

EAST CHICAGO AND INDIANA HARBOR

Miss Lillian Bothwell of Crown Point is visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Beach for a few days.

A crowd of East Chicago girls went to Robertsdale yesterday afternoon for a little picnic, taking their supper with them. The girls included Misses Lottie and Belle Donovan, Mabel Palmer, Myrtle Alexander, Lottie Ross and Mildred and Edith Evans.

W. H. Jepperson will take his family on Saturday to Sheffield, Ill., for a week's stay.

Mrs. Ella Sheets and Miss May Barnes leave on Saturday for two weeks' visit in Paw Paw Lake, Mich.

Alderman Albert Lewis and family have returned from California and the west after a month's vacation. They visited Los Angeles, San Francisco, Cal., and other western points.

Mrs. Abbie Saunders of Lowell, who has been in company with Miss Madeline Slocumb, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Slocumb for the past week, left yesterday for her home. Mrs. Saunders is Mr. Slocumb's mother and Miss Madeline is a niece of Mr. Slocumb.

Miss Maude Mitchell of North Olcott avenue left Saturday for Letonia, O., to visit her sister, whom she will bring back with her on her return trip. The latter lost her husband several months ago, he having been killed in an accident in the mill.

Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neill and their sister and Owen G. Reed were at Robertsdale last evening enjoying the fine bathing.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo McCormick of Beacon street are expecting a visit from Mr. McCormick's nephew, Vernie De Laetel of New Albany, Ind., who will arrive toward the end of the month.

Dan Ottenheimer, who is visiting his son, Abe Ottenheimer, this summer from Little Rock, Ark., is showing an interesting article printed in one of his home papers regarding some diamond mines located near Murfreesboro, Ark., his former home, which have been discovered there not so very long ago. Some fine specimens of this most precious of precious stones have been discovered in the mines and sent to expert diamond cutters in New York for cutting and polishing, and a syndicate has been formed to control the properties, which are regarded as very promising investment.

Mr. Ottenheimer talks interestingly on the excitement created in the locality following the announcement of the discovery.

Fred Flite has been on the sick list for a couple of days.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Scott and grandchildren, Florence and Frances Denham, of Whiting took supper last evening with Mrs. Mary Ross of Baring avenue.

Miss Lila Neibergall will visit her cousin, Miss Lottie Ross for a couple of weeks. She will arrive on Monday.

Jake Hagle, the butcher, employed in Williams' grocery store, is somewhat improved, and his physician believes the fever has been checked in time so that typhoid will not develop as at first feared. Mr. Hagle hopes to be able to return to his post next Saturday.

James R. Graham of Beacon street, who recently sold his home in that thoroughfare to John D. Jones, has purchased through the McCoy agency, which put through the Beacon street deal, two lots in Magoun avenue, south of the Methodist church. He intends to move a cottage in White Oak avenue, owned by him, onto these lots, and as soon as this is accomplished will take up his residence there.

Have you attended our spring opening? We save you money on every purchase. Spiegel, South Chicago's leading furniture store.

SPORTING NOTES

JEFFRIES SAILS AWAY YESTERDAY

New York, Aug. 6.—James J. Jeffries, the undefeated vaudeville performer, steamed away from here yesterday morning on the biggest German ship afloat.

Mrs. Jeffries went along, and room 212 was banked with floral displays made up of horseshoes and forget-me-nots and rosemary, and all the nosegays that appeal to fighters. There was a big "bunch" of sporting men that stuck to the saloon deck until the bell ordered everybody ashore.

Jim selected the George Washington for his voyage, and as long as George keeps the submarine signals and the wireless working a certain Johnson person need not worry about not receiving attention. Jeff was so busy thinking about that visit to Germany that it was hard to get him to talk English.

The big ship was crowded with men and women, some of whom were not there to see Jeff. It seems that a great many other persons were going abroad. The noise which is a peculiar by-product of Hoboken landed some interested parties to think that Jeffries was down somewhere in the hold of the ship. It was not so. The band, it developed, was out to bother some kind of an alderman who was leaving Hoboken to visit his relatives along the Rhine. That band was not there to tell Jeffries what he might expect when he landed on German soil.

Jeffries looked in fine fettle as he leaned over the rail and chatted with Dan O'Rourke, Melville and Hector McKenle of San Francisco, who were dark suits and a delicate blue silk four-in-hand. The only thing nautical about the big fellow was a straw sailor hat. He also wore a very becoming black cigar. Black seemed to have the best of Jeffries in his togethery, but there was no black mentioned in his brief answers.

"Where do you get to first?" Jeffries was asked.

"What's the name of that place, Jack? Oh, yes, I think it's Bremen."

"How many automobiles are you taking with you?"

"Quit your kidding. What would I do with one of those things? I am going to use these fellows as soon as I get on land again."

At this point Mr. Jeffries called attention to his foundations, which had escaped notice, owing to the excitement and everybody pushing.

"OH, IF THEY BUT WOULD"

If only the doves would linger here for a few more weeks. They furnish the best kind of a stepping stone for the champs, contributing two more to the cub fund yesterday at the west side precinct, 2 to 1 and 4 to 0. While the men of Chance were knocking down a duet of victories those superbas grabbed another from the pirates. As a result the cubs are only two and a half games in the rear at present.

Chicago had the dead wood on both the games. The score of the first might look close, but it wasn't. Old Mordecai Brown simply couldn't afford to lose. He had as his rival, one Richie, late of the Phillies. This old timer was primed for rough weather, but got off better than he expected, holding the cubs to only five hits. The doves used another ex-quaker in the second game, "Buster" Brown. He was pretty fair, but not in the same class as the Brown of our fair city. Pfeister shot against him, and with more deadly effect.

EVEN BREAK FOR SOX

Philadelphia, Aug. 6.—The white Sox broke even with the Athletics yesterday afternoon in the closing argument of the series at Sube park. Close to 18,000 fans turned out to watch the two teams battle to the finish. The Athletics won the first game by a score of 3 to 0, in which Frank Smith was worsted by "Cy" Morgan of the local staff. In the second game Jimmy Scott covered himself with all kinds of glory by shutting out the locals, 1 to 0.

WANTS SUNDAY GAME

The Griffith Juniors would like to secure a game with any team ranging between the ages of 12 and 15 years for next Sunday, August 8, to be played on their own grounds at Griffith. For games address H. H. Kruse, Griffith, Ind.

ST. LOUIS PROTESTS PIRATE VICTORY

Claim Pulliam Was Not Competent to Decide.

Pittsburg, Pa., August 6.—Taking the grounds that the late President Harry C. Pulliam was scarcely in a fit frame of mind to make an important decision, the St. Louis club today notified the Pittsburg club that it would contest the decision of Pulliam in which he disallowed the protest of St. Louis against awarding victory to Pittsburg in a game played in St. Louis June 24 and which was taken by Pittsburg 3 to 2. The St. Louis club will have the matter taken up with the board of directors.

"DANNY" WALSH PASSES AWAY

"Danny" Walsh, one of Chicago's best known followers of baseball, died at Mercer, Wis., after an illness of some length. The funeral services will be held tomorrow, in charge of the Lika.

HOT PRIZE FIGHT TAKES PLACE IN BURNHAM

The last three rounds were hot stuff, Kane going after Lavin in whirlwind fashion, which looked as though he was trying for a knockout. He came near getting it, too, several times. He kept the diamond dye works going and kept Lavin's head rocking. He floored him once and was an undoubted winner of the bout, although the referee declared it a draw, thereby bringing down the wrath of that whole bunch of sports on his head. It looked as if the referee would have to fight himself at once time, but things finally got quieted down, and the sports began to think of "when's the next car home?"

This Kane bids fair to make a name for himself in the near future if he handles himself as creditably as he did last night. And his manager, who by the way is a brother of Puckey McFarland, says that he is going to stick with that boy for all he has, as he is sure the lad is going to make himself known before long.

Kane will spar Ad Wolgast Sunday at Forest park, and great things may happen at that bout, and a bug will no doubt get his money's worth at that jabfest. But there is a whole herd of wild, untamed goats in Burnham today, as the good people of the town have awakened to the fact that there was something doing in the town which they were not in on.

The goat was heard using the word "law" an "arrest," but it is thought that he had been drinking and was mixed in his dates.

But just the same when that bunch of serious faced, determined looking sports began to collect it looked like old times in Burnham before the pinching bug got out of its cage.

GOTCH APPEARS IN HOGAN BENEFIT

Mat Champion Will Take Part in Program.

Frank Gotch wired from Humboldt, Iowa, yesterday that he would come on and wrestle anybody the promoters of the Hogan testimonial could get to face him on August 20, when the big event planned for the veteran referee will be held at the American league ball park. Colonel Henry Visser, the big Boer, who is now down in Indiana, has offered to come up and probably will be asked to exchange grips with Gotch.

NELSON SUES HOTEL

Asks $10,000 Damages From Philadelphia Hostelry.

Philadelphia, Aug. 6.—"Battling" Nelson, the lightweight boxer, through his attorney, E. Waring Wilson, today began suit in the United States district court to recover $10,000 damages from the Bellevue-Stratford hotel. The action is based on alleged illegal discrimination indicated by the action of the Bellevue-Stratford management in twice refusing to provide the prize fighter with accommodations at the hotel. In the bill of allegations, filed at noon today by Nelson's attorney, the fighter alleges that the action of the Bellevue-Stratford in refusing to have him as a guest has influenced other hotels in other cities to discriminate against him, and that the action of the management has injured and brought him "into public scandal, injury and disgrace."

NOTED RACE TRACK ABANDONED

Laporte, Ind., Aug. 6.—The famous Howard county, Indiana race track, representing an investment of $50,000 and over, which it was hoped to make one of the best known in the United States, has been finally abandoned. The grand stand and barns are being torn down and the track is being permitted to grow up in grass and weeds.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.

People in this vicinity testify to this. Julius Plewikiewicz, 141 One Hundred and Nineteenth street, Whiting, Ind., says: "My kidneys were badly disordered about a year ago, the secretions being of a dark color and accompanied by great pain in passage. Being on my feet continually during the day began to tell on me and my friends often spoke of my poor condition. I realized that I would have to find some medicine that would remove this trouble or I would soon be obliged to give up my work. One of my customers advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, as he believed them to be just what my system required. I procured a box and the prompt and effective relief I received from their use was gratifying. In a couple of weeks I began to feel better than I had for months and after taking Doan's Kidney Pills for some time, I was like a new man. I have enjoyed excellent health since. "NIGHT RIDING"

AT WINDSOR

Alleged Crooked Work Being Investigated.

Detroit, Aug. 6.—An ingenious "night riding" scheme to destroy the winning chances of race horses is being investigated by the Canadian turf exchange, which is meeting at Windsor, Ont., this week. The alleged scheme of the "night riders" is said to have been to secretly take likely winners out of the stalls the night before a race and run them around the track until the animals were exhausted. The result would be no speed for the next day. This practice is said to have started at Hamilton, Ont., at the opening of the race meeting this year.

BLACKBURN TO TAKE A REST

Injury to Leg Lays Short-stop Up.

Providence, R. I., Aug. 6.—Dr. M. H. Mahoney, in whose care Shortstop Russell Blackburn of the Providence Eastern league team has been since the team returned from Montreal, made a formal statement regarding Blackburn's injury tonight. Dr. Mahoney stated that the X-ray photograph of Blackburn's leg shows that the injury to the bone will lay him up for three weeks. The position of the bone will allow quick recovery. The doctor put a plaster bandage on the leg and the shortstop is going back to his home to rest.

TO BUILD 5-MILE MOTORDROME

Plans Under Way for Track Near New York.

New York, Aug. 6.—The success of the recent twenty-four hour automobile races at Brighton Beach has given impetus to a movement to build a five-mile motordrome for automobile racing within a short distance of this city. It is reported that options have been secured on a suitable site, but the exact location will not be made public until the plans are more fully developed. The new track will cost between $250,000 and $400,000, will be patterned after the one now building near Indianapolis, and it is reported that some of the promoters of that track are interested in the enterprise here.
