ENJOYABLE MEETING.

The members and guests of the Hammond Woman's club spent a very delightful afternoon at a regular meeting of the club, held Saturday, Nov. 28, at Masonic Temple. After a short business session Mrs. Minnie Bach, president of the club, presiding, Mrs. Jessie Hower, chairman of the committee on domestic science, took charge of the meeting, and the following program was given:

"The Bohemian Girl" a piano duett, by Miss Eugenia and Dollie Knotts, was beautifully rendered and greatly enjoyed by all. They gave "Danse Ecossaise" in response to a hearty encore.

Mrs. Minnie O. Kline, the delegate to the annual convention of the Indiana State Federation of Woman's clubs, held in the assembly hall of the Claypool hotel, Indianapolis, Oct. 27, and 28, 1908, then gave a very full and brilliant report of this meeting. A few of the special points brought out in her report may be of interest to all, showing along what lines women of the day are working. The keynote of the convention seemed to be for the betterment of the home, state and nation along practical lines.

The federation stands against "child labor" and for the uplifting of the children, the protection of the public health, the necessity of woman's education along hygienic lines. Mrs. Kate Upson Clark of Brooklyn, Mrs. Emma E. Spohn, Mrs. Charles Fairbanks, Dr. J. U. Hurty secretary of the board of health, gave very interesting talks along these lines, and also what further state laws were needed for the protection of public health.

The Woman's clubs of Indiana endorse the efforts of the Red Cross society in its efforts for the suppression of tuberculosis and will heartily cooperate with them.

Household economics and art were among the topics discussed and enjoyed. The social side of the convention was not forgotten, several receptions and teas being mentioned.

The report was so well delivered that all present were able to hear and enjoy it.

Mrs. Josephine Reiter gave a very interesting paper on the "Science of Cookery," food values and their sources. With a classification of food principles, they being five in number. First, water; second, mineral matter; third, carbohydrates; fourth, fats and oils; fifth, proteins; the intelligent knowledge of the need and use of these making up hygienic cookery. She spoke of the difficult task of the modern woman who induces her husband to eat the things he does not like, but the kind of food his temperament, his work, and his hours require.

Mrs. Annie Hunt gave a very interesting facts about coffee stating that it was native Ceyloner though now grown in most all tropical countries. The stimulating quality of coffee is due to caffeine earth, an essential oil, the best made coffee being that in which the caffeine and essential oil are retained without the tannic acid being extracted. Coffee, of itself, has no nourishing qualities and adds no real strength to the body.

Mrs. Ethel Herrington, assisted by Mrs. Miama Hammond, then demonstrated the making of Swedish trimbles, giving in a very pleasing and concise manner the formula for the same. The ladies of the committee were very fortunate in securing a real southern colored antie? who explained the secret of "beaten biscuit." For Joe's the hom' family she beat two hundred time, en' for company she' hundred tim' or mo'.

As those served to the ladies were so delicious they must have been. Sho' beaten' five hundred tim' or mo'.

Dressed in spotless white, wearing dainty caps and aprons, the ladies of the committee then served all present with beaten biscuit, chicken timbles and coffee, proving by their perfect service the excellence of the tested recipes. The ladies composing the committee of domestic science and to whom all present were grateful for, one of the most pleasing sessions of the club for this season are: Mrs. Jessie Hower, chairman; Mrs. Mary Knotts, vice chairman; Mrs. Eleanor Deming, Mrs. Miama Hammond, Mrs. Katherine Henry, Mrs. Ethel Herrington, Mrs. Anna Hunt, Mrs. Bertha Hutton, Mrs. Minnie Bach, Mrs. Ethel Moller, Mrs. Josephine Reiter, Mrs. Helen Twiss, Mrs. Stella Wilcox and Mrs. Anna Wilson.

The Ladies Aid society of the First Baptist church met at the home of W. H. Binder in Williams street last week and business of great importance was transacted. The final arrangements were made for a bazaar to be given in the church room, Thursday afternoon and evening, Dec. 3. There will be a large display of articles, both useful and ornamental, to see which will help Christmas shoppers. A light luncheon will also be served for 15 cents. A cordial invitation to attend is extended to all.

HAVE ELABORATE RECEPTION.

The senior division of the Young Men's department of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school will hold a banquet and reception next Thursday evening in the church room. The affair promises to be one of the leading social events in the church and it is expected that forty or fifty young men will be present. During and following the banquet, short talks will be given by Attorney L. B. Bomberger, the Rev. Switzer, Professor Spohn, Charles Surridge and Mr. Allee and Mr. Deaver, teacher of the class. Other attractive numbers on the program will be vocal solos by Professor Clark Leaming and R. E. Garber, and a violin selection by Mr. Basil Walker.

HAVE PLEASANT MEETING.

The pupils of Miss Elizabeth Webber met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Ort in Plummer avenue, Saturday afternoon and enjoyed the regular meeting. There was a large attendance of the young people present who rehearsed the program for the recital which they will hold in December. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in an enjoyable social way after which dainty refreshments were served. Another meeting of the club will be held at the Roth residence in Ann street in two weeks.

ONE CERTAINTY

Some Hammond People Fully Realize it Now.

When the back aches from kidney

When urinary troubles annoy you, There's a certain way to find relief: A sure way to be cured.

Doan's Kidney Pills will do it. Hammond people endorse this claim.

Mrs. Maggie Heckelman, 114 Truman avenue, Hammond, Ind., says: "For years I suffered from kidney disease. The pains in my back were almost unendurable, and there was a feeling that I can hardly describe, a sort of dull dragging, bearing down pain that at times was terrible. I had no strength, and in the morning when I first got up would be so tired, weak and languid that I could hardly do my household work. Whenever I caught a cold it would settle in my kidneys thus aggravating the trouble. A friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I bought a box at Bicknell & Co's drug store. Before I had taken half of the contents, I noticed a great improvement in my condition and I steadily grew better until at last I was cured entirely. I have not had any return of the trouble since, although the cure was performed several months ago."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

ACCEPT TURNER'S BOND

Board of Public Works

Holds Regular Meeting Today.

The board of public works at its regular session this morning accepted the bond of A. M. Turner for the necessary grading to be done in his first and second additions. Ever since Mr. Turner closed his deal with the Erie Railroad company for the Calumet avenue property, he has been pushing the preliminary work with the idea of getting the subdivisions into proper shape as soon as possible.

The contract of O'Shea and Shea for the Wood street sewer was accepted. The clerk was instructed to advertise for bids on fifty tons of egg and range hard coal to be delivered to the various fire stations.

POLITICS HURT CONCERT

But Hammond Male Chorus Expects to Have Record-Breaker in May.

The Hammond Male Chorus realized quite a tidy sum at its recent concert and it has already begun work on the second concert to be given in the Towle Opera House in May.

It proposes to give the best concert at that time that has ever been heard here, and plans are under way for some original features.

The financial panic and the distractions of a national political campaign seem to have no effect on the devotion and enthusiasm of this organization.

FIRST PAY DAY SINCE

PANIC, WAS QUIET ONE

The first payday at the Standard Steel Car company's plant since the recent panic was a quiet one. The police anticipated some trouble but did not have any. There was a little drunkenness but the saloons were not as well filled as usual.

It is rumored that the first payday did not result in as large a distribution of wages as was expected on account of the fact that many of the workmen were urged to pay their accumulated rent to the Standard company before settling other bills.

The spirit of economy seems to be on the settlement and the people there are saving the money instead of spending it foolishly. The saloons, of which many are run by irresponsible and lawless men, have not yet become the centers of crime that they are expected to become when the workmen get a surplus of money but the police are expecting trouble sooner or later.

There were more foreigners seen in the business districts of Hammond Saturday night than for some time and they did put some money into circulation.

BAD WRECK ON THE

NICKEL PLATE LAST NIGHT.

Snaphop Takes Place Near Hobart and Trains Detour Over the Erie Road.

Owing to a bad wreck on the Nickel Plate railroad in the vicinity of Hobart yesterday afternoon all traffic has been stopped or delayed since then. At a late hour this afternoon the tangled freight cars had not been cleared up.

The passenger trains were routed over the Erie railroad into Chicago and were all late, and the freights were delayed behind the wreckage. A wrecking train was sent to the scene of the accident this morning in an effort to hurry the restoration of traffic.

It is not known how the accident happened, but it is known that a large number of cars were piled up and that wrecking crews have not had as difficult a problem to deal with in a long time.

Success.

There are two reasons for success as there are two for failure, and these two, in both instances, act in such close conjunction that it is almost impossible to decide where one begins and the other ends. Our mental attitude alone will not transact material business, nor will outward industry compensate for lack of mental stamina. Equilibrium, or equipose, will alone account for success in any undertaking, and this means confidence and grit, as well as energy.—W. J. Colville, in Nautilus.

HIGH SCHOOL TIDINGS.

Everybody who attended the banquet given by Mr. McElroy reports having a good time. Training rules were abandoned and with the football team there you can imagine how line plunges and end runs were made on the eatables.

Each class has started practicing basketball, having in view the inter-class series. Practice continued all through vacation.

On Tuesday evening the first of the inter-class basketball games will be played. The juniors will line up against the seniors, and the freshmen against the sophomores. Some lively contests are looked for. On Thursday evening another series of games will be played, the freshmen against the juniors, and the sophomores against the seniors. The small admission fee of one nickel will be charged to help the Athletic association along.
