

THE $700 TEMPTED, NOT MARIE

Indiana Harbor Hungarian
Who Comes Into Inheritance, Loses His Sweetheart on the Other Side of the Pond.

FOUND SOMEONE ELSE BETTER THAN THE $700

John Matskazi Will Now Open Saloon
And Is Looking Around For a Lady
Who Would Like To Share His Patrimony With Him. Chance For Some Blue-Eyed Lass.

(Special to The Times.)

Indiana Harbor, Ind., Nov. 24.—Even the enormous ($700) fortune of $700 was not sufficient to make Marie Dratzge return to her first love, John Matskazi, of Indiana Harbor, who she jilted without his knowing it.

The fortune is John's and he first received intimation of it about two months ago, when he was informed through a firm of lawyers in the old country that he had been made the heir to this amount through the death of an uncle, Pete Matskazi.

"She Is the Belle."
John lives on Deodar street, while Marie, the ambition of his yearnings, is still a resident of Pestar, Hungary, where, according to her sister's tale, she is the "belle of the town." John came to Indiana Harbor two years ago to make his fortune, promising to return before long and marry his first sweetheart. Letters passed between them, carrying their tender messages, but the old adage of "absence make the heart grow fonder," evidently failed of conviction as far as Miss Dratzge was concerned.

Their letters became more and more infrequent, until lately John began to notice that she did not possess the same very warmth of heart towards him. Her letters were cold, and often contained the names of men unknown to him. He pressed Marie for an explanation but received none. Finally, as he was about to give up his last ray of hope, he received the $700—the cash being sent him with the notification of his uncle's death.

Sends Marie $100.

With a feeling akin to joy he immediately wrote Marie a long letter, told of his good fortune and enclosed a money order for $100 at the same time asking her to purchase passage on the first steamer eastward. Two weeks passed and no reply from Marie! But on Saturday evening he received a letter bearing the post mark of Pestar, and on opening it, out dropped the original money order. A five line note from his erstwhile sweetheart explained everything. "I've found someone that I like better than your $700," said Marie, as she closed her missive with a short plea for forgiveness. John cashed in the money order, put the money in the bank and says he is going to open a saloon. In the meantime, there is a good looking Hungarian maid to secure a hard-working husband with $700—if she is only willing to overlook the fact that she is playing second fiddle and that were it not for the freaks of fate John would now be married to another maid from the far east.

GARY MERCHANTS TO CLOSE THANKSGIVING

Retail Association Holds a Meeting at the Gary Hotel.

About forty members of the Gary Retail Merchants' association met at the Gary hotel last night and held their first smoker since their organization. Speeches were made by the different members of the association on subjects pertaining to the welfare of the Gary merchants, and a committee was selected to invite other merchants in Gary to become members of the association. It was unanimously decided at the meeting last night that the merchants will close their places of business on Thanksgiving day at noon. The matter of establishing a uniform closing law among the merchants was discussed at length, but owing to the different opinions of the merchants no settlement was reached and the matter was laid over until the next meeting night.

Refreshments, consisting of coffee, sandwiches and pickles were served, after which cigars were lighted and an hour of good fellowship among the members followed.

Ireland's Mineral Wealth.
Gold, silver and lead mines are, it is said, to be worked extensively in the bleak district of Innishowen, County of Donegal, Ireland, overlooking the Atlantic.

"ROSES" INGRAHAM'S NEWEST PRODUCTION

Whiting's Author-Composer
Adds Classic to His List of Popular Hits.

HE SELECTS A NEW THEME

J. Roy Morrison, Critic, Reviews Song
And Finds It To Be Of Merit;
Worthy To Posterity.

(By J. Roy Morrison.)

Whiting, Ind., Nov. 24.—A perusal of the music of the present week includes a new selection from the pen of Whiting's talented composer, Herbert Ingraham. "Roses" is the title, and roses, with their volumes of expression, are the theme. The public has already been given an opportunity to test the ability of Ingraham to write popular music and has not found him wanting. His "I Would If I Could," and "I'll Be Back in a Minute" compositions have met with instant favor, and Whiting is now wondering how the world will accept his latest effort. Ingraham is reported as very ill with but little chance for recovery, and it is but fitting that this work should be the climax of his successes. May "Roses" live forever as a testimonial of a brilliant and energetic musical life!

The verses follow:

Roses.
Alone I sit this summer morn,
The roses all in bloom,
Bring memories of the golden past,
That faded all too soon;
I pluck the roses from their stems,
Their petals wet with dew,
I think of days in years gone by,
When I loved only you.

CHORUS:
Roses, roses, bring memories of
you, dear,
Memories of love's sweetest hours,
Telling of love to the flowers.
Roses, roses, your love was like the
roses,
Fresh for a day, but they faded away,
Red roses bring dreams of you.

I've roamed the world alone since then,
That day you proved untrue,
But I've been, oh! so lonesome, dear,
For just one word from you.
Twas as you wished, you broke the vows.

I had you good, and yet,
I've tried to tear you from my heart,
And still I can't forget. (Chorus.)

Set a New Life to Music.
The theme is descriptive of passions more tender than those usually found in Ingraham's compositions, and as may be seen by the foregoing excerpts, is handled in a more delicate, and pleasing style. Love, the divine passion, intermingles every line, and the author-composer's very self is easily read as he tells his own story in the theme of

COMMERCIAL CLUB ON JUNKET TOMORROW

One Hundred Members Signify Their Intention of Making the Trip.

It now appears that there will be at least 100 members of the Gary Commercial club which will take the junket trip to Michigan City, South Bend, Elkhart, Laporte, Mishawaka and other cities along the route. The interest in the event is even greater than that taken in the "coming out" day of Gary, when the great banquet was given last year on this date. Nov. 25 will always remain Commercial club day in Gary, and the members plan to celebrate the day as long as the organization is in existence.

Those who desired to take the trip were asked to see Attorney W. M. Dunn, the secretary of the club, at noon today and have the tickets reserved. This is for the purpose of ascertaining how many persons will attend the great banquet which will be given at the Oliver hotel in South Bend.

The train will leave Gary at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning on the Chicago, Lake Shore & South Bend interurban. The entertainment committee has chartered three special cars, and these will be decorated with pictures of the city and other reading matter of interest. It is also planned to take with them literature of the city which will be passed out among the business men of the towns through which they pass. The Gary brass band has also been hired for the occasion and will play in each of the towns which the club invades.

his chosen work. The music is filled with a rhythm of indescribable sweetness, a strong and persistent melody running through its two verses, yet its climaxes do not interfere with the more thoughtful word theme of the song itself.

His Lasting Qualities.
The entire composition is of a brilliancy of mood that will insure its lasting quality. It can readily be placed among the ballads of American authors that are destined to take their place in the world's musical history, and is the equal of many of the ballads of Thomas Moore, the Irish poet, who supplied the favorites of a half century ago. Herbert Ingraham is to be commended for his change of attitude towards musical compositions, and it is to be hoped that his talent will hereafter, if possible, be directed along the theme indicated by "Roses," to the exclusion of the so-called "popular" musical comedy airs.

DELEGATES TO HARBOR CONGRESS APPOINTED

Mayor Ed. DeBriac of East
Chicago Makes the Names Known.

DISSENSION OVER NUMBER

Official Decides That a Smaller Representation Would be More Effective.

(Special to The Times.)

East Chicago, Ind., Nov. 24.—Another step was taken in the culmination of the Harbor project last evening when, at a special meeting of the common council, Mayor DeBriac appointed Councilmen Lewis and Walton as delegates to the National Rivers and Harbors Congress. This body will meet in Washington on Dec. 9, 10 and 11. Its purpose is to consider the recommendation of river and harbor improvements to the congressional body, and is one of the important steps through which all mammoth projects such as the one now under contemplation are expected to go before they are given proper consideration at the hands of the federal authorities.

Number Causes Trouble.

"There has been a great deal of dissension," said Mayor DeBriac last evening, "about the number of delegates who should attend this meeting. Some think that a larger delegation should be sent, laboring under the delusion that the National Rivers and Harbors Congress is part of the federal body. That is a mistake, as it is merely an incorporated organization, for the purpose of making a preliminary study of harbor and river improvements before they are taken charge of by the government itself." Mayor DeBriac believes that a hearing can be arranged with the river and harbor committee of the house of representatives shortly after the hearing with the national congress, thus eliminating the necessity of sending a double delegation.

More Good Can Be Done.

Much more good can be accomplished by sending two or three understanding citizens to either of these hearings, and following their instructions to the two bodies by a larger delegation by the general assembly itself, when the bill for an appropriation is presented by Congressman Crumpacker. Data is being prepared for the national congress and the committee in the house, and three local delegates will go prepared to thoroughly convince those studying the project that a harbor in this section of the country would be of wonderful value to commercial interests.

E. GARSTON SMITH IS OUSTED

Fails to Secure New Bondsmen For His Appeal to the Superior Court—W. S.
Feuer, Owner, Gets Possession.

FIGHT BEGAN IN MAY IN JUSTICE COURT

Proprietor Admits Having Had a
Hard Battle. Tennant Turns Ke
Over With Good Grace Saying That
The Plaintiff Won Fairly and Squarably.

W. S. Feuer, after many months of hard fighting, has at last gained possession of his Gary property, formerly held by E. Garston Smith. The building in question is a three-story structure on Broadway, near Sixth avenue, and the Gary hotel. For many months every strategy of the law has been employed by the occupant Smith to remain in possession of the premises and of the owner, W. S. Feuer, to have him ousted.

Last night, after a game fight all day, Smith hauled up the white flag and succumbed to the attack of General Feuer, assisted by his trusty lieutenant, Attorney H. S. McCracken. Smith receded from his stronghold at 6 o'clock, after a nerve-racking battle. He did not give up hope of securing bondsmen to go his appeal bond until the last moment and then he was ready to admit defeat.

No Bondsmen Appears.

Twice in the last few weeks it has seemed as if he had surely won the fight, when just before the expiration of the time set for the filing of the bond, Smith would appear and file the necessary papers. On each of the bonds filed, however, Feuer was able to prove that they were not good or persuade the bondsmen to withdraw so that there still remained a flicker of hope. Another of those crucial periods arrived yesterday afternoon when the time which he had been given by the court to file the bond rapidly approached. Finally, however, Smith was forced to admit defeat and after working hard all day to secure a bondsmen he returned to Gary. Last night he was served with the necessary papers and he turned over the keys to the building. Smith was put out of the building last night, but Mrs. Smith was allowed to remain so that she could get the sundries which she kept in her store packed and shipped away from the building.

Fight Began Last May.

The fight for the possession of this building, which has lasted since the 6th of May, has interested every one in the city. Mr. Feuer filed suit in the justice court and received a verdict in his favor. Mr. Smith appealed the case to the superior court and filed an appeal bond which some months later was proved to be invalid before Judge Reiter. Since that time he has been attempting to supply new bonds, and Feuer has been attempting to show that they were worthless and having them knocked out of court.

In speaking of the battle last night, General Feuer said:

"It was a hard battle and we have won."
General Smith said: "Mr. Feuer won fairly and squarely, and I am ready to turn over the keys."

BOARD HOLDS MEETING

New Ordinances Will Be Presented For Passage Today.

The Gary town board will meet for their regular session this afternoon and much business of importance is scheduled to take place.

The splitting ordinance, which has been prepared by City Attorney L. L. Bomberger, will come up for passage. Communications have also been received from the officials of the Michigan Central and Wabash railroads in regard to placing gates at their crossings of Broadway and Madison streets, which will be discussed by the board.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. And unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Sent for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
