At the opening of the meeting an informal talk on literature brought out many good thoughts after which the regular study for the afternoon "English Mythology" was taken up. Mrs. Jennie Sawyer read an interesting paper on the "Early Saxons" telling of their chief characteristics and achievements. Mrs. Edith Griffin read a very interesting paper on "Beowulf" after which Mrs. H. F. Meikle read a splendid account of the "Druids." The last number was a paper read by Mrs. Deming on "Dwarfs and Elves." A social hour was enjoyed at the close of the meeting when it was decided to hold the next meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mary Holm in Rimbach avenue. The study will be a continuation of "English Mythology."

LEAGUE SOCIAL.
The Epworth League of the First Methodist church will give a pumpkin pie social next Thursday evening, Nov. 12, in the church rooms. A very pleasant time is anticipated and the public is cordially invited as the proceeds will be used for the benefit of the league and church.

"SAPHO."
"Sapho," which is to appear at the Towle opera house tonight, is a high class drama which made a profit of $20,000 for its owner last season. The demand for it has been so great that it is necessary to launch two companies this season. Every woman should see the play and profit by its wholesome and natural story. Endorsed by press, public and clergy, as the strongest moral play the stage has ever known.

ELABORATE RECEPTION.
One of the most enjoyable sessions in the history of the local Eastern Star was held last evening in the Masonic temple. The Hammond chapter entertained members of the various chapters throughout the state at an elaborate banquet and lodge session. Among the distinguished guests was the grand matron of the state of Indiana, Mrs. Pauline Summers, of Valparaiso. The Chicago, East Chicago, Whiting, Valparaiso, South Chicago and Hobart chapters were among those represented at last night's reception. The guests arrived in Hammond during the afternoon and were met at the various stations by the receiving committee who took them to the parlors of the temple where the time was passed in an informal way. The banquet took place in the large banquet room of the temple at 7 o'clock. The guests were served at the first table at which the visiting members were also seated. An elaborate menu had been prepared and the banquet closed at 9 o'clock. The regular lodge session followed, at which time four candidates were initiated. The work was done by the Hammond chapter, assisted by Mrs. Summers of Valparaiso. Mrs. Snyder sang a beautiful solo during the service.

After the meeting, Mrs. Jacqua, who has served as patron of the chapter for years, was presented with a handsome chair, a gift of the Hammond order, and Mrs. Summers was also presented with a token in appreciation of her visit to Hammond, and her interest in the Hammond chapter. The meeting will long be remembered by the local members as one of the most enjoyable and successful entertainments ever given.

RESTAURANT CHANGES HANDS.
The Union restaurant at 77 South Hohman street, has changed hands. Mr. M. Conners, long and favorably known in Hammond, is the new proprietor and assisted by his agreeable wife, the best of everything is promised. The place has been somewhat remodeled within the past few days. Good home cooking, including the best coffee and a regular 25 cent meal from 11:30 to 1:30 during week days, and an extra fine Sunday dinner at 30 cents are among the features this place. Don't fail to try one of their 25 cent meals. A good, quick meal for busy people.

"HUMAN HEARTS."
Good plays, like good wine, improve with age. This is certainly true of that marvellously successful melodrama "Human Hearts" which Manager Nankeville offers for the tenth year. The company to be seen in the play this season comprises all of last year's favorites, and wherever a part could be improved upon, the change has been made, and it is promised that never before has this beautiful play been so well presented. "Human Hearts" gives a pure, wholesome lesson that touches the heart-strings in the pathetic scenes and excites the risibilities in the humorous ones. The pathos and comedy are so well blended that the audience is in tears one moment and convulsed with laughter the next. The scenic equipment will be perfect in every detail, so it is said, and the management has done everything possible to insure a first class performance. At the Towle opera house, Sunday matinee and night, Nov. 15th.

MASQUERADE BALL.
The masquerade ball given by Goldens Rule Council, No. 1, B. of L., in K. of P. hall last evening, was largely attended and enjoyed by the crowd present. Little Babe Wheeler of Chicago, pleased the audience with her fancy dancing, and Miss Selma O'Neil, of the same city, gave several selections on the violin, which were heartily applauded. The prizes were given to Mrs. Grace King, of this city, and Mrs. Guy Jones, of Whiting.

"THE DEVIL."
The remarkable success of two continents, "The Devil" (Ter Teufel), will be presented for the first time in this city at the Towle opera house, Saturday matinee and night, Nov. 14th. This means that there is a treat in store for the theater-goers, and it is safe to predict that the S. R. O. sign will be hung in a conspicuous place on the night of the presentation of this great play. Allan Dale, the able critic on the New York American, says: "You've got to go to 'The Devil'—Don't argue, but go." And the masses have taken his advice, for nearly every city this play has been greeted by crowded houses.

DEVILGRAMS.
Don't be a coward. Don't be a liar, for these are the usual soundbites. Be a rascal, a jolly rascal, and the world is yours. Look about and count the cringing millionaires—these are the words of "The Devil." See him at the Towle opera house.

LODGE WORK

Memorial day for the Elks will in all probability be the next event of importance among Hammond lodges. Plans for the day will be discussed at the next regular meeting tomorrow evening.

The arrangement committee is contemplating to have the presence of Governor-Elect Thomas E. Marshall to make the address of the day. This, however, is still very indefinite, as correspondence has only been opened with Mr. Marshall. The day set for the memorial anniversary is the first Sunday in December.

Regular meetings will be held this week in the Masonic fraternity. In none of the sessions will there be any work, however. The chapter meets tonight, while the Blue lodge holds its regular meeting on Friday night. The Commandary meets on Monday night.

Now that the election is over regular meetings for the Eagles will be resumed. Those who have charge of the entertainment end in the lodge are looking forward to a social evening in the near future. The feature of the evening will in all probability be a smoker.

Unity council, Knights of Columbus, will hold a regular meeting next Monday evening. Encouraged by its recent success when it gave a dance and pedro party, the baseball club of the lodge is contemplating a similar evening for the near future.

This is an off week for the Royal Leagues, but Thursday evening of next week will be another big night for the brethren, as there are a number of candidates that will take the degree then.

A still bigger treat is in store for the members of Pioneer council for the night of Oct. 28 when the local degree team and many other members will go to Chicago to attend an examination of the degree work upon a big class at the First Regiment armory. This is one of the largest classes in the history of the Chicago Royal League history and the local team has the honor of giving a drill on the floor there.

The question for debate was: Resolved, That the policy of excluding Chinese laborers from the United States should be maintained and rigorously enforced. Affirmative, James Rhind, Irene Parsons, Negative, Alice Hess and William Roth. The affirmative won with a score of two to one. The next regular debate will be held Thursday of this week. New officers were elected last Thursday as follows: President, William Atwood; vice president, William Roth; secretary, Floyd R. Murray; vice secretary, William Ernest Whitaker.

The Lake county championship cup was put on exhibition in the assembly room Tuesday in order to show the pupils how nice it does look in the high school. Now it remains for us to win the cup Saturday and keep it there always.

There is to be a ticket-selling contest between the four classes between now and Saturday. The president of each class has elected a "hosting committee" to see that the tickets are distributed and sold. Each class is to sell one hundred tickets. Some of the upper classmen protested against the number of freshmen and sophomores, but Mr. McElroy even this up when he said that the seniors and juniors are more versed in the art of approaching a person when trying to sell a ticket.

Mr. McDaniel had charge of the opening exercises is usual on Tuesday morning. He spoke mainly on getting down to work for the oratorical contest, and about the selling of tickets for the final Crown Point-Hammond championship game.

week from today. This lecture is to contain seventy-three views of the Grand Canyon. The seniors will see to it that it will be well worth your time and money to come.

If the team wins the game next Saturday they are to be given a banquet by Mr. McElroy at the Hotel Carleton. Mr. Allee has also a treat in sight at Eicknell's. So it is up to us to win the game Saturday.

A number of the freshman classes were changed around this morning.

A good scrimmage practice was the work Coach Allee put the team through last night. All those who were on the hospital list are well now and Hammond will be able to put up the game of its life Saturday.

Each class held a meeting last night to distribute the tickets for the football game.

There is quite a "scramble" by both secretaries of the literary societies to get all new pupils to sign the constitutions.

The fire-drills seem to make quite a "hit" with everybody. The one held the other day was very successful, the building being emptied in a short time.
