STOP DRINKING

It was formerly customary for the habitual drinker to take the pledge regularly, sometimes once a year, and sometimes in every fit of remorse that followed his debauches, and then—break it.

But now it is gradually dawning on the world that pledges do no stop drunkenness. When a man takes a pledge voluntarily, he expects to keep it. Every man expects to keep his word and every broken pledge costs the drunkard many a headache. But he cannot help it. He fights as long as he can, then succumbs to the craving. The nervous system of the habitual drinker is diseased and he must have treatment that will cure this condition.

Orrine is sold under a positive guarantee to cure the drink habit or the money will be refunded. No other treatment for the liquor habit is sold under such a liberal guarantee.

Orrine is prepared in two forms: No. 1 a powder, perfectly tasteless and colorless, which can be given secretly in any food or drink. Orrine No. 2 is in pill form, for those who wish to be cured of the habit, and it should be taken by every one who swears off.

No matter which form of Orrine is used the guarantee is the same. The price is $1.00 per box, mailed in plain sealed wrapper upon receipt of price. Write for free booklet on "How to Cure Drunkenness" (mailed in plain sealed envelope). The Orrine Co., Washington, D. C. Orrine is sold by Lion Store, Pharmacy.

THE LAMB AND BRUTE TONIGHT.

Tonight the Imperial Stock company will be seen in the feature bill of the engagement, and in spite of the warnings extended by the management to all nervous or easily frightened persons, the play, "The Lamb and the Brute," promises to attract a full house. It is said to be sensational to a degree, depending entirely upon its morbid and gruesome features for success, and it is freely acknowledged to be much worse in this respect than Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. An actual hanging scene is introduced in one of the acts, a regulation scaffold being carried especially for the play.
