

GIVES HIS SECOND MISSION SERMON

Father Howard Draws Big Audience at St. Paul's Church.

ELABORATE SERVICE SUNDAY

"The Godless Sinner" Will Be the Subject of Sermon Tomorrow—Questions Answered.

A large congregation greeted the Rev. Father Howard last evening at St. Paul's Episcopal church, and the speaker held the closest attention of his auditors throughout the entire address.

The question box revealed the following, to which Father Howard replied before delivering his sermon:

"Why do you have a creed?" "Why must women always wear hats to church?" And in response to a query relative to Friday Father Howard explained that every Friday in the year, unless Christmas Day happens to be on Friday, is a fast day and no true member of the church will fail to observe Friday in loving remembrance of Christ's death for us upon the cross. "No one," said Father Howard, "would care to indulge in any gayety on the anniversary of the death of some one who had been very dear to us, so should we keep Friday sacred in loving memory of the Savior. Do not give any entertainments or parties on Friday and do not attend any social affairs on that day if you can avoid it."

The subject of the sermon was "The Ungodly Sinner" and the text was the thirteenth verse of the fifteenth chapter of the gospel, according to St. Luke.

The sermon dealt with the parable of the prodigal son who "wasted his substance with riotous living," and finally realizing his deplorable condition and determined to seek his father's forgiveness he returns to his home, receives a royal welcome and complete restoration to his sonship.

"Many people," said Father Howard, "say they will come into the church when they have reformed, or they will come to church when they get a new suit of clothes or some other excuse will be offered."

The prodigal son returned home because he felt he must do so. Only his complete repentance and absolute faith in his father could satisfy his heart and give him back his sonship again.

At the service this evening Father Howard will reply to the following questions:

"Do you believe in conversion?" "How does a mission differ from the revivals of various denominational churches?" "Why do you have candles on the altar?"

The subject of the sermon will be "The Godless Sinner."

The Sunday Services.

On Sunday the services will be as follows: Holy communion at 8 o'clock. Morning prayer and sermon at 10:45 o'clock. Evening prayer and sermon at 7:30 o'clock.

At the morning service on Sunday Father Howard will answer the following questions: "What is the church's view on temperance?" "How shall a Christian meet modern business conditions?" "How should we observe Friday?" "Are our social conditions hurtful to the church?"

The subject of the sermon will be: "Keeping Sunday Holy."

At the evening service the missionary will reply to these questions:

"Do you honor the Bible as others do?" "Will we know each other in heaven and will those who die in infancy always remain little children?"

"What is the difference between high and low church?"

Everyone is cordially invited to attend these mission services and all seats are free.

In the "Bloody Twelfth."

It begins to look as though there will be little trouble in throwing out the votes in the Twelfth precinct of Hammond, as the Democrats are charging fraud there, too.

The petition filed today continues about the Twelfth precinct and says that J. Floyd Irish was appointed inspector, Walter Kasten and Dave Dickson the judges, and John Papp and Dave Dickson were the clerks, together with Elmer D. Brandenburg, a watcher, appointed by the republican county officials for said precinct, and that the above officials entered into a conspiracy to defeat Abelman.

It charges further that the clerks with the connivance with the entire election board did not hand the voters the required blue pencil, but that they handed the voters black pencils.

Instead. For a climax in the Twelfth precinct the petition charges that the entire board agreed to burn the ballots not counted, which was unwarranted and against the law.

Boots Feet in Sixteenth.

In the Sixteenth precinct at Gibson worse charges are brought against the election board. Among the various charges enumerated, it is said, that the board at various times during the day abandoned the voting places and ballot boxes and proceeded in a body to a place distant a half mile from the voting place to procure intoxicating liquors. Also that intoxicating liquors were brought into the voting places and drunk there.

The petition goes through to the end charging similar instances of improper voting.

In compliance with the law the petition must be filed within ten days after the contest has been declared elected. This having been on Nov. 5th the petition would have had time to file its petition next Monday, owing to the fact that Sunday is not counted.

Modern Maternity.

A little girl's mother attended a number of card parties, leaving the child at home with the nurse. On one occasion, the child's attention was attracted by the plaintive cries of a young calf. Running to the window, she exclaimed: "Poor little calf! has your mamma gone to the card party and left you, too?"—Delineator.

CONTEST PETITION IS FILED

Sam Abelman, Republican Candidate for Trustee of North Township, After the Scalp of Democratic Opponent.

Sam Abelman, the republican candidate for trustee of North township who on the face of the election returns was defeated by his democratic opponent, John Becker, by 44 votes, this afternoon filed a petition with the county commissioners to have the election contested.

The petition is filed through Abelman's attorneys, Moran & Schottler, and will be heard within thirty days. Any appeal from the decision of the county commissioner will have to be taken into the circuit or superior court.

The petition filed this afternoon asks that the election be set aside and practically a total recount in all the precincts in North township and that the votes of the scandalous Twelfth, which is in the Standard Steel car section, and the Sixteenth, which takes in Gibson, be thrown out.
