

EAST CHICAGO AND INDIANA HARBOR

EAST CHICAGO.

School Marmas Will Visit.

The Times' correspondent had a busy time yesterday afternoon securing a few names of local school teachers who will leave the city during the Christmas holidays. Witness the result: Miss Mabel Van Kleeck will visit with her parents in Ann Arbor. Miss Ada Nywander of the faculty will spend her holidays with relatives in Napoleon, O. Miss Edna Cox will go to Delaware, O., while Miss May Bass will visit her home in Greenwood, Ind.; Miss Anna Simons and Miss Gertrude Chapman have declared their intention of turning their path toward Ypsilanti, Mich., while Miss Pearl Townsend is destined to spend a few days in Gordon, O. Miss Rhett Lyn will visit in Princeton, Ind.; Miss Stormont of the Field school will visit in Princeton, Ind., while Miss McCrory has declared her intention to spend a few days in Plymouth, Ind.

Miss Davis Loses Race.

Miss Anna Davis was defeated last evening in the ladies' skating race at the Lewis' rink; Miss Mae Smith of the White City rink winning by a good margin. Miss Davis fell on the sixth round and was compelled to fall out of the race. Miss Love of Decatur, Ill., who is visiting friends in Hammond, also entered, but lost her skate in the second lap.

Silk and Gold Umbrellas, removable heads, greatest invention, at Max Nassau, 22-29

The Embroidery Circle met last evening at the home of Miss Mae Edmunds of Baring avenue. Following the usual sewing session light refreshments were served. The guests thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Roscoe E. Woods of Hammond was a visitor in East Chicago last evening. In the interests of the Calumet Monthly Railway Guide.

Buy fresh Green Holly and Mistletoe of W. R. Diamond. 1t

Mayor DeBrie and wife will spend Friday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. L. W. James, of Englewood and will be accompanied by George DeBrie, their son, who arrived a few days ago from Fort Worth, Tex.

George W. Lewis yesterday received his annual Christmas copy of the "London Graphic" from the Western Assurance company of London.

Miss Mae Miller will leave tomorrow for her home in Burlington, Ia., where she will spend her Christmas vacation.

Mrs. H. Smith left yesterday morning for her home in Frankfort, Ind., after a few weeks' visit with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Palmer, of One Hundred and Forty-eighth street.

Please call and see our store. If you don't want to buy just look. W. R. Diamond. 1t

Miss Margaret Diamond of Magoun avenue will visit friends in Longwood, Ill., over Christmas.

Mrs. E. L. Lamb and daughter, Miss Ida, will spend Christmas at the home of Dr. Robert Spear in Indianapolis. If you have any clothes that need repairing and pressing why not bring them to O'Connell, the tailor, and have them done right. 1t

W. H. Jeppeson has returned from an extended visit in Fort Wayne, Ind., and will resume working for the Republic mill in the turning department.

Miss Mayme Larkin of Chicago will spend Christmas in East Chicago as the guest of Miss Florence Lewis of Magoun avenue.

Messrs. Haffer and Goldstein, the two men who were injured in a collision on the Chicago, Lake Shore & South Bend line about month ago, arrived home this morning from the Gary hospital. They will shortly commence the operation of their new fruit store on Olcott avenue.

Mrs. Bert Burch and children left Sunday for a week's visit with relatives in Plymouth, Ind.

B. F. Price of the local express company will leave tomorrow evening for a short visit with his relatives in Detroit, Mich.

Clifford Hall of the East Chicago Transfer company left last evening for a brief visit with relatives in Grand Rapids, Mich.

W. C. Snyder and family of Forsyth avenue are spending a few days as the guests of relatives and friends in southern Illinois cities.

The following is a list of suggestions for Xmas gifts for sale at Nassau & Thompson's marvelous store on Forsyth avenue:

Kodaks, Cameras, Rink Roller Skates, Boxing Gloves Striking-Bags, Books of all kinds, Box Stationery, Post Card Albums, Mermaid and Briar Pipes, Pocket Books and Card Cases, Fancy Box Candy.

Games of all kinds and other appropriate gifts too numerous to mention. 4t

Miss Mabel Wickey is a Chicago business today.

Mrs. E. J. Hunt of Olcott avenue is spending a few days in South Bend as the guest of her parents.

Frank Williams will return tomorrow from Purdue university and is to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents on Beacon street.

Large selection of Ladies' and Gentlemen's watches sold dirt cheap at Max Nassau, the reliable jeweler. 22-29

Dr. and Mrs. J. Goldman of Beacon street will spend Christmas with relatives in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Diamond of Chicago avenue will visit over Friday at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Fred Furnam, of Rolling Prairie.

Candy! Candy! Candy! largest assortment, lowest prices at W. R. Diamond's. 1t

Mrs. H. M. Brown of Magoun avenue visited friends in Chicago yesterday.

Lesh Hascall of Todd avenue will return tomorrow from Purdue and will spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. O. M. Hascall.

Thomas Henry and Edward Reil will return tomorrow from Purdue university and will spend a week at their respective homes on Magoun and Forsyth avenues.

E. J. Hunt of the Shleker pharmacy was a Gary business visitor yesterday afternoon.

Buy your Phonographs and Records of Max Nassau, the Jeweler. Easy terms. 22-29

Mrs. Effie Canine of Crawfordsville, Ind., will arrive tomorrow to spend a few days in East Chicago as the guest of Superintendent and Mrs. E. B. Canine of Magoun avenue.

Miss Mabel Barron of Magoun avenue, who has been confined to her home for several weeks, is now able to be around town, and will assume her duties at the local schools after the Christmas holidays. Professor T. E. Williams of the McKinley school is also reported as convalescent.

Dean Edgar of Lima, O., will spend Christmas at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Edgar, of Magoun avenue.

Mrs. Peter Stirling and daughter, Esther, were Chicago visitors yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Ottenheimer were Chicago business visitors yesterday.

See the Eighth-Day Alarm Clocks; specially priced all this Xmas week at Max Nassau. 22-29

Mrs. George W. Lewis and daughter, Florence, and Mrs. George Hinde of Magoun avenue spent yesterday in Chicago.

Manager E. L. Stewart of the local telephone exchange transacted business in Whiting yesterday.

Diamond Rings from the best selection sold at the lowest price. Give me a call before buying elsewhere. Max Nassau. 22-29

Special children's services will be held at the East Chicago Congregational church on Thursday evening, when the annual gift distribution will be held. The Sunday school pupils have prepared an excellent program, in which they invite the participation of their friends.

When you want a nice nobby overcoat made at the right price see O'Connell, the tailor.

Jim Morrell of Chicago avenue was a Chicago business visitor yesterday afternoon.

Richard Reiland, better known as "Dick," will arrive tomorrow from Newark, N. J., and will spend his Christmas holidays at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Reiland.

Abe Cohen, formerly a local baseball star, will arrive from Newark, N. J., tomorrow evening and will spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cohen, of Magoun avenue.

Abe will leave on Sunday for Milwaukee, Wis., where he will transact business for the D. & L. railway.

Constable James Lowden returned yesterday from a brief business trip to Muncie and vicinity.

Don't eat storage butter. Blue Valley is churned fresh every day. Sold only by W. R. Diamond. 1t

Mr. and Mrs. James O. Parks will leave on Thursday evening for a two days' visit with relatives in Plymouth, Ind.

Dr. and Mrs. S. E. Jacob of Forsyth avenue will spend Christmas with relatives in Shelbyville, Ind., and Indianapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Skinner left this evening for Valparaiso, Ind., where they will visit for a few days with relatives.

Miss Josie Brown of Olcott avenue is expected home from Valparaiso university tomorrow, where she has been attending the school of stenography.

No disappointments if you leave your orders for all the good things for Christmas at W. R. Diamond's.

Mrs. Mose Specter of Olcott avenue visited in Chicago yesterday and afternoon.

Mrs. Abbie Thomas of One Hundred and Forty-fifth street was a Chicago business visitor yesterday afternoon.

For satisfaction in quality and price use Diamond edal flour. Sold only by W. R. Diamond. 1t

Mrs. A. S. Goodfried of One Hundred and Forty-fifth street will spend Christmas at the home of the former's parents in Chicago.

Mrs. E. T. Higgins of Forsyth avenue left this morning for a three days' visit at the home of J. T. Higgins in Waukegan, LaPorte county.

Christmas Trees? Yes, you can get the best at W. R. Diamond's.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Spencer on Olcott avenue will be the scene of a pleasant family reunion on Friday afternoon. Among the guests will be Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Mary Busch and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Spencer and W. L. Erickson and family. There will be twenty-six members of the family seated at dinner.

If you haven't tried "Old Farm" Sausage you have missed a treat. We make it ourselves and it is pure and clean. Sold only by W. R. Diamond.—1t

Wm. Schrage of the Bank of Whiting visited in East Chicago yesterday afternoon.

Attorney Joseph Bartholomew will spend Friday at his home in Valparaiso, Ind., and will return on Monday to assume his duties in the local prosecutor's office.

High School Notes.

Now that the examinations are over comes the awful suspense about report cards.

The high school papers are now in their first stage of construction, but in time we hope to make them a success. The issue this month is the hands of the sophomore class, with Miss Mabel Spaulding and Ben. Silverman as editors.

The high school basketball squads practice regularly twice a week now. Tuesday morning witnessed another rehearsal of the high school octette.

Ice hockey is becoming prominent among local students.

The seniors and juniors are beginning to think about their themes for the oratorical preliminaries.

Charles Jeppeson sprained his wrist quite severely while playing ice hockey yesterday.

The East Chicago high school girls won the practice game with Indiana Harbor by a score of 25 to 0.

Sam Bird, an East Chicago high school alumnus, was a local visitor yesterday. Mr. Bird is now teaching manual training in the Oak Park high school.

There are but few students who are doing sufficiently good work to be exempt from the coming tests. Here's hoping!

Miss Flossie Pickard made quite a hit teaching at the Harbor, we understand. My, but its nice to be a senior!

INDIANA HARBOR.

Athletes Have Club-Rooms.

The new club-rooms of the Harbor, or Independent Athletic association, are being rushed as rapidly as possible.

New apparatus is being installed, including wrestling mats and pushing and medicine bags. Several card and reading tables have already been put into use in the quarters, which are located in the rear of the Landfield bowling alley, and the rooms are nightly the gathering place for a fair percentage of the club members.

H. A. Barrett, who was taken seriously ill with typhoid fever while working at the Inland mill, was taken yesterday to the Marion Simms sanitarium, Chicago, where he is reported in a serious condition.

C. P. Holway, principal of the Lincoln school, will move his family from Hammond during the Christmas vacation. He has rented one of the Callaghan flats on Fir street, where he will take an active part in the social affairs of the Harbor during the coming season.

Mrs. W. C. Frynsinger, of Grapevine street, will spend Friday in Fort Wayne as the guest of relatives.

The Sunday school of the local Methodist Episcopal church held their annual Christmas distribution in the church parlors last evening. Recitations and a music program were rendered competently, after which a real, live Santa Claus handed out tasty packages and the little ones acquitted themselves remarkably well.

The Lake County Department Store company, 3507 Deodore street, is now open for business in their large new stores with all new goods at lowest prices in Indiana Harbor. Dry Goods, Hardware, Furniture, Shoes, Crockery, ware, Clothing, Clocks and a large line of holiday goods to gladden the hearts of all. 9t

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Webb, of Lima, O., have moved to the Harbor and will reside on Ivy street. Mr. Webb will work as a roller in the Inland mill.

J. L. Walker, of Michigan avenue, will spend Christmas with his family in LaPorte.

Mrs. R. C. Lukens, of Adis avenue, visited friends in Chicago yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. N. L. Sternberg left yesterday for a brief visit over the holidays with her parents in Dowagiac, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Walton and family will spend Christmas in Dowagiac, as the guest of relatives.

E. V. Walton was a Chicago business visitor yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Lundquist, of Ivy street, will entertain a number of their Harbor friends at 6 o'clock dinner on Christmas.

Miss Lura Anderson, of Ivy street, will spend Christmas with her parents in Durham, LaPorte county.

Mr. and Mrs. James Daugherty, of Grapevine, will spend Christmas at the home of relatives in Zanesville, O. They left the Harbor yesterday and will return shortly before New Year.

Mrs. Ernest Summers and family, of Grapevine street, left last evening for Muncie, Ind., where they will spend the holidays at the home of Mrs. Summers' parents.

Buy your Christmas gifts at the Arcade and get a chance on the beautiful Doll to be given away free, on display in show window, 3416 Pennsylvania avenue. 6t

Mrs. D. W. Dupes and niece, Miss Myrtle Rodgers, visited friends in Chicago, will spend Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Gilbert of Commonwealth avenue.

Mrs. Minnie Bowers, of Grapevine street, is spending a few days in South Bend, as the guest of relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. C. Hombroff and family, of Fir street, left yesterday for a week's visit with friends in Jackson, Miss.

Dr. and Mrs. George Orf have accepted an invitation by the latter's relatives in Henderson, Ky., to partake of their Christmas hospitality. They will leave this evening for the south.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Braverman, on Elm street, was the scene of a pleasant surprise party on Monday evening. There were about twenty-five guests and a splendid time was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Butler, of the Harbor, will spend Friday in East Chicago, as the guest of the latter's mother, Mrs. K. L. DeMuth.

Perceval Schmalz, of the Elite theater, left last evening for an extended visit with relatives in Cleveland.

Arthur Mack, of Cleveland, will spend Christmas in the Harbor as the guest of friends.

Miss Lola B. Lehman, who has been visiting her brothers, C. B. and V. R. Lehman, of this city, for the past several weeks, left yesterday for her home in Elkhart. She was accompanied by Vernon Lehman, who will spend Christmas with his parents.

P. E. Dubbs, of the Indiana Harbor Lumber company, will spend the holidays with relatives in Peru, Ind.

Samuel Hayms, of Ottawa, Ill., left yesterday after a brief visit with his brother, Harry A. Hayms, of Michigan avenue.

W. A. Patterson, of Aldis avenue, will spend Christmas with relatives in Chicago.

E. L. Markey, of the Stockman's Trust & Savings bank, Chicago, has taken a position as bookkeeper with the Indiana Harbor State bank.

Mrs. W. J. Funkey, of Michigan avenue, visited her mother in Chicago yesterday afternoon and evening.

The choir of the Methodist Episcopal church will hold their regular weekly meeting on Saturday evening at the home of Miss Edith Collins, on Commonwealth avenue. A full attendance is desired.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Gough, of Sixth and Broadway, Gary, will spend Christmas at Advance, Ind., as the guests of relatives.

Miss May Galvin, of Fir street, left yesterday for Peru, Ind., where she will spend a few days as the guest of friends.

Undertaker Teal yesterday brought the remains to the Harbor of John Barboda, who resides at the corner of Washington and Pennsylvania avenues. Barboda died at St. Margaret's hospital late yesterday morning after persistent siege of typhoid pneumonia. Funeral services will be held on Thursday, with interment at Oak Hill cemetery, Hammond.

Attorney W. B. Van Horne attended the Bar association meeting at Hammond Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard B. Van Horne, of Fir street, will entertain Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Mather, of Chicago, at a 6 o'clock dinner Christmas evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Campion, of Grapevine street, will leave tomorrow for Fort Wayne, where they will spend Christmas with former acquaintances.

Attorney P. A. Parks will leave tomorrow evening for Valparaiso, where he will spend Christmas as the guest of his mother.

Charles Egbert, of the Fowler real estate agency, will spend his Christmas with relatives in LaPorte.

Mr. and Mrs. George Roop and child, will spend Friday in Chicago, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Durst and family.

D. J. Connelly, of the Teal establishment on Michigan avenue, will visit his parents in Ottawa, Ill., over Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Van Horne of Fir street, spent yesterday in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bland of Fir street, will entertain Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McCrum, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. McCrum and Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCrum at a 6 o'clock dinner Friday evening.

Special Christmas services will be held at the local Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday evening. Choir

Mrs. F. J. Teal, of Michigan avenue, was a Chicago business visitor yesterday.

Director Funkey has prepared an excellent musical program, exemptible of the day. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Attorney Walter J. Riley will spend Friday in Chicago as the guest of his mother.

Judge and Mrs. G. E. Reiland, of Elm street, transacted business in Chicago yesterday afternoon and evening.

Dr. H. E. Stephens, of Aldis avenue, left last evening for Indianapolis, where he will meet his brother, Dr. Hal Stephens. The couple will then leave for Parkersburg, W. Va., where they will attend the Christmas re-union of the Stephens family.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hoch and family, of Aldis avenue, left yesterday for Parkersburg, W. Va., where they will visit relatives over Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Funkey, of Michigan avenue, accompanied their brother, Ernest Funkey, on a trip to Chadwick, Ill., this afternoon, where they will spend the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Funkey's relatives.

C. A. Westberg, of the East Chicago company, will spend the holidays in Chicago as the guest of his mother and sister.

Lion Store

KAUFMANN & WOLF, HAMMOND, IND.

SPECIAL NOTICE

All Toys, Doll and Holiday Goods at Keenly Cut Prices

75c Shoo Fly Rocking Horses cut to	49c
1.25 Roud Folding Tables, Golden Oak finish	69c
75c Toy China Dishes cut to	48c
2.98 Moving Picture Machines cut to	1.98
10c Fish Pond Games cut to	5c
50c Bird Center Etiquette Games cut to	15c
50c Fan Craze Games reduced to	25c
25c Game of Five Hundred cut to	15c
25c Chicago Base Ball Games cut to	15c
29c Magic Lanterns reduced to	19c
1.48 Magic Lanterns cut to	98c
2.98 Rubber Tire Go-Carts cut to	1.98
1.48 Doll Buggies reduced to	98c
1.75 Train on Track cut to	98c

To California Across Salt Lake by Rail

Via

The Overland Limited

Famous Here and Abroad Leaves Chicago Daily

Composite Observation Car, Pullman Drawing-room and Compartment Cars, Dining Cars; all electric lighted and well ventilated. Library, Smoking Rooms—everything pleasant—makes your journey delightful. No excess fare.

Union Pacific, Southern Pacific

Electric Block Signal Protection—the safe road to travel

Send twelve cents in postage for book entitled, "The Overland Route to the Road of a Thousand Wonders."

W. G. NEIMYER, General Agt., 120 Jackson Blvd., Chicago, Ill.

LEAVE IT TO US

How about that Fall or Winter Suit or Overcoat that needs cleaning? We call for and deliver goods to all parts of the Calumet District. Special Attention given to Children's Garments.

J. M. DELANEY & CO. Fancy Cleaners and Dyers

TWO STORES 8047 Commercial Ave. 9273 So. Chicago Ave. Telephone: South Chicago 2423

Fred Peulecke

Patterns and Models—1 to 36-Horse-Power Marine Engines.

GENERAL & ELECTRICAL MACHINE WORK.

AUTOMOBILES Sold, Stored, Rented and Repaired.

9122 Erie Ave. South Chicago PHONE 741

WITH CHRISTMAS BELLS A-RINGING Noting the holiday's close approach, the purse-strain grows greater day by day.

WE CAN RELIEVE

the strain on your purse through a loan on your personal property in any amount. Will leave the security in your care and charge you only moderately for the accommodation, which you can repay a little at a time as you choose. Our treatment is courteous and our business with you a matter of CONFIDENCE. Therefore, if you are in need of money why should you hesitate to see US?

CHICAGO DISCOUNT CO.

Room 200 Phone So. Chicago 104 Open Evenings until Christmas 1938-40 Commercial Ave., South Chicago.

J. Z. TAYLOR Blacksmithing and Horseshoeing Careful attention given to lame, interfering and over-tired horses Shop on Kennedy Avenue East Chicago, Indiana

Mortgage Loans In Gary and Indiana Harbor on good improved property.

CHAS. E. FOWLER, Office, - Indiana Harbor TELEPHONE 21

CARL ANDERSON GENERAL CONTRACTOR Building and Sidewalks A SPECIALTY Telephone I. H. 002. Res. 621.

Harbor Baking Co. ALL KINDS OF BAKERY GOODS WEDDING CAKES AND LUNCH ROOM Michigan Avenue opposite Fir Street INDIANA HARBOR