SUNDAY AT TOWLES.

"Fritz, the Wandering Musician," will give its initial performance in this city at the Towle Opera House next Sunday matinee and night. The production is a four-act musical comedy drama, brings forward Joe Hertz, the yodler-singer actor, and affords him numerous opportunities for the introduction of funny songs and ballads. The scenes of the play which are laid in the mountain districts of Kentucky, and the plot, woven about the discovery of oil on a bankrupt colonel's estate, made possible many exciting situations and ingeniously contrived climaxes.

Mr. Hertz, as Fritz Schiller, the Wandering Musician, sings his latest songs, including the Fritz lullaby: "Will You Love Me, Dolly Dear," "Daisy Song," "Lightning Bug" song and others. The precociousness of Baby Valentine, as "Nobody's Darling," and the introduction of two big well-trained St. Bernard dogs, are other features of the entertainment. Crane Wilbur is the author.

DANCE BY N. W. OF A.

The Modern Woodman, uniform rank, will give Thursday night dances at Huehn's hall, commencing Nov. 5. Good music and a good time is assured.

SAPHO.

Sapho, which will be seen at the Towle Opera House Wednesday matinee and night Nov. 11, is the most talked play on the American stage. It tells a story of the folly of a young woman, Margaret, who and her friend, Lillian, attracted the attention of all Paris, poets sang of her, artists painted her, sculptors modeled her, and she ruined every poor devil who came in contact with her charms. After many years of wild and expensive living she falls in love with a poor, but handsome country youth, and for him she deserts her husband, who has been sent to prison for committing forgery in order to surround her with a lavish display of luxuries. In the end Jean, her new lover, tires of her and casts her aside. She finds herself friendless and in need of the necessities of life. Every woman should see this play.

PLEASANT SURPRISE PARTY.

A very pleasant surprise party was given last evening in honor of the Misses Margaret and Michèle Liesenfeldt at their home in State Line street. The evening was passed in an informal way with various games and music. Pedro was played during the early evening and the prizes were awarded to Miss Rose Ruschlo and Ralph Young. The consolation prizes were given to Miss Margaret Liesenfeldt and Leo Engelton. At the close of the games a dainty course luncheon was served. Among the guests were Misses Rose Ruschlo, Carrie Scherer, Helen Schneider, Mathilda and Margaret Liesenfeldt, Katherine Theis, Clara Weinand, Lizzie Barman and Catherine Liesenfeldt. Messrs. Ralph Young, Albert Ligenhauser, Leo Engelton, Herbert Austgen, Adam Schneider, Herbert Carlson and Joe Liesenfeldt.

Attorney W. B. Van Horn of Indi-

WILL MAKE HIM LEADER

Congressman E. D. Crumpacker Big Man of Indiana Now.

The election of Congressman Edgar D. Crumpacker from the Tenth district in the face of the defeat of such men as Congressman Overstreet and Charley Landies will make him the leader of the Indiana delegation to congress. Fortunately Congressman Crumpacker, although accompanied by eleven democrats and one other republican, will go to a friendly house of representatives. The Indiana representatives who are all new-comers and democrats may expect but little from the republican congress and Crumpacker will get much.

If fact it is expected that Congressman Crumpacker will get everything he asks for and he is in a position to ask for much. The news comes from Iowa that Representative Hepburn has been defeated. This means that the democrats have defeated the chairman of the ways and means committee.

As Representative Crumpacker is not a member of this committee it is possible that he may become its chairman. Unusually the chairmanship goes to the ranking member, but it is hard to tell how many of the members on this committee have been defeated and it is possible that Crumpacker may be its chairman.

At any rate it is expected that the next time congress appropriates money for harbor improvements Lake county will be properly remembered and this district will see more in the way of harbor legislation than any other district in Indiana.

A SHOCKING ACCIDENT

Funeral Cortege Again Collides With Engine at Grand Crossing.

An echo of that terrible railroad funeral accident west of Hammond at Calumet park, years ago when six people were killed, was heard yesterday when a funeral cortege containing the body of a young boy that was being taken to Holy Cross cemetery, West Pullman, from St. Michael's Cathedral, South Chicago, was struck and demolished yesterday by a Pennsylvania switch engine at One Hundred and Twenty-second street. The mother of the dead boy, Mrs. Mary Andrejewski, 8423 Mackinaw avenue, was seriously injured. She clung to the coffin and rescuers found her unconscious after the collision. Mrs. Annie Lewandowski, 8362 Ontario avenue, was also injured, as was Magdalene Kortski, 8422 Mackinaw avenue, and an unknown four-year-old girl. The driver of the car, Walter Lulinski, 8234 Superior avenue, escaped injury by leaping from his seat.

Thirteen-Year-Old Daughter of John Slingsby Falls From Porch.

Alice Slingsby, the 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Slingsby of 213 Douglas avenue, West Hammond, while visiting her sister, Mrs. Joseph Mager at 247 Oakly, this morning, fell over a second-story porch railing. She dropped nearly 18 feet and was found unconscious on the ground by her sister and Mrs. A. S. Hunt.

The little girl narrowly missed the cement sidewalk, which probably saved her life. She recovered consciousness after a little while and was able to walk home in company with her sister.

BELL AFTER DEPUTYSHIP

Hammond Man's Candidacy Is Made Known Today.

Now that Tom Grant has been elected sheriff of Lake county the question of who will be Mr. Grant's choice for the deputy sheriffship, in Hammond, Ben L. P. Bell seems to be the man who is meeting with favorable mention among the republican leaders and while it is understood that Mr. Grant refused to make any pledges or ante-election promises it is understood that Mr. Grant is very friendly to Mr. Bell's candidacy. Just when the appointment is to be made it is not known, but Mr. Bell has many friends who are working for him. There is no doubt but that he would make an ideal officer and on account of the splendid race that Mr. Grant made in Hammond, it is quite probable that the deputyship will come here.

MR. TAGGART IS HAPPY

(By Thomas Taggart.)

Indianapolis, Nov. 5.—"There are two elements in the situation that are chiefly responsible for the sweeping democratic victory," said Mr. Taggart. "One of these was the splendid organization presided over by State Chairman Stokes Jackson. The other was the unpopularity and mal-administration of Governor Hanly. The democrats had the advantage, too, of a splendid state ticket, made up of men who owed allegiance to no individual or individuals, but to the democratic party only."

Mr. Taggart was the recipient of many verbal bouquets yesterday. A firm at Newcastle that raises American beauty roses called him up over the telephone to ask permission to name a new rose in his honor. The firm explained that the rose is a brilliant red. Mr. Taggart cheerfully gave his consent. Another admirer named John Gibbs, living in this city, begged leave to present him a rooster, which, he said, is a very likely bird and democratic from the tip of its comb to the farthest extension of its tail feathers. Mr. Taggart told him to bring the rooster around to the Denison hotel tomorrow morning. Little encomiums like these kept coming to Mr. Taggart all of yesterday. It was a day of easy honors.

High School Tidings.

Professor Leaming had charge of the opening exercises yesterday morning. He rendered a musical selection by Mendelssohn.

The seniors held a meeting in the English room last evening to decide some important matters.

An illustrated lecture on the "Grand canyon" will be given by the senior class Nov. 18. A lecturer has been engaged and the entertainment will be given in the auditorium. Tickets have been placed on sale and can be secured of any member of the class.

Smiles that won't come off and drawn faces were the feature of the handing out of the report cards. Its all over now for another month.

The following are the grades for the month: Genevieve Briggs, averaged 91.4, leads the school and the freshmen; Walter Jarnecke, average 92.5, leads the sophomores; John Rhind, average 92.5, leads the juniors; Hazel La Rue, average 95.2-5, leads the seniors.

Owing to the inclement weather only light practice was gone through. Coach Allee was satisfied with the week.

Efforts are being made to get a game with the Central Park A. A. No official game is on the schedule, so a game is trying to be scheduled.

CARDS OF THANKS.

We desire to extend our heartfelt thanks to those who assisted and comforted us in the hour of our sad bereavement. Especially do we express our appreciation to Otto Schultz, Rev. F. Weil, the singing choir, the Royal League, the Joe Long Colts and all our friends and neighbors for the most beautiful flower offerings, especially all our friends in Spokane, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. H. Nye, Mrs. Howard Deckert and all Willie's friends.

AUTOMOBILE CAUSES A RUNAWAY TODAY.

A big red automobile going over the Hammond street car far in excess of the speed limit, caused a runaway of James Kennedy's horse this afternoon on Indiana avenue. Fortunately for Mr. Kennedy he was not in the rig at the time, the horse being tied near the curb. The automobile scared it and it tore loose running toward Hohman street. There it slipped and fell down which gave passers by an opportunity to catch it.

DYSART CHILD DIES AT HOME YESTERDAY.

Much Regret Is Expressed on Many Sides For Bereaved Parents. Mother Is Senior Member of Millinery Firm of Dysart & Shaw.

Christopher J., the eight-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Dysart, died yesterday morning after a short illness. The funeral has not yet been definitely arranged, but it is thought that it will take place either tomorrow or Saturday. Interment will take place at Mt. Olivet cemetery.

Much regret was expressed from many sides for the bereaved parents
