Miss Mary Maher and Crawford Murden of Grapevine street were Whiting visitors last evening.

Mrs. Willard Hughes of Chicago spent yesterday in the Harbor as the guest of her mother of Elm street.

Messrs. Greenwald and Reiter were in the Harbor yesterday in the interests of their candidacy.

Judge G. E. Reiland has returned from a week's visit in New York city. He looks vastly improved in health and reports a splendid time.

Dr. George Orf and wife were Chicago visitors Sunday evening, attending a prominent theatrical production.

Otto Haehnel of Lake George spent yesterday afternoon with friends in Indiana Harbor.

Mrs. George Orf was a Chicago business visitor yesterday.

Special reduction on trimmed hats on Friday and Saturday at the Arcade Millinery, Pennsylvania avenue, near Michigan.

Charles Egbert of Michigan avenue was a Gary business visitor yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. William H. Lake of Dowagiac, Mich., is spending a few days in Indiana Harbor at the home of her daughter, Mesdames M. L. Sternberg and E. V. Walton.

Mr. and Mrs. George Witt were Chicago visitors Sunday afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Funky spent Sunday with friends in Chicago.

Charles Egbert of the Fowler real estate office was the guest of his brother, Guy Egbert, in Niles, Mich., Sunday, returning to the Harbor yesterday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McCrum, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McCrum, Mr. Harry McCrum and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bland will go to Chicago Wednesday evening to attend the wedding of Miss Meta Dickinson.

Dr. H. E. Stephens, Messrs. Ralph Garvin and Noble McCord and Miss Stella Kent and Jennie Skymanski of this city were guests at the Halloween party given by Miss Margaret Halloran of Drexel boulevard, Chicago, last Saturday evening.

S. Goldberg of Michigan avenue is transacting business in Chicago today.

John Golder, the 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Golder of One Hundred and Thirty-fifth street, is confined to his home with a severe fever. Dr. J. A. Teegarden is attending.

Fancy and Mourning Veilings at the Arcade Millinery, on Pennsylvania avenue, near Michigan.

The roller polo game at the Coliseum rink tonight will no doubt be the center of attraction for a large crowd of loyal rollerists. Dr. Stephens has his local team in fine shape to meet the fast San Souci park aggregation and expects to win the game with flying colors.

Election returns are to be received at the hall during the evening, thus giving patrons of the hall an opportunity to learn the progress of the great political battle being waged all over the country today.

Leo Inderbitzen of the Lucas pharmacy was a Chicago visitor over Sunday.

Emil Wilson of Michigan avenue left yesterday for San Francisco, Cal., where he will spend a year in an effort to regain his fast falling health.

The girls of the M. E. church are making active preparations for their fancy work social to be given in the church parlors on Thursday evening. Admission is fixed at 15 cents and the young ladies expect to clear a neat little sum for their church treasury.

J. W. Walker of Michigan avenue spent yesterday with his family in Laporte.

EFFORTS WERE IN VAIN

Crown Point Man Fails to

Get Harbor Saloonmen

To Take Sides.

Indiana Harbor, Ind., Nov. 3.—(Special)—The saloonkeepers of Indiana Harbor yesterday refused to endorse Thomas R. Marshall for governor of Indiana. By so doing, they personally repudiated the efforts of the brewery combines to throw their vote for the democratic candidate in spite of the plea of George Kaiser of Crown Point, who labored with them.

The association meeting was held in Cohen's hall about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, with about a hundred saloonkeepers present. In order to promote harmony among the members, and to please every one affiliated with the organization it was decided that the saloonkeepers should not use their personal influence towards voters of Indiana Harbor.

What Country Dwellers Need. A third of our population is urban; the rest is more or less rural. What the country dwellers need to make them happy are religion, education and material prosperity.

The farms cannot employ as many laborers per acre as they did before the coming of agricultural machinery. Therefore they must either raise fewer children or export some of their population to the cities.—Harper's Weekly.

EAST CHICAGO GETS ELECTION RETURNS

News Will Be Received at Offices of Attorneys Roe and Meade.

FOR HARBOR ACCOMMODATIONS

Cohen's Auditorium and Lansfield's Skating Rink Will Be Place for Indoor Returns.

(Special to THE TIMES.)

Indiana Harbor, Ind., Nov. 3.—Indiana Harborites interested in the progress of the great national political fight may watch the efforts of their various candidates in several places throughout this city and East Chicago this evening.

At East Chicago, arrangements have been made to secure all reports from every state in the Union over the Western Union company's wires. These will be received at the offices of Attorneys Willis E. Roe and Joe A. Meade, in the postoffice building and transferred to stereopticon slides by a corps of slide-writers. A huge sheet has been placed over the Cohen building on the corner of Forsyth and Chicago avenues, and the returns will be reflected on this until midnight.

In Indiana Harbor, politicians and their wives may choose between Cohen's auditorium hall and the Lansfield skating rink. At either place, reports from all over the country will be read at intervals of from two to five minutes.

The reports have been secured in every instance at heavy expense to the operators and the promoters of the arrangements trust that the public will show their appreciation of this true metropolitan spirit by turning out, en masse, to witness the result of their efforts.

Three to one are bad odds.

Constable Nathan Esenberg

Has Some Trouble With

Mill Men.

Indiana Harbor, Ind., Nov. 3.—(Special)—Constable Nathan Esenberg yesterday learned that "3 to 1" are odds that not even a constable should attempt to overcome. Esenberg saw three men rolling around on the sidewalk in front of the East Chicago company's office on Michigan avenue yesterday afternoon, evidently fighting with each other. Fearing (?) that someone would be hurt, Esenberg interfered and, showing his star, ordered the belligerents to "move on."

Instead of taking his advice, they began to take off their coats and suddenly attacked the astonished constable. By the time assistance arrived, and the three men were placed under arrest, Esenberg was badly bruised and his face showed the imprints of the grilling battle. The three men were booked as "John Doe," and their trial set for Friday morning, before Judge G. E. Reiland.

The defendants are all well known residents of Indiana Harbor, being employed in the inland mill, where they hold positions of trust. Their fight, it appears, was prompted by the imbibing of too much anti-election liquor, supplied by several aspirants for office, and they naturally were trying to lay in a stock of the liquid sufficient in amount to last over today.

A CO-OPERATIVE STORE

Lake County Department

Store Company Is Incorporated.

Indiana Harbor, Ind., Nov. 3.—Attorney P. A. Parks yesterday received the articles of incorporation of the new Lake county department store company of this city. The capital stock is fixed at $10,000 and is comprised of 2,000 shares at the par value of $5 each.

Investigation among the directors of the company, revealed the fact that this stock is to be sold in blocks of not more than 20 shares to each buyer, to the foreign residents of Indiana Harbor and vicinity. L. W. Saric of the Farvid real estate agency, has charge of the sales, and predicts that their first store will be in operation by December 1. This will be located at 3507 Deodar street, and, under the management of Nick Meyer, will cater to the foreign trade of the city.

Anti-Fat Diet.

Fresh fish boiled or broiled chicken, game, lamb or mutton, lean beef and real (all sparingly), eggs poached on toast or broiled, lettuce, spinach, asparagus, celery, watercress, onions, radishes, white cabbage, olives, ripe fruits of the acid varieties, one glass of pure water or one cup of coffee or tea without cream, milk or sugar, sipped slowly after meals.

Have Fez-Making Monopoly.

For centuries the Moslem population of Turkey has made the fez the head covering of men, but the manufacture of fezes is almost monopolized now by large concerns in Vienna.

They Want to Know.

The charitable people of London have formed a union to see that the "money given by them is properly spent."

POLITICS HURTS WOLVERINES.

Many of Yost's Men Leave Ann Arbor to Vote.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 2.—National politics wrought havoc with the Wolverine football team today. Alledice, Crumpacker, Schulz and Benbrook left for home last night in order to get there in time to cast their vote for Taft for president and Crumpacker's dad for representative. Excepting Benbrook, the absentees reside in Indiana, all in Crumpacker's senior's district.

Casey and Primeau were unable to show up on account of late class and Yost had to make shift with a line-up that looked like a patchwork quilt.

GANS DENIES HERFORD IS TO MANAGE HIM AGAIN.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 2.—Joe Gans, sitting in his Baltimore hotel today, had this to say for the benefit of the local fans:

"I am sorry that my name has again been connected with Al Herford. It is all a mistake, and I fear that the chance of getting on in New York have been ruined because of the story that I was under his management. I know that I can't pick up with Herford again. He helped me, as you know, at times, but I was the money-maker and there isn't any question to who made Herford. I will never team with him as long as I fight."

NELSON TO TELL GOTHAM HOW HE WHIPPED GANS.

New York, Nov. 2.—Hear that rumble? That's Battling Nelson fighting his way down Broadway with a howling mob at his heels. The Dane has arrived from Boston and will soon be telling us how he whipped the "Old master." Nelson comes to fill several theatrical engagements, to talk show, to show the prospectus of his new book and tell Packy McFarland, Johnny Thompson, Murphy, Cross, Goodman and the rest to fight it out among themselves.

MAY GET FIGHT WITH PACKEY.

Coffroth Offers Date to McFarland and Johnny Thompson.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 2.—Packy McFarland and Cyclone Johnny Thompson may meet before Jimmy Coffroth's club at Colma. Coffroth has offered these two lads a date and it now rests with the fighters. Thompson has announced that he will meet Packy over any number of rounds, and 8 messages to Nelson have not brought forth any definite replies, it is proposed to have McFarland appear here some time on December, if the Chicago boy will consent. The idea is to send the winner after Nelson some time next spring.

BASEBALL BLIGHTS CAREER OF MEDICAL STUDENT.

Father Writes Letter Condemning Athletic Sports at Northwestern.

Baseball at the Northwestern university has ruined the business prospects of one student, according to a letter received by Otto C. Schneider of the board of education yesterday morning from Dr. W. B. Pollard of Evansville, Ind., father of the young man of the said prospects. The letter ran in part:

"My son, and only child, contracted that 'disease' (baseball craze) while attending the Northwestern Medical school, and as a result, his prospects for a useful professional career are blighted."

CHANCE MAY LEAVE CHAMPS

Manager of Cubs Has Spat With Murphy and Reds May Get Him.

Frank L. Chance may never again be seen in action as manager of the world's champion Cubs. Chance left for California for the winter last night, but before going he said unless certain changes were made he would never again act as manager of the Cubs while Charles W. Murphy was their president. Husk appeared determined in his stand and it is likely more serious developments may follow. Chance and Murphy have quarreled over the handling of the club, and the manager says he wants no more to do with Murphy.

President Murphy is ill at his home in Oak Park and his physician refused to allow him to be interviewed yesterday. Perhaps the attitude of Chance is the cause of his illness. The Cub fans may have to wait several days before Murphy makes a statement concerning the difficulties.

Chance Determined to Stand. "Under present conditions I feel it will be next to impossible for me to continue as manager of the Cubs under the direction of President Charles W. Murphy," said Chance. Husk is known among his players as one who will make a hard fight on any stand he takes and his declaration that he does not care to continue as manager of the Cubs is not the joke that it might seem.

It was rumored yesterday in baseball circles the break between President Murphy and Manager Chance might result in a trade with Cincinnati, whereby Husk would go to the Reds in exchange for Hans Lobart, Hobby Holmquist, and a good sized bag of money. The owners of the Cincinnati club have been on the lookout for a high class manager for some time. At first they tried to make a dicker for Johnny Kling of the Cubs, but apparently this effort has failed.

Reds Eager to Get Manager. Should the trouble between Murphy and Chance come to a head, it is a cinch the Reds would jump at a chance to get a man like the Cub chief to lead their club in another effort to land the bunting in Pulliam's circuit. As for Garry Herrmann, the shoe would fit very nicely, and no doubt the Cincinnati politician would ship a barrel of gold to Chicago to close the deal. The Chicago fans would not be as well pleased.

Frank Chance is everything to the Cubs his title of Big Bear implies. He is a popular manager. He has led the team to three straight victories in the National league, and has landed two world titles in as many years. He has built up a great baseball machine, and the Chicago fans look upon him as the big mogul of the great American pastime as it is staged by the National league.

BRITT DEFEATS JOHNNY

But the British Boomed Britt and He Boiled As a Result.

London, Nov. 3.—Jimmy Britt, the California fighter, defeated Johnny Summers of England at the end of the tenth round last night at Wonderland. The champions of the fight called for ten rounds at 133 pounds. The men weighed in at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Summers had the better of the first two rounds and Britt, seeming to realize his disadvantage, put more energy into his work and shaped up much better in the succeeding rounds. The Englishman showed great cleverness, and the sixth, seventh, and eighth rounds looked to be a winner. Britt came back, however, and fought his man to the ropes, having a considerable advantage in the ninth and tenth rounds.

The American was declared the winner on points, although a considerable section of the spectators who filled the big hall questioned the referee's decision.

For several minutes there was every indication of a riot, and it was with the utmost difficulty that quiet was restored. Britt and his referee were loudly booed as they left the hall.

Much dissatisfaction is expressed in the newspapers and in circles where the fight is discussed at the referee having pronounced Jimmy Britt the victor over Johnny Summers in last night's bout, but, according to Sporting Life, although it was a splendid exhibition on both sides and Summers showed remarkable speed and cleverness at long range fighting, the referee gave Britt credit for an immense amount of fighting, the value of which the referee was in a far better position to judge than a majority of the spectators.

FORFEIT SECOND GAME

Fails to Meet the South Chicago Squad Last Sunday.

The football game between the Gary team and South Chicago which was to have been played in Gary and was later changed to South Chicago, was not played owing to the fact that the Gary team did not show up. This is the second time that the locals have made a date and have failed to keep it, and if they keep this up they will soon have a very unsavory reputation in the vicinity. Although they have been practicing fairly well during the week when it came to getting the men together to play, they have been beaten by the Gary team. Managers Savage of the Gary team has resigned owing to the action of the men who have failed to play the games that have been scheduled.
