A NEW THANKSGIVING DAY.

Another Thanksgiving is upon us, with its share of blessing and gladness. The Psalm of David where he says "Sing unto the Lord with Thanksgiving" ought, on the eve of this approaching national holiday, be the motif of the coming day.

Thanksgiving and thanksgiving to be genuine must embody the Nazarene's life, labor and love. The natural man needs to be educated into selfless living, self-sacrificing, doing good to others first, being loyal, altruistic; then and not till then, shall the world be brought to thankfulness and blessedness.

Let us be happy tomorrow and let us be cheerful. Cheerfulness is the measure of the worth of your life to yourself and the worth of it to others. Every day should bring its benedictions. If there is sorrow, a bright light in the cloud; if the day brings difficulties, handicaps, heavy burdens, sharp struggles, life's best things come in just this kind of experience and not in the easy ways. The thanksgiving heart finds treasure and good everywhere. Life's true content pitch is praise. Tomorrow, may it be the keynote of a new year of happiness and new hopes. It is not necessary to enumerate why you should be thankful, why your city, your county, your state or your nation should be thankful. Even as we join in thankfulness to the fountain of all good and perfect things, we echo the aspirations of those less fortunate throughout the world who are turning their eyes toward the sunlight and the morning of freedom and the responsibilities which freedom brings. It is our Thanksgiving that we have led the way in the path illuminated by the sun of liberty. And to be happy yourself and thankful tomorrow, do not forget those who have less reason than yourself to be thankful.

Though wan skies show no rift,
And every breeze be frowny,
Both prayer and praise let us upthrust,
And such a generous store
From shore to shore!

And let our clear acclaim
More than lip-service be,
While rivers and while mountains frame
With us Thanksgiving to His name,
Swelling the jubilee
From sea to sea!

WHICH IS A PROPER SPIRIT.

Everything that benefits Gary, benefits Lake county indirectly, so that the good wishes of the Calumet region and Lake county in general will go with the Gary Commercial club members on their advertising junket to South Bend and other interurban cities. The enterprising and indomitable members of the Gary Commercial club have set a splendid example to the business men of other cities and one which they could follow with much profit to themselves and glory to their own municipalities. If the cities in the Calumet region followed Gary's example in energy and hustling there is not a district in the whole world could begin to compare with this region. It is time to recognize this fact and look it squarely in the face. Gary, as a pioneer in this region, is getting all there is out of a thing and not letting any of it go to waste.

THE DANGER OF PRACTICAL JOKING.

From the number of people who have been killed and maimed because some fool friends have played practical jokes on them, it would seem as if these enthusiastic meddlers whose idea of something clever and funny is to play a joke that may be conducive to physical injury, would sometimes acquire at least a modicum of sense. A young Spanish-American war veteran is in St. Margaret's hospital in a critical condition because a fellow workman threw something at his face, causing him to dodge violently and loosen a silver plate in his head, put there to repair a bullet wound. It isn't necessary to turn around more than twice before meeting with someone who has been the physical victim of practical joking. It is carried to extreme lengths and many people have been the sadder and wiser for it, while the instruments of their questionable cleverness are in the Land Beyond. Perhaps it might be well to hesitate in the future before trying a practical joke that might hurt some one.

HAMMOND'S PRETTY playhouse, the Princess, owned by T. W. Englehart of Gary, is doing a splendid business. The theatre is a credit to Hammond and its description, published in the Times last Saturday, brought crowds of people out to see it. The features of the dainty little playhouse, as advertised daily, in the Times, make its owner confident that it will fill a long felt want in the amusement world of the Calumet region.

THE LABADIE eight million dollar lawsuit, whose interesting details were fully described in a story in these columns last week, has been copied and copied by various papers over the country. It came back to Hammond last night, however, large and smiling as life and was cheerfully recognized by a number of people who had read all about it in the Times over a week ago.

Heart to Heart Talks.

WHAT MONEY WILL BUY.

A certain man, reputed to be from Chicago, went down Broadway, New York city, a few days ago distributing five and ten dollar bills to the people.

The man was arrested and adjudged insane. It was taken for granted that any man who would voluntarily give away what everybody was trying to have and hold must necessarily be crazy. However—

The man might have been merely drunk. Or his conscience may have troubled him because of the way in which he got the money.

Or he may have been prompted by philanthropic feelings.

But, to dismiss motives, is the mere fact that a man gives away good money on the street evidence that he is insane?

If so, why do we say that men who are immersed in money getting, who do nothing and think nothing but money—why do we say that these men are "money mad"? Is it not true that when a man gets the insane notion into his head that money is the only thing worth while in this world he is mentally unbalanced?

Then why conclude that only the man who gives money away is mad? Will money buy the best things—love, joy, peace?

Certainly not. They are not for sale on any counter. They are the fruits of a man's spirit. They spring up in his soul and ripen there.

Then why put so much value on money?

Money can buy many things, necessities, comforts, luxuries, ease, power. And so men go over seas and continents and die for the sake of money. They will sell their souls to get money and then bask themselves in the sunshine of their self made prosperity, hoping for happiness.

Are they not as insane as the man who was reckless with his bills?

Because all they can buy with money are OUTSIDE THINGS, while the true satisfactions of life spring from WITHIN. If man were only dust, the golden dust of earth might satisfy. But he is more than dust.

John L. Sullivan—and he spoke from personal experience—put this truth tersely the other day when he said: "MONEY WILL BUY EVERYTHING—BUT HAPPINESS."

Think it over. Is it not possible the "crazy man" was about the only sane person on Broadway?

THIS IS MY 50TH BIRTHDAY.

Paul Haupt, professor of Semitic language and director of the Oriental Seminary in Johns Hopkins university, was born in Gorlitz, Germany, Nov. 25, 1858. He graduated from the University of Leipzig and the University of Glasgow, and subsequently continued his studies at Berlin university and at the British museum. He taught for a time in Germany. In the early 80's he came to the United States and in 1883 he became connected with Johns Hopkins university. Professor Haupt has written a number of books and is regarded as an authority on Biblical and Assyrian philology, history and archaeology. At the international historical congress held in London last summer Professor Haupt presented a storm of discussion by his address on "The History of Galilee," in which he stated that Jesus was born at Nazareth rather than Bethlehem, and probably not a descendant of David.

Head Work.
The other day, Colquitt Head went to John Anderson's mill with a sack of corn, as he thought, but when the mill went to grinding he found that the sack contained soup beans instead of corn. So Mr. Head had to go home and come again.—Dahlonga (Ga.) August.

THANKSGIVING TOAST.
"Thanksgiving day! The fates benign have given us joy to die.
To Womanhood I raise this glass—
Let every lover toast his lass
In newest wit and oldest wine!
God bless our sweethearts, yours and mine!
In loneliness why longer pine?
Be wed ere next shall we pass
Thanksgiving day!
Now pledge me this good fellows mine,
When round our board the love lights shine,
We'll send one backward thought, alas!
To bachelors! Unhappy class!
And drink one toast to 'Auld Lang Syne.'
Thanksgiving day!"

It is pretty hard to be thankful when Walter Wellman is still talking politics.

LABOR NEWS

The International Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees will meet for its annual convention at New Orleans on Dec. 7.

The first annual convention of the Building Trades Department of the American Federation of Labor will open in Denver, Col., next Monday.

A new law passed by the State of Oklahoma orders that all school books issued to the children of that state must bear the union label in the future.

William T. Lewis, of Columbus, O., who was appointed state labor commissioner of Ohio, is a brother of Tom L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers.

Seamen's compensation laws, for injuries received in the service of shipowners, are in operation in Austria, Belgium, Denmark, France, Germany, Russia, Italy and Spain.

Secretary of Commerce and Labor Strauss has promulgated rules to put into effect the government employees' compensation act. More than 75,000 employees come under the provisions of that act.

The appellate division of the New York supreme court, second department, has decided that a contract made by a corporation with a labor union, whereby only union men shall be employed, should be upheld as valid.

The Cigar Makers' International Union of America will not hold a convention this year. An amendment to the constitution designed to make a convention possible, has been defeated in the referendum by 306 votes.

The Akela mill in Pasco, R. I., which has been doing for more than one year, resumed operations this week giving employment to about 100 hands. In connection with the mill the erection of a large dye house plant has been begun.

The Iver Johnson arms and cycle works in Fitchburg, Mass., which have been running for a considerable period on a five-day-a-week schedule, have resumed work on full time in all their departments. More than six hundred men are affected by this change.

Boycotting is prohibited by law in Colorado, Illinois and Indiana. Blacklisting is prohibited by law in Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Texas, Utah, Virginia, Washington and Wisconsin.

In California, Colorado, Connecticut, Idaho, Indiana, Kansas, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Missouri, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Porto Rico and Wisconsin it is unlawful for an employer to exact an agreement, either written or verbal, from an employee not to join any labor organization.

There is a movement in the east on the part of a number of labor unions to eliminate from their respective constitutions the clause which bars the discussion of politics at meetings of the organizations. The leaders in this direction assert that they are moved to this action by the changed conditions in the country and declare that such a step must be taken for the better protection and the welfare of organized labor.

DEPUTY POSTMASTER GONE; $3,000 SHORTAGE ALLEGED.

Congressman Landis' Lieutenant Missing From Wash., Ind.

Wabash, Ind., Nov. 25.—Claude D. Stitt, deputy postmaster, is missing and a shortage of probably over $3,000 is alleged. Stitt was a well known young politician and is of the best known and wealthiest families in Wabash. He was Congressman Landis' main lieutenant, and when Postmaster Parmenter was named Stitt was made deputy. As his bond is for but $2,500, the postmaster may lose the excess. The money was missing from the stamp funds.

IN POLITICS

President-elect Taft will go to New York early in December to attend a banquet of the North Carolina society. He will remain in New York about a week as a guest of his brother and will then go south to remain until near the date of his inauguration as president.

Five democratic governors-elect are to be feted by the Iroquois club of Chicago at its Jackson day banquet in January. The governors-elect who have accepted the invitation to the banquet are John Burke of North Dakota, John A. Johnson of Minnesota, Judson Harmon of Ohio, Thomas Marshall of Indiana, and Ashton C. Schallenger of Nebraska.

Some of the leading democratic politicians are of the opinion that Thomas R. Marshall, democratic governor-elect of Indiana, will have some advantage as a democratic presidential possibility in 1912 over Governor Johnson of Minnesota, three times elected as a democrat, and Judson Harmon, the democratic governor-elect of Ohio. Their judgment is based chiefly on the fact that the terms of both Johnson and Harmon will expire two years hence and they will be compelled to be re-elected to retain their prestige.

The temporary roll call of the house of representatives for the sixty-first congress has been completed and published. It shows that the next house will consist of 219 republicans and 172 democrats, a total of 391, as against a total of 389 in the house during the last session, of whom 225 were republicans and 164 democrats. The result is a net loss of four from the republican side and a net gain of six on the democratic side, the discrepancy being due to present vacancies. All told, the democrats gained seventeen districts and the republicans twelve.

NO SNOW FOR THANKSGIVING? Forecast indicates That Usual Fall Will Be Missing.

Something unexpected in the calculations of the weather bureau will have to happen within the next twenty-four hours if Hammond and vicinity is to enjoy the usual Thanksgiving snow. There were vague rumors yesterday that a howling gale was headed for Lake county, and that it carried with it a snowstorm of first dimensions and a decided fall of temperature. But Forecaster Cox couldn't see it that way last night. He scanned the reports from all parts of the country—west, northwest and southwest—and then prognosticated as follows:

"There will be no marked change in the weather in Lake county for at least twenty-four hours. Tomorrow will be partly cloudy and slightly cooler, and conditions probably will become slightly unsettled again Thursday. There will be fresh westerly winds which will become variable tomorrow night."

Head of Spirit Fruit Society Dead.

JACOB BEILHART

Jacob Beilhart, founder and head of the "Spirit Fruit" society, died of peritonitis yesterday on the society's farm at Wooster Lake, near Ingleside, Ill. The co-operative sect, bereft of its leader, now is threatened with dissolution. The passing of Jacob, as he was known affectionately by his 8,000 followers, closed an illness of only a few days. He had known scarcely a day's sickness since boyhood and as feeling hale and hearty up to Thursday night. He spent that day on business in Chicago. In the evening he was taken seriously ill and the following day Dr. Palmer of Gray's Lake was summoned.

On Saturday the leader's condition was so serious, that Dr. J. B. Foley of Waukegan was called in consultation. It was thought he was suffering from appendicitis, and an operation was performed. The appendix, however, was found normal. Jacob continued to sink and died yesterday afternoon. After an autopsy it was stated that he had died of peritonitis aggravated by blood poisoning.

UP AND DOWN IN INDIANA

OPTION LAW IN FORCE.

Governor Hanly yesterday issued a proclamation declaring all the laws enacted by the last special session of the legislature in force on and after the hour of 10:45 a. m. on Nov. 20, 1908.

ARE ALL FOR SHIVELY.

That Benjamin F. Shively will have the solid support of the democratic representatives and state senators from this district when his name goes before the next legislature as a candidate for the United States senatorship was shown today at an informal gathering and dinner given at the Oliver hotel in South Bend, when practically all the men who will vote in Mr. Shively's behalf were present.

DROUTH BROKEN AT LAST.

The indications are that the record-breaking drought in this county for several months has been broken. It has been raining in Frankfort during the day. The precipitation was heavy. Tonight it has rained steadily for two hours with indication of continuing until morning.

TOWN HAS OIL FEVER.

Jamestown is interested in what is happening at the Standard Oil pumping station near that town. Strangers investigate the price of land near that plant, take options and depart. Recently a contract was made to drill some wells, said to be for water.

WELLS NOT A CANDIDATE.

Friends of William E. Wells of Ft. Wayne, recently elected representative to the legislature from Allen county, declare he is not a candidate for the speakership of the house. Mr. Wells is out of the city at present.

EX-POSTMASTER POISONED.

Michael H. Kennedy of Lafayette, president of the Kennedy-King Saddle works and ex-postmaster of this city, is critically ill at his home from the effects of blood poisoning and his death is hourly expected. Mr. Kennedy had a bunion on his foot and tried to treat it himself. Infection followed.

ELECTION MAKES A DIFFERENCE. Since election many men at Ft. Wayne have recently been re-employed by the Pennsylvania railroad. The recent additions to the force at the shops in this city is estimated at 300. With an additional increase, which will shortly be made, the total number will reach 400 men, or an addition to the monthly pay rolls of close to $16,000.

BAR ENDORSES LAMB.

Favored alike by both republicans and democrats, a resolution giving John E. Lamb of Terre Haute the hearty endorsement and support of the Vigo county bar association in his race for the senatorship from Indiana, was unanimously adopted at a special non-partisan meeting held in the circuit courtroom this morning.

TO EDUCATE CHINKS.

Earlham college at Richmond is considering a proposition to bring to this country for the purpose of educating several Chinese students. The expense is not great and the experiment may be tried with two or three students at the start.

WATER WORKS CLOSED.

Bloomington's water works system was shut down tonight, and there will be no water until the big reservoirs, fed by springs, are filled. The pumps were kept going as long as there was any water left.

AUTO USED AS EVIDENCE.

Evidence to prove that an automobile was seen to speed down the Guinness road, near Laporte, on the morning of the fire and evidence also to show that the fire had been seen as early as 3 o'clock were offered today at the trial of Ray Lamphere for the murder of Mrs. Belle Guinness and her three children.

WOULD DIVIDE COUNTY.

Sentiment at Anderson is being agitated for a division of Madison county and the creation of a new county of the territory north of the south line of Monroe and Pipe Creek townships, with Alexandria as the county seat. Nearly one-half of the population of this county lies north of this line, and furnishes the largest proportion of the county officers.

CURE IT IN ONE DAY.

Coughs and Colds Disappear Like Magic When Hyomel is Used.

If the thousands of people who suffer from hacking coughs and agonizing colds would arouse themselves sufficiently to follow this advice, they would cease to complain within twenty-four hours.

Here is the advice, if you take it and you are afterwards sorry that you did, it won't cost you a penny:

Go to Summers Pharmacy, the druggist, and purchase from him a Hyomel (pronounced High-o-me) outfit. It will only cost you $1.00. Take it home; use it according to directions, and if it does not cure your cough or cold, take it back, and Mr. Summers will refund the purchase price.

When you use Hyomel you don't swallow nauseating drugs. You simply breathe in the soothing pleasant and antiseptic Hyomel air through the little pocket inhaler that comes with each outfit. As this medicated air passes over the inflamed parts, relief comes almost at once, and cure follows.

Hyomel is also guaranteed by Summers to cure catarrh, croup, grip and asthma.
