BIG FIGHT ON FOR THE PLUMS

Prosecuting Attorney-Elect Charles
Greenwald Besieged By Friends
Of Many Lawyers

KEEPS HIM MIGHTY BUSY

Gary, East Chicago, Indiana
Harbor and Crown
Point Lawyers
Busy.

(Special to THE TIMES)

Whiting, Ind., Nov. 10.—The office of Charles E. Greenwald, prosecutor-elect, is the rendezvous for the politicians from all over the county who call upon him at all hours of the day and night for the purpose of using their influence to secure appointments for themselves or their friends as deputies in the various cities of Lake and Porter counties. The campaign for these offices promises to be almost as warm as the campaign itself and the fight, notably in Gary, East Chicago, Indiana Harbor and Crown Point has assumed such proportions that Mr. Greenwald is up against about as stiff a proposition as could be imagined.

Four Attorneys Ambitious.
For instance, Over in East Chicago Abe Ottenheimer, who made such a gallant fight for the nomination for prosecuting attorney and who took his defeat gracefully and then came out and worked tooth and nail for the ticket, is a candidate for the deputyship. Abe Ottenheimer has a large number of friends who are working with might and main for him.

However, he is opposed by Joseph Bartholomew who has a large number of friends who are working hard to convince Mr. Greenwald that he is deserving of the plum. Mr. Bartholomew has practiced law in East Chicago for a number of years.

Willis E. Roe and J. D. Kennedy are also fighting for the office in East

BURNS DITCH IS A SURE GO NOW

Thousands of Acres Swamp Land Along Calumet to Be Reclaimed.

HEARD IN COURT YESTERDAY

Surveys To Be Made This Fall and Work To Be Begun Next Summer.

The great Burns ditch project, by which thousands of acres of swamp land along the Calumet river, in Lake and Porter counties, is to be reclaimed and the disastrous floods of the spring season are to be prevented, is now an assured fact.

The hearing of the remonstrance against the proposed improvement took place in the Porter superior court yesterday and the remonstrators, not having a proper majority, failed in their efforts to block the digging of the ditch.

As a result of the surveys for the ditch are to be made this fall and next summer the excavation for the $200,000 project will begin. The first steps taken towards the realization of the dream of a dry Calumet valley consisted in the appointment of a commission of three men, two from Porter county and one from Lake, which will decide on the feasibility of the plan.

Plans of Promoter.
The plan in brief consists in the digging of a ditch from Deep river, one of the tributaries of the Little Calumet river, to a point on the upper Little Calumet, and thence to Lake Michigan via Dune Park.

This ditch will carry off the surplus of the Calumet headwaters in the spring and will prevent the annual inundation of the lowlands south of Gary and Tolleston.

It will make all of this heretofore useless land available for farming purposes and will increase its value many

BANK STOCKHOLDERS PERFECT THEIR PLANS

First Trust and Savings Bank Completes Its Organization.

The organization of the First Trust and Savings bank in Gary was perfected yesterday with the election of officers and directors from the list of thirty-four Gary, one Hammond and one Elkhart, stockholders.

The new trust and savings bank is to be an offshoot of the First National Bank of Gary, and several of the officers of the parent concern will be officers of the subsidiary institution.

Originally it was proposed to capitalize the First Trust and Savings bank at $25,000, but the stock was so largely oversubscribed that its capital stock was increased to $50,000 in order to permit the business men of the city to invest.

Hammond Man Director.
The stockholders selected the following directors: Professor W. A. Wirt of the Gary public schools; W. G. Paxton of Hammond; Louis M. Simpson of Elkhart; E. C. Simpson of Gary; T. T. Snell of Gary, and M. A. Caldwell of Gary.

The directors in turn elected T. T. Snell, now president of the First National Bank of Gary, president; W. A. Wirt, vice president, and E. C. Simpson, the cashier of the First National Bank of Gary, secretary and treasurer.

The bank, for the time being, will occupy a portion of the First National Bank building. It will be the policy of the new trust company to keep out of real estate and insurance and will leave that field to the men who are already engaged in that business.

The bank will begin doing business next Monday and will start as one of the strongest of the smaller financial institutions in the county. The men who are stockholders and directors are all men of standing and the success of the project is assured at the very start.

UNCLE GETS ELECTED

Attorney Joseph H. Conroy
Receives Welcome News
From Colorado.

Attorney Joseph H. Conroy is in receipt of a letter from his uncle, George W. Musser, of Colorado Springs, Colo., telling the local attorney that Attorney Musser had been elected to the supreme bench of Colorado a week ago today.

The letter states that the Colorado man was elected by about 10,000 majority, that the entire democratic state was carried, the congressmen and three-fourths of the legislature, Bryan carried the state by about 8,000.

HON. J. G. IBACH GETS WORD FROM MARSHALL

Proud of His Acquaintance With Indiana's Executive-Elect.

MARSHALL 33D DEGREE MASON

Governor Appreciates Friendship of Hammond Lawyer and So Informs Him.

My Dear Mr. Ibach: I will hope to so conduct the affairs of my office so as to merit the approval of such men as yourself at the close. Meanwhile your friendship is a great incentive to the discharge of duty.

Yours very truly,
(Signed), THOS. R. MARSHALL.

The above is a copy of a letter from Indiana's next governor to one of Hammond's prominent lawyers, sent in answer to a telegram of congratulation upon Mr. Marshall's election.

Commenting upon the letter, Mr. Ibach said:

"It is characteristic of Mr. Marshall, plain, sincere and to the point."

Mr. Ibach is a warm personal friend of Mr. Marshall. Their acquaintance goes back thirty-five years, and in that time it has been very intimate owing to business, fraternal and social relations. Upon Mr. Marshall's visit to Hammond during the campaign he was accompanied by Mrs. Marshall, and on that occasion Mr. and Mrs. Ibach had the pleasure of entertaining them as their guests.

During the latter years it has been mainly fraternal work where the two friends have come in contact with each other.

The governor-elect is a thirty-third degree Mason, and holds the distinction of past grand high priest of the state. Mr. Ibach being himself a prominent Mason and their work has often brought them together in Indianapolis and elsewhere in the state.

Speaking of his lodge brother, Mr. Ibach said:

"It is not generally known, I think, among local Masons, that Mr. Marshall is a thirty-third degree man, and nobody would learn it if it had to come from him, but it is a fact nevertheless. Besides being past grand high priest of the state he has held other very high honors."

FINE PROGRESS MADE

All Saints' Church and School Fast Nearing Completion.

Another six weeks will see the completion of the new All Saints' church in school on Sidney street. The roof for the big structure is practically complete, and the plasterers have already put in a week at their work.

It is the hope of the congregation that the Christmas services can be held in the new church, and all indications now point to the probability of completion by that time.

The building is an imposing structure, and strikes one for its substantial appearance.

There will be plenty of room for the congregation and the school. The church proper will be on the second floor, while the entire first floor will be given over to school purposes.

AMBITIONS ARE DEAD

Burial of Meekison's Fond Hopes For the Prosecuting Attorneyship.

The ambitions of one George A. Meekison to become prosecutor of Lake and Porter counties are dead. They will receive a respectable burial when the attorneys for the Whiting man go before Judge Reiter and ask that the petition for a writ of mandate be dismissed.

This action will be taken actually because Meekison knows that he has not one chance in a hundred of reversing Judge Reiter's decision and technically, because the upper courts cannot pass on a mooted question.

When the time passed in which it would be possible for Mr. Meekison to get on the ticket, the case becomes a mooted question, and consequently will not be considered by the court.

Mr. Meekison will relapse into comparative obscurity and will have to bide his time until another campaign will give him an opportunity to make himself a willing sacrifice for the democratic party.

PETITION IS REVERSED

Special to THE TIMES.
Washington, D. C., Nov. 10.—The United States circuit court of appeals today denied the petition of the government for a re-hearing of the Standard Oil company's appeal from the $20,250,000 fine imposed upon it by Judge Landis. The appeal resulted in the reversal of Judge Landis' decision.

WATSON TO MARSHALL.

Rushville, Ind., Nov. 4.
The Hon. Thomas R. Marshall,
Columbia City, Ind.:

"My Dear Governor—Now that the people have spoken I confer my share of that title on you, though I had hoped to wear it myself."

"As one individual writing to another, I congratulate you upon your success in this campaign. I cannot do it from a political standpoint, as you will readily understand, but from a purely personal viewpoint, I do so with pleasure."

"I trust that your administration will be successful, and I shall be pleased to render any service I may be able to give you to make it such."

"Now that the smoke of battle has cleared away, we are no longer democrats or republicans, but are all Hoosiers, and I want you to feel that I am ready to advance any cause that will in any wise insure to the welfare of the people of this great state."

"With kind personal regards to both Mrs. Marshall and yourself, I am yours very sincerely, JAMES E. WATSON."

MARSHALL TO WATSON.

Columbia City, Ind.
Hon. J. E. Watson, Rushville,
Ind.:

"My Dear Sir—I am glad to note your letter of congratulation to me and thank you for your proffer of assistance in my coming administration. I want also to thank you for the pleasant personal relations which existed between you and me during the recent campaign. If other had let us alone, we would have had less trouble in the campaign. Hoping that you may live long and prosper, I remain, sincerely yours, THOMAS R. MARSHALL."

Fort Wayne, Ind., Nov. 9.—Among the letters of congratulations that have come to Governor-Elect Thomas R. Marshall is one from Mayor Lawrence Becker of Hammond. He wrote urging that the new governor advocate an amendment to the state constitution requiring that foreigners must be full-fledged American citizens who have lived in the state one year before they may vote.

Two Stenographers Kept Busy.
Mr. Marshall has acknowledged congratulations from W. J. Bryan, Governor Johnson, of Minnesota; Mayor McClellan of New York, in the last few days, in addition to the long list which came immediately following the election. Two stenographers have been kept constantly at work answering the correspondence, but the task of answering every person has become so great that Mr. Marshall has to give it up.

Asks Newspapers to Speak for Him.
Others who have sent their congratulations include David R. Francis, former governor of Missouri; John E. Lamb, Benjamin F. Shively, G. V. Menzie, John W. Kern and the Iroquois club of Chicago. The number of letters from Indiana voters is legion and Mr. Marshall has confessed that he cannot find opportunity to answer all. He has asked the press to express for him his great appreciation of the kindly expressions sent him.

Want Political Plums.
It is true many of the writers wish to land in some place on the state's pay roll, but the great mass of the correspondence is from people who are sincerely glad Mr. Marshall was elected. Sam R. Sweet and Chalmers Brown are two members of the Columbia club

A boom for Hon. Johannes Kopelke's candidacy for the United States senate has obtained great leeway at the county seat and friends of the former state senator are in Indianapolis conferring with political leaders regarding his prospects for securing the much coveted honor.

POLICEMAN'S BOY HURT HOT FIGHT LOOKED FOR

Martin Franck Meets With Mishap While Playing Near Stove.

Morton Franck, the 5-year-old son of Freddie Franck, who was badly scalded, is getting better from the accident he met with when he and his brother, Fred, were playing together. Mrs. Franck was heating some water on the stove. The two children were playing near the stove when one of the boys accidentally hit the long handle of the kettle containing the water and it was overturned on him.

The child was scalded about the face, neck and arms. The entire right side of his body was burned and for a time it was feared that the child's burns might be fatal.

The little boy is out of danger, however, and it is now certain that he will recover. The accident happened at the Franck home in 213 Ann street.

who sent warmly worded congratulations.

J. F. Bergman, of Lafayette, has sent the governor-elect a box of cigars, saying that it was one box of several hundred he won on his election.

John P. Brown of Conservator writes to urge that Governor Marshall appoint trained men as foresters. Instead of "the incompetents appointed by Hanly and Durbin." Mr. Brown is connected with the national forestry association, he says.

The W. C. T. U. women are well represented in letters of advice. Many men write to advise the new governor how to run the state's institutions, and some of them are willing to help bear the burdens of office in connection with the state institutions.

One man called the new governor up at 5 o'clock in the morning to talk with him over the long-distance telephone, and Mr. Marshall discussed the situation with more or less urbanity, of which he has a large store, but which has its limits.

Wants To Be Policeman.
A youth from Noblesville writes for appointment as a state house policeman, saying that he needs the job badly and is "soul-bent" on getting it. Dozens of men wish to be custodian of the state house, regardless of Tim Griffin's claims.

Mr. Marshall admits that the cheers that greeted him as he passed the crowds in the streets Saturday were grateful to his ears in spite of the fact that he had been hearing cheers all through the campaign. Speaking of it he said: "I thought I would never want to hear any more yelling. The campaign gave me a surfeit of it. I think I ate about 1,600 yellow-legged chickens and swallowed enough smoke from red fire to choke an army. I heard yells and cheers until I was worn out, but after all it sounds good to hear the old neighbors, whether they talk low or whether they cheer."

(Special to THE TIMES)
Crown Point, Ind., Nov. 10.—Friends of the Hon. Johannes Kopelke in Lake county have inaugurated a boom of substantial dimensions for his candidacy for the United States senatorship and from this time on earnest work will be done to further his interests in the race for the honor which promises to attract national attention before the balloting begins in the legislature at Indianapolis next January for the plum.

He Will Be Strong Candidate.
A great deal of confidence is expressed in the ability of Judge Kopelke who was formerly state senator from this district, to make a splendid showing for the United States senatorship. During the campaign, which resulted in the election of a democratic legislature in Indiana, Senator Kopelke won more than local fame as a campaigner for the democratic ticket.

JAIL DELIVERY IS ATTEMPTED THERE

Sheriff Carter Finds Plates

Plans Taken.

WORK DONE IN HIS ABSENCE

Caseknives Are Used to Take Away the Steel Plates, It Is Found.

(Special to THE TIMES)
Crown Point, Ind., Nov. 10.—What might have proved to be a general jail delivery was slipped in the bud last night by the watchfulness of Sheriff Fred Carter. Immediately after supper, as Carter was making his usual rounds of inspection, he noticed that a steel plate had been sawed and removed by some of the prisoners. The work was done with two steel knives, and was accomplished while Carter was on a trip to Michigan City and Jeffersonville, where he had been taking ten prisoners to serve sentences.

The plate was removed near the bottom and it was evidently the intention of the prisoners to gain access to the exercising corridor and attack the turnkey as he brought their meals and make a dash for liberty.

The jail at present contains about forty inmates, among which are some hardened and rough characters who would stop at nothing to gain their freedom. With the building going on around the jail and the accompanying noise it is very easy for the prisoners to pull off some scheme for escape, and additional precautions will now be taken to prevent anything of the kind from happening.

May Be Insane.
Fritz Mauch was arrested by Officers Kunz and Homrich at 8:50 last evening, when his peculiar actions led his friends to believe that he was insane. He lives with his children at 824 Hickory street. He is now in jail and an insanity commission will pass on his case.

at Laporte.

Laporte, Ind., Nov. 9.—The clergyman comprising the South Bend district of the Methodist Episcopal church have been called to meet in this city Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 16 and 17, when E. S. Shumaker of Indianapolis, superintendent of the Indiana Anti-Saloon League, will discuss the question, with the result that a decision will likely be reached to inaugurate a vigorous county option campaign in the counties comprising the district. It is expected that thirty clergymen will participate in the labors of the body.

Case Was Dismissed.

Joseph Jones was arrested by Officer Borchert on a charge of being intoxicated in a public place. He lives at 205 Indiana avenue and upon his appearance in court this morning his case was dismissed.
