AND GOES AFTER BOUT

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 4.—Tom McCarey, prize fight promoter, once rival of Jim Jeffries in the holding of boxing bouts here, this afternoon secured a permit to hold matches in Vernon, a suburb of Los Angeles. The permit was granted by the trustees of that city late this afternoon. This, with the fact that scores of local sports have pledged themselves in writing to purchase seats for the Jeffries-Johnson fight in case McCarey can land it, makes him believe he can get the bout.

"We will land the big fight for Los Angeles," he said. "Los Angeles sports want the fight here and we have the permission necessary now to pull it off. I am receiving so much encouragement that I feel certain I can get financial backing to any amount I need, and I shall make a determined effort to bring the biggest battle of modern times to Los Angeles."

Within two days many local fans have pledged themselves to purchase seats for the big mill at $100 a seat if McCarey lands the fight. He wants 4,000 such pledges and says he can get them.

In Johnson's recent utterances in Detroit he said that he was willing to box Jeffries at Los Angeles in case a suitable purse was offered. In case the men get together this week, McCarey says his bid will be waiting, offering either a percentage or a $50,000 purse.

It is not known yet whether McCarey will secure the arena formerly occupied by the Jeffries club near Vernon, but, although this has been allowed to fall into some disrepair, it is presumed he will do so. The club was recently on the market, but after considerable dickering the bids for it seemed to have fallen through. A real estate man took an option on the property and it is presumed McCarey has secured this.

HAMMOND WILL GO TO VALPARAISO

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 3.—Umpire Tim Hurst made the quickest exit from a ball park on record yesterday. Aside from the fact that the white sox dropped two straight to the Athletics, that rapid transit act of Timony's was the first liner. It was in the second game that Eddie Collins, the local second basemen, indulged in some spicely repartee with Hurst. Old Tim got angry and attempted to expel the player.

Out on the field at the game's end swarmed the maddened fans, intent on doing bodily harm to the veteran umpire. Almost, but not quite, as quickly came the coppers to his rescue. It was a foot race, with the fans on top of Hurst first. He received a couple of staggering blows on the back as he dashed to the protection of the law. A bluecoated coterie of bestarred bobbies surrounded him and rushed. The Hammond baseball team will clash with the Standards of Valparaiso at the latter's grounds next Sunday, August 8.
