

LIQUOR MEN CRY 'LOOK AT THE SLAIN'

Convention Refers to Hanly, Artman, Christian, Hemenway and Watson.

POINTS TO INDIANA ELECTION

Wave of Opposition Throughout the Country to the Trade Declared To Be Receding.

Washington, Dec. 11.—The National Liquor League of the United States, in session here, crowded lustily of the present democratic victory in Indiana and sarcastically denounced Governor Hanly and Judges Samuel Artman and Ira Christian. There were present men from all parts of the country, who made liquor over bars or sell it in wholesale quantities, including several Indiana delegates. The league extracted special comfort from the Indiana situation, and at intervals members would slip away from the meeting to a nearby bar, where they drank to the everlasting discomfiture of Governor Hanly.

It was the first meeting of the league since the election, and its members went on record officially in regard to Indiana. A statement—which was unanimously adopted—was prepared by the secretary, under the caption "Defeated Prohibition Statesmen," says:

Pointed Them Out.

Look at the slain: Governor Hoke Smith, for renomination in Georgia; Governor Beckham of Kentucky, for United States senator; Governor Carmack of Tennessee, for Governor; Governor Harris of Ohio, for Governor; Governor Folk of Missouri, for United States senator; for Governor, Watson of Indiana, defeated; Governor Jacobson of Minnesota, defeated; Senator Hemenway of Indiana, for re-election; John C. Stockton of Florida, for Governor; Congress Hepburn of Iowa, for congress; Senator Ross of Ohio, father of the local option bill; Senator Sietes of Ohio, sponsor of the local option bill; Senator Mack of Ohio, chairman of the temperance committee; Senator Berry of Illinois, father of the local option bill; Judge Artman of Indiana, who declared the liquor business illegal; Judge Christian, who said "me too," and a host of smaller fish not worthy of mention that have gone down to their political defeat clutching the broken reed of prohibition.

Like the leaves of the forest when summer is green, that host with their banners at sunset, were seen; like the leaves of the forest when autumn hath blown, that host on the morrow lay withered and strown.

Hanly Blamed for Defeat.

The statement of the liquor men, following the first outburst of mingled sarcasm and poetry, declares that the new legislature of Indiana is democratic as a result of Governor Hanly calling a special session when he forced through county option. Then comes the following under the sub-head, "Indiana Repudiates Hanly."

Probably the hottest contest over the prohibition question was in Indiana, because of its pivotal character in the national election. Governor J. F. Hanly, republican, is a well-known prohibition advocate, and secured control of the republican state convention. He secured a county option plank in the platform. The democratic party platform advocated village and township option.

Governor Hanly, however, was not satisfied, and, as the campaign progressed, called a special session of the legislature, which was republican and procured the passage of a county option law. In this step he was ably assisted by the republican nominee for governor, James Watson, and United States Senator Hemenway.

The action of the governor caused much criticism, and in the campaign county option became the issue. The state went republican on president by 10,000 plurality, but the republican candidate for governor, Watson, was defeated by Marshall, democrat, by over 18,000, while the republicans also lost the legislature, which will now elect a democrat as United States senator to succeed Senator Hemenway, Governor Hanly's associate in the county option fight.

C., Dec. 11.—In compliance with orders issued by the navy department the big supply ship Celtic will sail from New York tomorrow laden to her full capacity with Christmas goodie for the thousands of sailors aboard the Atlantic battle ship fleet now homeward bound on the cruise around the world. It is planned to have the Celtic meet the fleet somewhere in the Mediterranean. It is highly probable that the Santa Claus ship will not fall in with Admiral Sperry's fleet until some days after Christmas, but it is safe to say that the good things she carries will be none the less welcome to the jackies. Included in the cargo is a plentiful supply of American turkeys, barrels of New England apples, boxes of chocolate, raisins, nuts, celery, plum puddings and all the ingredients necessary in the making of hot mince and pumpkin pies.

ARCHBISHOP MOELLER'S 60TH BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY.

Cincinnati, O., Dec. 11.—The Most Rev. Henry Moeller, archbishop of the Roman Catholic archdiocese of Cincinnati, entered upon his sixtieth year today and was the recipient of numerous congratulations from the prelates and priests of his province and from many members of the laity.

Archbishop Moeller is a native of Cincinnati and received his early education in the parish schools of this city. Believing his vocation to be the priesthood, he made arrangements to pursue divinity studies. Accordingly he went to Rome and became on the first students to enter the famous American college. In 1876 he was ordained to the priesthood by Mgr. Lent, at the church of St. John Lateran, the cathedral church of Rome. When the young priest returned to Cincinnati, Archbishop Purcell gave him charge of St. Patrick's church, Bellefontaine, but a few months later, recognizing his scholarly attainments, made him master of the faculty of St. Mary's seminary in this city.

In 1879 Father Moeller accepted the position of secretary to Bishop Charles of Indianapolis, but was recalled in July of the following year by Archbishop Elder, who wanted him for similar service. Later he was made chancellor of the diocese, and in 1896 he was appointed bishop of Columbus. Three years later he became coadjutor to Archbishop Elder and upon the latter's death in 1904 Dr. Moeller succeeded him as archbishop of Cincinnati.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies.

Acquired deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound on inspiration and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result and, unless the inflammation can be removed, the tube will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing more than an ordinary cold condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by our Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
