NEWS OF THE COUNTY SEAT

Committee Is Busy.

The arrangement committee for the bazaar and library benefit are as busy as can be these days making arrangements for the big bazaar and benefit on Dec. 11, to be given at the Carnegie library.

Every article used in the household will be for sale, the proceeds to go in buying books for the patrons of that institution. The affair is for a worthy cause and should be patronized accordingly.

Have No Games Ahead.

The Crown Point high school team have no game scheduled for Saturday afternoon, but are trying to arrange a game with the town team, the same eleven that defeated Lowell last week. At this writing the arrangements are not fully completed, but will no doubt be arranged so that the two teams will line up for battle on that date.

Wish Him Lots of Success.

Dr. Harry B. Hayward has started practicing medicine in Hammond and yesterday opened an office on the fourth floor of the Hammond building, in that city. Dr. Hayward will use the reception rooms of Dr. Elmore Salisbury and Dr. Groman in conjunction with them, but will have separate offices and practice independently. He will specialize in diseases of the eye, ear and throat, upon which his years of study have fitted him to treat successfully and his friends predict and wish for him unmeasured success in his new field of practice. Dr. Hayward has traveled extensively throughout the United States in the interests of his profession and has decided on Hammond as a choice field for his future labors.

He Has His Troubles.

Even the country "newsgatherers" meet with many a laughable and amusing incidents in his scramble for things that he should write, and things that he should not, things that the people think he should write and things that the people think he should not. After a while when we're older and wiser and can keep out of the red and yellow ink pot we'll try and do a few of the "Incidents" up "brown." But not before.

Passion Play Given.

Under the auspices of the Young People's society of the Catholic church the Passion Play, which met with signal success at Central Music hall recently, will be repeated this evening, and Manager Rudolph announces a better production than ever. With the illustrated moving pictures a lecture will be given, dealing with the principal events in the life and time of the Savior.

WHITING NEWS

His Bad Luck Continues.

K. Frankowski, who recently had two horses stolen by negroes who took them to Chicago, where they were just about to auction them off when discovered, yesterday reported the loss of a colt.

By some unaccountable way it was learned that a colt was running at large near the Galilite school in South Chicago, where the children were having a fine time riding it. It was thought by the local police that the colt was the one for which they were looking, so Sergeant Collins telephoned to the South Chicago station regarding the missing animal. Late in the evening the local police received a message from the South Chicago police saying they had recovered the animal at 8918 Houston avenue.

When Mr. Frankowski was informed that a trace of his colt had been found he was overjoyed, saying he had bad luck in losing horses, but exceptionally fine luck in getting them back.
