

A DAY IN GARY LAND

GARY'S FIRST FIREMAN RECEIVES APPOINTMENT.

William Frazier, Formerly of Gary Casino, Was Employed on Police Force for Short Time.

William Frazier, formerly of the Gary Casino, has now accepted a position as fireman at the new fire station, being at the corner of Thirtieth avenue and Washington street. Mr. Frazier for the past few days has been assisting Chief Martin in the work at the police station and he has proven to be an able officer. Mr. Frazier is the first regular fireman to be appointed in Gary.

GARY POLICE ASKED TO GIVE ASSISTANCE.

Chicago Police Want to Locate Charles F. Christensen, Who Is Wanted for Wife Abandonment.

The Gary police have been asked to try to locate Charles F. Christensen, alias Johnson, by the Chicago police, who is wanted by the police of that city for wife abandonment. Christensen deserted his wife and three children two weeks ago, leaving them in straightened circumstances. He is 46 years old, and as he is employed as a shipbuilder, it is thought he may be located about the harbor at Gary.

GARY OFFICIALS PLAN FINE FIRE EQUIPMENT

Look About For Man Who Can Lead Fire Fighters of City.

BOSTON MAN RECOMMENDED

Officials Are in Chicago Today to Buy New Equipment for the Plant.

After months of delay, the Gary town officials have at last taken steps which will lead to the organization of one of the most efficient fire departments in Indiana. The city which now has the poorest fire protection will soon have the best.

That the city officials are determined to have their fire fighting force under the command of an experienced fire fighter is shown by the fact that the office of chief of the fire department is not to be disposed of in Gary as a juicy political plum, but is to go to a fire fighter of recognized ability.

The two candidates who are being considered, and from whom the selection will be made, are Joseph Weber, the assistant chief of the fire department of Boston, Mass., and Joseph Fealey, formerly a captain in the Chicago fire department and now a manager in Montgomery Ward's big mail order house.

Will Be High Priced Men. It is expected that if either of these men are secured for Gary, they will demand a large amount of money for their services. It is thought by the members of the town board, however, that the money will be well spent if the fire department of the new steel city is organized by an experienced fire fighter who will save the city from many of the costly mistakes that a young and growing city would be likely to make.

Joseph Fealey of Chicago is highly recommended by chief of the Chicago Fire department James Horan, who says there is not a better or more scientific fire fighter in Chicago than Fealey.

Chief of the Gary department will be selected at the next meeting of the town board and five regular city firemen will be hired at the same time.

Want Experienced Men. It is the purpose of the town trustees to hire men who have either had some experience in fighting fires or who appear to be susceptible to training. It will be a hard task for the new chief to take green men and make firemen out of them, and so it will be the purpose of the town board to give him the best material possible.

When the personnel of the new department is determined, the next step will be to provide the equipment with which to fight fires. The first thing that will be done will be to erect a temporary fire department in the rear of the Victoria hotel, which is on Broadway.

The new fire station will be built for the purpose of fighting fires in the business and residence district in the first subdivision. In this locality is the greatest amount of property to be protected and it will therefore be given the best protection.

Buy New Equipment. The new fire station will be 24 by 40 feet and will be equipped with a new hose cart and 1,200 feet of hose. This, in addition to the 600 feet which the city now has, will make a total of 1,800 feet of hose with which the department can fight fires. This will enable the department to run four lines of hose to any fire in the business district.

There will be a horse and a regular drop harness to go with the new outfit and this is expected to be sufficient for the present needs or until the new fire chief can organize the department and make known his further needs.

President T. E. Knotts and Trustee M. A. Caldwell went to Chicago today for the purpose of purchasing the extra equipment, and they outlined the plans for the new fire department.

For the time being, the south side is to be protected by the chemical outfit, which will be housed in a little shed at Thirtieth avenue and Washington street.

Man Instantly Available. A man will be hired to stay with the chemical outfit all of the time and a telephone will be placed at his bed so that he will be instantly available in case of fire.

It is hoped that when the provision is made for the organization of the new fire department that the insurance men will promptly revise the insurance risks and that the rate will be made as low as they should be in a city where there are so many fine fire proof buildings as in Gary.

HEARD BY RUBE.

Tell your troubles to the family doctors. He will sympathize with you for $2 per throw.

Gary is to take on more airs and soon will have an organized fire company that will be able to protect the city of its fire fiend.

From the number of plate glass windows that have been smashed of late it seems that this would be an active field for the insurance agent.

The local police have secured more evidence and it is likely that a roundup of several more blind pigs will take place in the near future.

A few big damage suits is the only measure that will wake up the Lake Shore railroad to the fact they had better provide their exits to their elevated platform with lights.

Beginning tomorrow the Chicago, Lake Shore and South Bend Interurban railroad will commence a forty-minute schedule between Gary and Hammond. Important news, if true.

What's the matter with some enthusiastic person in Gary conferring with Uncle Andrew Carnegie and inviting him to erect a library in Gary.

Gary's first fire chief, according to all reports, will be one that is thoroughly familiar with the business.

The Calumet township remonstrance cases attract a good deal of attention in Gary. Important news, if true.

Any man who will crawl a half a mile through the grass on his stomach to take a shot at a flock of decoys certainly ought to be presented with a live one.

There were certainly people in Gary who refused to be thankful the other day just because the baseball season was not on.

GARY BRIEFS.

Fred Baldwin, the local jeweler, was in Chicago yesterday on business.

FOR SALE—Cheap, if taken at once, complete set furniture, etc., for 4 rooms, second flat in rear at Eleventh streets and Washington avenue. Inquire at above address. 27-3t

M. Sax of South Chicago was in Gary inspecting his new building, which he is having erected on the corner of Fifth avenue and Virginia street. The building is now being finished off and will be completed in two or three weeks.

No other store like the R. & S. M. J. Friedlander secured a permit yesterday for a store and flat building to be erected on the corner of Adams and Eighth streets. The building will be a two-story store and flat building and will be constructed of brick. It is thought that the building will cost about $4,000, and the work will start at once.

R. G. Parry spent Thanksgiving day with his parents in Crown Point.

Attorney J. F. Lewis Meyer of the Chicago, Lake Shore and South Bend railroad was in Gary yesterday on business.

Attorney D. C. Atkinson of Hammond was in Gary yesterday signing one of the waiver sheets for a street that has been completed recently.

Lewis' Skating Rink at East Chicago will be open for skating on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 28, and Sunday afternoon and night, Nov. 29. The rink's ball Saturday night will not interfere with the skating on Sunday. The floor will be resurfaced on Sunday morning and everything will be in readiness by 2 p. m.

City Clerk C. O. Holmes and family took dinner with Mr. Holmes' parents in Lowell Thanksgiving day.

Joseph Goodman of Chicago was a business visitor in Gary yesterday. Mr. Goodman came to discuss plans for his new building with Building Commissioner William Kliver.

All millinery reduced to half by the R. & S. only.

GARY CHURCH NEWS.

The Japanese committee of the Women's association of the Congregational church will give a skating party at the Gary Casino next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the new church building.

There will be races for old and young, for greenhorns and experienced skaters and many other special features to the entertainment of those who attend a large crowd is expected, as these parties given by the ladies of the church have become very popular.

The members of the Swedish Lutheran congregation in Gary will hereafter hold regular weekly services on Sunday afternoon at their chapel on Jefferson street, near Sixth avenue. Rev. D. A. Lofgren of Michigan City has been conducting the services at Gary, and it is thought he will become the permanent pastor of the congregation at this place.

The work on both of Gary's new chapels, the Presbyterian and Congregational, are progressing nicely at the present time, the contractors being able to make great headway during the present fine weather.

Work will be commenced immediately on the new parish home for the Rev. Father Francis Jansen, which was lately destroyed by fire. Funds have been collected for the new building and it is expected the contract will be let within a short time.

Welcome Words To Women

If, you are an intelligent thinking woman, in need of relief from weakness, nervousness, pain and suffering, then it means much to you that there is one tried and true honest square-deal medicine of KNOWN COMPOSITION, sold by druggists for the cure of woman's ills. The makers of

for the cure of weak, nervous, run-down, over-worked, debilitated, pain-racked women, knowing this medicine to be made up of ingredients, every one of which has the strongest possible endorsement of the leading and standard authorities of the several schools of practice, are perfectly willing, and in fact, are only too glad to print, as they do, the formula, or list of ingredients, of which it is composed, in plain English, on every bottle-wrapper. Is this not a significant fact worthy of careful consideration?

Women use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in preference to all other advocated medicines sold by druggists for their peculiar weaknesses and ailments because it is

THE ONE REMEDY which contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs, is not anything like advertised secret compounds or patent medicines.

THE ONE REMEDY for women devised by a regularly graduated physician of vast experience in woman's ailments and carefully adapted to her delicate organism.

THE ONE REMEDY good enough that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient on its outside bottle-wrapper.

It's foolish—often dangerous to be over-persuaded into accepting a secret nostrum in place of this time-proven medicine of KNOWN COMPOSITION. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

IMITATION OF DUCKS HUNTER'S DOWNFALL

Blazes Away at Flock of Decoys on the Calumet River.

HIS AIM WAS VERY GOOD

Frank Sutphens of Gary, Crack Minn. rod of Town, Is Very Busy Explaining.

One of the best stories that has been heard about Gary for the last few days was learned at the local police station when Frank Sutphens, who is reputed to be one of Gary's crack shots, wandered into the station last evening with his gun over his shoulder.

Sutphens was weary and footsore for he had been on a duck hunt and the many weary miles that he had covered that day would have done proud a man much less in size than his proportions.

The scene of the little tragedy was enacted near Miller Station yesterday afternoon, on the banks of the Calumet river. Sutphens had trudged the sifting sands all morning, but nary the shining feathers of a mallard came across his vision. Sutphens was growing desperate. To go back to Gary empty-handed would be a breach of hunters' etiquette that he had never been subjected to before. Even the sparrows and snowbirds as they flitted from bush to bush laughed and chirped at the noted minnow as he passed by.

Suddenly and without warning, Sutphens heard the squeaking of a mallard. Sinking to his knees he crawled to the waters edge and there before his very eyes he saw a flock of seven mallards feeding near the banks, a few hundred yards down the river. "My kingdom for a mallard," said Sutphens, at his jaws closed together and the taste of the dainty morsel in his mouth sent a delicious feeling through his frame that set his heart throbbing.

Sutphens cast another loving glance down the river. The mallards were still there. Their squaking increased and with a firm resolve Sutphens went down on his knees and started to crawl through the tall dry grass. Falling into mudrat holes and being pierced by a thousand sandburs was nothing to the determined hunter. The journey was a long and tiresome one and as the huge frame of Sutphens wriggled through the grass, he looked like an ominous looking monster. More than half the distance was covered when Sutphens was compelled to rest. A peep at the water's edge revealed the fact that the ducks were still there. The rest of the journey was made without event and now everything was in readiness for the fatal shot which was either to fill the family larder, or necessitate a diet of pork and beans for the balance of the week.

His Aim Was Good.

Sutphens looked his gun over carefully and raised it to his shoulder. He took long aim, but the barrel shook like a dead limb moved by the current in the river. "Till take no chances," said Sutphens, as he steadied his gun on a decayed stump. Bang! went the gun and over went the prostrate form of the hunter. Clearing the sand and smoke from his eyes Sutphens looked out on the river. The mallards were still there, but, oh, my, in such a deplorable condition. The bullet-ridden decoys bobbed up and down upon the waters of the river as a stern voice called out from a distance.

"Who in h— has shot at my decoys!"

"This is no place for me," said Sutphens, and the last that was seen of the crack shot was a streak of flying sand as he tore down the river bank and disappeared into a clump of underbrush.

The Difference.

The woman who remains single all her life because the only man she ever loved died in the flower of his youth is regarded as a heroine. The man who remains a bachelor because the darling of his heart went to an early grave is generally supposed to be a fool.

REPORT OF ATTORNEYS IS HEARD.

saw the impracticability of attempting to get the legislature to establish a court at Gary now, and that it would be better for Gary to join in a harmony program now, and then be assured of the support of the Lake county bar in a year or two when there will be a better argument in favor of an independent Gary court.

The fact is pointed out that Lake county is keeping faith with Crown Point by favoring a continuous court there in return for Crown Point's support of Hammond's effort to locate a superior court here several years ago and that the same good faith would be in evidence later on when Gary has more reason to ask for a court of its own.

McCracken Opposes Persistently. H. F. McCracken of Gary seems to be the most persistent in his opposition to the program which was outlined by the committee last night. Mr. McCracken is convinced that if Hammond is given an additional Judge and Crown Point is given a continuous court, Gary will forever lose its opportunity to have an independent court.

The attorneys from the rest of the country think that Gary is wrong in his belief and the ability of the members of the Lake County Bar association to get together will depend upon their ability to convince the Gary lawyers that the success of the present plan for relieving the congestion of the courts will not mean the death of their ambitions.

The meeting of the committee was called together by Attorney Joseph Ibach. Johannes Kopelke, of Crown Point, was made the chairman of the committee. Attorney P. A. Parks of Indiana Harbor, was made secretary.

The following were the attorneys who were present and the name of the towns or bar associations they represented: Hobart—Attorney R. R. Peddicord. Crown Point—Attorney Johannes Kopelke. Whitling—Attorney Frank Gavit. Lowell—Attorney Schuyler C. Dwyer. Hammond—Attorney J. G. Ibach. East Chicago—Attorney Abe Ottenheimer.

Indiana Harbor—Attorney P. A. Parks.

Overwork and White Plague.

One of the speakers at the tuberculosis congress laid emphasis upon the part played by overwork and nerve strain in the promotion of tuberculosis. It is well for the people to be made aware of the fact, as modern science is teaching them that tuberculosis is a social problem as much as a medical one. It is possibly the disease least related to drugs and the most closely allied to the facts and conditions of human association. The run-down system is the field for the propagation of the tuberculosis germ. Its vernacular appellation, the white death, is more than a picturesque description; it is a literal description of the disease that makes woeful ravage with humanity. As soon as the system loses its normal tone and vitality declines, the forces of disintegration become active. None of these is more pronounced than the tubular.

A Worthy Desire.

An ambitious young Chicagoan recently called upon a publisher of novels in that city, to whom he imparted confidentially the information that he had decided to "write a book" and that he would be pleased to afford the publisher the chance to bring it out.

"May I venture to inquire as to the nature of the book you propose to write?" asked the publisher, very politely.

"Oh," came in an off-hand way from the aspirant for fame, "I think of doing something on the line of 'Les Misérables,' only livelier, you know!"—Lippincott's.

"You plant out?"—The Delineator.

If you want to, but I saw Mr. Emerson answered: "You can believe that the sister who was willing him that God planned her being influenced by his 'He Knew' Society."

Society is always being condemned by those who are unable to break in.

"CO-OP." STORE IS ARRANGING OPENING

Foreigners Waiting Until Dec. 5 to Buy Their Supplies.

(Special to THE TIMES.)

Indiana Harbor, Nov. 28.—Residents of the foreign neighborhoods in Indiana Harbor are waiting until we open our new store on Deodar street before they purchase their winter supplies," said L. W. Saric, president of the Lake County Department Store company, the organization of which was recently chronicled in THE TIMES. Mr. Saric said he could show several instances in which foreign residents of the city were going about with worn out shoes, merely that they might add their coins to those that are to fill the coffers of the new company on their opening night, Dec. 5.

All of the stock for the company has been subscribed, and is owned by about eighty boarding bosses, or landlords. Each of these stock holders control from twenty to thirty laborers, drawing their wages at the end of each week, deducting a certain amount for board, and assisting in the spending of the balance. The new store will therefore draw the trade of about 2,000 foreigners from the stores now being operated by Jewish and American merchants of the city. The Roumanians, who are the chief purchasers, are good spenders, and the co-operative concern will doubtless find itself on the high road to success long before the close of their first month's business.

Manager Nick Meyer is in Chicago this week, completing his purchase of the stock. A line of material valued at from $7,000 to $10,000 is to be purchased, and will be placed upon the display shelves immediately upon its arrival. Bolt after bolt of gaudy and bright cloths have been ordered, and everything designed to attract the color loving eye of the foreign element will be added to the stock. No groceries or liquors are to be sold, the departments of the enterprise being confined to hardware, furniture and drygoods, as well as a full line of clothes for all patrons, large and small.

In addition to this, a new feature is to be installed. A medical and drug department, in charge of a competent pharmacist, who, by the way, must be an able linguist, will comprise this section of the project. Here foreigners feeling somewhat indisposed may undergo a first-class medical examination at a moderate cost, extremely lower than the usual price charged by physicians. First-class drugs and patent medicines are to be sold, and the department promises to be one of the most productive in the store.

President Saric will employ no one but persons able to speak two or more languages. Customers of eight different nationalities are to be satisfied, and Mr. Saric understands the necessity of having some one conversant with their mother tongues. English, German, Roumanian, Croatian, Lithuanian, Polish, Slavish, Serbian and Hungarian speakers will intermingle freely and spend their money with their fellow countrymen. The new enterprise recognizes the merits of proper advertising and will use the columns of THE TIMES freely in their advertising. Contracts for full and half page advertisements are about to be placed, which should add materially to the welfare of the new corporation while in its incipient period.
