

Pretty Homewood Wedding Occurs Tonight

MRS. ARGYRA WHITE HUNTER. DR. E. LLEWELLYN HUNTER.

The wedding of Miss Argyra White Hunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Douglas Stewart, and Dr. Edwin Llewellyn Hunter of Chicago, will be solemnized this evening at the residence, 47 Warren street, in Homewood. The ceremony will be read by the Rev. Charles Albert Smith of St. Paul's Episcopal church, at 8:30 o'clock in the presence of a small company of relatives and friends. The ring ceremony will be used.

The home has been beautifully decorated for the wedding, carrying out a dainty color scheme of green and white in the parlors and reception hall. The dining room has been done in red. Flowers and foliage will be used profusely in the decorating. The curtains have been prettily draped with green foliage and the chandeliers are also hung with Christmas greens.

The orchestra will commence a program of pretty wedding music at 8 o'clock and will continue to play during the entrance of the bridal party. The bride will enter with her brother, Mr. Thomas White, who will give her away in marriage. The other attendants at the ceremony will be Mrs. Whitmore of El Paso, Texas, an aunt of the bride, who will serve her as matron of honor, and Miss Elizabeth De Leuw of Jacksonville, Ill. Mr. French of Windsor Park will attend the groom as best man.

Miss White will wear a beautiful gown of directoire satin, with trimmings of princess and baby Irish lace. She will wear a long tulle veil, caught with flowers and will carry a bouquet of brides roses. Mrs. Whitmore will wear a directoire gown of pink cloth and will carry pink roses. Miss De Leuw will wear a beautiful gown of pale blue and will also carry flowers.

At the close of the wedding ceremony a course supper will be served the guests in the dining room, after which Dr. and Mrs. Hunter will leave for Chicago. The "At Home" cards read January first, at 394 East Sixty-sixth place, Chicago. Dr. Hunter is a practicing physician in Chicago and has a wide acquaintance of friends both in professional and social circles.

Miss White came to Hammond from the south several months ago and has made her home with her parents in Homewood. During her short stay here she has made many warm friends in the younger society set where she is very popular. The ceremony will receive the congratulations of a large number of friends, and the many beautiful wedding gifts of silver and cut glass and fine linen they have received testify to their popularity in social circles.

OVER THE TEA CUPS

QUIET HOME WEDDING.

A very quiet, home wedding was solemnized last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Suppes, 321 State street, when their daughter, Miss Emma Suppes, and Clarence Ross were married. The ceremony was very simple and only the relatives and a few intimate friends of the bride couple were present. The ceremony was read by the Rev. W. F. Switzer of the First M. E. church. The bride was attired in a dainty white gown which had pretty lace trimmings. The couple was unattended. At the close of the ceremony a wedding supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross are residing informally at a post-nuptial reception this afternoon before leaving for Cameron, Ohio, where they will make their home in the future. Mr. Ross is interested in one of the flour mills there and has a splendid position. The bride is well known in Hammond and has many friends, extending congratulations and best wishes for a happy future.

LARGE HOME WEDDING.

A very beautiful home wedding took place last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Manichew, 1400 Greenwood avenue, Chicago, when their daughter, Miss Emma Manichew, and Miss Bessie Kellogg were united in marriage. The ceremony took place at 8 o'clock before a brilliant audience of relatives and friends of the bride couple, many guests coming from out of town. About one hundred guests were in attendance. The ceremony was read by the pastor of the Hyde Park church.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Kellogg, and by Miss Alice Manichew, the youngest sister of the groom. She was attired in an exquisite gown of white cloth, trimmed with lace and carried an arm bouquet of brides roses. Following the ceremony, which was perfect in every detail, an elaborate wedding supper was served in the dining room. The rooms throughout the home were very beautifully decorated, flowers and green foliage being used as the only decorations. Mr. and Mrs. Manichew left for their home in Woodlawn after the ceremony, where they will be at home to their friends after February first.

The following people were invited from Hammond: Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Cox and daughter, Miss Mary Nelson; Mr. and Mrs. Will C. Mee, Mrs. Jeannie Sawyer, Dr. Mary E. Jackson, Mrs. Briggs and Edgar Briggs.

HAVE GUESTS FROM EVANSTON. Mrs. L. R. Abrecht and daughter, Blanche, and son, Carl, of Evanston, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Briggs, 86 State street. Mr. Briggs is still confined to his home.

MEETING POSTPONED. The meeting of the O. O. club, which was to have met at the home of Miss Mae Hartley in Fayette street last evening, was postponed on account of the inclement weather.

HAVE PLEASANT MEETING.

Mrs. J. J. Claussen entertained the members of the N. N. Embroidery club very pleasantly last evening at her home in State Line street. The members all attended despite the inclement weather and spent the evening very pleasantly with their embroidery work. The hostess served a dainty luncheon at the close of the party. The Misses Emily and Bertha Ebert will entertain the club members next Tuesday evening at their home in South Hohman street. The members present last evening were Mrs. J. J. Claussen, Misses Alma, Meta and Lillie Fiedler, Emily and Bertha Ebert, Gertrude and Emma Claus.

ATTENDS CHICAGO WEDDING.

Dr. Mary E. Jackson went to Chicago last evening to attend the marriage of Miss Bessie Kellogg and Herbert Manichew.

A NICE ENTERTAINMENT.

The Musical Hoyleys of the Chicago Lyceum bureau, who appeared in Hammond last evening at the Masonic temple under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus of Unity council carried out an excellent program for the benefit of the guests. The inclement weather which raged just about the opening hour, kept many away, but despite this a formidable and appreciative audience turned out. There was no number either by the entire orchestra or in the solos that was not the work of artists. The Hoyleys proved that they merited all the complimentary things that had been said about them both in Hammond and elsewhere.

In addition to the musical part of the program Viola M. Kniesling delighted her audience with her versatility as a reader. The musical and reading program lasted from 8:15 to 10:20 o'clock, after which those present spent the hours until one o'clock in social dancing.

"TEXAS PALS."

"Texas Pals" which comes to the Towle opera house New Years day, matinee and night, tells the story of two cow-punchers who are in love with the same girl Texas and Jack are pals, and have drunk from the same cup and slept under the same blanket. Jack is from the east, but has been punching cattle for three years, while Texas is a product of the plains of the south-west, and his home has always been among the sand and cactus. They are both splendid specimens of men of their type, the one a true representative of the east, the other of the west. Their loyalty to each other, even under circumstances that have made enemies of the best of friends since the world began, forms one of the prettiest sentiments of the piece. The audience follows the story of love and daring, which is not without its romance, with an interest that is only abated in the final scene, when one of the men wins the girl he loves, and the other, true to the last, remains a pal to both.

ELECT NEW OFFICERS.

Hammond Temple, No. 73, Pythian Sisters met yesterday afternoon in the K. of P. hall for the semi-annual election of officers. There was a good attendance of members and business of importance was transacted. Installation of officers will be held Jan. 8. The following officers were elected: P. C.—Mrs. Harry Bostwick. M. E. C.—Mrs. Alice Haney. E. S.—Mrs. Lou Aldrich. E. J.—Mrs. Jennie Hubbard. M. of T.—Miss Ethel Wolf. M. of R. C.—Mrs. Jennie Wolf. M. of F.—Mrs. Susan Dobbins. P. of T.—Mrs. Emma Hagerman. G. of O. T.—Mrs. Clara Conroy. Installing Officer—Mrs. Jessie Wilder. Trustee—Mrs. Nancy Love.

BIRTHDAY SOCIAL.

The members of the Epworth League of the German M. E. church on Truman avenue gave a birthday social last evening in the church parlors. A pleasant program was rendered after which dainty refreshments were served. The social was well attended and all report a most enjoyable time.

Vocal Solo Miss Louise Hofer. Recitation Miss Blanch Desmouler. Quartette, Messrs. Kuss, Fischer, Mettler and Koehneman. Recitation Miss Mary Koehneman. Vocal Solo Charles Kuss. Another selection by the quartette.

HERBERT MANICHEW IS WEDDED.

The wedding of Herbert Cornett Manichew, a former Hammond boy, to Miss Elizabeth P. Kellogg interested south side society people last night. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Edward H. Curtis of the Woodlawn Park Presbyterian church at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney H. Manichew, 6146 Greenwood avenue, Chicago. The home was tastefully decorated in pink and white, and the profession took place at 8 o'clock. Miss Helen Manichew, the groom's sister, laying Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bride was beautifully gowned in white lingerie. Miss Alice Manichew, a sister of the groom, and Misses Gladys Manichew, Evelyn Phillips and Genevieve Phillips, all cousins of the groom, acted as ribbon stretchers. More than sixty guests witnessed the ceremony.

ATTENDS CHICAGO PARTY.

Miss Nora Reilly will go to Chicago tomorrow to attend a New Year's party at the home of Miss Grace Williams in Hyde Park.

RETURN TO HAMMOND.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Parsons have returned to Hammond from a short wedding visit with relatives at various points in Indiana.

"THE MAN OF THE HOUR."

"The Man of the Hour" who appears in "The Man of the Hour" has created the shrewd, genial, generous, and Phelan was "big" fact in the successes of Charles Frohman for fourteen years. He was with John Drew for seven years and John Drew for seven years and John Drew for seven years and John Drew for seven years.

SAYS WE MUST EAT THE THINGS WE WANT

System Demands Particular Food Elements; Expresses This Demand in Appetite.

WE WANT THE THINGS WE NEED

Also Shows Why the Appetite Is Natural and Desires What Is Beneficial.

"The greatest difficulty of doctors" in the opinion of an authority, "is to convince patients that, if they really desire any one article of food, it must be because the tissues of their body demand the particular food-element contained largely in that particular article. Appetite, after all, is a natural product built up through generations, so that (in the main) it acts automatically, selecting whatever the body demands. If the diet for a time contains an excess of meat the appetite will demand vegetable foods like potatoes and cereals, and vice versa. Laborers eat meat because it supplies proteins to muscles. Esquimaux eat fats because fats supply bodily heat. Central Americans eat fruit because fruit supplies water and carbohydrates."

Sometimes, through neglect, or sympathetic weakness, it is impossible for the stomach to assimilate what it most needs. In such cases it becomes necessary to administer a neutralizing mixture to prevent the formation of gas in the intestines, and give the stomach an opportunity to resume its functions. For this purpose the following formula has been recommended: One-half ounce sodium phosphate, one ounce essence of sealint, 1/2 teaspoonful baking soda, enough pure water to make eight ounces. It has been claimed that this simple mixture, taken two teaspoonfuls before each meal, will ferment the gastric juices, check fermentation in the intestines and thus aid the stomach in assuming its natural functions. It has been especially recommended as enabling dyspeptics to eat what their appetites most desire, what their system needs to build it up, and in this way restoring them to their natural healthy state. Cut this out, in case you may sometimes need it. Any druggist can make up this mixture at a cost not exceeding 60 or 65 cents.

TOWLE OPERA HOUSE

TO-NIGHT

Joe King's NEW Version "EAST LYNNE" With Gertrude Varden

A Play that will Live Forever. A Story of a Woman's Wrongs. It touches the Hearts of All. Without Question the Greatest Emotional Drama of the Present Generation

PRICES: Matinee, 10c and 20c Evening, 10c, 20c, 30c, 50c SEATS ON SALE MONDAY

New Year Matinee and Night

JACK ROSE & COMPANY

—IN—

-TEXAS PALS-

A PLAY OF THE SOUTHWEST

A Company of Artists.....

.....With Scenery Complete

Prices: 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c

GRAND PRIZE ROLLER SKATING MASQUERADE CARNIVAL

at the

BIG LEWIS ROLLER SKATING RINK East Chicago, Indiana

Thursday Evening, Dec. 31. Grand March at 9:30 P. M.

Felding and Carlos will lead the March, also give exhibition of Fancy Skating and Dancing on Skates

Admission to Ladies and Children, 15c - - Gentlemen, 25c Use of Skates and Check Room Free

Subsequently he was the brusque, civil engineer, MacWilliams, who shared Robert Edeson's South American adventures in "Soldiers of Fortune," and was the American minister, a strong, dominating figure in Lawrence D'Oyly's "The Embassy Ball." Alderman Phelan is a life study. Every ward in every city knows his type—the shrewd wire puller, a natural leader of men, a bitter foe and a staunch friend. Phelan sums it all up when he says, "Yes, Miss, turkey the poor at Thanksgiving and I picnic 'em in the summer. I've helped many a man that was for me and I've downed many a man that was agin me, but the happiest days of me life are me Phelan picnic days." At the Towle opera house Sunday matinee and night, Jan. 3rd.

Subsequently he was the brusque, civil engineer, MacWilliams, who shared Robert Edeson's South American adventures in "Soldiers of Fortune," and was the American minister, a strong, dominating figure in Lawrence D'Oyly's "The Embassy Ball." Alderman Phelan is a life study. Every ward in every city knows his type—the shrewd wire puller, a natural leader of men, a bitter foe and a staunch friend. Phelan sums it all up when he says, "Yes, Miss, turkey the poor at Thanksgiving and I picnic 'em in the summer. I've helped many a man that was for me and I've downed many a man that was agin me, but the happiest days of me life are me Phelan picnic days." At the Towle opera house Sunday matinee and night, Jan. 3rd.

Subsequently he was the brusque, civil engineer, MacWilliams, who shared Robert Edeson's South American adventures in "Soldiers of Fortune," and was the American minister, a strong, dominating figure in Lawrence D'Oyly's "The Embassy Ball." Alderman Phelan is a life study. Every ward in every city knows his type—the shrewd wire puller, a natural leader of men, a bitter foe and a staunch friend. Phelan sums it all up when he says, "Yes, Miss, turkey the poor at Thanksgiving and I picnic 'em in the summer. I've helped many a man that was for me and I've downed many a man that was agin me, but the happiest days of me life are me Phelan picnic days." At the Towle opera house Sunday matinee and night, Jan. 3rd.

Subsequently he was the brusque, civil engineer, MacWilliams, who shared Robert Edeson's South American adventures in "Soldiers of Fortune," and was the American minister, a strong, dominating figure in Lawrence D'Oyly's "The Embassy Ball." Alderman Phelan is a life study. Every ward in every city knows his type—the shrewd wire puller, a natural leader of men, a bitter foe and a staunch friend. Phelan sums it all up when he says, "Yes, Miss, turkey the poor at Thanksgiving and I picnic 'em in the summer. I've helped many a man that was for me and I've downed many a man that was agin me, but the happiest days of me life are me Phelan picnic days." At the Towle opera house Sunday matinee and night, Jan. 3rd.

Subsequently he was the brusque, civil engineer, MacWilliams, who shared Robert Edeson's South American adventures in "Soldiers of Fortune," and was the American minister, a strong, dominating figure in Lawrence D'Oyly's "The Embassy Ball." Alderman Phelan is a life study. Every ward in every city knows his type—the shrewd wire puller, a natural leader of men, a bitter foe and a staunch friend. Phelan sums it all up when he says, "Yes, Miss, turkey the poor at Thanksgiving and I picnic 'em in the summer. I've helped many a man that was for me and I've downed many a man that was agin me, but the happiest days of me life are me Phelan picnic days." At the Towle opera house Sunday matinee and night, Jan. 3rd.

Subsequently he was the brusque, civil engineer, MacWilliams, who shared Robert Edeson's South American adventures in "Soldiers of Fortune," and was the American minister, a strong, dominating figure in Lawrence D'Oyly's "The Embassy Ball." Alderman Phelan is a life study. Every ward in every city knows his type—the shrewd wire puller, a natural leader of men, a bitter foe and a staunch friend. Phelan sums it all up when he says, "Yes, Miss, turkey the poor at Thanksgiving and I picnic 'em in the summer. I've helped many a man that was for me and I've downed many a man that was agin me, but the happiest days of me life are me Phelan picnic days." At the Towle opera house Sunday matinee and night, Jan. 3rd.

Subsequently he was the brusque, civil engineer, MacWilliams, who shared Robert Edeson's South American adventures in "Soldiers of Fortune," and was the American minister, a strong, dominating figure in Lawrence D'Oyly's "The Embassy Ball." Alderman Phelan is a life study. Every ward in every city knows his type—the shrewd wire puller, a natural leader of men, a bitter foe and a staunch friend. Phelan sums it all up when he says, "Yes, Miss, turkey the poor at Thanksgiving and I picnic 'em in the summer. I've helped many a man that was for me and I've downed many a man that was agin me, but the happiest days of me life are me Phelan picnic days." At the Towle opera house Sunday matinee and night, Jan. 3rd.

Subsequently he was the brusque, civil engineer, MacWilliams, who shared Robert Edeson's South American adventures in "Soldiers of Fortune," and was the American minister, a strong, dominating figure in Lawrence D'Oyly's "The Embassy Ball." Alderman Phelan is a life study. Every ward in every city knows his type—the shrewd wire puller, a natural leader of men, a bitter foe and a staunch friend. Phelan sums it all up when he says, "Yes, Miss, turkey the poor at Thanksgiving and I picnic 'em in the summer. I've helped many a man that was for me and I've downed many a man that was agin me, but the happiest days of me life are me Phelan picnic days." At the Towle opera house Sunday matinee and night, Jan. 3rd.

Subsequently he was the brusque, civil engineer, MacWilliams, who shared Robert Edeson's South American adventures in "Soldiers of Fortune," and was the American minister, a strong, dominating figure in Lawrence D'Oyly's "The Embassy Ball." Alderman Phelan is a life study. Every ward in every city knows his type—the shrewd wire puller, a natural leader of men, a bitter foe and a staunch friend. Phelan sums it all up when he says, "Yes, Miss, turkey the poor at Thanksgiving and I picnic 'em in the summer. I've helped many a man that was for me and I've downed many a man that was agin me, but the happiest days of me life are me Phelan picnic days." At the Towle opera house Sunday matinee and night, Jan. 3rd.

Subsequently he was the brusque, civil engineer, MacWilliams, who shared Robert Edeson's South American adventures in "Soldiers of Fortune," and was the American minister, a strong, dominating figure in Lawrence D'Oyly's "The Embassy Ball." Alderman Phelan is a life study. Every ward in every city knows his type—the shrewd wire puller, a natural leader of men, a bitter foe and a staunch friend. Phelan sums it all up when he says, "Yes, Miss, turkey the poor at Thanksgiving and I picnic 'em in the summer. I've helped many a man that was for me and I've downed many a man that was agin me, but the happiest days of me life are me Phelan picnic days." At the Towle opera house Sunday matinee and night, Jan. 3rd.

Subsequently he was the brusque, civil engineer, MacWilliams, who shared Robert Edeson's South American adventures in "Soldiers of Fortune," and was the American minister, a strong, dominating figure in Lawrence D'Oyly's "The Embassy Ball." Alderman Phelan is a life study. Every ward in every city knows his type—the shrewd wire puller, a natural leader of men, a bitter foe and a staunch friend. Phelan sums it all up when he says, "Yes, Miss, turkey the poor at Thanksgiving and I picnic 'em in the summer. I've helped many a man that was for me and I've downed many a man that was agin me, but the happiest days of me life are me Phelan picnic days." At the Towle opera house Sunday matinee and night, Jan. 3rd.

Subsequently he was the brusque, civil engineer, MacWilliams, who shared Robert Edeson's South American adventures in "Soldiers of Fortune," and was the American minister, a strong, dominating figure in Lawrence D'Oyly's "The Embassy Ball." Alderman Phelan is a life study. Every ward in every city knows his type—the shrewd wire puller, a natural leader of men, a bitter foe and a staunch friend. Phelan sums it all up when he says, "Yes, Miss, turkey the poor at Thanksgiving and I picnic 'em in the summer. I've helped many a man that was for me and I've downed many a man that was agin me, but the happiest days of me life are me Phelan picnic days." At the Towle opera house Sunday matinee and night, Jan. 3rd.

Subsequently he was the brusque, civil engineer, MacWilliams, who shared Robert Edeson's South American adventures in "Soldiers of Fortune," and was the American minister, a strong, dominating figure in Lawrence D'Oyly's "The Embassy Ball." Alderman Phelan is a life study. Every ward in every city knows his type—the shrewd wire puller, a natural leader of men, a bitter foe and a staunch friend. Phelan sums it all up when he says, "Yes, Miss, turkey the poor at Thanksgiving and I picnic 'em in the summer. I've helped many a man that was for me and I've downed many a man that was agin me, but the happiest days of me life are me Phelan picnic days." At the Towle opera house Sunday matinee and night, Jan. 3rd.

Subsequently he was the brusque, civil engineer, MacWilliams, who shared Robert Edeson's South American adventures in "Soldiers of Fortune," and was the American minister, a strong, dominating figure in Lawrence D'Oyly's "The Embassy Ball." Alderman Phelan is a life study. Every ward in every city knows his type—the shrewd wire puller, a natural leader of men, a bitter foe and a staunch friend. Phelan sums it all up when he says, "Yes, Miss, turkey the poor at Thanksgiving and I picnic 'em in the summer. I've helped many a man that was for me and I've downed many a man that was agin me, but the happiest days of me life are me Phelan picnic days." At the Towle opera house Sunday matinee and night, Jan. 3rd.

Subsequently he was the brusque, civil engineer, MacWilliams, who shared Robert Edeson's South American adventures in "Soldiers of Fortune," and was the American minister, a strong, dominating figure in Lawrence D'Oyly's "The Embassy Ball." Alderman Phelan is a life study. Every ward in every city knows his type—the shrewd wire puller, a natural leader of men, a bitter foe and a staunch friend. Phelan sums it all up when he says, "Yes, Miss, turkey the poor at Thanksgiving and I picnic 'em in the summer. I've helped many a man that was for me and I've downed many a man that was agin me, but the happiest days of me life are me Phelan picnic days." At the Towle opera house Sunday matinee and night, Jan. 3rd.

Subsequently he was the brusque, civil engineer, MacWilliams, who shared Robert Edeson's South American adventures in "Soldiers of Fortune," and was the American minister, a strong, dominating figure in Lawrence D'Oyly's "The Embassy Ball." Alderman Phelan is a life study. Every ward in every city knows his type—the shrewd wire puller, a natural leader of men, a bitter foe and a staunch friend. Phelan sums it all up when he says, "Yes, Miss, turkey the poor at Thanksgiving and I picnic 'em in the summer. I've helped many a man that was for me and I've downed many a man that was agin me, but the happiest days of me life are me Phelan picnic days." At the Towle opera house Sunday matinee and night, Jan. 3rd.

MATINEE AND NIGHT, SUNDAY, JANUARY 3rd

Wm A. Brady and Jos. R. Grismer, Bring

The Most Widely Successful and Most Talked About Drama in America

=The Man of the Hour=

GEORGE BROADHURST'S Vivid and Vital Play

WITH THE NEW YORK CAST

Including Cyril Scott, Harry Harwood, Rapley Holmes, James E. Wilson, William Deming, E. J. LeSint, Chas. Steadman, Albert Parker, T. F. Tracey, M. J. Cody, Basil West, Alma Powell, Marion Chapman & Kate Lester

Prices: Matinee, 25c, 50c, 75c, $1 Evening, 25c, 50c, 75c, $1, $1.50

Patti's Famous Hand colored Motion Pictures of

THE PASSION PLAY

COLONIAL THEATRE

83 State St.

2 Days Monday, December 28th Tuesday, December 29th

The entire set of pictures which show the Life of Christ from birth to ascension will be shown complete with lecture at each performance

MR. ROY DIETRICH will sing illustrated songs appropriate to the occasion.

ADMISSION ALWAYS 10 CENTS

THE PRINCESS

HAMMOND'S THEATRE BEAUTIFUL

A program of delightful entertainment interesting Men, Women and Children. It is worth the price of admission just to see the inside of the theatre. The popular place of amusement, when you are in Hammond don't fail to see the performance

FOLLOW THE CROWDS TO THE PRINCESS Only 5 cents Admission

CALUMET

SOUTH CHICAGO

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wed. December 27, 28, 29 and 30

CHARLES E. BLANEY

offers

The Famous Character Actor

Wm H. Turner as the Boss

and original Cast and Production

IN A POWERFUL PLAY OF LOVE AND POLITICS

"The Governor And The Boss"

.....More Laughs Than Many a Farce.....

Evenings and Sunday Matinees, 15-25-35-50c Wednesday and Saturday Matinees, 10-15-20-25c Sunday Nights, 25-35-50-75c

Boston Electric Shoe Repairing Company

Most modern shop in Northern Indiana. Equipped with electric machinery of the latest style. Repairing done neatly and promptly at the following prices:

Men's Soles, Sewed, - 60c Men's Heels, - - - 25c Ladies " - - - 45c Ladies " - - - 20c

ALL WORK GUARANTEED

404 E. State Street

Hammond, Indiana.