GARY CHURCH NEWS.

All the various churches will hold special Thanksgiving services next Sun-day, as no services are scheduled to take place on Thanksgiving Day.

At 2:30 on Sunday afternoon a meet-ing will be held in the Portable school house, near the Jefferson school, among the people of the Baptist denomina-tion in Gary for the purpose of estab-lishing a Baptist church in Gary.

Rev. J. T. Young of Pittsburg has been in Gary several days this week in the interests of organizing a Baptist church and will be present on next Sun-day to assist in the movement. It is the intention to erect a church building later on.

The young men of the Congregational church will observe Thanksgiving in a novel way. At 8:30 o'clock in the morning the young men clothed in overalls and armed with shovels and trowels will proceed to the new Con-gregational church, now under the course of construction, and during the course of the day will lay the cement floor in the church basement.

Although many of the young men have never had a shovel in their hands they promise to dig into the concrete and finish the job up before evening.

HEARD BY RUBE

The Gary foreigner who stabbed his cow because she would not stand still when he was milking her, evidently thought he was dealing with one of his countrymen.

Even if the University club did dine on roast pig it can't be said that any of them are on the hog.

Gary has no night riders, but on some evenings it keeps the local police busy in rounding up the night walkers.

The average Gary boy dislikes to part his hair just as the average Gary man hates to part with his.

Although the local jail is crowded during the night there are none that are staying there for the sake of the quiet on the excellence of the meals.

The weather can just "go as far as far as it pleases."

Although the purity of Gary's food-stuffs on the whole are above the average, there is still some improvement in certain lines.

Let there be no trouble arise over the fact who is to carve the turkey next Thursday.

Francis Y. Keator evidently wants to make sure on part of the street railway franchises. Maybe, now that he has secured the Hobart grant he might con-sider with John G. Barrie and persuade him to feel more kindly to the Burns' ditch.

Being something of an expert on the carving question, it is said, that Doc Hosmer was fully acquainted with all the joints when he carved the roast pig at the University club dinner.

A certain banker has said that $10 bills last ten or twelve years. He must have been living with his wife's folks, because in Gary they hardly last a week.

Now that Gary is to have a new fire and police station the town dads are figuring on purchasing some new fire-fighting apparatus.

Stanley Sulentic has written to Sher-iff Carter from New York thanking him for his kindness. Stanley, indeed, ought to be thankful for getting out of the penitentiary.

All skilled workmen volunteers are cor-dially invited to assist in the laying of the floor.

Much progress has been made in the erection of the church during the past week, the work being rushed on ac-count of the fine weather. The walls are now up nearly to the second floor and it is expected at the present rate the church will be completed by the first of the year.

Work on the new German Lutheran church, which is being erected on Main street, is progressing nicely and will be under the cover of the roof by the end of next week.

Many tickets have already been sold by the Sisters of Charity for their dance Thanksgiving night, which will be given for the benefit of the Catho-lic church of Gary in building the parish residence for Rev. Father Francis Jansen, which was destroyed last week.

Work has already started in clearing away the debris of the burned building, and the construction of the new parish will be commenced at once.

CASSINO MANAGERS GIVE CONFETTI PARTY.

Skating rink at Gary Is the Scene of a Lively Affair Last Night.

The managers of the Gary Casino held a confetti party last night and one of the largest crowds that ever attend-ed the place was present. The throw-ing of confetti and the throwing of long strips of paper about the room was one of the featurestomn utna was the feature of the evening. Much amusement was had in the sport and regular hours for skating were extend-ed. There was a large crowd from Hobart and Miller in attendance and they skated until their train left on the Pennsylvania at 1 o'clock. There is a probability that in the near future the management of the rink will give a masquerade ball which will be an in-novation in roller skating.

ATY. M. C. A. CONVENTION

Gary Folk at South Bend Today For 39th An-nual Session.

C. Oliver Holmes, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of this district, left yes-terday morning to be present at the thirty-ninth annual convention of the Indiana Young Men's Christian asso-ciation at South Bend. Other Gary-ites who left this morning are: A. A. Wirt, Captain, H. S. Norton, G. S. Wid-holm, Rev. George E. Deuel and John E. Sears.

Tonight the Gary men who are at-tending to a big banquet, which will take place at the Oliver hotel, and followed by speeches of many men of prominence. The convention will con-tinue until the 22nd.

It is earnestly hoped that Gary can secure a Y. M. C. A. sometime in the near future and from all indications that day does not appear to be very far off, as certain Gary men who are back of the movement, have said that it was only a matter of a short time until a Y. M. C. A. would be estab-lished at this place.

GARY LODGE NEWS.

The Gary Nest of Owls met for their regular meeting Thursday night in the I. O. O. F. No business of special im-portance came before the meeting at of the ordinary routine.

Dr. J. W. Nienkirk of Gary returned from the sixty-first annual grand lodge encampment of the I. O. O. F. at Indian-apolis yesterday, which has been in session for the past two days. Dr. Nienkirk received the honor of being appointed district deputy grand patri-arch of the grand lodge, which com-prises of all the encampments in Lake county. He will have charge of the organization of all new lodges and will preside over the installation of officers.

Dr. Nienkirk is receiving the congrat-ulations of his many friends in Gary today over his appointment, as he was selected out of a large number of can-didates for the office.

At the next regular meeting of the Knights of Pythias, which will take place next Wednesday evening, the adoption of by-laws will take place and an effort will also be made to organ-ize a third degree drill team. There are also a number of applications for membership to be voted upon, and it is earnestly desired that every member will attend. The meeting will be held in the I. O. O. F. hall.

The next meeting of the St. Andrews' society will take place next Wednesday night for the purpose of making ar-rangements for the celebration of St. Andrews' day on Nov. 30th, and the dance, which will be given in the even-ing.

Everything is now in readiness for the dance and banquet given by the Gary Masonic Social club, which will take place next Tuesday night, Nov. 24. The committee in charge have been working hard for the event.

GARY BRIEFS.

Ex-Mayor Fred Mott was in Gary on business Thursday.

Gary hotel serves club breakfasts, 20 cents to $1. Served 6:00 a. m. till 9:30 a. m.

The Gary and Western elevated road have started to run trains over their elevation, the road being entirely ready for operation. At the present time there is nothing but freight being run over the line, but it is expected that in the spring a passenger loop service will be established with this road and the Lake Shore.

Why cook when you can get a Sun-day dinner at the Gary hotel at 75 cents, served from 12 to 2:30 p. m.

Manager L. P. Goodwin of the Gary Investment company has returned from a trip in the east, where he has been for the past two weeks.

No other store like the R. & S. If the inquest for the victim of the Gary and Interurban, J. Popich, was held yesterday afternoon in Dr. T. B. Tempin's office.

The R. & S. for specials on shoes and rubbers.

H. A. Vossler of the Vossler & Young Real Estate company has returned from a week's trip to Indianapolis, where he has been on business. Mr. Vossler brought with him several prospec-tive purchasers of property from the capital city.

Miss Barbara Fritzsche and Miss Clara Mayhak of Miller were roller skating at the Gary Casino last night.

Gary hotel serves noonday lunch, served from 11:30 a. m. till 2:00 p. m., 40 cents.

Cornelius Schanzer, the former pri-vate detective of Gary, went to Ham-mond yesterday, where he was to ap-pear as a witness in a case against a man charged with grand larceny. Schanzer was an eye-witness, and ex-pressed confidence in being able to send the man to the penitentiary.

School Notes.

Delegates were elected from each class this week. They are to meet in Mr. Seargent's room this evening and organize two basketball teams.

Several of the scholars are to go in and see the play "Hamlet" at the Grand Opera House in Chicago this after-noon.

The third year English class finished the book of Hamlet Thursday.

All military reduced to half by the R. & S. only.

English class III have a debate Tues-day. The subject is "Resolved, Hamlet was crazy."

The German class I and the ancient history class had "test days" Wednes-day.

The football season is over with for the Gary high school. They have only played three games and won two. Next year they hope to make Hammond hus-tle.

The basketball team will do their practice work in the assembly room and will play their games at the skat-ing rink.

SHOOTING AFFRAY AT MILLER TODAY

(Special to THE TIMES.)
Miller, Ind., Nov. 21.—In an alterca-tion with Russell Anderson of this place, this morning, Gus Kargulin shot the other half of the quarrel sketch but did not wound him seriously. Marshal Edward Klopff put Kargulin under ar-rest, and he is now in jail on a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill.

GAINS NEAR UNIVERSAL, SAYS DUN'S REVIEW.

Each Week Surpassing Predeces-sor in Volume of Business and Plants Increase Ca-pacity.

New York, Nov. 21.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say:

"Gains are now almost univer-sal, each week surpassing its predecessor in volume of trade, while manufacturing plants in-crease active capacity, and con-fidence is finding expression in extensive plans for the future. At many points seasonable weather has stimulated demand for winter goods, and there is a gratifying change for the bet-ter in regard to the promptness of collections. Some sections are backward, however, either be-cause the temperature continues too high or on account of the failure to market crops prompt-ly. Frequent evidences of de-pleted stocks in the hands of dealers are noted, especially when shipping departments work overtime in order to make sufficiently prompt deliveries."

GARY MAN GOES INSANE

One lone Gary man who blew into Hartford City some time ago caused more disturbance there than the town has seen in many months. The man, who is Emory Wasson, became violent-ly insane last Wednesday. He came to the Ingram hotel and, in the ab-sence of the manager, told the help that he was now in charge of the place. He discharged the barbers, clerks and bar-tenders, telling them that their services were no longer required. He opened the mail that the city mail carrier had left on the desk and attempted to do other incongruous things.

He was taken to the city jail, but it took four men to place him there. Several of the iron railings in front of the jail were loosened by him in his struggles. He stands at the door of the cage in the county jail seeking an opportunity to make a dash for lib-erty.

ROY MORRISON LOSES HIS TURKEY GOBBLER.

Thanksgiving Feast Is Threatened By Disappearance of the He-rod. (Special to THE TIMES.)

East Chicago, Ind., Nov. 21.—Roy Morrison, the East Chicago staff man of THE TIMES was both fortunate and un-fortunate in a little episode which oc-curred yesterday. There was a num-ber of live turkeys being raffled and Morrison took a chance on one. He is trying to keep the matter a secret, but his friends say not.

He picked out No. 12 and it won the turkey. Mr. Morrison took the bird to his room and went out to make ar-rangements to keep it until turkey day. While he was gone Dr. Bicknell and Dr. Ross went to his room and captured the bird. They raised the window to make it appear that Mr. Turkey had escaped in that manner.

Mr. Morrison came back to his room with a well defined plan for having his turkey cooked and served. He found that the improvised coop was empty. The open window told the story.

After the reporter had spent an hour or more in a fruitless search for the escaped turkey the doctors, too, in-formed him of the theft of the bird. The joke is on Morrison.

CLARENCE GETS FIRED

(Special to THE TIMES.)

East Chicago, Ind., Nov. 21.—From Ann Arbor, Mich., comes the report that Clarence Penman of Beaumont, Texas, has been expelled from the medical col-lege of Michigan university. Penman was caught kissing one of the nurses at the university hospital, and as the nurse was found to have been a fre-quent one, Penman was informed that his attendance at school was no longer desired. The nurse in question was also dismissed from the hospital corps. Penman is a graduate of the East Chicago high school, having completed his course in this city with the class of 1907. He will be remembered as having been prominent in athletics during his entire four years' course, and his record in this city was always of the best. Inquiry among former feminine school friends of the delin-quent student elicited the information that he was found to have been a down-fall, their denial being strong in the statement that his actions toward them had always been exemplary.

TROUBLE IN ATHENS, RESULTS IN ARREST.

Three National Airs in One Saloon Rises Rough House.

(Special to THE TIMES.)

Indiana Harbor, Ind., Nov. 21.—As the result of the harmony produced by the singing of three national airs at the same time, John Darasz, a foreigner living on Deodar street, was yester-day fined $16 on a charge of hitting Johnny Deminsky, a saloonkeeper, with a bottle.

According to the evidence, introduced in Judge G. E. Deminsky's court, the defendant is a Roumanian, while Dem-insky is of Polish descent. A witness—and a frequenter of the Deminsky buf-fet—declared that he was a Slav, and it was his singing that really started the fracas. He insisted on singing his na-tional anthem, much to the disgust of his two friends. They declared it to be void of musical tones, and Dem-insky offered to show them some real music. Plunging into the intricacies of the Polish anthem, he was halted by Darasz, who wanted to display his musical prowess.

Whether Darasz was any better than the other two was not learned, for his

AS YOU probably know, the President of the United States has set apart Thursday, Novem-ber 26, as the day on which to thank God for the blessings we have received during the past twelve months. And although the times have been hard and many have been out of employ-ment more or less of the time during the past year, all have much for which to be thankful.

On account of these hard times there are a lot of people who will find it absolutely impossible to buy a new Suit or Overcoat at this time. To this class we de-sire to say that we can, in most every case, make the old Suit or Overcoat look like new and at a small cost too. By our modern process we can work wonders for you. And if your order comes to us early we can get the work out on time. Phone us and we will call and examine your garments, give you the price for such repairs as are need-ed and deliver them to you when they are ready. You will find our prices reasonable and the work done with skill

PREPARING A BIG CASE

Labadie Heirs Will Attack Walker Distilling Com-pany's Title.

(Special to THE TIMES.)
Indiana Harbor, Ind., Nov. 21.—At-torney J. Leon Gould is preparing his complaint in the proceedings insti-tuted by the Labadie heirs of South Bend against the Walker Distilling company of Walkerville, Ont. The suit is one originating in 1837, when the Walker company assumed control of ten acres of land belonging to an heir of the Labadie family, a reputable branch of a well-known French-Cana-dian family.

The property at that time was worth but about $4,000 and is now occupied by the largest distillery in the world—that of Canadian Club liquors. Its as-sessed valuation is in the neighborhood of $8,000,000, and it is either for a substantial remuneration for the use of the property, with interest on its value since 1837, or its outright pur-chase at an enormous figure, that is being contemplated by the South Bend heirs. In a letter to the attorney yes-terday, Mrs. Josephine H. Labadie of South Bend—one of the plaintiffs in the case—declared that she had received powers of attorney to prosecute the case from each of twelve other heirs. These documents were received only after correspondence with heirs in nearly every continent, some of them necessitating a search through the re-cords of Paris and London.

Attorney Gould declares that the Labadie heirs will necessarily have to be taken before the higher English courts in London, as the wealth of the Walker company will enable it to carry the action into the supreme assizes, un-less a reasonable settlement can be ef-fected before that time.
