Attorney Joe A. Meade was a Gary business visitor last evening, accompanied by Earl Montgomery Stewart of the Chicago Telephone company's local office.

Robert Wartena of Hammond visited friends in East Chicago last evening.

The Trio club dance at Hegewisch on Nov. 21 promises to be well attended by local and Hammond dancers. Busses will be used to convey the visitors to their homes after the dance.

Mr. Walter McDonald and family have moved into their new home on One Hundred and Twenty-ninth and Barry avenues. The building is very attractive and is copied from the style used in Mr. McDonald's southern home.

It is rumored that Steiglitz Park will soon be furnished with lake water.

Mrs. Heslin visited friends in East Side yesterday afternoon.

Steiglitz Park real estate has been boosted frequently during the past week. Michael O'Keefe has sold several of his lots and is contemplating the sale of others.

Several Whitingites attended the christening at the Terack home last evening.

Joe Connolly of South Deering is visiting friends in the park for a few days.

INDIANA HARBOR.

Mortician Teal yesterday directed the funeral of Joseph Cassinick of Cedar street, who died late Monday evening at St. Margaret's hospital, Hammond. Death was due to a malignant case of typhoid-pneumonia, with which the deceased had been taken to the hospital but a few hours before his death. Interment was made in Oak Hill cemetery, Hammond, following services at POPULAR LADIES' CONTEST.

Manager Misch Gives East Chicago People Chance to Vote Friends.

(Special to The Times.)
East Chicago, Ind., Nov. 11.—Manager Misch, of the Pastime theater on Chicago avenue, has opened a contest for the "most popular lady" in East Chicago. Everyone attending his theater is given a ballot, which may be cast for any lady friend of the voter, and the person having the greatest number of votes on next Monday evening will be given a prize. This will consist of a handsome twenty-one-piece China set, which is now on exhibition. Neither expense nor time have been spared in the advertising of the feature, and Mr. Misch believes that his attendance should be materially benefited.

Six local young ladies have already been voted upon, Miss Pauline McCarthy leading with 117 votes. The other candidates for popularity honors are the Misses Edith Evans, who has 75 votes, Mrs. Ralph Johnson, with 62 votes, Miss Manville James, who received 57 votes, and Sophie Rice and Alta Specter, who have secured 35 votes each.

If you have a house or a room to rent you can inform 40,000 people by advertising in the classified columns of The Times.

Edward W. Smith, a sporting writer on the Chicago American who signs his articles, has a very complimentary article on the fighting ability of Jimmy Clabby of Hammond.

Mr. Smith calls Clabby Milwaukee's new boxing star, but even if Milwaukee did take up Clabby and make a fighter out of him it devolved upon Hammond to produce the material, and so Clabby's many Hammond friends are proud of him.

Smith has the following to say of Clabby's recent New Orleans fight with Jimmy Gardner.

Clabby an Irishman.

Milwaukee has a new boxing star, a man destined to cut a strong figure among the welterweights. His name is Jimmy Clabby, and he is tall enough to carry 165 pounds of flesh instead of the scant 140 that he scales at present.

Clabby, who is an Irishman all the way through, though he does come from Milwaukee, went down to New Orleans Saturday night and gave Jimmy Gardner the fight of his life for fifteen rounds. Gardner was given the decision, but the verdict was decidedly unsatisfactory, many of the spectators declaring that Clabby would have been robbed by a draw. Gardner did a little fancier work and caught inexperienced referee's eye. Hence the decision.

Frank Mulken joined Clabby at the ringside, fearing that something would be put over on the boy. And something was. The contest was presided over by Otto Schoengeld, one of the promoters of the new West Side club over in McDonoughville, across the river. Otto is a good wrestler and a fighter, but he is totally unacquainted with the ways of the fighters. He proved a frost as a referee, although undoubtedly giving the verdicts as he saw the contests.

Clabby Has Big Kick.

But the Clabby party has a big roar to make, believing they got very much the worst of it. They let Gardner go in at 142 pounds to begin with, although the agreement was on 138 pounds, give or take one. Mulken found that he was the only man that had a forfeit posted, and of course had no recourse. They gave in to Gardner on the weight question because they couldn't help themselves.

"Gardner didn't beat Clabby and never will fairly," Mulken said last night upon his return from the south. "He was in grand shape, too, or else he never would have lasted through the fifteen rounds. So he cannot excuse Clabby's great showing on his own shortcomings in training. He was on the ground for three weeks.

"Clabby feinted him into several knots time and again and had Jimmy missing all the way through. This boy is a great fighter and gives as much promise right now as Jack Dougherty did when he was good. Jack looked like a champion, but he fell short because of his own transgressions of simple rules of living.

"Clabby can make 137 pounds safely, hits freely and with great accuracy with either hand, is game as they make them, knows enough trickery to make him dangerous all the time and is of such good habits that there is no danger of his being spoiled. This is an ideal combination and Milwaukee ought to be proud of this boy."

Clabby Good Man.

Undoubtedly Clabby is a vastly improved lad and his performance in sticking fifteen rounds with a man of Gardner's experience and skill is a great feather in his cap.

Mulken says he is satisfied the West End club will put on some great contests during the winter. He lauds the club for its standing and good management, but thinks they will have to get a good Chicago referee down there to run things. Schoengeld, he says, is a fine fellow, but is a mighty bad referee. There is talk of rematching Gardner and Clabby and the latter will jump at the chance if it is offered. He remained in New Orleans to wait for the club officials to act.

Billy Delaney will be a deeply disappointed man tonight if Al. Kaufman, his great heavy-weight star, does not punch Terry Mustain's head off in short order. Terry is reputed to be one of the really "bad" men of the ring, as he is as tough as knots and can throw a world of force into one of his punches.

Delaney Deserves Winner.
Delaney deserves a winner and undoubtedly has one in Kaufman. Billy is one of the clean men of the managerial end of the game, a credit to the boxing sport. He is far removed from the usual type of noise makers who blaze the way for fighters. He made one serious mistake with Kaufman, sending him against Jack O'Brien some time back and getting him trounced so unmercifully that it seemed the boy's heart would be broken. But Kaufman seems to have recovered nicely and now is in a fair way of climb to the top.

It is his ambition to be able to claim a match with Tommy Burns when the latter returns from Australia—if he is then champion.

LITTLE ONES HAVE HOT SESSION.

National Association, Unable to Agree on Measures, Will Resume Today.

Minor league presidents and club owners, in the number of 118, met at the Auditorium Annex yesterday in their annual convocation, started a few scraps and will continue their battles today. The efforts of the American association and Eastern league to force some much needed legislation down the throats of the representatives of the other thirty-five leagues waxed too hot to handle and two amendments to the constitution of the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues were referred to a committee.

The national commission at the same time was holding a meeting in the offices of President Johnson of the American league, but the deliberations of that body were lacking in the spice which characterized the session of the minors, ruled over by Chairman Pat Powers.

The board of arbitration of the national association opened the day's exercises by a ruling in the cases of several players who risked their good standing in organized ball by playing against illegals. A dozen members of the Minneapolis team and four of the Milwaukee players were placed on the suspended list for playing against "outlaws" on the Chicago semi-pro teams.

HUGO KELLY CHANGES PLANS.

Will Return to City Today and See Papke-Ketchel Bout on Coast.

Hugo Kelly will return to Chicago today, following a sojourn in the woods and will change his plan of campaign for the Papke bout. Instead of working here, he has decided to do his final preparation at the Santa Monica pavilion, near Los Angeles. He will be at the ringside of the Papke-Ketchel bout and will depart the latter part of next week. Kelly finds that his stay in the woods has improved him greatly. Sylvie Parrett, his manager, will send Kelly to the coast and will follow him later.

MAROONS ON HOSPITAL LIST.

Steffen, Page and Schommer Have Troubles of Their Own, But Will Play.

Poor physical condition on the part of the Maroons may turn the tide of battle against the Midway team in Saturday's Cornell-Chicago game at Marshall field, according to Coach A. A. Stagg. The coach's latest "gloom" was caused yesterday by the injury to Eliott, the Maroon left guard, and the indisposition of three other members of the team.

Elliott, who was slated to appear at left guard against the Ithacans, sprained his right shoulder in making a vicious tackle at a member of the freshman team in defensive scrimmage. It was thought he had broken his collar bone, but Dr. Raycroft reported after an examination that no bones had been fractured. The line-man, however, will be laid up for the rest of the week, and is not expected to recover in time for the game.

DESERT MOTOR RACE TO WHITE.

Steamer Leads to Phoenix—Franklin Delayed, Going Away.

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 11.—The White Steamer won the race from Los Angeles to Phoenix. The White arrived at 6:23, the Kisselkay at 7:41, the Elmore at 8:45, the Franklin at 9:50 p. m., Pacific time. The Franklin had several hours' lead in California, but went astray on the desert and the driver slept four hours until daylight, fearing to make a bad matter worse with a false start.

President Bullard of the Automobile club says the White won, the Elmore second, Kisselkay third and Franklin fourth, but no official determination will be made until the arrival of mailed reports showing the time deducted at the Colorado river.

NOTRE DAME MAY LOSE CAPTAIN

Notre Dame, Ind., Nov. 11.—With the Wabash game only three days off it develops that Captain Miller, half back, and Lynch, guard, will be unable to play. Miller hurt his arm in the Indiana game and has been under the care of a Richmond physician since Sunday morning. Lynch aggravated the injury to his eye by playing against the Sheldontes and will be out at least a week. McDonald, half back, filled the locals' grief cup yesterday afternoon when he strained the muscles in his left leg above the knee in scrimmage. Paine has quit the squad, having decided to devote more time to his classes.

A 6 to 6 score resulted from a twenty-five minute battle between the varsity and seconds. The scrimmage early developed into a kicking duel, neither side being able to make advances either around the ends or through the opposing line. The work of Philbrook at right guard, Collins at left tackle and Sullivan at center on the seconds won this trio berths on the varsity. Manager Curtis has scheduled the Marquette game, which will be played at Milwaukee Thanksgiving day.
