

SHOES FOR TENDER FEET

Schloer & Son, the shoe dealers are pushing the Dr. Reid, $3.50 Cushion Shoe. It is making many friends, for the reason that it is manufactured especially for persons with tender feet. This shoe proves a great comfort when all other shoes fail. It comes from one of our great American factories and will often wear for a year. This shoe has made hundreds of friends here in Hammond as well as all over America.

The ladies have spent the day decorating the hall with corn stalks and autumn leaves.

LARGE CHURCH WEDDING.

A wedding in which many Hammond people will be interested will occur this evening in Kenosha, Wis., when Miss Anna Stevens, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Stevens and Harry Kirkland are married. The wedding will take place in the First M. E. church, of which the bride's father is rector. Following the ceremony a bridal will be held. Mr. and Mrs. Kirkland will leave on a wedding trip, and will stop in Chicago for a day's visit tomorrow. Mr. Kirkland is a graduate of the Wisconsin State university at Madison, and soon after came to Hammond and secured a splendid position as constructing engineer for the United States Metals Refining company at Grassell. He was transferred from here to Peru, South America, where he remained until a few months ago. Mr. Kirkland has been spending a few days in Hammond the guest of friends, who will offer congratulations and best wishes on the announcement of his marriage. Mr. Kirkland was prominent in society circles among the Hammond young people during his stay here.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Ryan will go to Chicago tomorrow to meet Mr. and Mrs. Kirkland and spend the day with them.

ENTERTAINS CLUB LADIES.

Mrs. W. F. Bridge entertained the members of the Alpha Phi club very pleasantly yesterday afternoon at her home in Warren street. The afternoon was enjoyed in the club's usual way with embroidery work, after which the guests were invited into the dining-room and served with a dainty course luncheon. The decorations in the dining-room were prettily carried out in green and white. The hostess chose white chrysanthemums and ferns as her table decorations. Mrs. Robert Gillis will entertain the club at their next meeting in two weeks at her home in Carroll street. The members present at the meeting yesterday were Mesdames Walter Hammond, Frank Hammond, W. A. Hill, E. W. Bump, S. A. Bell, Richard Winckler, H. H. Henry, and others.

PARENTS' CLUB MEETING.

A PUMPKIN CONTEST.

A five-pound box of candy will be given free to the person making the best guess as to the number of seeds in the big pumpkin in Ort & Towle's show window.

OUR FRIEND FRITZ.

An eclipse which can be seen with the naked eye will occur next Sunday, matinee and night, at the Towle opera house, when Joe Fritz will open in Langdon McCormick's musical comedy drama, "Our Friend Fritz," and eclipse all past records of the house, if one can judge from past records of Mr. Fritz in other places. The play he has is a new one, and said to be well suited to his style of acting. It is a tale of the hills of Kentucky, telling as sweet a love story as was ever told, skillfully blending clean comedy and genuine pathos. It is in four acts. Much has been put into scenic effects and one can expect to see something very much out of the ordinary.

SAPHO.

One of the most interesting events of the theatrical season is announced for Towle opera house, Wednesday matinee and night, Nov. 11, in Miller & Powers big production of Sapho. Sapho needs no recommendation to those who have seen and profited by its wholesome and natural story. It teaches the greatest moral lesson the stage has ever known. Joined to this, Sapho reveals magnificent scenery, and the most expensive costumes ever seen on the American stage. Endorsed by press, public and clergy as the strongest moral play the stage has ever known.

THE ROUNDER SAYS

Jacob Schloer was down in the throat. He looked around him and saw the wreckage of the Lake county democracy. Like a good many other democrats, he blamed it all on the foreign vote.

Upon meeting Postmaster William H. Gostlin, the democratic member of the board of public works said, "Billy it is a shame that you republicans voted all of those foreigners in. In fact, it is nothing short of an outrage."

Schloer was getting more bitter in his denunciation of the republican methods every minute when Gostlin interrupted him. "Now see here Jake," said Gostlin, "It was not more than 45 years ago that I came over from Ireland. At that time I will admit that I think you know about as little about this country and the matter of electing a president as I did."

"But you will have to admit," said Gostlin, hammering home his argument, "that we have made pretty good citizens after all. Jack Schloer went his way seriously reflecting on what the postmaster had told him."
