

EAST CHICAGO AND INDIANA HARBOR

EAST CHICAGO.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney H. Veeco were Chicago theater visitors last evening, attending the performance of "The Music Master" at the Garrick theater.

The services at the M. E. church yesterday were well attended, the services marking the close of a week's revival conducted by the pastor, Rev. P. H. Palmer. Rev. Palmer preached only the evening sermon yesterday, occupying the morning pulpit in Dr. Switzer's church at Hammond. Dr. G. R. Streeter preached the morning sermon at the local church.

Messrs. Frankie and Murphersburgnovel of Chicago were the guests of Melvin Haskell of Todd avenue yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Hildreth of Chicago were visitors at the Haskell home on Todd avenue yesterday. Mr. Hildreth is assistant treasurer of the city of Chicago.

Miss Cora Chapman of Magoun avenue has recovered from her recent attack of the grippe and has resumed her duties in the local postoffice.

The Misses Catherine and Mayme Graham of Chicago were guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Schlicker of Chicago avenue yesterday.

Edward Reil returned this morning to Lafayette, Ind., where he is attending Purdue university. Mr. Reil has been spending his Thanksgiving holidays at the home of his parents on Forsyth avenue.

D. J. Funkhouser and Judge W. A. Reiland saw "The Christian" at the Towle Opera House in Hammond yesterday afternoon.

Attorney W. E. Roe is transacting business in the superior court in Hammond today.

Theodore Seablom was the guest of Mayor John Patton of Burnham yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. A. H. Smith of Olcott avenue is spending a few days with relatives near Schererville, Ind.

Mrs. R. H. Alexander of Chicago avenue is reported as confined to her home with a severe attack of the grippe.

Mitclian J. H. Freeman Fife will tomorrow officiate at the funeral of Joseph Miller, who died yesterday at his home on Alexander avenue. The deceased is survived by a wife and four children. Services will be held at the Hungarian Catholic church tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock, after which brief ceremonies will be held at the grave. Interment is to be made at Greenwood cemetery, Hammond.

Mrs. F. J. Brown of Magoun avenue is entertaining her mother for a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Porpaugh of Laporte were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Ginn of Baring avenue yesterday afternoon and evening.

Dr. S. M. Goldberger of Chicago was the guest of his uncle, Charles Pittsler, of Chicago avenue yesterday afternoon.

Frank Williams and Tom Henry have returned to Purdue university at Lafayette, after a four days' visit with relatives in this city.

Miss Laura D. Floyd of Chicago transacted business in East Chicago Saturday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. M. Brockway of Pullman was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Ginn at their home on Baring avenue over Sunday.

INDIANA HARBOR.

Messrs. Fowler, Van Horne, Burdick, Reed, Bevan, Ebert and Morrison of Harbor council No. 219 attended the silver jubilee celebration of the Royal Leaguers in Chicago Saturday evening. The affair was a grand success, a class of about 600 candidates taking the initiatory work before the supreme officers.

J. M. Reppa of the Citizens' State bank spent Sunday with relatives in Whiting.

William Cooksey of this city has accepted a position as chief instructor at the Lewis roller skating rink in East Chicago. Mr. Cooksey was formerly manager of the Landefeld rink on Guthrie street.

Miss Elina Lundberg of Fir street was the guest of friends in Chicago Sunday evening.

Invitations are out for a dance to be given at the South Bay hotel next Saturday evening. The affair is to be purely invitational, and a pleasant one expected by all those receiving cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Andrews of McCool, Ind., were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Andrews of Fir street yesterday.

D. J. Connelly of Michigan avenue is spending a few days with his parents in Aurora, Ill.

Miss Minnie McAnley is confined to her home on Fir street with a severe attack of the grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Swanson and Miss Esther Swanson have returned to their home in Laporte after a three days' visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Lundquist of One Hundred and Thirty-eighth street.

J. E. Reed of the Chicago Telephone company visited friends on the south side yesterday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dobbie of Commercial avenue were visitors at the Golden home on One Hundred and Thirty-fifth street yesterday afternoon.

Miss Anna Saunders of Commonwealth avenue was the guest of friends in Chicago over Sunday.

J. Snell of the East Chicago company spent Sunday with relatives in Whiting.

Attorney Walter J. Riley was a Chicago theater visitor last evening, witnessing "The Fair Co-ed" at the Studebaker theater.

Neva Waltzer of Pennsylvania avenue has recovered from her recent attack of the grippe and is back at work in the telephone exchange.

ANOTHER TIE GAME

Hammond - East Chicago

Game Called Off at End of Half.

On account of the injury of one of the players on the team of the East Chicago Tigers, in yesterday's game with the team representing the Hammond Athletic association, the contest was called off at the end of the first half and will be played over next Sunday.

For the second time the Hammond Athletic association has tried conclusions with the East Chicago Tigers and the best they were able to do was to secure a score of 0 to 0.

a large crowd if the weather is good, for the rivalry between these two teams is now so great that it will be interesting to watch the contest.

The Hammond players are confident that they can simply eat up the East Chicago team if they get a chance, and East Chicago is equally confident.

If the game results in a 0 to 0 score it is probable that the game will be continued throughout the winter, until one or the other of the teams proves itself the winner.

The game yesterday was played through the first half, but in the second half, Murphy of East Chicago, was injured and the game was called off until next Sunday.

The rain also made the playing of the game unpleasant for both the players and spectators, and that was an additional reason for calling off the game until next Sunday.

Has it become useless to you? Could somebody else make use of it? Dispose of it by inserting a small ad in "The Times" Barter and Exchange column.

YOST TO RUN ELECTRIC LINE.

"Hurry Up" Coach Named to Manage Corporation in Tennessee.

McMinnville, Tenn., Nov. 30.—Fielding H. Yost, Michigan's football coach will have an opportunity to show his talent in a different line, according to announcement of the Great Falls River and Power company which has named Yost as trustee and general manager succeeding the late C. H. Piske. The aim is to operate an electric line connecting the middle and east Tennessee towns between Chattanooga and Nashville and in county where no railroads have built since the civil war. The power will be furnished by the Great Falls near here. Yost, who married a Tennessee girl, is expected to take charge at once.

FAIL TO KICK FOOTBALL; SHOT.

Hunters Want Pigskin for a Target, Then Fire on Players.

Lattimer, Pa., Nov. 30.—Angered because their demand that the football be kicked into the air that they might shoot at it, was refused, three hunters who appeared from the woods skirting the football field yesterday afternoon, fired into the players of the local and Minervine teams, who were engaged in a scrimmage. All the players but Daniel Burke and Joseph Sommers ran, these two being so badly wounded that their recovery is doubtful. After a chase by automobile Jack Shriner, Charles and Joe Gooditts, all of Hazelton, were arrested as the shooters and held without bail.

of the brightest football stars that Lake country ever turned out and whose great work assisted Chicago materially to win the western champion this year, has been picked by various sporting writers as a member of the all-star team of the west.

JIMMY CLABBY IS BACK

Calls at Times Office to Thank Paper For Its Interest in Him.

Jimmy Clabby, Hammond's coming welter-weight, is in Hammond for a week, the guest of his people here, and stated to THE TIMES, whose offices he visited this morning, that he would not fight again until Jan. 2, when he meets Paddy Lavin at Dayton, Ohio. Jimmy and his father, who was with him, are both delighted at his prospects and are very grateful to THE TIMES for the support it has given him, the "Fair Play" hardly notwithstanding. "The Times-Democrat of New Orleans in speaking of the Gardner fight, says:

"The Clabby-Gardner fight was the outcome of a fifteen round scrap by the same men at the Across-the-River club Nov. 7. Gardner was given the decision, greatly to the dissatisfaction of the Clabby cohorts, and a return match was arranged. Clabby excelled at infighting, used a wicked left to advantage, and sent home a peculiar up-percut which almost invariably found its resting place against Gardner's nose or mouth. Gardner used the right to kidneys, was a trifle stronger than Clabby, but the Hammond boxer was the aggressor all the way through and several times had the Lowell man breaking ground. Twice the referee warned Clabby about not breaking on command, but to the spectators it appeared that Gardner was leaning on Clabby, and every blow he landed brought cheers, but early in the contest it became apparent that neither had the punch to drop the other. Twice Clabby was fought through the ropes, and once Gardner slipped in a wild rush, but that was the extent of the damage. The only blood spilled came when Gardner stepped inside of a swing, Clabby's glove striking and opening an old cut on his neck.

"The draw decision was pleasing to most spectators, though some set up a call for Clabby. George Gardner climbed into the ring to object, but climbed out again when Woods said, 'Now you get right out of this ring.'"

"The bout at the start promised to be unsatisfactory as it was under straight Marquis of Queensberry rules, each man to protect himself at all times, with a side understanding they were to break on command of the referee. Considerable wrestling was indulged in at first, but after the fighters got warmed up they did some real fighting."

NEW ROLLER SKATING LEAGUE.

Harmon Stated for President at Organization Meeting Tonight.

Chicago, Nov. 30.—Patrick Harmon, who was defeated for the presidency of the Western Skaters' association by Joseph Marshall at the election last week, has decided to organize a roller skating association of his own. The new association, to be called the American Roller Skating association, will be organized tonight at the Riverview rink and Harmon, who is manager of the rink, is slated for president without opposition.

CUBS AFTER MORE PAY.

Champions Follow in Manager's Footsteps in Demanding Higher Salaries.

Manager Chance isn't the only one of the Cubs insisting on more pay for his next season's work. All of the champions are after higher stipends, hot and heavy.

Unless the ante is raised in the case of Mordecai Brown and Orval Overall, the two star pitchers of the team, they are pretty certain not to play. Brown has been offered $5,000 by Tom Keelin, the proprietor of the West End semi-pro club, to take charge of that team and manage its affairs, just as James Callahan handles the Logan Squares.

The whole wad will be in the bank for Brown any time he will consent to sign. To pay such a sum might be a bold business move, but a celebrity like Brown probably could draw a lot of people every Saturday and Sunday. As other expenses would be trivial, a club with Brown at the head of it might be a financial winner as well as an artistic success. Practically the same kind of an inducement has been held out to Overall, and the popularity of the big Californian undoubtedly would make him a whale of a drawing card and a money-maker.

CRACKS ARE ELIMINATED.

Poggenburg, Gardner and Conklin Felt They Had No Chance With Demarest.

With Fred Conklin, J. Ferdinand Poggenburg and Edward Gardner eliminated from further national amateur billiard tournaments as a consequence of having professionalized themselves in the last national event of the C. A. A., local devotees of amateur billiards are wondering who will make up the next entry list when another tournament shall be played.

A Chicago paper's exposure of the professional standing of the three players mentioned caused general surprise among the big army of billiard followers in Chicago, but others more closely in touch with "amateur" bil-

Challenger Of Bat Nelson And Chief Of His Training Camp

FREDDY WELCH

MISS KATE WELCH

Freddie Welch, the clever English boxer, who outpointed Abe Attell on Thanksgiving Eve and has now challenged Batting Nelson for the lightweight championship of the world, is a vegetarian. His sister, Miss Kate Welch, has been in control of his training quarters in Los Angeles for several months and is a great favorite with the fans.

Hards were prepared for the shock.

Undoubtedly the disappointing finish to the amateur careers of Poggenburg and Gardner will prove a setback for the sport, as they have long been at the head of the National Association of Billiard Players—the official amateur organization. However, the loss of those two leaders and Conklin will not prove such a blow as to knock out future tournaments, according to local followers of the sport.

WANT 'MERKLE RULE' CHANGED.

Suggestion Made to Herrmann for Alteration of Baseball Law.

Cincinnati, Nov. 30.—It has been suggested that the baseball rule which made the Merkle play possible in New York last season be altered so that if a batter makes a hit a man can score from third base whether a man on first reaches second or not. The umpire must judge whether or not a hot was made.

President Garry Herrmann of the national commission, when he heard of the proposed change, said: "Such a thing would be impossible. Umpires cannot manufacture hits. It is not up to him to make hits for the players. They must do that themselves."

"Instead of thinking about changing that rule the owners who are considering such a thing had better get busy and tell their players not to overlook the fine points of the game."

"That rule is as necessary as any in the book and it should not be changed. I wouldn't like to be an umpire if it was up to me to decide whether or not the player had made a hit if the result of the game depended upon the decision. If the rules governing baseball are changed to conform with the ideas of a few would-be reformers who are anxious to let the Giants down easyner for making a stupid play which lost the National league championship for them, the umpires in the big leagues will have more trouble than ever.

FAST TIME IS MADE IN LONG RUN AT OAKLAND.

San Francisco, Nov. 30.—In the so-called Marathon race held yesterday under the auspices of the Century Athletic club of Oakland, Cornelius Connolly, an Irishman, 33 years old, covered the distance of slightly less than twenty-one miles in 1:51:25.

The course was marked out along country roads and most of the distance was run on the road, although at times the men would take to sidewalk. There were twenty-five entries and all but two finished, although the second man, Soldier King, was ten minutes behind the wonderful time made by the winner.
