

EAST CHICAGO AND INDIANA HARBOR

EAST CHICAGO.

P. Billiter and Miss Mary Reese were visitors at the Lewis skating rink last evening.

The Embroidery Circle will meet at the home of Miss Anna Edmonds on Baring avenue this evening. The girls expect to complete their linen shower articles before long, and have them in readiness for the early December shower on one of the members.

Mrs. J. Billiter of Magoun avenue has returned from a week's visit with relatives in Allerton, Ill.

Mrs. A. H. W. Johnson will entertain the members and guests of the Tuesday Reading Circle this evening at her home on Magoun avenue. The feature of the evening will be a musical program, in which local talent along musical lines will be presented. Principal C. H. Holway of the Indiana Harbor schools will deliver a brief talk on a suitable topic.

Price of admission at the Lewis rink in East Chicago has been reduced to 10 cents.

Mrs. Homer Smith of Frankfort, Ind., is spending a few days at the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Palmer, of One Hundred and Forty-eighth street.

Misses Jennie and Louise Cochrane of Todd avenue are expected home this week from a visit with relatives in Janesville, Wis.

Mr. Harry E. Bloomberg and Miss Leilah B. Wickey will attend George M. Cohan's production of "The Yankee Prince" at the Colonial theater in Chicago on Thursday evening.

Thomas McKenna of One Hundred and Forty-fourth street will spend Thursday with friends in Gary.

Attorney Joe A. Meade was a Gary business visitor yesterday afternoon.

Miss Annabelle Hall of Crown Point and Miss Anna Saunders of Indiana Harbor spent Sunday at the home of Miss Maude Mitchell of Olcott avenue.

Benjamin Silverman of Chicago avenue will attend Robert Mantell's production of "The Merchant of Venice" tomorrow evening.

Rev. J. H. Palmer reports the addition of twenty new members to his flock on Sunday morning. A spirited revival is being prosecuted in his church this week, and the pastor believes that it will not be without its effect upon the citizens of East Chicago. His sermons are interesting and filled with a convincing power to sum up an extent that it is really a pleasure to hear his services.

Miss Jacobson, Congressman Crumpacker's private secretary, of Valparaiso was an East Chicago visitor yesterday afternoon, visiting H. L. McCoy.

GIVES ENTERTAINMENT

Home Talent Will Perform
at St. John Wednesday and Thursday.

(Special to THE TIMES)
St. John, Ind., Nov. 24.—The people of St. John and the surrounding vicinity are looking forward to an entertainment which will be given tomorrow and Thursday evenings in the Foster hall, under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Sodality.

The program on the main will be carried out by the pupils of the St. John parochial school, and the indications are that the hall will be crowded on both nights. The home talent entertainments have proven very popular in St. John and this one promised to be just as successful as those of past years. The program is a long one and will furnish amusement for several hours. The doors open at 6:30 and the program begins at 8 o'clock.

The program is as follows: "Opening March"—Duet.....

TRY ANYTHING IN THIS GREAT SOUTH CHICAGO FURNITURE STORE FOR 30 DAYS FREE OF COST. BE PERFECTLY SATISFIED BEFORE YOU BEGIN TO PAY

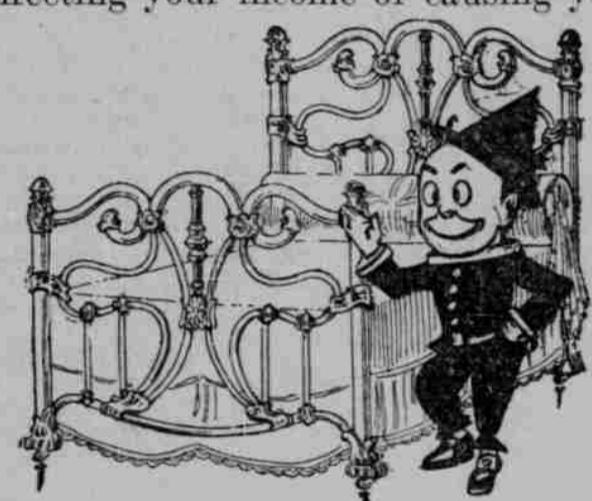

No doubt you see Furniture Advertisements in this paper almost daily; no doubt you have seen some of ours, but every ad you have read and looked over is very commonplace compared with this one.

Read every word in this ad and if it doesn't convince you that this is the most liberal proposition that has ever been offered, we will not feel entitled to your patronage.

You can select anything in this store from a complete home outfit to a kitchen chair, and then try it thirty days in your own home, free of cost. YES, THAT'S JUST WHAT WE MEAN!

We'll let you take thirty days to decide whether you want it or not. If you finally make up your mind it isn't what you want, we'll take it back and give you what you do want. If the article, or articles, please and satisfy you, we'll permit you to pay for them in very small and very reasonable sums each month.

This is a wonderfully fair—a remarkably safe plan—a positive safeguard to complete satisfaction. It is actual insurance, which prevents misrepresentation or false purchases; which means a great deal to people of limited means who must make every dollar spent get a dollar's worth of satisfaction. We'll furnish an entire home that way, and all on thirty days free trial, which enables you to make detailed examinations and satisfy yourselves that we live up to every promise and sell better merchandise for less money than any other house in the city. And when you have decided to buy, we'll suspend payments if you become sick or lose your position or suffer an accident. In short, we will do anything that merchants can do to give you as good homes as any of your friends or neighbors have without affecting your income or causing you the least bother or embarrassment.
