

OVER THE TEA CUPS

HOLD REGULAR MEETING.

The music committee of the Hammond Women's club met last evening at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Eugene Cooper in Warren street for quite an important meeting. There was the usual attendance of members, and business of importance was transacted. It was decided to give a musical entertainment Friday evening, Dec. 4, at the home of Mrs. Cooper, to which the members of the Women's club will be invited. The program is being arranged and promises to be one of the most enjoyable ever given in Hammond.

MRS. GILLIS ENTERTAINS.

Mrs. Robert Gillis was hostess to the members of the Alpha Phi club yesterday afternoon at her home in Carroll street. There was a pleasant afternoon spent with embroidery work and social conversation, after which the hostess served dainty refreshments. Another meeting will be held in two weeks, although the place of meeting has not been decided. The members of the club are: Mesdames Frank Hammond, Walter Hammond, W. A. Hill, E. W. Bump, W. J. MacAleer, Richard Winkler, H. H. Henry, S. A. Bell, C. G. Hohman, Robert Gillis and W. F. Bridge.

PARTY POSTPONED.

The ladies of Sewing Circles Nos. 1 and 2 of St. Margaret's hospital met last evening at the home of Mrs. Jacob Weis in Douglas street for an important business meeting. The ladies met to make arrangements for a party to be given Wednesday evening, Dec. 9, in the Englewood Masonic temple. A number of young people in Hammond have been invited and will probably attend, as the affair is always enjoyable and largely attended.

INVITATIONS OUT.

The ladies of the G. H. Hammond office in Chicago have issued invitations for an informal dancing party to be given Wednesday evening, Dec. 9, in the Englewood Masonic temple. A number of young people in Hammond have been invited and will probably attend, as the affair is always enjoyable and largely attended.

ENTERTAIN THEIR FRIENDS.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carnahan very pleasantly entertained a number of friends at an elaborate 8 o'clock course dinner in honor of Mrs. Carnahan's brother, Mr. S. E. Davis, and wife at their home on Calumet avenue. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Awby, Mr. and Mrs. Norton and family of Dolton, Ill., Mrs. Quiet, Mrs. Buchler, Mrs. Alta Carnahan, Mr. and Mrs. Carnahan.

PARENTS' CLUB MEETS.

The Parents' club of the Franklin school met last evening in the school hall for one of the most enjoyable meetings ever held in the history of the club. The meeting was very largely attended, about 200 people being in attendance. Great credit is due to the ladies of the club who had the meeting in charge, and arranged so enjoyable a program. The members also presented the school with $15 for the purchase of a picture. At the close of the program the time was spent in a social way, while the guests were

GOOD BREAD

Good Bread, the nutritious and appetizing kind is hard to get. Practically anyone can make good bread in small quantities, but all with few exceptions fall down when they attempt to make it on a wholesale scale. But F. C. Dietrich, who for years has been established at 268 State St., has solved this problem, you will find here a full line of Bakery goods. His phone is 1621.

Removal Notice!

Charles Hensick has removed from his former location at 233 East State street, to the new building owned by him at 236 Plummer avenue. Mr. Hensick has been in business in Hammond for eighteen years and he has prospered. He has made good for the reason that he gives every man a square deal and does skillful work. He is pronounced a good, practical Horse Shoer and Wagon Maker.

ROLLER SKATING FREE!!!!

THIS COUPON GOOD FOR ONE ADMISSION TO THE COLOSSEUM SKATING RINK
Formerly the G. H. Hammond Co's office
Roller Skating Afternoon and Evening

pleasant surprise party was given in honor of the Lady Commander, Mrs. Richard Caldwell. The social hour was a very pleasant one spent with music and conversation, after which a dainty luncheon was served.

PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING.

A very pretty church wedding will be solemnized tomorrow when Miss Mary Demmerling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Demmerling, and Rudolph Herker are married. The marriage will take place in the German church on East Sibley street and the Rev. Zimmer, pastor of the church, will read the ceremony before a large assembly of friends and relatives of the young couple. The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Kate Demmerling, as maid of honor and Miss Martha Herker will serve the bride as her only bridesmaid. The groom will have for his attendants his brother, Emil Herker, and Charles Demmerling. The bride will be beautifully attired in a white gown and will carry a dainty bouquet. Following the wedding ceremony the members of the bridal party and a few friends and relatives will hold a reception at the home of the bride's parents in East Sibley street. A wedding supper will be served the guests in the dining room where pretty bridal flowers will be the only decorations.

ENTERTAINS INFORMALLY.

Miss Grace Stolly entertained a few of her girl friends very informally at her home last evening in Morton and also her home in Morton court last evening in honor of her birthday. The evening was passed in an enjoyable way with games and music after which a dainty luncheon was served. The guests were: Misses Beulah Drackert, Georgia DeWeese, Elsa Stolly, Julia Ellsweller, Grace Tross and Grace Stolly.

WORMWOOD AT TOWLE'S TONIGHT.

"Wormwood," or the "Absinthe Drinkers of Paris," dramatized from Miss Marie Corelli's famous story, will be presented by the Imperial Stock company at the Towle Opera House tonight, and all indications are that it will attract a more than ordinarily good house, the reputation of the play being established here, the company having played it on a previous occasion. For tomorrow matinee and night the emotional melo-drama, "How Hearts Are Broken," has been reserved, and it is probable that both afternoon and night performance will meet with large patronage. On Monday night, when the company will appear in the five-act domestic drama, "Her Husband's Sin." Ladies will be admitted under the usual conditions, one paid ticket admitting two ladies or one lady and gentleman. A special Thanksgiving day matinee will be played on Thursday afternoon.

HERE ON VISIT.

Congressman E. D. Crumpacker of Washington is expected to visit his brother, Attorney Peter Crumpacker, of Hammond, who is ill at the Augustana hospital on the north side in Chicago.

The Ginger Jar

Tom Knotts of Gary is after Bryan's famous mule. The whole G. O. P. has been after the Peerless One's goat, but hasn't succeeded in getting it as yet.

Over in Hegewisch today they are holding a church social, the admission to which is based on the age of the guest, viz., one cent for each year. It is for a worthy cause, but it is a very poor way of raising a collection, especially where the patronage consists largely of women.

The many friends of Officer Hanlon

are hoping that in the shakeup that is to come soon that his prowess and fearless devotion to duty will not be overlooked, especially not if there is a captaincy open.

How It Sounded in Print.

John D. had a little off,
And he got a little more;
He kept on getting more and more,
And still he's getting more.

The mysterious explosions in Chicago

gambling places are becoming so frequent and the inability of the police to lay their hands on the perpetrators, seems so ridiculous, that the events cannot be called anything else but a bomb joke.

If this has been sprung before, throw

the paper in the fire.

Some enthusiastic admirers of Mr.

Wickey seem to be convinced that Ed Simon has not a ghost of a show in his election contest. Leaving the ghost possibility an open question, it will have to be admitted that with a democratic speaker in a democratic house of a democratic legislature, he will have good paraphernalia when it comes to the senate in which the evidence will be heard.

Thanksgiving day being close at hand, it might be suggested to Hammond that it be thankful.

For having had the protecting hand

of Chief Rimbach as long as it has had; For having so much good mayoralty timber;

For getting so many new ordinances

on the books; For having an ordinance in preparation which prohibits the wearing of carwheel hats in theaters; the latter suggestion was not extended to the milliners;

For having the liveliest paper in northern Indiana.
