

THE LATEST IN FASHIONS

OUTING SAILOR AND SWEATER.

An ideal outing rig is shown here. With a short, smartly cut circular skirt of shepherd check mohair is worn a loose, cool, little blouse of tucked mull, and over the blouse is slipped a warm sweater. This is one of the new belted sweaters, which are particularly youthful and jaunty in style. The hat is a simple sailor, rolling up a bit at one side in this year's fashion.

HAMMOND MEN GO TO ATTEND SYNOD MEETING

A Hammond delegation composed of the Reverends Theodore Claus of the St. Paul's German Lutheran church, Henry Brauer of the North Side German Lutheran church, and Adam R. Ebert and Professors C. Linseman and F. Goehring of the St. Paul's German Lutheran school left for Laporte this morning to attend the Missouri synod there. The session opened this morning and will close Thursday evening. They expect to be back in Hammond by Friday noon.

Speaking of the synod, the Laporte Argus Bulletin says: "Every train today brought its quota of delegates to the Lutheran synod which convenes tomorrow. From all points of the compass they came to the wide open, welcoming arms of their local brethren. Many delegates are expected tonight, and probably by tomorrow morning the Lutheran body of Laporte will be playing the role of gracious host to nearly four hundred and fifty visitors."

The opening service was at 10 o'clock this morning in St. John's Lutheran church. Dr. Pieper of St. Louis, president of the Wisconsin synod and head of the Concordia Theological seminary, is programmed to deliver the opening address. Should he be unable to attend the session the address will be given by Rev. J. Miller of Fort Wayne, a vice president. Following the address, the credentials of the delegates, representing congregations in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, will be shown.

"Special music has been arranged for the social smoker which will be given Thursday night. The male choir and the mixed choir of St. John's and the Sociable orchestra will assist. This reception will take place on the school grounds, which will be brilliantly lighted by electric lights. Rev. Philip Warming of Fort Wayne will speak of the purpose of the Walther league in the development of the child."

SEVERAL GAMES OF PEDRO WERE PLAYED.

The evening and very attractive prizes were given to Mrs. Anna Hill and Mrs. Henry Burge. The gentlemen's prizes were awarded to Mr. Henry Burge and Mr. Wayman.
