ENGINEER IS VERY BADLY BURNED

William Funsler of East Chicago Suffering From Result of Accident.

HIS LIFE IS IN GREAT DANGER

Employed at Interstate Iron and Steel Company as a Stationary Engineer.

(Special to THE TIMES.)

East Chicago, Ind., Nov. 12.—William Funsler, an engineer in the employ of the Interstate Iron and Steel company, yesterday received burns which may cost him his life. He is now suffering severe pain at his home in this city, and, according to the declaration of local physicians, his life is in great danger.

Funsler is one of the men operating the 16-inch mill of the Interstate, or Emlyn, company. About noon yesterday a large pile of iron slipped and caught Funsler just above the knees. Heated to a red heat, the metal soon burned through the man's clothing and into the flesh, and had it not been for the prompt action of his assistants in grabbing the pile Funsler would have been burned to death. He was taken to the company's office, where a local physician was called, and the medical assistance was rendered and the man's pain lightened, although it was easily seen that he was in great agony.

Funsler is one of the most popular men in the employ of the mill, and his absence from his post for the next three weeks arouses the regret of his fellow workmen, with whom he has always stood in high respect. It will be some time before he can return to work, and the wishes for his speedy recovery are legion throughout the local plant.

CLABBY ISSUES STATEMENT OF FIGHT

Hammond Pugilist Will Bet $1,000 That He Can Beat Gardner.

STILL WROTH AT TREATMENT

Believes He Would Have Got His "Goat" In a Longer Bout at New Orleans.

The New Orleans papers are still talking about the fine work Jimmy Clabby did in his recent fight with Jimmy Gardner. It now seems likely that the two young men will be matched for a return engagement. The New Orleans Daily States has the following statement from Jimmy Clabby in a recent issue:

"Jimmy Clabby this forenoon issued a statement which follows:

"I am of the firm opinion that I am Jimmy Gardner's master. I am more than confident that I can defeat him. True, the decision was against me, but the worst that I should have gotten was a draw. I would like to meet Gardner again in a longer bout, as I am sure that I have got his 'goat.' I thought that I was going up against a wonder, but he was not so much after all. My manager, Frank Mulken, stands ready to bet $1,000 that I can beat Gardner, and I will also bet my portion of the purse that I will win. To my way of thinking Gardner is a rather poor champion. But I have it on him a whole lot. As I said before our fight that I would offer no excuse if I was defeated. Well, I had the decision rendered against me, but I am not kicking, all that I want is a return match and I think that the shoe will be on the other foot.

"I will remain in New Orleans for a few days, and I will accept any inducements that are offered by the West Side Athletic club. It was my intention to leave here today, but as there is an excellent prospect for meeting Gardner here I will remain and see if he intends to do business. I have just received a wire from Johnny Long, who is running the Los Angeles club out in Los Angeles, asking me if I would meet Gardner out there on Thanksgiving day. I don't care to go out to California. If Gardner will meet me I would rather be here. Everyone has been nice to me. In fact, I have no complaints to offer. All that I want is for Gardner to get in the ring with me again and just see who will finish it.

Boxers Not Used Up.

"Gardner did not come over to the city yesterday or today, but remained at his training quarters in McDonoughville, but Clabby was up bright and early and never looked any the worse from his gruelling battle of Saturday night. All the marks that he bore of Saturday night's encounter was a slight cut over the eye."

Baton Rouge, La., Nov. 12.—The biggest athletic scandal southern colleges have ever experienced, caused by charges that the Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana star players were being used as "ringers" on the University of Louisiana crack team this year, will be cleared, according to announcement of President Boyd of the university, who stated last night that he had concluded investigation, including many affidavits taken from people in northern states.

MURPHY VISITS SHREVEPORT.

President of Cubs on Hunt for Training Quarters for Champions.

Shreveport, La., Nov. 12.—Charles W. Murphy, president of the National Chicago baseball club, reached Shreveport yesterday afternoon for the purpose of making a personal examination of the local diamond offered as training quarters for the Cubs next spring. Ever since the close of the National league season President Murphy and Manager Chance of the Cubs have been figuring with Captain Crawford of the local association in regard to bringing the Chicago champions here next spring. Mr. Murphy said last night it was very probable the Cubs would be brought here.

DONOVAN NO LONGER MANGER.

Ebbetts to Secure New Boss for the Brooklyn Squad.

New York, Nov. 12.—Pasty Donovan is no longer manager of the Brooklyn team. President Charles H. Ebbetts notified him yesterday by letter that he had decided to make a change in the management of the team. In his letter to Donovan at the latter's home in Lawrence, Mass., Ebbetts said that he regretted that circumstances had decided that it would be necessary to make a change. He paid a tribute to Donovan's work by saying: "I can truthfully say that you have always during the past three years given your best efforts to surmount the difficulties in handling a team."

NOTRE DAME IN FINAL DRILL.

Will Meet Wabash College Squad at Crawfordsville Today.

Notre Dame, Ind., Nov. 12.—The varsity will be sent through a final signal drill at 2 o'clock this afternoon preparatory to the Wabash game Friday. Twenty-one players besides Coaches Place and Lantry and Manager Curtis leave at 5 o'clock this evening for Crawfordsville.

Injuries to Miller, Ruel and McDonald, all half backs, necessitated a number of shifts in the varsity line-up during the afternoon's signal drill. Captain Miller will be unable to play. Should either McDonald or Ruel be out, it will be necessary to shift Vaughan to half back and play Edwards at full back, where he appeared against Indiana.

A western trip, including two scheduled games and a tentative contest, has been unofficially arranged for the local varsity eleven. The first is slated with Spokane, Wash., Christmas day, and the second with Multnomah Athletic club, to be pulled off at Portland Jan. 1. Negotiations are on foot for a third contest, with Washington university at Seattle. The consent of the local faculty board of control has not been secured, but the matter will be decided at a meeting to be held in the near future.

MOVE TO REVIVE BOOKMAKING.

Hot Springs, Ark., Nov. 12.—So anxious are the merchants and others who want revival of racing with bookmaking accompaniments that a call was issued yesterday for a special meeting next week of the Business Men's league, when the style of bill proposed for the legislature in repeal of anti-racing laws will be discussed. Business men have already endorsed the proposition to hold spring and fall meetings of thirty days each.

MAROONS TO USE EVERY PLAY AGAINST CORNELL.

"Every one of our plays will be used against Cornell Saturday. I do not think we will be unable to hold back a single trick. We are out to beat Cornell, regardless of our chances against Wisconsin, and will probably have to bare our pet secrets to do it."

This was Coach Stagg's statement of his respect for Cornell last night after he had spent three hours rehearsing the Maroon repertory of plays at Marshall field. According to the coach, the contest with the Ithicans will mark the highest point of the season and will call out all the dazlers he has drilled into his men this season.

"There seems to be a sentiment that we want to defeat Wisconsin for the western championship so badly that we will risk defeat at the hands of Cornell rather than expose our new plays to the Badger gaze," continued Stagg. "Nothing could be farther from the truth. If we have to divulge our best under the very noses of a bunch of Wisconsin scouts, we will do it."
