SETTLE A BET TONIGHT

Much Fun in Store When "Buster" Wheels Houtschilt.

Indiana Harbor, Ind., Nov. 7.—The "break wagon" made by Messrs. Houtschilt and Kamradt upon the election of William H. Taft, will be paid this evening, instead of last evening, owing to the failure of the parties to complete the necessary preparations. The bands are in readiness, and everything prepared for a grand celebration. "Buster" Kamradt has been taking physical culture exercises for several days, he says, and feels perfectly competent to trundle his opponent the long, weary half mile in the rickety wheel-barrow.

Following the novel attraction, the public is invited to attend a big democratic-republican ball, in Cline's hall, at which a local orchestra will supply music for the dancers until a late hour. The admission to this feature of the evening's entertainment will be 50 cents, and Messrs. Houtschilt and Kamradt expect a large attendance from Hammond and Whiting, where they both have many friends.

The Chicago authorities claim that many cases of typhoid fever in that city have recently been traced to the milk shipped into Chicago by Lake county dairymen.
