FOUR MORE SALOONS
CLOSED IN GARY

Gold Mines for the Proprietors Are Now Shut Up
By Remonstrance.

Four more saloons in Gary are closed owing to the effectiveness of the remonstrance which was upheld last spring. The four saloons are located on Broadway, south of the Wabash tracks, and were a gold mine for the proprietors.

Among the places which have been closed is that of J. Rogers, which corresponds to the Hinky Dink headquarters in Chicago. The remonstrance on these four saloons went into effect on Nov. 1. The other places which were compelled to close their doors are those of "Jake" Wagner, Mike Dano and John Bennett. The closing of these four places materializes one of the fondest dreams of the temperance workers.

Temperance People Still Working.
While it is confidently hoped that when the remonstrance expires that Gary will be a wide open town, the temperance workers are already laying their plans for that time. They considered the closing of Gary saloons one of the biggest coups ever sprung in their temperance fight, and they will use tooth and nail to retain their control.

Since the remonstrance went into effect saloons have been closed as soon as their licenses expired, but there are still some forty who continue to do business. As the number narrows down the more of a gold mine the remaining places are proving to be, for the proprietors, and a month in business with only a little competition is as good as a long time of business with the original number to compete with.

According to his decision before election, E. J. Tallman of New York, who is reputed to be worth over half a million dollars, will come to Gary and build several flat buildings in this city, because he now sees a brilliant future for Gary. The building of the flats was conditional upon the election of William Howard Taft to the presidency. Attorneys Harris and Bretsch, his local representatives, say that Mr. Tallman will be here today to attend to the matter.

The plans have already been drawn for the building and the construction of the first flat will start at once. There will be other flats which will be started in the spring. Mr. Tallman is just one of the few who expect to build houses and make numerous investments in Gary now that prosperity is again in sight. In fact, the real estate men and contractors look for the season to begin to rush right now and remain good until the demand for residences is supplied.

BAD FIRE DESTROYS
GARY STRUCTURE

Three-Story Building Is
Wiped Out by Blaze
This Morning.

A fire which started at 2:45 a. m. in the three-story building of Joseph Michnick, located on Massachusetts street, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth avenues, destroyed the entire building, entailing a loss of $3,000 and endangering the rest of the buildings in the block.

There were ten families living in the building at the time, but owing to the fact that the fire was noticed by Officer Jurich before it had gained very much headway all of the people in the building escaped without injury.

The fire started in a coal shed in the rear of the building from an unknown cause and quickly spread to the larger structure. It did not take long for it to gain such headway that the destruction of the building was a foregone conclusion.

When the fire alarm was turned in the department responded with a chemical wagon. That was not sufficient and so the hose cart was sent for. By the time it arrived there was not much that could be done to save the building and the efforts of the department were confined to saving the surrounding property.

In this the department was successful, but not until after the citizens in the neighborhood had come to the assistance of the firemen and placed wet sand on the flat roofs of the nearby buildings.

The Gary Lumber company had a man on the building, and it will have to suffer part of the loss. The Gary police did extra good work and deserve a great deal of credit.

The fire was not only discovered through the activity of one of the officers, but others rendered valuable services in saving lives and property after the fire started.

TAFT'S ELECTION
BOOMS INDUSTRY.

working time in scores of factories in the east, south and west, have already been made.

Commercial leaders in Chicago, St. Louis, New York, Baltimore, Minneapolis, Detroit, Birmingham and other cities predicted yesterday a return of prosperous times in the country, and backed up the predictions with news of great activity already under way in manufacturing, in the building industry and in general trade.

"This factory will resume operations on full time schedule tomorrow," was the notice posted in many factories in different cities of the nation yesterday. In eastern cities, steel mills have begun to increase operations. In Rhode Island, New Jersey, Maryland and other states business operations are moving with great strides since election day, and thousands of men are being employed.

Thread Mills Busy Again.

Announcement was made in Pawtucket, R. I., that the thread mills of J. & P. Coates company, employing 2,500 hands, would resume a full working schedule tomorrow. The mills have been running on short time since the financial depression last fall.

In the cotton mills of the James Chadwick & Brother company of Jersey City, which have been running on half time since April, notices were posted that operation on full time would begin tomorrow morning.

From Birmingham, Ala., reports came last night that the Alabama iron manufacturers sold 50,000 tons of pig iron in the first twenty-four hours after the election. The iron sold is to be delivered during the first quarter of the coming year.

From Baltimore, St. Louis, Minneapolis, Trenton and other cities reports of actual revival of trade and industry are being received.

A. C. Funk, manager of the American Bridge company plant at Trenton, N. J., was notified yesterday to prepare to for a 5,000-ton order of structural steel to be used in building operations in New York City. This will mean doubling the force of workmen at the mill. The plant is to be started in full operation immediately, and thousands of ironworkers in South Trenton, who have been idle, are jubilant.
