

FROM NEIGHBORING TOWN AND CITY

NEWS OF THE COUNTY SEAT

Study Club Meets.

The Woman's Study club met at the public library assembly room yesterday afternoon, and heard an interesting program prepared by its members. Mrs. Mattie Gibbs read a very interesting and instructive paper on Spinoza. Mrs. Calista Peterson's paper on Domestic science was ably prepared and as well received by the club members, and one of the best meetings of the season is reported.

Many Family Dinner Parties.

Many family dinner parties will be given in Crown Point tomorrow in honor of Thanksgiving day, and the out of town relatives will be here in full force. They day in Crown Point will be spent as usual with church services in the morning, with the regular Thanksgiving spreads at noon. The football game between Lowell and the local team in the afternoon and the dance in the evening will round out the day's program.

Reitmans Dissolve Partnership.

The Reitman Bros., who have conducted a grocery store here for years, dissolved partnership on Monday and the business will be conducted henceforth by John Reitman. Henry will move with his family to Texas, starting the first of next week.

Steel Fixtures Arriving.

The steel furniture has begun to arrive for the court house and work will be commenced soon on its installation. Placing the steel fixtures and the office furniture will be the wind-up of the long job that was commenced over eighteen months ago, and in a short time the workmen and mechanics will have left the building as completed.

The county commissioners were in session yesterday and spent the day in viewing roads and bridges and in matters pertaining to the election and the contesting of some of the candidates.

The football game tomorrow ought to draw a good sized crowd as the teams are evenly matched and the interest is at fever heat over the outcome.

Marshall Young and a force of men have given Main street a dressing down with the road scraper recently and have taken off considerable dirt and refuse.

The Q. A. M. club met at the home of Mrs. Emma Krost on Main street last evening and enjoyed a delightful session. The honors were awarded to Mrs. Jules Rockwell, Mrs. Howell Parry and Mrs. John Bailey. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. The club meets in two weeks at the home of Mrs. John Bailey.

The Independent Order of Foresters held their regular meeting at their lodge room last evening with a good attendance present.

Attorney Schottler and Sam Abelman of Hammond were transacting business in Crown Point yesterday.

Crown Point hasn't had any "tag day" as yet, but it has been suggested that the ladies of the town get busy and tag the various citizens for donations to build the Crown Point-Gary Interurban line. That way might bring the project to a little nearer conclusion and be a good cause at the same time.

Mrs. William Forney Harris has returned to her home in South Bend after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. William Parry for a few days.

Attorney Frank Gavit of Whiting transacted business here yesterday.

There will be a special meeting of

DAYS OF DIZZINESS

Come to Hundreds of Hammond People.

There are days of dizziness; Spells of headache, sideache, backache; Sometimes rheumatic pains; Often urinary disorders. All tell you plainly the kidneys are sick.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.

Here is proof in Hammond.

Mrs. E. Earl, of 408 Michigan avenue, Hammond, Ind., says: "About a year ago I began suffering from kidney disease, brought on by a cold. I thought the trouble would disappear in a short time, but instead my condition grew gradually worse. I had dizzy spells and headaches, was easily tired and was gradually breaking down in general health. The kidney secretions caused me much annoyance by their irregular action and although I used many remedies, the annoyance did not disappear. I finally began using Doan's Kidney Pills and they afforded me prompt and genuine relief. I continued their use until I had taken several boxes to be sure that the cure would be permanent. I am certain that there is nothing better to use for diseased kidneys than Doan's Kidney Pills. They can be procured at Bicknell & Co.'s Drug store."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—make no other.

the library benefit arrangement committee at the public library this evening, and the chairman requests the attendance of every member of the different committees.

The postoffice will be closed after 10 o'clock tomorrow on account of a legal holiday.

Don't try to eat it all tomorrow. Remember there are fifty different ways of cooking and serving it, according to the cook book.

Library Benefit Bazaar.

"What is it held for?" "To buy more books for the public library."

"When?" "Dec. 11th."

"Where?" "At the court house, in the basement. Go in at the south door, and you'll be there."

All articles that are made for the bazaar should be taken to the library and left with Miss Hansen as soon as completed.

Take home a chicken for your wife to cook.

A can of fruit tucked under your arm "Twirl pay for a volume full of charm. And don't forget the pickle jar. And jelly that is made from fruit, not tar.

All on sale at the bazaar Dec. 11th.
